

Comfort

*Another leaf has fallen,
Another soul has gone
But still we have God's promises
In every robin's song:
For He is in His Heaven
And though He takes away
He always leaves to mortals
The bright sun's kindly ray.
He leaves the fragrant blossoms
And lovely forests, green,
And gives us new found comfort
When we on Him will lean.*

Obituary

LUCILLE PRYOR was born on August 15, 1913 in Siler City, North Carolina. She was one of eight siblings born to the parents of Erving and Lula Headen. She was a member of Gee's Grove Methodist Church of Siler City, North Carolina. Lucille also attended Gee's Grove Church School.

In 1950, Lucille came to New York City and was united with the late Shelley Pryor for twenty-four years. From this union, they produced a daughter, Janice Elizabeth Pryor-Burke. Lucille was a devoted housewife and mother to her family. Lucille was a dedicated grandmother to Dichelle, James, Nadirah, Khabeer, Carmen; and also a dedicated great-grandmother to Malik and Bo.

Prior to her recent illness, Lucille was a resident of the Red Oak Apartments in Manhattan. She was also an active member of the Manhattan Valley Community Center. She often lent a helping hand to its tenants on a daily basis.

The Lord called Lucille on May 12, 1999 from the Jewish Home and Hospital, Bronx, New York.

She is mourned by: one daughter, Janice of New York; five grandchildren, Dichelle, James, Nadirah, Khabeer and Carmen; two great-grandchildren, Malik and Bo of New York; two sisters, Virginia Siler of Michigan, and Alberta Page of North Carolina; two brothers-in-law, Obert Siler of Michigan and W. D. Page of North Carolina; two sisters-in-law, Lubirtha Pryor of Louisiana and Dorothy Pryor of New York, and a host of relatives and friends.
