Contributed by Elizabeth Ross.

State of North Carolina County of Beaufort}

On this 22nd day of August 1832 personally appeared in open Court before the Justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the County aforesaid, now sitting, Joseph GUILFORD, resident of the County of Beaufort & State aforesaid aged 70 years, 3 months and 6 days, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers, and served as herein stated. First. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present & declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State. He states that he was born in the County of Pasquotank, now Camden, State of North Carolina – at the age of 7 was removed to the County of Pitt where he continued to reside until he volunteered in the Company of Captain Samuel BARROW of the North Carolina Militia in the year 1780 about the last of the month of June in the County of Pitt – then marched to the town of Kingston on the Neuse River, when he marched to Hailey's ferry on Pedee River, by the way of Wake Court House, thence into South Carolina, thence to Salisbury in North Carolina thence to Charlotte, thence driven back to Salisbury by Cornwallis, thence to Chatham Court House, thence to the Shallow Ford on the Yadkin, thence into Rowan, was placed in the hospital from which he was discharged by Doctor North; making in the whole 4 months. He understands that Seawell was there Colonel and Sumner there General. He was next in the service for 3 weeks for the purpose of meeting the British who were said to be at Wilmington – marched, took 5 British prisoners returned home understanding they had evacuated Wilmington. In the latter part of July 1781, he volunteered under Captain John GODLEY for the purpose of marching against the British forces then at Newbern under the command of Major Craig – he marched to fore Creek Mills & threw up works to await the enemy if he should come – was sent on the picket guard – fired at the enemy advancing, ran & was at length taken by a flanking or plundering party – was thence sent prisoner to Wilmington, thence to Charleston where he remained a prisoner on board of the prison ship Esk till after the battle of York when on November 6th 1782 he was exchanged & returned home after an absence of about 16 months. In this service James GORHAM was the Colonel. He was at Greene's camp between Ashley ferry & Bacon Bridge immediately after the exchange – he received no written discharge or paper writing of any time. The certificate or discharge by North given at Rowan he has lost. The record of his age he presumes is in the family of his uncle at the place where he was born in Pasquotank.

HOWELL HEARNE DROWNED, 1892

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Wed., Jan. 4, 1893

Late last Wednesday evening the body of Mr. Howell HEARNE, a former citizen of Belvoir township, was found in the river just below Centre Bluff. He had been missing since Monday night. HEARNE drove to the Bluff on Monday, December 26th, left his horse and buggy near the river and crossed over the ferry to Dudley's barroom. During the evening there was considerable drinking, and HEARNE with others got pretty full and fussy. Sometime after night HEARNE started to go home, his son and another young man walking with him as far as the river where they left him and returned to the barroom. Next morning HEARNE'S horse and buggy were still standing on the north side of the river where they were left the day before and HEARNE was missing. Parties were dragging the river in search of his body Wednesday and after sometime time found it. When found the right arm was raised and the hand grasping an open knife in a position for attack or defense. This at first led to the supposition that HEARNE had been in an altercation with some one and while attempting to use his knife was knocked in the river. Coroner WARREN was notified and gave the case a thorough investigation on Thursday, but failed to find any evidence of foul play. From what could be gathered the jury returned a verdict that his death was caused by his accidentally falling into the river and drowning. HEARNE had a habit of keeping an open knife about him when drinking.

WILL OF JOSEPH GUILFORD, BEAUFORT Co., NC, 1837

This Will of Joseph Guilford, Revolutionary War veteran, written June 16, 1837 and Probated June 1840, was transcribed by Elizabeth Ross from NC Supreme Court, case #4102, NC Archives, Raleigh, NC. According to Elizabeth Ross, Harriet Morris' dissention set off a lengthy series of court appearances, beginning in 1840, going finally to the NC Supreme Court. The crux of the matter appeared to be disagreement among Harriet Morris, and the other heirs as well, as to the dispersement of the slaves (especially Dan [or Dave?]), and to the proceeds from hiring out all the slaves. The confusion was amplified by the fact that Joseph Guilford, after writing his Will, married Harriet Morris and had a son by her named Joseph McD. Guilford, and by the fact that Joseph Guilford sold to his daughter, Elizabeth Langley, some slaves by deed. Also after the writing of the Will. Harriet, the widow, had remarried to Thomas Lewis. The summary of the case as published in the NC Reports, erroneously cited the Will as saying "my wife Harriet" -- but this copy clearly shows "friend Harriet Morris." The young Alvana Morris married on May 12, 1852 in Beaufort Co., NC to William Henry (Will) Buck, They lived mainly in Chocowinity twp., Beaufort Co., but the sons liked the Pitt County girls over in Chicod twsp.. The boy born after the Will, Joseph McD. Guilford, was living with Sally Gallaway, the widow of Noah Gallaway, in Chocowinity. Other records show that the grandchildren named in the Will, George W. Guilford and Guillana Guilford, were the children of Wallace Guilford, dec'd., and his wife Sally Moore. Guillana married Calvin Gallaway and died in 1850. The young boy, Joseph McD. GUILFORD married Winifred Best and died in Martin Co., NC. Joseph's daughter Elizabeth had married Elijah Langley and lived in Pitt Co., NC. Noah W. Guilford and George W. Guilford remained in Beaufort Co., NC, leaving many descendants south of the Pamlico River.

In the name of God Amen I Joseph GUILFORD of the County of Beaufort and State of North Carolina being in sound & perfect mind and memory blessed be God for the same, do make & publish this my last will & testament in manner following -- vis

HOPKINS FAMILY FORTUNE

Daily Reflector, Greenville, NC, Thursday, Aug. 19, 1926

Claiming to be the nearest living relatives of the late Mark and Moses HOPKINS, and therefore heirs to the $300,000,000 estate of the California railroad magnate, Mrs. Laura EDMUNDS, 83, and her two daughters, Misses Annie and Gattie EDMUNDS, of this city have employed local counsel, and papers setting forth the claim will be formally filed at once. Claiming fraud in the settlement and distribution of the HOPKINS estate forty years ago, 137 alleged heirs in this state have taken legal steps to have the case reopened and the fortune redistributed among the rightful heirs and a hearing on the matter will be held soon in United States Circuit Court before Judge E. Y. WEBB. Mrs. EDMUNDS, a native of Martin county, is the only living child of the late John HOPKINS, who was brother of Mark and Moses HOPKINS. She and her daughters have spent their entire lives in this immediate section of the state and a few months ago moved to this city from Scotland Neck. Living here in needy circumstances, the family seldom if ever read a newspaper and have been uninformed heretofore of the litigation in the matter of the HOPKINS estate. A neighbor, however, who on several occasions had heard the old lady, who now lives much in the past, talk of her early days and of her uncle who went to California in the "gold rush," chanced across a newspaper article referring to the present proceedings regarding the fortune, and immediately carried the information to Mrs. EDMUNDS. The old lady immediately established her relationship to the late railroad magnate by tracing accurately the family history. Persons here who have heard her story, believe there is no doubt she is the nearest relative, and that she will no doubt come in for a good share of the estate should the courts order the fortune redistributed.

Gold and Silver Mines in Pitt County, 1887

New Bern Daily Journal, New Bern, NC, June 18, 1887

The good people of Bethel Township are justifiably excited over the discovery made by an old colored man last week that gold exists in large quantities in the bowels of the earth. The old man has dug several nuggets of gold on the farm of Mr. Gray CARSON near the town of Bethel. Mr. Guilford ANDREWS who is our informant says that Dr. JAMES has assayed a quantity of the ore and says that it is unquestionably gold. Rumor has it that the old colored man has a blue chest full of the precious metal as a result of many nights hard and secret toil. Right on the heels of this comes the discovery of silver on the land of Mr. John B. KILPATRICK of Swift Creek township. Mr. Kilpatrick found a considerable amount while cutting a ditch through his farm which has been pronounced by a chemist as nice silver ore. Hurrah for Pitt county! we will back it against the world for natural advantages.

