Obituary

*And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
Revelations 21:4*

Sarah Beatrice Freeman Womble was born in Bertie County on August 24, 1932 to the late William D. Freeman and Soloanie Wilson Freeman. She went to be with the Lord on November 12, 2004. Sarah's primary education took place in Bertie County, NC. She skipped a grade in elementary school and was salutatorian of her Senior Class. Her secondary education took place at several universities. She received a BS from Elizabeth City State University, two graduate degrees from New York University and non-degree credits from various colleges. She was an academic scholar.

Sarah worked in NYC as a teacher and Education Director, in SC as a teacher and there she implemented a compensatory reading program. She retired in 1997. Sarah was an advocate for children and education. Sarah tutored students at First Calvary Baptist Church.

Sarah was a faithful member of First Calvary Baptist Church in Sanford, NC and a member of Lillie Akins Missionary Circle and the Senior Choir. She loved her church family. She was preceded in death by one sister, Fancy Ruth Freeman Holoman, one brother, Joseph Freeman and one daughter, Carol Womble.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, Rev. Bobby Womble; two daughters, Deborah Womble and Cynthia Womble Thomas; two grandsons, Morris L. Thomas, Jr. and Bobby D. Thomas; two sisters, Mary Freeman Outlaw and Bettie Freeman Reaves; two half-brothers, Little Joe Epps and Bennie Bond; four sisters-in-law, Hattie Mae Freeman, Virginia Bush, Dorothy Thompson and Annette Womble; three brothers-in-law, John Womble, Lushion Womble and Hubert Reaves, Sr.; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and friends.

Mom, we love you but God loves you best.
So sleep on sweet mommy and take your rest.

*She is just away,
In a land of light and peace,
Where warmth and love abound
And worldly difficulties cease...*

*She is just away,
But her memory remains
And the love she left within your heart
Will help to ease your pain.*
