THE MIRROR OF THE SOUL

Goodness and love mould the form into their own image and cause the joy and beauty of love to shine forth, from every part of the face. When this form of love is seen, it appears ineffably beautiful, and affects with delight
the inmost life of the Soul. - E. Swedenborg

THE OBITUARY

MRS. CHARITY LEE CASSADY
1894 - 1972

Mrs. Charity Lee Cassady, for 12 years a resident of Coleridge Community, died Wednesday evening January 12, 1972 in North Carolina Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, North Carolina of injuries sustained as the result of an automobile accident.

Mrs. Cassady was born January 27, 1894 in Wake County. Mrs. Cassady was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Lee of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mrs. Cassady, the wife of Mr. John Thomas Cassady, was a loving mother and a faithful and devoted wife of the home where she exemplified a Christian life.

Surviving are a husband, Mr. John Thomas Cassady of the home; a foster daughter, Mrs. Barbara Ann Green of Raleigh, North Carolina; two foster grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Sue Dawson of Goldsboro, North Carolina; many nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was a faithful member of Lambeth Chapel Baptist Church of Chatham County; a member of Coxes Chapel Woman's Society of Christian Services and a member of the United Order of Tents No. I since 1939.

Death - is the golden key that opens the palace of eternity.
