

Flower Bearers

Friends of the Family

Pall Bearers

NAACP

Don't Cry

Don't cry my love, for I am at peace.

Don't Cry my sisters, for brother is resting.

Don't cry my children, for daddy has gone home.

Don't cry my grandchildren, for Papa suffers NO more.

Don't cry my family, for I am in your hearts and memories.

But my love..., But Graham..., But daddy..., But Papa...,

If you see a tear it is because we love you and miss you dearly.

And if you see a smile it is because we know

God called your name.

The Family (written by Janis)

Acknowledgment

With sincere appreciation, we wish to thank our many friends for their expressions of kindness during our bereavement for our loved one. May God Bless Each of You.

The Marsh Family

Services Entrusted to:

Knotts & Son Funeral Home

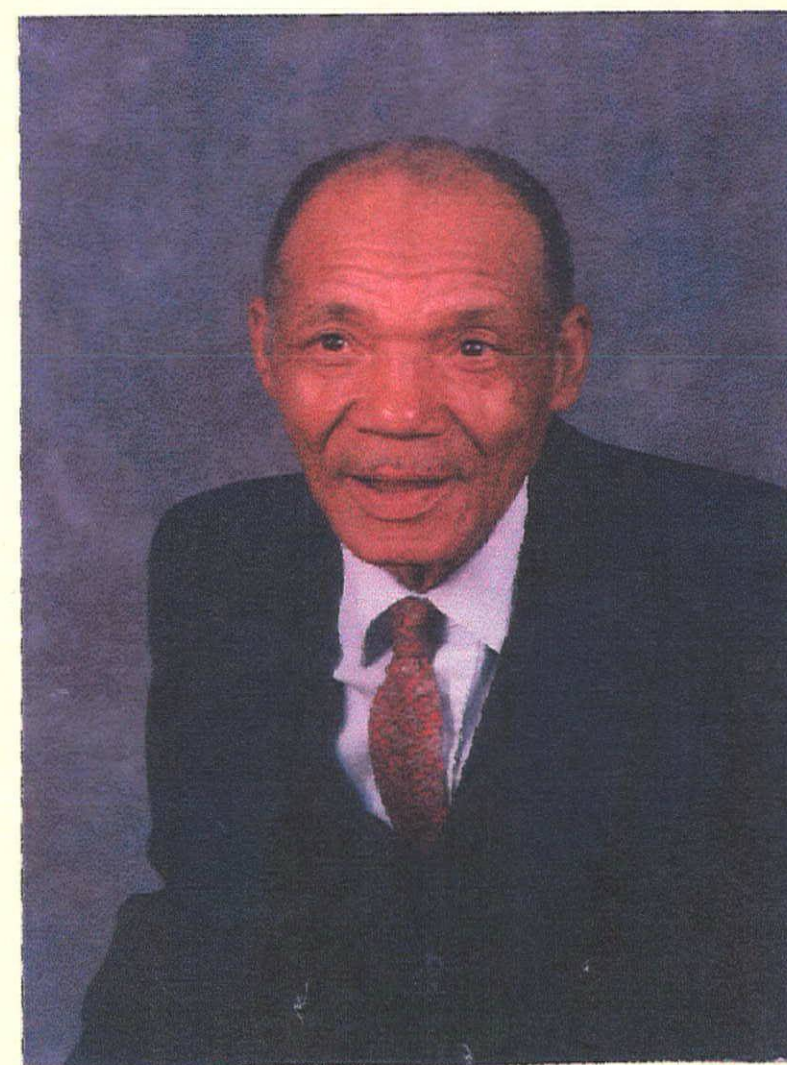

(919) 742 - 4602

JSK Printshop (919) 284 - 5521

HOMEGOING CELEBRATION

of a life well lived for

Mr. Graham Goldston Marsh

1922 - 2000

Saturday, January 8th, 2000

at 2:00 pm

Mt. Calvary Holiness Church

578 Stockyard.Rd.

Siler City, N.C. 27344

Elder Coralee McIver

officiating

Mr. Graham Goldston Marsh
August 24, 1922 - January 3, 2000

The Obituary

Graham G. Marsh, the son of the late Hattie Sutton Marsh and Augusta Marsh was born in Siler City, NC on August 24, 1922, and departed this life on January 3, 2000 at Central Carolina Hospital, Sanford, NC.

Graham joined Harris Grove Missionary Baptist Church at an early age and remained a faithful member, until he was affiliated with Mt. Calvary Holiness Church in Siler City. He held many offices, usher, deacon, superintendent of Sunday School, and Pastor steward.

He was a remarkable man, a quiet, gentle, giant of a man who tried to right the things that he thought were wrong. For the past five years Graham listen to the voice of God. He shared the message of hope to those he came in contact with. He loved to study God's word, and shared the good news to his sisters, nieces, nephews and friends.

Graham attended Chatham County School before going into the army in 1942. He attended UNC Chapel Hill and received a certificate in Small Business. Graham was an active member of the NAACP, and the American Legion Post 283. He retired from Kellwood after 28 years of service as a truck driver. He was the founder and owner of G.G. Marsh & Sons Lawnmowing service.

In 1956 he was married to a wonderful woman, Hazel Marsh. Side by side they shared a life with their five children. They taught them life long values. Those who remain to remember this soft spoken, thoughtful man: his wife Hazel Marsh; Five children and their special friends: Dennis Marsh (Dephine Freer) of Rocky Mount, NC; Phil Marsh (Renee Brooks) of the home; Todd Marsh of Burlington, NC; Janis Marsh (Shelly Marsh) of Middlesex, NC; and Kenneth Marsh (Patricia Newby) of the home. Three grandsons Kelly Marsh of Middlesex, NC; Darius and Kelsie Marsh (Ruthie Dowdy, mother) of Sanford, NC; Three sisters Ruby and Elga Marsh, and Audrey White all of Siler City, NC. One sister-in-law Elder Coralee McIver (Philmore) of Bear Creek; two brothers-in-law Lewis Marsh of Pittsboro, NC and Lincoln Marsh (Jerlean) of Augusta Ga.; and a special nephew Glen Douglas McIver of Bear Creek, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Order of Service

Presiding

Elder Coralee McIver

Processional

Selection

Mt. Nebo Church Choir

Scripture

Old testament 23 Psalms

Elder Carolyn Woodle

New testament Rev. 21: 1-7

Elder Rebecca Brewer

Prayer of Consolation

Elder Dean Staley

Solo

Sis. Brenda Foxx

Acknowledgements & Obituary

Sis. Debbie Dorsett

Expressions & Remarks

Visiting Ministers

Solo

Deacon Leroy Farrar

Eulogy

Elder Frankie Woodle

Mt. Nebo Holy Church

New Jersey

Selection

Mortician in Charge

Recessional

Interment

Chatham Memorial Pk.

514 East Third St.

Siler City, NC

2nd Gen. 500-10
Subm. on