

Eulogistic Services

for

Mrs. Pansy Tuck Mason

Pall Bearers

Masonic Lodge Light of the World No. 711

Honorary Floral Bearers

Saint Lukes, and Senior Citizens

Lambert Chapel Baptist Church
Siler City, North Carolina

Thursday, April 10, 1975
3:00 P.M.

Rev. D. F. Brown, Pastor

FARRAR FUNERAL HOME SERVICE
SILER CITY, N. C.

Order of Service

Prelude

Processional

Hymn ..... "My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less"

Scripture

Prayer

Hymn ..... "My Faith Looks Up to Thee"

Remarks

Acknowledgments ..... Mrs. Bernice Jordan

Obituary ..... (Soft Music) ..... Read silently

Sermon ..... Rev. D. F. Brown

Mortician in charge

Recessional

Interment ..... Church Cemetery

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation every kind expression of sympathy to them during the sad hours they are now passing through.

We ask for your prayers after today.

Your thoughtfulness will long be remembered.

Obituary

Mrs. Pansy Tuck Mason, daughter of the late Scott Tuck and Carolina Reives Tuck, was born January 1, 1898; she was called from labor to reward on April 7, 1975.

September 5, 1928, she was united in marriage to the late Rev. John W. Mason.

Early in life she professed hope in Christ and joined Roberts Chapel Baptist Church, Goldston. After her marriage she joined Lambert Chapel.

Mrs. Mason was never one to proclaim so much but lived a quiet even life, but performing her duties as a Christian. She was affiliated with the Saint Luke Fraternal Order, Foster Council No. 1668. Chatham County Senior Citizen Club and Triangle J Program.

Survivors: one son Ardentries Mason, a foster-daughter Miss Linnie Mason of the home, 3 step-daughters, Mrs. Betty Cobbs of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. Cora Register and Mrs. Cara Paige of 703 Ellington Rd. Sister Mrs. Lula Tuck Steele of Greensboro, and one brother, Mr. Alton Tuck of Durham. Nine Grandchildren 11 great-grandchildren, nine step-grandchildren, and six step-great-grandchildren.