Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

FAMILY TRIBUTE

On Tuesday, October 19, 1993, God dispatched an Angel of Mercy to the bedside of Hazel G. Marsh and whispered "You have fought a good fight, you have kept the faith, you have finished your course and now there is laid up for you a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, has prepared for you".

Hazel was born February 12, 1916 in Falls Church, Virginia, to the late Delia and James Jones. Christian Education was a must in the Jones family, so at age 16, Hazel was baptized by the late Rev. George W. Powell.

On June 24, 1942, Hazel was joined in holy matrimony to David Marsh from Boulee, N. C. From this union four children were born, Mrs. Vivien L. Jackson, David Marsh, Jr., Mrs. Geneva L. Jackson and Brenda I. Marsh. She was a devoted wife for 51 years, a loving mother and a good friend to many.

She was never too busy to serve God and her church. In July, 1980, Hazel was recommended and accepted as a Deaconess of Second Baptist Church. Illness interrupted her church going activities, however, she always enjoyed hearing of the progress of the church.

In addition to her devoted husband, one son and three daughters, surviving are a devoted sister, Mrs. Dorothy L. Lewis, 8 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren, 1 daughter-in-law, 4 sisters-in-law, 5 brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, adopted daughters, other relatives and friends.

Our love will go on forever.
