PALL BEARERS

Deacons of First Missionary Baptist Church

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Thank you, dear friends, for sharing in the life experience and the home going of our loved one. The family wishes to express its sincere appreciation for the love, prayers, cards, tributes, and all deeds of kindness and sympathy shown during their period of bereavement. Continue your prayers for us, and may God bless all of you.

†Baby Girl†

Hello There "Baby Girl" I will miss hearing you say. Most of all I will miss our confidential conversations. We had a bond between us no one could break until God took you home. Sleep on and take your rest: you had gotten lonely, tired and weary. I Love You, but God Loved You Best.

†My Daddy†

My Daddy was always there for me. When I was a little kid, he spanked me when there was a need and praised me when I did good. I will never forget the day I graduated from college. I could hear him yelling in the stands, "Meach, Meach, way to go Meach." The day I married, he was my Best Man. He was there for me to talk to when problems came up. He was my Best Friend. He was "Big Lacy", I was "Little Lacy." He was "My Daddy." He will never be forgotten. The legacy of Lacy W. Tyson lives on!

OBITUARY

Deacon Lacy Lassiter Winslow Tyson, son of the late Delacy Tyson and Minerva Womble Tyson was born in Chatham County on November 18, 1917. He departed this life Sunday, November 1, 1998 at Randolph Memorial Hospital. He was married to the late Jessie Belle Toney and the late Ada L. Alston. One daughter, Karen T. Beck preceded him in death.

Deacon Tyson joined First Missionary Baptist Church where he was a faithful member and servant. He was active in the Prayer Band and Sunday School until his health failed.

He finished his formal education at Chatham County Training School. He also attended Livingstone College prior to serving in the second World War.

Deacon Tyson was a friendly person who always enjoyed stimulating conversation, sports and fishing. He will be missed by all.

Rejoicing in his memory are his devoted family: daughter, Elaine Tyson Wright, son-in-law, Billy Wright; son, Lacy Mechael Tyson, daughter-in-law, Kay Tyson; granddaughters, Cami Beck of Siler City, NC, Tamiko Wright of Philadelphia, PA, and Jessica W. Hinnant and Mike Hinnant of Blue Bell, PA; two great-grandchildren, Courtney and Jasmine Hinnant; four sisters-in-law, Margaret A. Price, Callie A. Davis, Fleta A. Price and Sammie Belle Toney; three brothers-in-law, James L. Alston, Charles N. Alston and Clyde Lutterloh; nieces, nephews, cousins and many other friends.

*"Sunset and evening star
and one last call for me,
And may there be no mourning at the bar,
When I put out to sea."*
