

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you
for a little while,
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow
to you through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do
all things the same,
feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways,
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never
be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

OBITUARY

Mrs. Annie Mae Jordan Foxx

Annie Mae Jordan Foxx, daughter of the late Marion and Betty Jordan, was born April 17, 1892. She departed this life August 29, 1991 in Chatham Hospital, Siler City, N.C.

She joined Lambert Chapel Baptist Church and was a faithful and loving worker until age and health would not permit her to attend. She was a loving homemaker and mother.

She was united in marriage to the late George W. Foxx, and to this union was born six children, Joseph Foxx, who preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: three sons, Willie S. Foxx, Bear Creek, N.C., Ralph Foxx of the home, and Ray Foxx, South Carolina, two daughters, Mattie Lee Foxx Miller, Bear Creek, N.C., and Lucille Foxx McQueen of Asheboro, N.C.. One sister, Mrs. Edna Jordan Burnette of Siler City, N.C. Twenty three grand children, thirty eight great grand children, and eighteen great, great grand children - nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
