

*God sent an Angel down to earth
 A woman there was dying
 She had lived her life for God,
 Of this there was no denying.
 God told the Angel "bring her home"
 So she can be with me"
 Here in heaven she will live throughout eternity.
 Then God told other angels
 "You must go there too"
 Her family loved her so very much
 And they have a need for you.
 Their hearts are filled with sorrow their eyes are filled with tears,
 So help them to find comfort in knowing
 She is here
 Show them the decision to take her now was mine
 Let them know I love them too, and they'll join her here in time. We love you.*

Obituary

Leah Miller Horton "Grannie" was born on October 30, 1922 to the late George and Pammie Miller in Chatham County. She had 3 brothers and two sisters. Two brothers and one sister preceded her in death. Our loving friend, nurturer and caretaker departed this life on Friday, January 31, 2003. Full of love and life and kind words for those whom she knew and loved, she will leave many to cherish those warm memories that were created during her 80 years of life.

"Grannie" was united in marriage to the late George Horton, Jr on July 5, 1941 and they were both members of what is now Wesley Chapel Christian Fellowship Church in Siler City, NC. To this union were born 4 children, one daughter Joy Horton departed this life in 1963, and one son, Thomas "Sonny" Horton in 2002.

"Grannie" will most certainly be missed by more people than we could possibly list, however her two daughters Faye (R.L.) Walden of Bennett, NC, Ann (Curtis) Baldwin of Greensboro, NC, one sister, Beatrice Foxx and one brother Hoy Miller. She also leaves to forever cherish her memory, seven grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews and an abundance of friends and loved ones.

When God came and took our Mother away

He didn't ask us if was okay.

He just reached down and took her hand

And led her to a better land.

He took away that radiant smile on her face

And just left memories in its place.

Her heart of gold is also gone

It went with her when He took her home.

Now, its hard to go on from here

Because He took away the one we loved so dear.

He gave us no time to say our last goodbyes

As you were quickly snatched from our lives

She was a wonderful mother, grandmother,

sister and friend

A special trait she carried with her to the end

If all it took to bring her back was our shedded tears, she would certainly still be here

But now as that chapter of her life closes

We grant her last desire to be covered with a spray of roses

God has already fitted her with wings to take flight

When He took her away on that cold rainy night.

It's time for our mother to take her final rest

Even though we loved you, God loved you best.