Jordan NELSON Esqr Pitt County

Rosetta 7th July 1828.

Dear Sir,

I have just read your letter. For my word sake and for your sake, I did intend going to Pitt on Monday last but it so happened that I then had two bidders for the place where I now live, and as I lost a chance of selling $2500 worth of land, last year, by going to Pitt at the very time a man was waiting to buy, I judges it prudent to delay a day or two, & see how it would end. by doing so, I think I shall make sale, at $3500 or thereabout, which I wish to do, if I move any where else. This detained me until I knew it would be too late to go for your relief, if the plaintiffs forced their executions. But I could hardly think reasonable men would do so, as the Judgments had been standing only a short time, and the times gloomy and hard beyond measure. I thought you might beg off one Court longer—and that my absence would help you to do so. If I did not want the property, I would certainly loan you the means to pay those Executions with, for I would not, if I could muster the means, see you and your family distressed. You may, as certainly calculate on help from me, as you count on life. At the Superior Court of Pitt, if I live, I will be there, and save your property for you. As to the Property, altho I have no expectation of going to Pitt to live, since Mr. LITTLE has failed to do as he said. Yet I wish to add the Dower & Pocoson land to ours. As to the mill, we must see the Equity incumbrance off that, or I dont know how [TORN] get along with that {TORN} that were off and the other [IN FOLD] to me. I would purchase all-- & then I would go to Pitt, but as that is improbable, I would perfer to sell out altogether in Pitt. I am now on a trade for a swap of my Bath lands, for a fine Body of lands, mill seat, plantation & good House, on Chocowinity Bay, about 5 miles below Washington: if I trade, I think I shall make that my Home. For For two hundred and fifty Shadd, if you fish at my Beach, you can use it this season. But I shall look to you for them & shall have to make it a Condition that you send them to me, in good sound state. When I send—sometimes none is got—the time last & always, a great waste of time happens. I would rather purchase here than send for them. Send me 250 good fresh caught Shad—and fish the Season. We are all in health & just from LATHAMS—at the Wedding last night.

Yours Jos. B. HINTON

Youthful Murderer, 1900

Daily Reflector, Greenville, NC, Tues., Aug. 14, 1900

Monday afternoon near Whichard, in Carolina township, a 7 year old colored boy murdered his 5 year old playmate. The particulars as telephones to THE REFLECTOR are that several children had gathered at the house of a colored man named William CHAUNCY, the grown people all being off at work. Gus CHAUNCEY, aged 7 years, and Elijah WILSON, aged 5 years, fell out about something when Gus went in the house and got his father's gun and shot Elijah. The load tore the top of Elijah's head off, killing him instantly. Some investigation was made of the matter, but the boy was deemed too young to put in jail. He said he did not know the gun was loaded. His father was not in the habit of keeping it loaded but lent it out a few days ago and it was carried back loaded.

Benjamin Carroway Family Photo, 1910

Daily Reflector, Greenville, NC, Sept. 22, 1910

A Family Group in Which are Fifty-Four Persons

Mr. H. L. COWARD has a picture of which he is very proud, and takes pleasure in showing it to his friends. It is a family group of Mr. Benjamin CARROWAY, of Greene county, and the picture was taken at a recent family re-union at his home. Mr. CARROWAY is 64 years of age and his wife 60, both of them being well preserved. They have ten children, eight of whom are married and have families of their own. On the occasion of the family re-union these married children, with their respective husbands and wives were present, as were also the grand children, with the exception of two. The total number of persons in the group was 54, all being of three generations—parents, children and grand children—there being as yet no great grandchildren in the family. It is a remarkable picture, and looking almost like it might represent a school gathering.

Mad Dog Bit James Vandiford, 1911

Daily Reflector, Greenville, NC, Sat., July 15, 1911

Last Sunday while a crowd was at Sunday school at the Nichols school house, district No. 3, Beaver Dam township, Mr. James VANDIFORD, a young man grown, was bitten by a supposed mad dog. Several others had narrow escapes, and Mr. VANDIFORD would have escaped, but for the fact that in trying to get out of the dog's way he fell. Then the dog bit him. Dr. E. A. MOYE cauterized the wound and sent Mr. VANDIFORD to Raleigh for treatment. The crowd was coming out of the school house when the dog was seen acting strangely. Then it was said "Give the dog a wide berth, something ails him." But the dog rushed at them with the above result. The dog then went off and bit some hogs at Mr. FORLINES, a dog at Mr. Alfred NICHOLS, some hogs at Mr. MCARTHURS and there are reports of other dogs being bitten. Later a dog supposed to be the same one was killed at Mr. John HEMBY'S store. His head was sent to Raleigh and the analysis showed well developed hydrophobia.

G. M. Tucker House Burglary Attempt, 1893

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Wed., Feb. 8, 1893

Mr. G. M. TUCKER tells us that someone went to his home about 5 miles from town, during his absence last Friday night and tried to break in the house. Mr. TUCKER and the children were home and were awakened by the noise the wood-be burglar made. They got up and a little son fired a gun out an upstairs window which frightened the intruder away. An examination showed that a lock had nearly been pried off the door in the attempt to effect an entrance into the house.

FRANK MILLS ASSAULT, 1900

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Fri., Aug. 17, 1900

Mr. Frank MILLS, a one armed Confederate soldier, of Chicod, with a little boy, started home after night Saturday evening from Greenville. When they got near Mr. W. H. TUCKER'S place, about two miles from town, two drunken negroes, Shade ADAMS and Bob JOHNSON, overtook him and began cursing and abusing him for voting for the Amendment and for being a Democrat and taking the negroes right to vote away from them. Mr. MILLS told them to go on as he did not want to have any fuss with them. After cursing for awhile they run over his buggy and broke one of the wheels down which threw Mr. MILLS out in the road. ADAMS began cursing him again and took a rail from the fence and struck at Mr. MILLS with it. Mr. MILLS ducked down and avoided the lick, the rail striking the ground behind him. He raise4d up opening his knife with his teeth and made a strike at ADAMS cutting his throat a terrible gash. He then cut him in the shoulder and several times across the breast. ADAMS called for help from JOHNSON, who took a rail and started for Mr. MILLS, who again avoided the blow and closed in and began using his knife on JOHNSON pretty freely.

After the fight ADAMS and JOHNSON managed to get into their buggy and drove off leaving MILLS in the road.

Mr. MILLS had been to Greenville and gotten two buggy wheels that day which were fastened on the back of his buggy. He took one of these and put in the place of the smashed one and returned to town to get warrants out for the negroes. In the meantime the negroes had gone on down the road and on arriving at the County Home, one of them fell out of the buggy, supposed from a loss of blood, the other one driving on. Mr. J. W. SMITH, Superintendent of the Home, came out and found him lying in the road groaning, and upon examination found that his throat was cut, and his shoulder blade cut, besides several cuts on his breast. He came to town and reported the matter. It was thought that ADAMS would be dead by Sunday morning, but at last accounts was still alive. Mr. MILLS has the reputation of being a man of great courage as well as active. He is a famous hunter and though having but one arm uses both gun and knife very skillfully. He has perhaps killed more deer than any other man in the county, and it is said that if a bear makes a track in his neighborhood, Bruin is sure to lose his hide. Those negroes thought they could take advantage of his being a one-armed man, but next time they had better tackle a circular saw. What Mr. MILLS done for them is no more than they deserve.

OLD HANGINGS IN PITT COUNTY

Charlotte Daily Observer, Charlotte, NC, Aug. 20, 1915

Contributed by Roger Kammerer

HAS HANGED MORE THAN ONE PITT COUNTY'S WOMEN WERE NEGROES, HOWEVER (SPECIAL TO THE OBSERVER)

Greenville, N.C. Aug. 19.---- The sentence of Mrs. WARREN to the electric chair seems to have started the question of whether North Carolina ever hanged a woman.

