Obituary

Mrs. Queen Esther Marsh Price, daughter of the late William Marsh and Virginia Marsh, was born September 19, 1910 in Richmond, Virginia. She departed on January 1, 2006.

She was a wonderful mother and grandmother to all and a virtuous lady.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Cleveland G. Price and three daughters, Catherine Price, Mozelle Foxx and Ethel Mae Alston.

She was raised in Chatham County, North Carolina. She confessed Christ at an early age and joined Gees Grove AME Zion Church. She was a faithful member. She was the Mother of the Church, a Deaconess, and a Class Leader. She became a Sunday School teacher at the age of 12 and taught diligently until age 68 years old. She was a member of the Senior Choir for several years. She was also a member of the Stewardess Board, Community Circle, and participated in the Fund raising for the building of the church.

She was last employed at Chatham Novelty, Siler City, NC.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two daughters, Christine Price Williams of the home and Alberta Price Henderson (James) of Morris Plains, NJ; two sisters-in-law, Rita Marsh of Bear Creek and Mable Mitchell of Siler City; one brother-in-law, Floyd Johnson of Winston-Salem. She has seventeen grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren and ten great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, relative and friends.
