OBITUARY

On Monday, October 23, 1972, at 10:30 A.M., MRS. ARGUSTA BROOKS NETTLES, silently entered into sweet peace and rest at her home on Route 3, Pittsboro, N. C.

She was born in Chatham County, June 23, 1902, to the late Adam and Annie Reaves Brooks.

She was married to the late Lacey Nettles, Sr., and to this union ten children were born. Eight of whom survive her passing.

Realizing early in her youth that one day she would enter into sweet peace and rest only if she had been born again; she became a member of the Mitchell Chapel Church Family and remained a member until she married into the Evans Chapel Church Family. Thereby taking on membership there, where she remained a concerned and helpful member until her passing.

She leaves to survive five daughters, Mrs. Faydine Baldwin, Siler City, N. C., Mrs. Lillie Mae Rogers, Sanford, N. C., Mrs. Arzalia Taylor and Mrs. Hassie Cheek, Pittsboro, N. C., Mrs. Verline Foomer, New Hill, N. C.; three sons, Mr. Floyd Nettles, Siler City, N. C., Mr. Lacey Nettles, Jr., of the home, and Mr. Edward Nettles, Pittsboro, N. C.; 29 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, one brother, Mr. Edgar Brooks, Pittsboro, N. C., several nieces and nephews and many other relatives and friends.

*Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls His own,
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?*

*Is not e'en death a gain to those,
Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.*

*Then, let our sorrows cease to flow;
God has recalled His own,
But let our hearts, in every woe,
Still say, "Thy will be done".*

WHAT CHRISTIANITY MEANS TO ME

To me, Christianity means to be fully a Christian. It means to be made whole, with no sins to hold them back from being a Christian. A Christian must believe fully in God and understand what it means to be a Christian. To be a Christian, doesn't mean to just come to Church and sing praises of God and then go home. But, it means to praise God, and recognize His name wherever they go. A Christian must believe in God, and worship Him and enjoy the things that He has made for us all. To be a Christian, you must be fully made whole and to "love thy neighbor as thyself."

Being a Christian is a good thing for any person to be. To go to church every Sunday and attend Sunday School. Although a person may read the Bible through and through, that doesn't mean that person is a Christian. By a person being himself, God will bless him in every way. Christianity is a good place to end all evil in this world. If everyone was a Christian the world would be happy always.

Marlene McClain

February 20, 1968

Emily Marlene McClain daughter of Henry Thomas and Velner McDaniel McClain was born March 4, 1951 in Chatham County, Siler City, North Carolina. She departed this life June 1, 1969 in Duke Memorial Hospital Durham, North Carolina at 4:30 P.M. as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident April 28, 1969.

She professed faith in Christ and joined the Sixth Avenue First Baptist Church, Siler City, North Carolina February 2, 1962, where she served faithfully as a member until the time of her death.

Marlene was a member of the Young People Sunday School Class, Junior Church, Junior Choir, and The Junior Missionary Circle. She has served as Secretary to the Sunday School, Soloist in the Junior Choir, Devotional Leader in the Junior Church and Secretary of the WIC Circle.

She attended the Summer Music Institute at A & T State University, Greensboro, North Carolina, the Saturday School at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina also Chatham High School, Siler City, North Carolina. She was a member of the Chatham High School, 1969 Graduating Class, receiving her diploma postmortem.

Marlene was very popular and liked by members of her Church, The School and Community. She participated in many community and School Activities. In 1969 she won the Lillian Jackson Marsh Choir Award of Chatham High School Choir, Song Bird Award in Memory of Mrs. Annie Bell Reeves of Friendship Garden Club, third place in a Talent Hunt by Tau Omega Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Major-ette Award of the Chatham High School Band, Chatham High Alumni Award and second place on the 400 Club Musical Program, and Miss Homecoming of 1968 - 1969.

To mourn their loss are her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas McClain, of the home; a sister Miss B. Charlene McClain of Charleston, West Virginia; Maternal Grandmother Mrs. Nannie McDaniel of Colridge, North Carolina; two (2) aunts; four (4) Uncles; several Cousins; and a host of other Relatives and Friends.

Our garden of roses will never bloom
As lovely as before;
For God had chosen the only bud
That made the others grow.
