OBITUARY

George Henry Leroy Marley (Bill), the son of the late John and Ora Marley, was born March 22, 1908, in Randolph County, Staley, North Carolina. He departed this life, Sunday, November 9, 1969.

He was Civic Leader of the Staley Community and a member of Olivers Chapel Church. The progress made during this time was very influential and helpful. The Boy Scout Troop which consisted of about forty (40) boys was organized. Baseball was an extra-curricular activity that was very near to his heart. He was Sunday School Teacher of the Adult Class and had to stop because of his eye sight. In spite of his inattentiveness to the church, he loved it and called it home and promised his pastor only Sunday that he would be back soon.

Survivors include his wife, Hazel Martin Marley of the home. One daughter, Elsie Marley Headen of Greensboro. One son, Roy Lee of Staley; Three Grandchildren: Floyd Headen, Jr. of Liberty, Audrey and Faith of Staley. Two Brothers: Walter and Archie of Philadelphia, Pa. Five Sisters: Mrs. Carrie Strickland and Mrs. Anna Headen of Siler City, N. C.; Mrs. Ollie Young of Greensboro. Mrs. Marjorie Span and Mrs. Hazel Stanley of Philadelphia, Pa., and number of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
