

*When morning comes and finds you alone. Don't worry I've simply gone home.
My stay here was only for a while. But through the pain and tears remember me with a smile.*

*Don't only think of all our good times. remember bad ones too
And these times helped to see us through You probably thought our time together was not done. But God decided it was time for me to move on*

*It will take time to get use to my being gone. But I left you with precious memories
So you wouldn't be alone*

When the pain comes and tears fill your eyes. Just remember to think of me with a smile

I'll see all my loved ones who've gone on before. They'll greet me with a smile when I reach the other shore

My struggle was hard. but so is yours. For there's a new challenge behind each door

I have overcome mine. And yours will get easier in time

Don't think of me being dead. Think of me asleep instead

I'm alright. I'm resting with God now. And I've found consolation somehow

*When the gates of heaven swing open wide. To bid you to come inside I'll be standing there with arms open wide. to welcome you to heaven and greet you
with a smile*

Jessie Carol Foxx Davis was born February 26, 1945 to the late Willie S. Foxx and Veatrice Miller Foxx in Chatham County, NC. She had two children: Thurman Davis Jr. Boulder, CO and Tonya Davis, Greensboro, NC. Six sisters Louise Siler, Dorothy Clemons, Hattie Hanner, and Gwendolyn Hanner (Tracy) all of Bear Creek, NC; Mary Ann Williams (Shelton Sr.) of Siler City, NC and Pauline Hall (Clifton) of Hackensack, NJ. Three brothers: Two which preceded her in death, Michael and Roosevelt Foxx and Carl Foxx (Ruth) of Siler City, NC. Four grandchildren: Amber, Dustin, Ashley and Brandon Davis all of Greely, CO and a very special nephew, Derik Hanner of Bear Creek, NC.

Jessie was a graduate of Chatham High School, class of 1963. She also graduated from Kate Bitten Nursing School of Winston-Salem, NC in 1966. She worked at Chatham Hospital in Siler City, NC for over 25 years. She was also employed at Randolph Hospital and Sunbridge Nursing Home.

Jessie joined Lambert Chapel at an early age. She was a very active member of the Usher Board, Gospel Choir, Missionary Circle #2 and other auxiliaries, up until her illness.

Jessie enjoyed spending time with her family, shopping, arts and crafts, board games and bowling.

Jessie Carol had an abundance of family and friends and will be missed by all.
