The weary hours, the little pains; The sleepless nights are passed,
The ever patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last."*

In Loving Memory . . .

What Makes A Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,

The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagles flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it - - Dad

"Granddad"

How can we repay
The debt of gratitude we owe,
For your thoughtful ways
And for the generosity you showed,
The Understanding things you said
And joy you spread wherever you went,
Made you cherished more each day
And Loved more than you'll ever know.
Granddad, we love you and will never forget the memories of you and all the times we shared.
Love you forever,
The Grandchildren

Daddy,

You have given your family a priceless gift - A strong foundation of pride and determination that's prepared us to meet life head-on.

With the strength of your values and the tenderness of your love, you've equipped us for whatever fate may hold in store. . .

The only way we can ever hope to thank you is to try to live life as fully and as beautifully as you have lived yours.
