Words of Encouragement

You are not forgotten loved one Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we'll miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can ever fill your place.

The Dark Family would like to express their sincere thanks to everyone for their help and prayers in our time of need.

Waste Not A Single Hour

*Yesterday is a reminder of days both good and bad,
The trials that taught us lessons and good times we have had.
The future still is waiting
as a dream awaits the night
To become a reality
before the morning light.*

*The past may bring us memories
to treasure through the years,
And the future keeps the dream alive
despite our doubts and fears.
But, oh, my friend, we have today
to live, and laugh and cry . . .
A day our Lord has given that soon will pass us by.*

TWIG

Obituary

JAMES ELLIOTT DARK (known as Twig) was born July 9, 1960, to James C. Dark and the late Janice Siler Dark in Siler City, North Carolina. He departed this life on Friday, September 15, 1995, at N.C. Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Twig became a member of First Baptist Church at an early age. Under the pastorage of Rev. M.P. McCleave, he was a member of the Junior Church. He served on the Usher Board, was a member of the Junior Choir, and attended Sunday School. He graduated from Jordan-Matthews High School in 1978.

Twig leaves to cherish his memory: Two children, Tisha Bostic of Asheboro and Tristan Rodgers of Siler City, N.C.; father, James C. Dark and stepmother, Brenda Dark; five sisters: Terry Dark, Melody Dark, Rachel Newby, Robin Emerson, and Takia Johnson, all of Siler City; step-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell; seven aunts, eight uncles, two nieces, three nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