Mr. L. W. LAWRENCE, a local octogenarian, was a witness of the hanging of Mary HANRAHAN in this county.

Watt (Walter) HANRAHAN was a very large planter and landowner and owned a very great number of slaves. To keep them at some work, he had a large piece of land near the present county home, known as "Hanrahan's Quarters" for the keeping of surplus slaves, or those for whom he had little to do. At that place they were employed clearing land, cultivating it and making support; if not money. The overseer was named GRIFFIN. He had occasion to whip one of Mary's children, a boy. This so enraged Mary that while the whipping was being administered, she picked up a large light wood knot and gave the overseer such a blow from behind on his head that he died. Mary was tried for the murder, convicted and with two negro men, was hanged here in Greenville. The site of the hanging was about where Fifth street crosses the ravine going to the training school.

About three miles east of this city, at the site of the old court house, on the south side of the road, only a few years ago was the body and remains of some of the larger limbs of a tree, which was said to have been used for hanging criminals before the Revolutionary War. And it is said a negro woman was hanged there for killing her master.

About the close of the Revolutionary War, a negro woman named Rose was publically burned at the court house for the murder of her mistress.

Calvin Mills Sugar Cane, 1894

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Wed., Dec. 5, 1894

On Monday Mr. Calvin MILLS, one of the best farmers of Chicod township, brought the REFLECTOR a large stalk of West Indies sugar cane and also a package of sugar made out of some of this cane. Mr. MILLS obtain a seeding of the cane three years ago and has since been cultivating a small crop of it each year. He says that taking his yield as an estimate one acre in this cane will produce 572 gallons of syrup, three-fourths of which can be converted into sugar. We were surprised to see that such excellent sugar could be made right here in Pitt county. With such good results made by Mr. MILLS, we think if all our farmers would put in a small crop of this cane they would find it to pay a long ways better than cotton.

HATHAWAY-BREWER FIGHT, 1894

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Aug. 15, 1894

Belvoir Items---Thirdites had a battle in our quiet little neighborhood, in which fence rails, shovels and brass-knucks were used. Mr. James BREWER and Oscar HATHAWAY had a fight all to themselves, and fought until both mutually agreed that they were satisfied. No one present was able to interfere—two or three of Mr. BREWER'S little boys stood by looking at their father get brutally beat in the face with brass-knucks, and could not render him any assistance. "our good law abiding citizens still continue to carry brass-knucks, pistols, and large jack-knives, and other numerous deadly weapons, and use them promiscuously, (of course only in self defense.) They were taken up and tried and discharged upon paying small fines and costs, with the promise not to do so again. And such I believe will continue until our peace officers will enforce the full limit of the law, which I believe upon conviction is that they shall not be fined not less than $30, together with imprisonment, if necessary. Brother officers, when you have a chance why don't you make those who dance pay the fiddler?"

Amos Evans, Champion Watermelon Raiser, 1884

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Wed., Aug. 20, 1884

Mr. Amos EVANS, the champion watermelon raiser of the county, will accept our thanks for the finest melon we have seen this season, which weighed 55 pounds and was 42 inches in circumference. Mr. EVANS brought one dozen melons to town Saturday and the whole lot would have weighed 49 pounds each. We wanted to get the exact weight of each melon, but some of them were sold before we saw them. The three largest melons weighed 143 pounds, and the two smallest 69 ½ pounds. Mr. EVANS told us he had brought in his largest melon, but that he could have pulled a dozen out of his patch that would have averaged 45 pounds each. He always makes the finest melons of any man in the county and we doubt if his lot Saturday can be beaten in the State.

ELIAS TURNAGE ACCIDENT, 1890

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Wed., July 2, 1890

ACCIDENT---Parties from this place who attended the masonic picnic at Hookerton, Tuesday of last week, reported quite an accident upon their return to Greenville. Mr. Elias TURNAGE had his family in a single horse phaeton and was returning home from the picnic. While crossing the bridge near Hookerton his horse began kicking and backed the vehicle down a steep embankment when the end of the bridge was reached. The vehicle with its occupants went down eight or ten feet, turning completely over in the fall, the horse going down on it and demolishing it. The only one of the party hurt was Mrs. TURNAGE, one of her legs being broken, the others escaping without a scratch. Parties who were near enough to witness the accident, say it was miraculous how the occupants of the vehicle escaped without some of them getting killed and all more or less hurt. There were five persons in the phaeton.

ADAM CARROLL ESTATE SALE, 1827

Found in the Daily Reflector, Greenville, NC, Feb. 3, 1951.

BILL OF SALE MADE OUT IN 1827 SHOWS PRICES FAR BELOW STANDARDS OF 1951

Folks hereabouts are making a lot of comments about the higher prices, but for a real picture of the state of inflation in which we find ourselves, take a look at these prices from a Pitt county bill of sale dated September 7, 1827.

The bill of sale, more than 123 years old, was found recently by Miss Annie CARROLL of Greenville RFD, route two, who lives on the New Bern highway near Cox's Mill. Miss CARROLL found the bill of sale, when she was going through some papers left by her father, the late Frank CARROLL, a farmer of the Chicod community. The bill of sale, dated September 7, 1827, is a handwritten statement of the sale of personal property of "Adam CARRELL," the great-grandfather of Miss CARROLL.

The bill is signed by John C. MOYE, who apparently was constable of the township at the time the bill of sale was made. The bill is written in a fairly legible script on paper which has turned brown and is cracked with age.

The highest price which appears on the bill of sale is an addition to the original statement.

The transaction is recorded: I John C. MOYE on the 17 of this instant sold the following property to wit:

twenty four head of hogs to Francis BROOKS $10.00

One lot of barrels to Hallon CARRELL $1.00

The first part of the statement lists the following sales to "Hallon CARREL."

Two pine tables 30 cents
one chest 20 cents
ten chairs 20 cents
10 looking glasses 20 cents
one candle stick 15 cents
one pair of fire irons 20 cents
two pots 25 cents
one Dutch oven and spider 30 cents
one table 15 cents
three mortar pails 20 cents
one lot of spoons 10 cents one pair of stirrup irons $2.00
three stocks of Bees 50 cents
10 g___? $1.00

One slate was sold to "Edmund EASON for 25 cents, and one pair of cart wheels was sold to William B. HARDEE for $8.25.

The end of the bill of sale read "I John C. MOYE do certify this to be a True statement of the sale of property which was Adam CARREL. Given under my hand and sold this day mentioned.

It was signed by John C. MOYE and witnessed by someone whose signature could not be interpreted.

Feb., the 22 1863
Greenville Pitt Co.. N.C

Dear Ema

I have a place to Stop at once more after marching two days as hard as I ever have marched & my feet is very sore—both is blistered, and I had the cholera morbus yesterday but not bad; I stoped eating & this morning I feel much better we are having a desperate rainy time of it.. last night it rained before we got our tents up I put our things in a pile and put my blanket on to cover all up till we got our tent which the boys were not long doing. I slept remarkable good last night.. but the air feels very unpleasant to day. Why we were brought here is rather strange to me unless it is to fill the place of a Mississippi regiment who we met while we were coming down.. the march has made Brogdon & King sick.. I think all the rest are as well of or better than when we started I got the Sachell last evening Mr. JACKSON gave it to Mr Todd at Magnolia and he stayed back in the town with our things so he came by the boat.. I had not seen him in eight days) (I mean Lewis TODD) I hope we shall have better weather soon.. Greenville is a good looking Town and the country from Tarboro to Greenville is as good as any I ever travelled through but the most of the people have left there families.. the yankees were in possession of this place about two months ago but left very soon they tried to burn the bridge but did not succeed the bridge is nearly a half mile long.= when our regement got on it they made it shake prety bad I do not feel well but I am as well as I expect and better if I get sick I shall apply for permission to go to a private house= I hope this will find you all well give my love to all my friends and accept a large portion= the largest half for yourself.. if we keep mooving we shall fare bad but if we stop we can make ourselves comfortable. we had just fixed up a nice house on the road to rainbow and had to moove next day so you see the uncertainty of a soldiers life---

yours affectionately

ALEX LITTLE MURDER, FALKLAND, 1900

Tarboro Southerner, Tarboro, NC, Thurs., Dec. 27, 1900

Falkland Saturday was the scene of a cold-blooded murder with the only mitigating circumstance that the one who did the killing was crazed with drink. John PARKER had been acting as policeman. For sometime he had been drinking heavily. Saturday he met Alex LITTLE and told him that he heard that he, LITTLE, had said that no policeman could arrest him. LITTLE denied having said so. PARKER responded that if he did, he would let him know that there was one to do the deed. LITTLE again replied that he had said no such thing. PARKER said, "all right; let's take a drink," and turned off for the purpose. LITTLE friendly slapped him on the shoulder, or placed his hand thereon, and PARKER wheeled around and shot at LITTLE three times, killing him. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of murder. PARKER made his way to Washington, intending to go to Cuba. Before he could get away he was caught and taken back to Pitt county where he is now in jail.

