Obituary

~God saw him getting tired, but the cure was not to be
So He put His arms around him, and whispered come to me. ~

Ralph Foxx devoted father, brother, uncle, grandfather, and friend departed this life and went to be with his Heavenly Father on January 4, 2005 at Chatham Hospital.

Ralph was born December 14, 1929 in Chatham County to the late George and Annie Mae Jordan Foxx. He was married to the late Mozelle Price Fox and preceded in death by siblings Willie Foxx and Joseph Foxx.

He was currently employed by Joan Fabrics (formerly Mastercraft) and was a former employee of Siler City Mills for many years. Ralph was a devoted member of Lamberts Chapel and later Gees Grove AME Zion Church. He was also a member of the Widows and Widowers Club.

He leaves to cherish his memory: five daughters, Shelia Ann Foxx, Glennis Foxx, Cynthia Cole, and Denise Foxx all of Asheboro, NC, Melanie Banks of Raleigh, NC, one son Tony Foxx, Rock Hill, MD, two sisters, Mattie Lee F. Miller, Siler City, NC, Lucille Foxx, Asheboro, NC and one brother Ray Foxx, South Carolina, seven grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, who all loved him dearly.

On earth your smile brightened everyone's day
And lightened the path of everyone that came your way.
You were loud with your love, yet quiet with your voice
And now that you are gone, all the Angels in heaven will rejoice.
They have a new Angel that has joined the team
And now your smile will light the path for the King
So all though you will be missed here on earth by your family and friends
In heaven a new and better life for you will begin.
So we cannot be selfish and mad you did not stay, just save a place for us
"Uncle Ralph" by your side, and we will join you soon one day.
