"Miss Me, But Let Me Go"

*When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?*

Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared, miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone.

It's all part of the master's plan, a step on the way to home.

*When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, miss me, but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sang a lovely song, or said a silent prayer; Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke a kind word as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us that day. Whatever you've done to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

*Sincerely From Our Hearts,
The Burnette Family*

Obituary

Andrea Dawn Burnette, daughter of Roy and Phyllis Burnette, was born May 2, 1967 in Washington, DC. She departed this life November 2, 2005 at Highland Hospital at the age of 38.

As a youth, Andrea joined New Bethel CME Church and she attended Franklin High School in Rochester, New York.

She would be best remembered as a kindred spirit who always opened her heart to anyone in need.

She leaves to mourn: her parents Roy and Phyllis; children, Kashara, De'ja, Danielle, Terri and Lamar; a sister, Kimberly Burnette; grandparents, Homer & Rosa Marsh of Siler City, North Carolina and Otis & Ruth of Goldston, North Carolina; and a host of other loving relatives and friends

For All Parents

"I'll lend you for a little time,
A child of mine," God said,
"For you to love while she lives,
And mourn when she is dead.
It may be six or seven years,
Or 22 or three:
But will you, till I call her back,
Take care of her for me?
She'll bring her charms to gladden you,
And shall her stay be brief,
You'll have her lovely memories
As solace for your grief.
I cannot promise she will stay
Since all from Earth return;
But there are lessons taught down there
I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over
In my search for teachers true,
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes
I have selected you.
Now will you give her all your love,
Nor think the labor vain;
Nor hate me when I come to call,
To take her back again?"
I fancied that I heard them say,
"Dear Lord, Thy will be done;
For all the joy Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter her with tenderness,
We'll love her while we may;
And for the happiness we've known,
Will ever grateful stay.
But shall the angels call for her
Much sooner than we planned;
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand!"
