The Obituary

George T. Cameron McDonald, was born December 10, 1929 in Moore County, North Carolina. He departed this life on Saturday, March 1, 2003, at the VA Hospital in Durham, North Carolina after an extended illness. He was the son of the late Walter and Martha McDonald.

He attended Moore County Schools. George joined the Army and served his country in the Korean War and earned a Bronze Star for his distinguished participation. He was employed by Knotts Funeral Home in Sanford, North Carolina for many years.. He was a member of the Elks Lodge in Sanford, North Carolina. George will be remembered for his outgoing and humorous personality and his love of children.

He was preceded in death by one daughter, Gail.

He leaves to cherish his memory: three daughters, Tammy, Pam, and Brenda, all of Cameron, NC; one son, Dwight of Cameron, NC; eight grandchildren and eight great grandchildren; one sister, Helen Wilson, Raleigh, NC; two brothers, James Cameron (Margaret) and Charles Cameron (Ollie), all of Durham, NC; two aunts, Carrie Cameron, Cameron, NC and Thelma Cameron, New York; two cousins Catherine McDonald, Washington, DC; and Theresa (Rebie) McDonald Elliott, Cameron, NC and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

*In tears we saw you sinking
We watched you fade away
Our hearts were truly broken
You fought so hard to stay
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully, free from pain
We could not wish you back
To suffer so again.*
