

Mother

- Mercy:* for teaching us that His grace and mercy will bring you through
- Obedience:* being obedient to the Word of God is the key to entering the Kingdom of Heaven
- Trials:* for teaching us that trials and tribulations may come but give them to God and He will take care of them
- Honor:* honor thy father and thy mother and your days may be longer
- Endurance:* the race is not given to the swift but to the one who endureth until the end
- Respect:* for teaching us to respect others and treat them the same as we wish to be treated

Thank you, Mother
Joyce and Lindale

Floral Bearers

Carolyn Brim
Brenda Harris
La Tonya Moore
Linda Taylor
Friends of the family

Pall Bearers

Auburn Chandler
Freddy Cotton
Demond Harris
Percy Reaves
Bobby Tyndall
Robert Williams

From the Family

The family of Mrs. Dorothy Reaves Leak wishes to express with deepest appreciation and sincere gratitude, a thank you for the many acts of kindness shown during the illness and death of our loved one. May God continue to richly bless you.

Professional Services Entrusted To:
Knotts Funeral Home
Pittsboro, North Carolina 27312

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9:7

Home Going Service

For

Mrs. Dorothy Reaves Leak

June 13, 1936

April 22, 2005

Sunrise

Sunset

Tuesday, April 26, 2005

2:00 p.m.

St. Matthews AME Zion Church

Pittsboro, North Carolina

Rev. Gloria Moore, Pastor

zika

Program

Prelude.....	Soft Music
Processional
Scripture Reading
Old Testament
New Testament
Prayer of Comfort
Acknowledgements &
Obituary.....	Frances R. Nettles
Selection	Mrs. Mildred Brooks
Eulogy.....	Rev. Gloria Moore
Selection.....	Mrs. Ola French
Recessional

Interment in Church Cemetery

Obituary

Mrs. Dorothy Reaves Leak, of Pittsboro, North Carolina entered into eternal rest April 22, 2005. Born June 15, 1936, Mrs. Leak was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herman Page and Mr. James Watson.

"Dot-Dot" as she was lovingly called was a very special wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend. She loved her family, her friends and her church. As a member of St. Matthews AME Zion Church, she was a past president of the Senior Usher Board, was past director of the Junior Usher Board and a life member of the Missionary Society.

Dot-Dot was a "giver." She gave her time to the sick and shut in. She gave her love to others in the time of storm. She gave words of encouragement needed on a bad day. She opened her doors when your luck was down. She gave freely and never asked for anything in return. She was recognized, by many, as the best around to promote ticket sales and fundraising, whether for the church or community. She supported the Salvation Army by collecting and distributing food, toys and clothing for those in need.

Her favorite pastime was B I N G O. She loved the game, traveling far and near, rain, sleet or snow.

Obituary (continued)

She leaves to cherish her memories, her loving and devoted husband, Willie Clinton Leak; her daughters: Ms. Joyce Wilson, and Frances Nettles; her sons, Clinton Lindale Leak (Angie), Paul Watson (Constance); grandchildren: Lynette (Gerald); Kendrick (Jennifer); Phyllis; Pamela; JR; Eric and Brandon. 8 great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Patricia Phillips (Horace), Hempstead, NY; two brothers: Haywood Page (Mary) and Theodore Page (Virginia); an aunt: Mrs. Delois Reaves; an uncle; Mr. Edward Reaves (Elizabeth) and a host of other relatives and friends.

B I N G O

Blessing	for teaching us that having family is a blessing and should always be cherished
Inspiration	for the inspiration and encouragement given to all of us down through the years
Nurturing	for the nurturing, motherly love you have shown to family and friends
God	for teaching us that God is our strength when we are weak
Outstanding:	for the many kind deeds that you performed for the community