

FLORAL BEARERS

Friendship Chapter 521 Order of Eastern Star

Community Circle

PALLBEARERS

Willie Alston	Robert Womble
Gaston Womble	John H. Headen
Bynum Jeffries	John A. Headen

The family expresses its sincere appreciation for the many heartfelt expressions of sympathy during these hours of bereavement.

IN LOVING MEMORY

OF

MRS. MINNIE ISLEY PRICE

FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1968, 3:30 P. M.

CORINTH A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
SILER CITY, N. C.
REV. H. S. GILLESPIE, PASTOR

ORDER OF SERVICE

Processional.....Soft Music
 Hymn.....Come, Ye Disconsolate
 Scripture -- Old Testament
 New Testament
 Prayer of Comfort
 Hymn.....Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me
 Remarks - Corinth Church....Mr. E. G. Womble
 Gees Grove Church...Mrs. Ado Bowden
 Acknowledgements
 Obituary.....Mrs. Lizzie Glover
 Solo.....Mrs. Sophronia Siler
 Eulogy.....Rev. H. S. Gillespie
 Parting View
 Recessional.....Soft Music
 Interment.....Gees Grove Cemetery

Be a sure I am with you until the end of time

OBITUARY

Minnie Lee Isley Price, the daughter of Henry Isley and Matilda Bray Isley was born in Alamance County, September 29, 1889. After the death of her father, Jesse J. Smith of Siler City became her stepfather.

Mrs. Price joined Corinth A. M. E. Zion Church as a young woman and remained a faithful and loyal member until her unexpected death in Chatham Hospital the early morning of February 26, 1968.

She was interested and active in church and community activities, and a member of the Friendship Chapter 521 Order of Eastern Star. These she was devoted and faithful even after becoming afflicted with arthritis.

For many years she was a practical nurse in private and hospital duty.

She was married to George Anderson Price and to this union were born a daughter, Mrs. Sadie Headen of Siler City and a son Lovell Price of the home who survive her. Other survivors are: a sister, Mrs. Lucille Counts of Chicago, Ill., stepbrother, Ezekiel Smith of New Haven, Conn., five grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and other relatives.

Far off thou art, but ever nigh
 I have thee still, and I rejoice;
 I prosper, circled with thy voice;
 I shall not lose thee though I die.

The Family