Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me — but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Got to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me — but let me go.*

Obituary

THALIA ALSTON JACKSON, daughter of Mary Ann Alston and the late Edgar Alston, was born February 10, 1931. Died Dec 2, 1995

At an early age she joined Evans Chapel AME Zion Church where she was active in many organizations. After graduating from public school in Chatham County, she graduated from A&T College in Greensboro, N.C. with a degree in Home Economics. After college, she moved to Philadelphia, Pa. and worked for many years as a tailor.

She joined Bethel AME Church where she was a member until her death. Wanting a career change, later in life, she earned a degree in nursing and worked as an intensive care nurse at Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia until her retirement. After her retirement, she moved to Tampa, Florida.

Thalia leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Major Jackson of Miami, Fla.; four sons: Bernard Samuels of Philadelphia, Pa.; Michael Samuels of Siler City, N.C.; Charles Samuels of Aiken, S.C.; and Robert Samuels of Wayne, Pa.; one daughter, Gwendolyn Williams of Youngstown, Ohio; one brother, Paul Alston; three sisters: Lovelia Edwards, Catherine DeBose and Elaine Knight; five grandchildren, seven aunts, two uncles, and many nieces and nephews.
