OBITUARY

Servant of God, well done, Thy glorious Warfare's past; The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last.

Such was the life of Brother Isaac Wiley, the son of the late Louie and Kate Wiley. He was born July 2, 1912 in Chatham County and departed this life June 2, 1969 at the Chatham Hospital, Siler City, N.C. at the age of 56 yrs. and 11 months.

He had been in ill health for about 4 yrs. Brother Wiley was a devoted father and husband, and a concerned friend and neighbor.

A member of Pine Hill United Church of Christ, he was always willing to support the Church even after illness prevented him from working.

He leaves to mourn their loss his wife, Mrs. Swannie Wiley; 6 sons - Kelly, Roy Lee, Claton, and Junior of the Home, Calvin Wiley of Washington, D.C., and Jovernal Wiley of Milwaukee Wisconsin. 1 sister Mrs. Irene Weaver of Siler City; 4 brothers - York Wiley, Oliver Wiley, Mark Wiley all of Siler City, and Curk Wiley of Liberty. 7 grandchildren, 1 great-grand child, and many more relatives and friends.
