Obituary

Eugene Benjamin Suitt was born to the late James Suitt and Flora Moore Suitt on May 5, 1919, in Granville County, North Carolina. He departed this life on Friday, January 27, 2006 at his home in Creedmoor, North Carolina.

As a member of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, Eugene served as a Sunday School teacher, president of the Usher Board and as a trustee for many years. He was a member of Doric Masonic Lodge #28 of Durham, North Carolina.

Eugene was a master barber who began cutting hair when he was a boy. He graduated from Bull City Barber College in 1947 and began his career after purchasing Friendly City Barber Shop in Durham, North Carolina from his instructor. When urban renewal came to the Haiti area the barber shop was moved to 2512 Fayetteville Street, where he cut hair until he retired in 1987. He was a member of and for many years he served on the executive board of the North Carolina Negro Master Barber's Association.

Although he was a master barber, he remained a farmer at heart. Even during his illness when he could no longer farm, he would have James Moore to come and till a garden for him. After growing all those vegetables, he could never understand why his "city" nieces and nephews would never come to harvest them.

Being a member of the Durham Outboard Boating Club was a highlight of his life. He enjoyed fishing at Buggs Island, Virginia and usually brought home lots of fish for Blanche to cook.

He is survived by his devoted and faithful wife of sixty-two years, Blanche Harris Suitt; one son, John Milton Moore, Washington Township, NJ; two grandsons, Barry Moore and Danny Moore both of New Jersey; one great grandson, Brandon Grimes, New Jersey; one sister, Pollie Suitt Faison, Creedmoor, NC; two sisters-in-law, Geneva Suitt, Oxford, NC and Myrtle Suitt, Creedmoor, NC; a special niece, Josephine Burt, who was very attentive throughout his illness; a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

The Home Beyond

*We are so sad when those we love are called to live in the home above,
But why should we grieve when they say good-bye
and go to dwell in a cloudless sky,
For they have but gone to prepare the way
and we'll join them again some happy day.*

Come my child, your work is done,
The race is over, the battle is won,
your place in heaven has been secured,
Your burden lifted, you have endured,
As a beacon shines, sox your life had been led,
For those who die in Christ are never dead,
Sleep on Ella, you've earned your rest.
We loved you so much, but God loved you best.
