Obituary

Mrs. McCoy Staley Gathings, formerly of 835 Lane Jordan Rd. died at Sunbridge Nursing Home on Thursday, October 7, 1999 at the age of 66 years old.

A native of Chatham County she was the daughter of the late Marvin & Willie Brooks, of Siler City, N.C. and Hayworth & Effie Cheek of Ramseur, N.C.

She received her early education in the Chatham County School. McCoy was a very versatile person with many interests and talents. The many skills she possessed were: cooking, hair dressing, lay counseling, nursing, and sewing. She traveled widely and met many people who grew to love her.

She was a resident of High Point, N.C. for 20 years and attended Greater New Life Baptist Church, and Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Upon returning to Siler City she became a devoted member of Little Rock Bibleway Church.

She is survived by her husband: Jesse Gathings of the home, 2 sons: Steve Walden (Pearline) of Alexandria, Va., Charles (Buddy) Staley, Asheboro, N.C., 2 daughters: Charlotte Feaster (Jasper) Ramseur, N.C., Vivian Siler (Frank), High Point, N.C. 5 sisters, Rev. Gladys Matthews (Sylvester), Annie Haith, both of Siler City, N.C. Judy Jones (Harold) Glen Arden, Md. Sable Humphries, Washington, D.C., Zola Matthews (Lonnle), Ramseur, N.C. 6 brothers: Grady Lane (Debra) Upper Marlboro Md., Lawrence Brooks, Washington, D.C., Jerry Brooks (Marlon), Robbins, N.C. Winfred Cheek (Joan), Ramseur, N.C. Sherman Brooks of the home, Joshua Brooks, New Mexico, foster son, Lee Cokely of the home. 11 stepchildren, 12 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren.

God was searching in His garden for a special kind of flower,
He searched near, He searched far, that is when He found you.

We love you, but God love you best.
