

Floral Bearers

Friends of the Family

Casket Bearers

Friends of the Family

Johnson & Sons

A

Service

Of

Christian Victory

For Our Beloved

MRS. VIRTLE LEE CHEEKS CAVINESS

JANUARY 23, 1914

~

DECEMBER 27, 2005

Friday, December 30, 2005

One O'Clock in the Afternoon

Coxes Chapel
United Methodist Church

Parks Cross Road
Ramseur, North Carolina

Reverend Roger Green- Pastor

Reflections

On Tuesday, December 27, 2005, Mrs. Virtle Lee Cheek Caviness, peacefully made her transition into everlasting life following a period of illness at the Moses Cone Hospital. Our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend was born on January 23, 1914, to the late Maggie Cassiday Cheek and Jessie Cheek in Randolph County, North Carolina.

The essence of her Christian faith was declared in the union she established with the Coxes Chapel United Methodist Church, where she held fellowship for many years. She faithfully participated in the missions and ministries of the church through the Senior Choir and was a Mother of the Church.

With strong Christian values, she believed in doing what she could to uplift others. She will be remembered for her love of God and people, her kind spirit and wisdom.

In addition to her parents, one sister, Doris Brower and a brother, John L. Cheek, preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: one son, James E. Caviness and spouse, Gloria of Greensboro; grandchildren, Michael (Angela), George and Tonya; great -grandchildren, Brandon, Joey, Courtney and L'Shay ; a great-great-grandchild, Aniya; one sister, Goldie Spinks and spouse, Melvin of Chatham County; special niece, Elizabeth Lumpkins of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; devoted caregiver, Dee Moffiet of Chatham County; other relatives and friends.

*Never be afraid to let go
I don't want you to cry
I lived a wonderful life
But I had to say goodbye
I had grown tired of living
But only I could see
That I had served my purpose and again God needed me
Now that I'm in Heaven
My wings are finally complete
And now you know God's tests
Aren't the hardest to beat
He gave me a great task
And I followed it through
I loved all in my path
Now I can watch over all of you*

Courtney Leecole Tinnin

The Order Of Service

PROCESSIONAL

THE FAMILY MOMENTS OF VISITATION

SELECTION McCurry's Praise Team

THE SACRED SCRIPTURAL READINGS

Old Testament Lesson

New Testament Lesson Min. Rashawn Slade

THE PRAYER OF SOLACE Pastor Sharon Terrell

SELECTION McCurry's Praise Team

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS & CONDOLENCES Ms. Wilma McNeal

POETIC EXPRESSIONS Ms. Courtney Tinnin

DUET Min. Micheal & Angela Caviness

THE COMFORT FROM THE WORD Rev. Roger Green

RECESSIONAL

INTERMENT Church Cemetery

Expressions of Gratitude

May God always bless and enrich your lives with love and friendship as you have enriched ours with your presence, prayers and your generosity.