EDWARDS FAMILY FORTUNE, 1891

New Bern Daily Journal, New Bern, NC, May 10, 1891

HEIRS TO A BIG FORTUNE

A number of citizens of Craven and adjoining counties are taking steps to secure possession of valuable property in New York to which it is considered they are rightful heirs.

The property was left by Robert EDWARDS, a bachelor, who with his two brothers, moved to this country from Wales between 1770 and 1780. The property consists of thirty-five acres which then lay just outside the limits but which now is a part of the city of New York. It is assessed for taxes at $205,000,000, but the New York World estimates its real value at $267,000,000.

Before his death, Robert EDWARDS leased the property to another party for ninety-nine years and at the expiration of the lease it is understood that it was to go to the descendants of his brothers Uriah and John. These descendants are numerous and they consider that the time has come for them to enter into possession.

There are between 300 and 400 persons interested as heirs residing in several States. Nearly half the heirs in this State, mostly in the counties of Craven, Lenoir, Pitt, Greene and Wayne counties. If the claimants win, about one-fourth of the amount will come to this State.

The heirs are to hold a meeting in New York beginning May 21st with headquarters at the Williard.

The North Carolina branch of the heirs organized at Kinston and will be represented at the New York meeting by Co. I. A. SUGG, of Greenville.

The heirs who were present or represented at the meeting in Kinston were Mr. W. F. ROUNTREE and Maj. S. D. POPE, of New Berne; Col. I. A. SUGG, Messers. E. A. MOYE and C. D. ## George Kittrell, Died in Well, 1902

Eastern Reflector, Greenville, NC, Fri., Aug. 1, 1902

Died in Well Instantly Overcome By Gas

On Tuesday afternoon at Falkland Mr. George KITTRELL, met a sudden death under unusual circumstances. Mr. KITTRELL was an employee at the firm of Mr. J. E. FOUNTAIN. It was discovered that the large well which supplied water for the boilers at the mill was about to go dry, or was not affording enough water, and Mr. KITTRELL and Mr. FOUNTAIN went to make an examination. It was a covered well, and when a portion of the cover was removed Mr. KITTRELL started down. He had reached only a short distance below the surface when he threw up his hands as if struggling. Mr. FOUNTAIN, who was looking through the opening, caught one of Mr. KITTRELL'S hands and prevented his falling to the bottom of the well. He called for help which came quickly and Mr. KITTRELL was pulled out of the well, but was dead. A physician was summoned who said that Mr. KITTRELL'S death was instantaneous and was caused by gas in the well. A further examination of the well showed that it was impregnated with a deadly gas. Mr. KITTRELL leaves a wife and several children.

RECOLLECTIONS OF OLD FARMVILLE, 1954

Daily Reflector, Greenville, NC, Sat., Aug. 7, 1954

Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

At the July meeting of the Pitt County Historical Society, held in the Farmville Public Library, July 29, the members enjoyed a program in retrospect from the pages of the book of memories on the lives of J. L. JACKSON, Frank E. BROOKS and Mrs. Pearl M. JOHNSTON. These reminiscences dated back before and after 1890.

Mr. JACKSON, who has been the motivating spirit in collecting old books, documents and other articles of historical interest, had on display some Confederate notes of $1000.00 denomination issued by Wake County in 1875, an old Blue-Back Speller which was first published by Noah Webster in 1783 and a Practical Grammar of the English Language 1807, also a sequel to the Blue-Back Speller written by Noah's son, William G. Webster.

Mr. JACKSON told of the early schools in Craven and Pitt which he attended and gave many amusing incidents.

Mr. BROOKS said it was with mixed emotions that he visited Farmville as several of his best friends lived here who had passed away and who had helped in the growth of the town—J. T. THORNE, J. C. MONK, J. I. MORGAN, T. E. JOYNER, C. A. TYSON and M. V. HORTON. Referring to Greenville he said there had been swift changes and catastrophic events—the last hanging in Pitt County, the old market house with a dirt floor—when beefs were butchered on the week end, no ice—no refrigerator—no screens, the fire engine drawn by horses named Mike and Dan. They also pulled the first street sprinkler and the trash wagon. There was only one brick store and very few other business buildings, other than the thirteen saloons. There were many weekly drunks. There were only four street lamps, kerosene, and lighted nightly by Old Jack. Population of Greenville was 3000. It was an all day trip to Washington. To reach Raleigh by train it was necessary to change in Parmele and go by Goldsboro or Rocky Mount. He told of the county gates that had to be opened when traveling by horse and buggy. There was a ferry across the Tar River. He mentions the voluminous clothes women wore. Told of the first tobacco warehouse and first automobiles when horses had to be led by them. There were no paved streets or telephones, no electric lights. Life was very primitive.

Mrs. Pearl JOHNSTON gave early thoughts of her childhood and girlhood days in Farmville. She attended school in a small building where the present high school now is and paid five cents per day. The Blue-Back Speller was used, and spelling matches were held. She attended the Female Academy now known as the Horton Apartments. Here they had speeches, songs and dialogues monthly. Eventually boys attended this school and the boys and girls had to play on separate sides of the yard. In 1890 there were about 125 inhabitants with only about a half dozen children.

Her most vivid memories are of the early Post Office, as she practically grew up in it. The first postmaster she remembers was Thomas F. HILL and the building used was on Wilson Street near where Manly LILES office is now. This was about 1894. This building was about 20 feet long and had wooden shutters which were fastened with iron bars. Mrs. JOHNSTON at that time lived just across the street. Mr. HILL would give her rejected mail and she would play post office in her home. Then the Post Office was moved to a building where the Royal Grill now stands. A Mr. PHILLIPS and a Mr. JOYNER ran a dry goods and grocery store there. One corner was used for the Post Office and Mr. PHILLIPS was probably the Post Master. Her father became post master in 1889 and she was assistant. Upon the death of her father in 1890 her mother was appointed postmistress and then the post office was moved to her home back of the school. When they moved to the house on the spot where R. L. JOYNER now runs a filling station the post office went there too. In 1904, A. D. HILL was appointed postmaster and she was assistant in a small building on the lot where Mr. and Mrs. John D. DIXON have their residence. In 1913, Mrs. JOHNSTON'S husband became postmaster. She was again assistant. Before his appointment W. R. DIXON, then E. C. BEAMAN were postmasters. Upon Mr. JOHNSTON'S death in 1913, B. J. SKINNER took over and then W. G. GAY, then B.

O. TURNAGE. Following his death, H. D. JOHNSON became postmaster. In 1934 the post office was moved to its present location. Mrs. JOHNSTON said there were only about a dozen dwellings in Farmville when she was a child.

C. V. CANNON presided over the meeting. This was the first time the meeting had been held except in the Sheppard Memorial Library in Greenville. He expressed pleasure at the privilege of meeting in the farmville Public Library and of its beauty and complete equipment.

