Sketch of Life

Miss Donnie Mae Maness, daughter of the late Flossie Spruell Maness and John Maness, was born August 20, 1920, in Moore County, North Carolina. Her fruitful life on this earth ended Friday, April 9, 2004, at Pinelake Rehabilitation Center in Carthage, North Carolina.

Donnie Mae was a very faithful and active member of New Zion A.M.E. Zion Church in Robbins, North Carolina. Over the years, she was a Sunday school teacher, usher, stewardess board member, and a member of the Women's Home and Overseas Missionary Society.

To some she was our "Aunt Donnie", to others she was our "Don Don". Aunt Donnie, Don Don, was a cheerful and loving woman who was always willing to go that extra mile to help her family meet their needs. She was also a caring and concerned member of the community, and she helped others in whatever way she could. She enjoyed gardening, cooking, and fishing. She was a positive influence on others and her sense of humor entertained many.

Thank You, Lord, for the years You allowed Aunt Donnie, Don Don, to dwell among us and touch our lives so beautifully. May the shining example of her life be a beacon to draw us closer.

Aunt Donnie, Don Don, leaves to cherish her memories: seven children, Joyce Shamberger (Vergil) of Robbins, Alton Spruell (Anita) of Ft. Washington, MD, the Reverend John L. Frye, Jr. (Denise) of Aiken, SC, Martha Baker (Tom) of Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, Mary Erwin (John) of Burlington, NC, Tonia Dunn of Garner, NC, and DeJuana Brooks of Robbins; 15 grandchildren, Shante', Ashley, Shenika, Erica, Imani, Lawrence, Vergil, Jerrelle, Arsenio, Mary, Julia, Sam, Will, Jack, and John; special friends, John L. Frye, Sr. and Betty Morphis; cherished friend, Beulah Barrett; and a host of other relatives and friends.
