~Obituary~

Mrs. Mary Headen Jones, daughter of the late Roosevelt Headen and Rosella Rives Headen was born on September 26, 1930. She departed this life on Thursday, March 17, 2005.

Mary was a graduate of Dudley High School in Greensboro, North Carolina. She retired from employment as a Home Health Aide in the Chatham County Health Department in the mid 1980's.

Mary married James Wallace Jones on December 23, 1949 and to this union three children were born. She was a loyal wife, mother, grandmother and friend and was always there for them.

She joined Roberts Chapel Missionary Baptist Church and was a devoted member of the Deaconess Board, Missionary Circle, Walking Wellness Club and Oppie Jones Sunday School Class. She was a faithful attendee at Bible Study, and she enjoyed cleaning, especially the house of the Lord.

Mary leaves to cherish her memory: her husband of 55 years, James Wallace Jones; her children, Andrei Jones (Ann) of Greensboro, NC, Waverlyn Royals of New Bern, NC, and Sheena Boyd (Walter) of Charlotte, NC, five grandchildren, Melissa Jones, Jessica Royals, and Raya, Isaiah and Trinity Boyd; loving brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

The Clock of Life

*The clock of life is wound but once
And no one has the power
To tell when the hands will stop
At later or early hour
Now is the only time you own
Live, love, toil with a will
Place no faith in tomorrow
For the clock may then be still.*