Miss Jesse Rountree MOYE reported that after a meeting by the committee on May 28th at her home in regards to the plaque to be put in the corridor of the Pitt County court house and a letter asking for an appropriation for same and members of the committee meeting with the county commissioners in June that she had received a letter from the County Commissioners granting an appropriation to commemorate the 30 signers of the resolution defying the British Parliament.

Order for the plaque will be sent in at once and further plans made for its erection.

Miss MOYE has spent several years working on this project to commemorate this event of historical value.

Dr. Martha M. PINGEL announced that tape recordings of a series of historical programs pertaining to Pitt County would be made this week and broadcast each week from Greenville radio station. She donated a book written by her, "Catalyst," to the Library.

ALTON E. MILLS, POW, 1945

Daily Reflector, Greenville, NC, Mon., June 11, 1945

PITT COUNTY BOY RETURNS

RADIOMAN ALTON E. MILLS AMONG LIBERATED PRISONERS

T-Sgt. Alton Eugene MILLS, radioman on a B-24 Liberator, American Eighth Airforce, whose plane was shot down over Bremen, Germany, on his eighth mission, in January 1944, is back home. He is a son of Mrs. Myrtle ROBERSON of Black Jack. He entered the Airforce in August 1942, and went overseas in July 1943.

MILLS said three of the Liberator's engines were shot out of commission by flak and German FochWolffs knocked out the fourth engine. The crew on nine baled out without injury, except one man, who broke an ankle. The German police took them to Frankfort-on-Main for questioning. After 10 days they were taken in freight cars to Krens, Austria, and were prisoners there for 15 months. The food consisted of small potatoes and weak soup and a little bread. The German guards did not provide medicine, but did supply some flea powder. MILLS said Red Cross packages of food and medicine saved the lives of many prisoners.

When the Germans heard the approaching Russian artillery fire near Vienna they marched the prisoners 200 miles in rain to woods near Brenau, Austria, Hitler's birthplace. To keep from being strafed by Allied planes the prisoners made small American flags and pinned them to the back of their blouses. The prisoners slept in barns and on the ground until a few days before the surrender, when the Third Army liberated them. The German guards surrendered and were taken to prison. Sgt. MILLS lost about a pound a day while marching from one prison to another, he said.

The Allied prisoners were taken to a German airfield and from there were flown to Le Havre in France. They arrived by steamer in Boston, Mass., and were taken to Camp Miles Standish.

Sgt. MILLS' closest call, excepting his baling out, was when German fighter planes shot off the glass top of his Liberator, the shell missing the gunner. He pulled the gunner below and supplied him with emergency oxygen and saved him from freezing in the frigid temperature.

MILLS won the Purple Heart, the Air Medal for combat missions over enemy territory, the ETO and ATO medals and the Good Conduct medal. After spending a 60 day furlough with his mother he will go to Miami Beach, Fla., Redistribution Center for reassignment to duty.

Fleas Broke Up Church Meetings, 1905

The Washington Post, Washington, D.C., Mar. 11, 1905

Pigs, goats, and fleas are the subject of proposed legislation by the General Assembly of North Carolina. In Pitt County churches appear to have been erected on a plan that puts the floor several feet above the ground, with openings between the pillars. Hogs and goats have sought the convenient shelter of this space, until the soil on which the churches stand has become one part sand and two parts fleas. In consequence, religious services have been broken up and congregations dismissed from worship at very inopportune times with alarming frequency. The nuisance has become so great that the members of the General Assembly from Pitt County have introduced bills to require the owners of hogs and goats running at large to fence in the churches, so as to keep these animals from roosting under them.

This record appeared in the book, "Life and Times of Elder Reuben Ross, by his son, James Ross," published ca. 1882. The book is found online in the Eastern North Carolina Digital Library, J. Y. Joyner Library, East Carolina University, Greenville, NC. According to the book..."William Ross was the father of ten children, of whom Reuben was the youngest son. Three of his brothers were in the war of the Revolution, and two of them, Martin and James, became Baptist ministers. His grandfather, William Ross, a descendant of these supposed traditional ancestors, emigrated from Virginia to Martin County, North Carolina; date unknown.

"A further account of the family from an old family record was brought to Tennessee from North Carolina in 1833. "William Ross, Senior, of Martin County, was the son of William Ross, formerly of the State of Virginia, who came to this State, namely North Carolina, and settled in the above-named county. William Ross, Senior, the father of the children whose names are under-written, was born on the 9th of August, 1731, O. S., and departed this life the 25th of December, 1801. "His funeral sermon was preached to a very large audience, by the Rev. Aaron Spivy, from Job 2:17. 'There the wicked cease from troubling and the weary be at rest.' ## Der Mothe

Tis with fear of sensur that I have not rote to you in so long a time, but I hope you will pardon your son who woud give mor to see you than any other person under the heavens, perhaps you will think when you receive this that I have not conducted myself in a proper manner, but tis not so, I have had my misfortunes as well as all other people, the first year I came to Georgia I had a severe spell of the bilious fever which unabled me to work for near three months. The next march I had the misfortune to get all my clothes burnt except what was on my back. these misfortunes together wit another spell of sickness last fall and a fit of the fever since I have been at this place has rendered me unfit for service, so I wish to return home as quick as possible, I am unable to raise money to defray my expences and wish you to send me fifty dollars for that purpose I could come by selling my horse at an under value, but i dont wish to do that for he is valuable, I sall continue here untill I hear from you and expect you to comply with my request, by the middle of september by that time the weather will be cool enough to travel and provisions will be more plenty and cheaper traveling I receivg a letter las october which informes me of my fathers death and the marriage of my sister which troubled me greatly, I have receivd another last April from you and have since heard by Charles KINIAN that Hannah and pearce has made peace and now lives together, Allen HALL & Marrina lives her within 3 miles of this place Marriner has four children and is doing tolerable good bisness. David CLARK & John KING lives about forty miles from here, and report says they are making out but badly, I am in tolerable health at present and hope these lines will find you all well

I have no more to say at present but remain yours and Co

Friend James for the second time since I left that Country I take my pen in hand to inform you of the blessings that has been handed down to me while I have been in this Western World by him who put me into existence---

The reason of my not writing to you was that a complete reverse of fortune took place with me immediately after I got to this Country and I wanted to prove the good or bad effect it had on me one of the Chief blessings was (and is at this time) It was pleasing to the will of almighty god to Show me in a short while after I came to this Country that I was Living in open rebellion against the divine and holy Law that he had placed in this world for the guide and regulations of his people, also I was trampling on the mercies that he was Showering on me every moment of my Life and returning him not the Least thanks for it at which time my Eyes were placed on the god of this world, running my all to Everlasting destruction when reflection would cause me pain to think that my soul should be Landed in an awful and burning hell just for the gratification of the carnal Lust of the flesh which is enmity against God. The satisfaction that I see in Leading a religious and pious Life devoted to that God who put me here for his own honor and Glory no tongue can express when I have the presence of God with me and feel the witness within my Soul that I have passed from death unto Life Everlasting it appears to me that the happiness I see placed in another world for me is unspeakable and full of Glory-----

Another Blessing is that I have had the good fortune to obtain to myself one of the female part of the Creation which is altogether Lovely she is Lovely in my estimation Likewise in the estimation of this world She is handsome to behold and my banner over her is Love The rose of Sharon nor the Lillies of the Valley cannot Equal her beauty we Live and Share each other's mutual Burthens which I count a satisfaction to us. She was a widow when I married her about 17 years old by the name of Jane COX and about the Size of Betsy BRYAN or not quite so Large her father and mother is Living at this time and she the youngest Child of Seven her Maiden Name was WALKER we was married the 26th of this month one year ago and the 9th of this month she was brought to bed With a Child which was unfortunately born dead but She has go so that she can get about again which is reviving to me

