From the Grandchildren

*Losing him is a great loss to us
He was strong as a lion, yet sweet as a dove
His love for his family and friends never faded away.*

When we were down he would always say Something to make us laugh, which always worked.

No matter how sick we were or how bad we hurt

*He worked all day and slept at night
I know he was happy because working was his life*

We know death is a part of life that we cannot change

Even though it carries a load of heartache and pain

But with God's help, we will make it thru We will always miss you, Granddaddy, and will always love you.

Obituary

On Friday afternoon, August 11, 1995, Daddy was doing one of his favorite chores for his daughter. God in His wise wisdom decided Ross needed to rest so He called him from labor to reward to be home with Him.

ROSS BREWER, the son of the late Myrtle Brown Brewer and Julius Brewer, Sr., was born in Chatham County on June 3, 1928.

At an early age he joined Gees Grove AME Zion Church. He later changed his membership to Glovers Grove AME Zion Church, where he remained a faithful member until his death. He was a preacher steward for many years, and chairman of the trustee board. He was also a member of the Morning Stars Choir.

Ross was a retired Supervisor of Mid State Poultry where he worked for many years. He also worked part-time for Sheffield Lumber & Pallet Co.

Memories of Ross will be cherished by his wife, Irene Alston Brewer; his four daughters: Madeline Watson of Siler City; Lula M. Dowdy, Ella Taylor, and Diana Degraffenreidt, all of Goldston, N.C.; two sons: Ross Brewer Jr. and Rodney Brewer, both of Siler City; one sister, Lula Mae Brewer of Greensboro; sons-in-law: Rev. Clyde Watson, Wallace Dowdy, and James E. Taylor; daughter-in-law, Angie Glover Brewer; aunts: Flossie Eubank and Annie Newby; 12 grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.

*You are not forgotten loved one Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As times go by we'll miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can ever fill your place.*
