"Tomorrow Never Comes"

If I knew it would be the last time,
 That I'd see you fall asleep,
 I would tuck you in more tightly
 And pray the Lord your soul to keep
 If I knew it would be the last time,
 That I see you walk out the door,
 I would give you a hug and a kiss,
 And call you back for just one more
 If I knew it would be the last time
 I'd hear your voice lifted up in praise,
 I would tape each word and action,
 And play them back throughout my days.
 If I knew it would be the last time,
 I would spare an extra minute or two,
 To stop and say, "I love you" instead of assuming you know I do.
 So just in case tomorrow never comes,
 And today is all I get,
 I'd like to say how much I love you,
 And I hope we never will forget
 Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, young or old alike
 And today may be the last chance, you get to hold your loved one tight.
 So if you're waiting for tomorrow, why not do it today?
 For if tomorrow never comes, you'll surely regret the day
 That you didn't take that extra time
 For a smile, a hug or a kiss,
 And you were too busy to grant someone
 What turned out to be their one last wish,
 So hold your loved ones close today,
 And whisper in their ear,
 Tell them you love them very much,
 And you'll always hold them dear.
 Take time to say, "I'm sorry", "Please forgive me." "Thank you," or "It's OK."
 And if tomorrow never comes
 You'll have no regrets about today.

Memorial Reflections

A light from our household is gone
A voice once heard is still
A place is vacant in our home,
That never can be filled.

William Calvin White, Jr. departed this life on March 26, 2004 at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill, North Carolina at the age of 57. Calvin was born in Siler City, North Carolina on July 27, 1946 to the late William White, Sr. and Virginia Gray White.

He was a graduate of Chatham High School. At an early age he gave his life to the Lord and joined Pine Hill United Church of Christ. He sang in the Junior Choir and served on the Usher Board. Calvin loved his church and always wanted to do a cook out for the church family.

After high school he went to work for C.R. Perry Poultry Company and became a truck driver. Calvin also drove for Piedmont Poultry Company of Bonlee, NC for many years. At the time of his death, Calvin drove for Turner Hargrave Logging and Trucking Company. Driving was one of his favorite things he loved to do.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Virginia Gray White, of the home; his son, Delfus Mason (Teresa), of Siler City, NC; two grandchildren, Shari and Quincy Mason, of Siler City, NC; three aunts, Daisy G. Alston of Siler City, NC, Georgia Rodgers and Charlotte White, both of Graham, NC; two uncles, Hurley Gray, Jr. of Siler City, NC and Ezekil White of Graham, NC; two great uncles, Glen Gray of Salisbury, NC and C.B. Gray (Martha), of Siler City, NC; one great aunt, Nellie Mae Glover of Siler City, NC and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

The Best

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be,
 So he put His arms around you and whispered "Come To Me"
 With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away.
 Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
 A Golden Heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest,
 God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

With All Our Love
 Mom, Dale, Teresa, Shai and Quincy