Now I will tell you of my Situation and what I have done respecting making provisions for a Living Immediately after I was married I Let the horse go that I brought to this Country for a Quarter Section of Land viz 160 Acres which was unimproved I went to work which went a Little tough with me at first & built me Tolerable comfortable House I moved there in October Last Kept School Three months of the Winter fenced and Cleared 10 Acres of Land and planted about 7 acres of it in corn which is will yield more or as much to the Acre but will be disputed But I appeal to the righteous one above for the manifestation of it. I have a first rate young horse that my wife had four years old come Spring that would Sell there for 150 or 160 Dollars a small Stock of Cattle also of hogs but Corn is no object here there can be nothing got for it unless you take it down the Mississippi to New Orleans where you get 1 dollar per Barrel Sometimes for it and Sometimes more and Sometimes Less Money cannot be had here for Nothing but money will will Bring any thing almost at any price corn may be had here for 10 cents per Bushel Bacon for 4 & 3 in money every thing proportionably Low The Land That I have is not deeded yet but

_____[FADED] and Joins Ajax CAMPBELLS my house is not more than 200 yards from his house and I have found him Since I have been to this Country as a father and his Sister Mrs HAYES as a mother to me and my wife people in this Country is altogether upon a level with each other there is none to rich as to Suppress the poor but every ones respectability depends upon his behaviour I am as rich as my Neighbors they have no more servants to do their work than I have to do mine my Task is Easy My Crop is done at this time and I have a School about one mile from home to Continue the winter with 25 Scholars at 2 dollars per S by the Quarter _____ is married also to Girl by the name of Sally ROBERTS and Lives on his fatherinlaws Land he has 12 or 13 acres in corn that he has Tended himself and is Generally thought that he gather 55 Bushels to the Acre he has two first rate B young mares and Stock also of all kinds. James I live Easier and better Satisfied than I ever did I have recd Two letters from you Since I have been to this State relating your marriage and Sally's also which I am glad to hear has taken place I have heard that Ephraim has taken a lying in spell this summer. I want you to write to me how you all come or and the times there is in that Country I hear that my father is dead also Uncle George. I want you this fall to send me the old man's Razor his lancet and Rileys Narrative the memoirs of Lady Hamilton the History of america by Ajax CAMPBELL when he comes in to that Country Jordan BUTLER talks of coming out to that country this fall Sucky had a Child born dead about the Same time that Jane had her's I live in about 1 ½ miles of Jordan he is doing better

cuting down what fue box pines you have or bilding hogpens where ever he ma chose yet I donn~~t~~ not that he would, one other is as I have been lately informed you have given that wench a rite to part of it and I donn~~t~~ wish to have anything to do with any thing that she is consumed with and I am verry strongly under the impretion that you would a been a great deel better off; and much more respected if you had never a had any thing to a done with her from the first for she is the verry scrapeings of Gods earth and you doo no if you have not lost all your Sinceses that she is nothing now never was nor never will be or she never would taken up with a maried man as she has with you if she had a been any friend to good morrels decency respectability or even a friend to you can you make me beleave that she won ever a brought you under the troubles dificulties and disgrace that you are now under [SMEARED] She neve would but in the lue of a friend she is in my opinion bent upon your downfall and with the assistance of such friends as you take her to be I am afrade you will sooner or later cum to the verry end ~~than your uncle Stephen~~ that old iron legs said youd come to that is the verry end that your uncle Stephen come to for she told David CHAPMAN that you was going the verry track that Stephen CHAPMAN went and would come to the same end and I do beleave that it is their wish that you should come to no better an end if it is true that Ruth has any interest in that land I would scarcely have it as a presant for I will have nothing to do with any thing she has the scriptures inform us if we resist the Devil he shall fle from us under the same pricpal if we resist our enemies they can have no power over us I would say more bu I do not wish you to get angry at what I have said for it is not with any intention to hurt your feelings noing that you ar already in trouble anough but I cant help Saying a little of what I think a great deel of sorry sorry am I to my verry hart and Soul that you ever suffered yourself taken in by sue correctors you have once been so much respected as any man but now what...your name is a complete song thruout the neighbourhood

Mr ADDAMS Sir I received your talk of the 13th Stating that I had Scandaliseed you badly----- and had begged the neighbours not to keep your company nor talk with you Sir I deny those charges and feel satisfied that you can bring no such pry? by any true Spoken purson for I have always had and have now two much respect for your family of people to scandalize the first one of them and reason of itself will tel any reasonabe purson that in the lue of heaping up scandal on your people as you have it would be to my interest to put down scandal no Bryan I never scandalised you in my life nor never tried to for there would be no woe in it you have dun a nough your self in the eyes of thinking people to last you your lifetime without my help if you live to be as old as Methusila and as you say what goes over the Devils back il cum under his belly if you are ever brought to se the same trouble about one of your people that all your people have seen about you and your latter conduct you will I am afraide be like unto Cane your punishment will be greater than you can bear and if you will trouble your self so fur as to ask your father and mother what I have said their about you you will be Sattisfyed that I am belied as to what you say I told Caleb SMITH it is not so I never told him any such thing but I tel you and you ma tel who you pleas that I think it is a great wonder your damsel had not entrived some way to get her off in the old feald as you mite enjoy what she had with a little more sattisfaction and also have the chance of pissing on her grave and if you are simple anough to think you are Daniel in the den of lions do you go in a lot where there is a fierce mad doge even let alone lions and if he dose not notice you I will try to think you are Daniel and if you prove to be daniel in the den of you put your self there and if any purson was trieng to help you out you would never let them so I shall not try neither shall I lock you up in there I no you are not the King for you cant make no purson think that damsel of yours is respectable more over rightous Mr. ADDAMS Sir your dander appears to be up because I mentioned your uncle Stephen name Sir did I Say ary harms word of him No: you produce that letter sho it to who you pleas and no purson can say that I said harm of him for I knew Stephen CHAPMAN as well and I think a great deed better than you and I think myself that he had as good a hart as ROACH as ever was born as you say and a great deed better a heart than one ADDAMS that I have lately found out for I did not think as mean as you are that you was mean anough to tell any purson of their meen relation for instance Bryan you have three likely children they ma live to be grone and have a dispute with some purson or other and ma be told of your conduct saying that you had acted like old John PELT and he was wors than an infidel this ma be the case and how would you feel to hear your children told of your conduct you certainly would feel bad and that man that would tel them of it would deserve something worse than the whipping post he would deserv a bullet drove threw the big end of his heart so Bryan if I was in you place I would trase back my own family of people before I commenced uppon others and se if I could not get a little closeer to the gallows than the whipping post and I do think it is allmost as mean a thing as a man can be gilty of to tel on other of his mean relation in anger for there is no man but what has mean relation and if it is me that you speak of as spending five negroes to pay off grog bills I have bought more value in negroes and land than I sold this much I can prove to you if you request it so what I have spent at grog shops has been my own labour and not yours nor David ADDAMS--- Henery SMITHS nor old Sall SMITHS as you call her and even if I have spent my own labour at grog shops I think there is more credit in that than there is in spending other peoples labour in supporting whores and makeing hore hous of my own dwelling as you have for you do no that you slept with that charmer of yours up in your own loft and your wife down below listning at the bedstid crack what do you call that if it is not makeing a hore hous of your own dwelling further I will state to you that it is the opinion of some that it was a plan laid between you and that woman that you cald marry old Sall as you cal her I feel satisfied Bryan that you take every purson as an enemy that finds fault of your conduct with that woman and if so you ar destitute of friends for there is no man that can or will undertak to justify you ask reason itself or your verry best friends and if they will speek plane and plump and not flatter you they will say that you are liveing a disgraceful life you yourself cannot help saying so, so it is not me that have disgraced you you have disgraced your self and not noing how to get over it you are willing to pack it on some other purson so fare well Bryan I leave you to unravel your own ball you will stop when you get to the end I did not when I wrote to you have any wish to make you mad but mean people will get mad at the truth suner than they will at a ly and if I had a flattered you and said go on in the way that you ar going I should been a gentleman too but as it is I am a wrascal I suppose I donot expect to wast any more paper with you Nor I should not have wasted this if you had not told me of the whipping post and last of all I beg of you to trace back your own fammily and let alone them that are dead and gon for just such carrectures as you are wrapt up with is able to fetch any man to the whipping post July 16th 1845

