

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, If so, we saw it there
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friends could say
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day
Whatever you did, whatever your part, We prayerfully Thank you for consoling our hearts

The Obituary

Daisy Mildred Brooks Price was born to the late Lizzie Harris Brooks and the late Edgar Brooks on the sixteenth of December, nineteen hundred and twenty one in Pittsboro, North Carolina. She was the second eldest of five children. Daisy married Robert S. Price and together they relocated to Siler City, North Carolina. She had four children whom she adored: Bobby, Judy, Eddie, and Terry.

Daisy was deeply devoted to her children. She was a doting grandmother who was affectionately called "Big Mama". She enjoyed spending time with family and she found great pleasure in gardening and visits with friends.

While her children were young, Daisy stayed home to provide care for her family and later in life she worked as a nursing assistant until she retired.

Her passing leaves a void that shall always remain with those who loved her dearly; yet, happy, cheerful, treasured memories will forever prevail to fill the void. On Wednesday, August 23, 2006 our precious mother was called home to be with the Lord.

She was preceded in death by:

Her beloved husband, Robert S. Price; Her Son, Wallace Edward Price; Grandson, John Robert (JR) Price; and Brother George Brooks.

Those left to cherish her memory are:

Three children; Bobby and Sandra Price of Siler City, Judy and Arnold Sessoms of Jamestown, and Terry and Venna Price of Siler City
Grandchildren: Debbie Hardee, J. Wyndy Webb Doanes, Melissa Price, Josef Price, Dorian P. McLean, Crystal Miller, and Colby Price
Great-grandchildren: Madison and Michael Hardee, Grace Price, JaShon McLean, and Ian Doanes.

Three Sisters: Maggie Lake, Bernice Perry, and Patty Richardson all of Pittsboro N.C., and a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends.

While Waiting for Thee

Don't weep at my grave,
For I am not there,
I've a date with a butterfly
To dance in the air.
I'll be singing in the sunshine,
Wild and free,
Playing tag with the wind,
While I'm waiting for Thee.