4th Question by Compt to 4th Interrogatory

Answer, I was present when Joseph BALLARD delivered the bill sale for the woman & CLARK gave his obligation for her, the circumstances attending the sale as well as I recollect, were that Luke NICHOLS came down to TOWN for the purpose of seeing the negro, when I told him that she must be taken out of Jail James S CLARK was present & remarked that he owned some of the womans relations & that he felt a sympathy for her & would buy her rather than she should stay there in Jail & suffer he offered as well as I remember $200 for her, he immediately went off & the same day he and Mr BALLARD returned with the Bill of Sale already written, NICHOLS said that BRILEY would never let her go home—

Answer, I saw her the day she was sold, in the Jail, I supposed she had taken a violent cold, She was laboring under a suppression of the Catamenia---If the child had been present, I would not have let her suckle it, she was not able I did consider it necessary to remove her from the Jail to have pure air, but as to the company of the child it could not have had any effect any way-- Further this deponant saith not W. Pursuant to notice given in this case, personally appeared before me Goold HOYT Clerk & Master in Equity for the County of Pitt the following persons to wit: William J BLOW Henry BELL who were severally sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God to make true answers to such questions as should be asked them relative to this case--- Present Joseph L BALLARD Pltff & James S. CLARK Defendant

William J BLOW Exd.

Quest 1s By Deft: What is your age & occupation?

Answer I am thirty two years old & by Profession a Physician & have practiced medicine Eleven years

And to other Questions he answers as follows to wit---

I was acquainted with Bennet BRILEY ded the intestate of the Pltff Joseph L BALLARD & knew him for 20 years previous to his death--- I believe him capable of transacting business except when under the influence of ardent spirits so as to produce intoxication---I formed my opinion from frequent business transactions and general Knowledge of the man--- I Knew negro woman Cherry the property of Bennett BRILEY dedd who was confined in Jail on or about the 21st May 1849. Said Negro was very sick and I sent word to BRILEY (as her Physician) to come and take her out of Jail or she would die the day after this Luke NICHOLS ( who was living with BRILEY at the time) came down to see me about the negro I told him the negro must be taken out of Jail or she would die, he remarked that BRILEY rather that she was dead than have her go back to his plantation--- James S. CLARK the Deft. was present at this conversation and told NICHOLS that he owned some of the womans relations, that he was sorry to see her Suffering in Jail & that if BRILEY would sell her he would give him as weel as I can recollect two hundred Dollars--- NICHOLS told CLARK, he would go home & see BRILEY and let him CLARK hear from him-- in the evening of the same day, NICHOLS & Joseph L BALLARD the Pltff came to town with a Bill of sale already written from BRILEY to CLARK for the said Negro--- I was present when Joseph L BALLARD the Pltff delivered the bill sale to CLARK & he signed as a witness--- Negro woman CHERRY which she was confined in Jail, was very sick, so much so that I was afraid she would die & from her situation I believe that two hundred Dollars was the largest sort of price, more than I would have given for her, in fact I would not have given anything for a negro in that condition--- Joseph L BALLARD married BRILEYS Sister & BRILEY Married BALLARDS Sister & lived about one mile apart at that time---

Cross examined by Pltff

I dont think I had any business transaction with him in some three or four years---tho I saw him occasionally during that time & had conversations with him, further this deponant saith not W. J. BLOW

Question by Deft: What is your age & occupation?

Answer I am 51 years old & by occupation a Farmer & sometimes practice medicine---

And to other questions he answered as follows

I knew Bennett BRILEY decd he with his wife came to my House in April 1849, which was the first of my acquaintance with him, he came to my House for medicines for Rheumatism, which I gave him and told him he must not drink ardent spirits as it would destroy the effect of the medicines & I do not believe he drank any for some time afterwards, while at my House he offered to sell a negro he said her had by the name of Cherry to me & both him & his wife said they were determined in selling here, they both believed that she had poisoned them & conceited they were worse whenever they approached her--- BRILEY was perfectly in his senses and remained so up to the time or within a day or so of the time when I heard he had sold her--- I saw him a few days before the sale when he was perfectly rational, BRILEY came to my House about three weeks or more afterwards and told me he had sold the negro, and seemed well satisfied about the sale, he was perfectly cool & in his right mind--- & was glad he had got clear of her--- The next time & last time I saw him was in June last year when he was drinking and not in his proper mind & I think unfit to transact business--- further this deponant saith not      Henry HANDCOCK
Witness Goold HOYT C&M

Jacob Elks Jun appeared and was duly sworn according to Law-also Jacob ELKS Sen who was not examined

Question by Deft: What is your age & occupation?

Answer I am 25 years old Laborer---

And to other questions he answers as follows to wit:

about two years ago I lived with Joseph L BALLARD. I saw Luke NICHOLS who was Bennett BRILEYS overseer come riding along in a Barruche with a negro woman named Cherry belonging to said BRILEY, who he said he was carrying to the Jail, a short time afterwards say two weeks or more NICHOLS & BALLARD went to BRILEYS as they said and went down to Greenville & sold the negro woman Cherry to James S CLARK, on their return they seemed mighty well pleased, to think they had sold the woman, for they believed that she would die, Doct HANCOCK having told the family that when the trick was taken off of BRILEY it would go on the negro woman & Kill her, and BRILEY was then getting well & the negro woman worse all the time up to the sale--- BALLARD frequently visited BRILEYS and I heard him say that BRILEY should sell the negro & that she should not be sold in the neighborhood—About the time before the sale of the negro, Doct HANCOCK I understood from Mr BALLARD had put BRILEY on allowance restricting him to drinking weak toddy and during that time he was competent to act any Kind of business. I staid with him nights.

William Griffin (1784-1859)

Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Northeast Arkansas, Goodspeeds Publishing Co., 1889.

John J. GRIFFIN was born in Greene County, N. C., June 1, 1826, being a son of William and Sarah GRIFFIN, who were members of the Old-School Baptist Church and were born in North Carolina, the former's birth occurring in 1784 and his death in 1859. Of their seventeen children, John J. GRIFFIN is the only one now living. He became the architect of his own fortune at the age of twenty-one years, and for a number of years was engaged in farming and rafting. On the 25th of July, 1846, he was married to Miss Theresa L. HICKS, a daughter of Thomas S. and Jane HICKS, who were Tennesseans, the former being engaged in tilling the soil. To this union eleven children were born, only four of whom are living at the present time: Sarah E. (WINNINGHAM), James M. (farmer, of Clay County, Ark.), John J. (a farmer of Dunklin County, Mo.), and T. J., also a farmer of Dunklin County. Mr. GRIFFIN took for his second wife Miss Sarah E. SPIKES, their marriage taking place on the 22d of June, 1875. Four of the seven children born to their marriage are living: Sanford and Adaline (twins), born September 22, 1875; Lee, born February 27, 1880, and Rosa, born September 12, 1887. Mr. GRIFFIN owns a good farm of eighty acres, sixty under cultivation, and devotes his land principally to raising corn and cotton. His property was at first heavily covered with timber, but he has made valuable improvements, and has now a good and comfortable home. He and wife are members of the Missionary Baptist Church, and he is a Democrat, and a member of the Agricultural Wheel. For about fifteen years after first coming west he spent the fall and winter months in hunting and trapping, and has killed at least fifty bear and hundreds of deer, and in some of his hunting expeditions met with many thrilling adventures and narrow escapes from death. He was also engaged in rafting on Black River. His parents moved from North Carolina to Tennessee in 1826, and two years later located in Posey County, Ind., and in 1840 in Randolph County, Ark.

William Williams, Forger, 1790

LYCURGUS J. BARRETT (1839-1889)

This obituary appeared in the Carolina Banner, Tarboro, NC, Fri., Aug. 23, 1889. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

L. J. BARRETT, better known as Capt. "Curg" BARRETT. was born near Farmville, Pitt County, N.C., June 16th, 1839. His boyhood was spent upon the farm. The beginning of the civil war found him pursuing medical studies at the University of Virginia. Forsaking college, he took up arms in defense of his country, having volunteered as a private in the Fourth North Carolina Battalion, where he was soon promoted to captain of the Seventh C.S.A. cavalry company. He was noted for kindness to his men and bravery in the field.

At the battle of Petersburg his company alone remained on the field. He stood at their head cheering them on. Gen. Lee observing the bravery of this company rode up and asked what company it was. Being told it was "Captain BARRETT'S, from North Carolina," he (Lee) raised his hat and shouted "God bless the North Carolina boys."

At Blount's Creek Gen. Pettigrew complimented him for bravery, and ordered him to withdraw his almost starved and broken down men, and take them out of danger as he had done his "full duty."

At Croatan he captured a company of Federals. His men were the first to dismount and stack arms in the fort.

After winning fame in many battles he succumbed to the odds against him, being taken prisoner and carried to Fort Delaware where he remained eight months.

Leaving the prison at the close of the war he returned to his farm.

He twice represented Pitt County in the lower house of the State Legislature. The first time as the candidate of the Democratic party; the second as an independant Democrat, opposing the Democratic candidate as being the nominee of a combination and not of the people—the party.

He always took an active part in politics being a leader in his community.

In 1889 at the earnest solicitation of many friends all over the first district, but against the protest of a few dear friends he ran as an independent candidate for Congress against Major L. C. LATHAM, being defeated by a large majority.

After this he retired from active public life, spending his last years with his family, suffering for several months with heart trouble of which he died July 17th, last, being fifty years, one month and four days old.

A few years before his death he joined the Disciples Church at Farmville, for which he was an earnest, zealous worker. He died surrounded by the blessings of religion, a kind and devoted husband and father, a true friend and neighbor, leaving a devoted family and sorrowing friends and relatives.

OLDEST LINEAL DESCENDANT LIVING IN PITT COUNTY IS HONORED

BY EVA HORTON SHACKLEFORD

Farmville, Sept. 14---At an early hour on Sunday, September 1, a day of blissful skies and serene beauty, there began to assemble at the late Col. John NEWTON's homestead near here the descendants of Tyson pioneers, warriors and statesmen, who pitched their tents on the level and fertile plains of Eastern North Carolina when they came to this country, wrote their names large in the pages of history, stored them in the memories of their contemporaries, and carved them on tablets of stone. One of the last-named memorials, a fitting boulder of grey granite, being unveiled here on Highway 91, a short time ago by the Daughters of the American Revolution and by the late lamented General and United States Senator, Laurence Davis TYSON, of Knoxville, Tenn., whose funeral occurred on August 28, the same day as the event in honor of which this celebration was held., the seventy-ninth birthday of Mrs. Delphia TYSON PARKER, the oldest lineal descendant of the Tyson family living in Pitt county, and a near relative of the Tennessee Senator. Life dawned for this Southern gentlewoman on August 28, 1850, at the old John Joyner TYSON home, situated within a mile of old historic Tyson church of Primitive Baptist faith, to which she has been a loyal and zealous adherent for 30 years and now enjoys the distinction of being the oldest woman member of that group. Her childhood and girlhood were spent there and she was considered quite a belle of Pitt county in those days. She was married to Richard Bolton PARKER in February, 1870, and they lived together in happiness for 50 years, celebrating their golden anniversary just three months before the death of her husband in May, 1920. The gracious hospitality of the PARKERS was known all over the county and those adjoining. Hers was a life filled with the arduous duties of the country housewife, in whom is often so well exemplified [TEAR AT FOLD] who is actuated by the most laudable of motives, the rearing of useful citizens for her country, finding her realm of service in her home and nurturing eight splendid sons and daughters. Though seldom noted in a world of industrial and scientific enterprise, the successful culmination of such an endeavor is a magnificent achievement.

More than three-score relatives and friends offered solicitations and presented gifts and flowers in answer to Mrs. PARKERS invitation, which might well have been sent in the words of King Richard II, "Come home with me to supper, and I'll lay a plot that shall show us all a merry day." At the noon hour the guests formed a circle about the 60-foot table set on the lawn, shadowed by the green boughs of friendly oaks, and groaning with the weight of palatable viands, such as only a prolific soil and excellent culinary art can produce and prepare. The table was centered with birthday cakes, one bearing 79 candles and the other 21, the latter in celebration of the birthday of Edwin NEWTON, son of Mr. and Mrs. Watt S. NEWTON, who shared in the honors of the day, and whose home was the scene of the gay event.

A chair at the head of the table was set for the hostess, the honor guest of the occasion, and on her right sat her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nancy J. NICHOLS, age 78, and on her left, a cousin, Mrs. Banna J. TYSON, 73. Grace was said by a 70 year old nephew, Watt PARKER, of Farmville. A brother, A. J. TYSON, and wife, of Farmville, were present; five children of the six who survive, Mrs. W. S. NEWON, Mrs. Will HEARNE, of Sparta; J. F. PARKER, of Falkland; J. C. PARKER, of Fountain, and R. A. PARKER, of Farmville; (Billie H. PARKER, of Bolin, was absent); 23 grandchildren out of a total of 29 and five great-grandchildren.

An unusual fact, which shows the longevity of the Tyson family, was recalled in one of the conversations on the subject, that when Mrs. PARKER'S first great-grandchild, Miss Virginia MOORE, was one year of age, her living grandparents numbered 10. Other interesting incidents were recounted by the older heads, fond on dwelling on scenes of other days, with hearts full of fine sentiment and purpose bent on upholding splendid traditions of the Tyson family. With a beaming countenance which expressed her gratification and happiness, Mrs. PARKER bade her relations and friends goodbye at the end of the day and here again she might well have quoted King Richard, "I count myself in nothing else so happy as in a soul remembering my good friends."

OBITUARY OF JOHN DAVID COX (1859-1930)

A good man has fallen asleep and the state is poorer because of his passing. Feb. 5, 1859, near Hancock's Church, Pitt County, John David COX was born of hardy and honest parents, namely, Josiah and Sally Ann TYSON COX, both to the manor born and there they lived and died.

Approaching manhood, the subject of this sketch, longing for an education, footed it across the swamp, a distance of four miles, to attend Mrs. Mary SMITH'S school., the best in the county then. From this school, he went to our State University when it's destinies were presided over by Kemp Plummer BATTLE. Retiring from school, he took himself back to the farm on which he was reared. On December 23rd, 1885, he was married to Addie SMITH, the daughter of his old school mistress, Mrs. Mary SMITH, affectionately known as Mrs. Polly SMITH. On the farm they lived until Nov., 1897, when they moved to Winterville, maintaining a home there until this day. No children blessed this union. However, it was their privilege as well as their pleasure to take into their home three boys and two girls, all orphans, who remained with them until they were fitted to take their places in the business world. It seemed a pleasure to them to lend a helping hand to the deserving. While on the farm he did much surveying and for several years was county Surveyor. About 1896 he became chief surveyor for the Beaufort County Lumber Company, which operated in several eastern counties. A few years ago he purchased a farm at Apple Grove, Va. On this farm he spent his summers with a foster son, J. S. COX, since 1919. His winters were spent in Winterville. It was here on the 21 of August, last, that the fatal malady disabled him. He was taken to Park View Hospital, Rocky Mount, N.C., Sept. 3rd, where he died Sept. 23rd. His remains now lie in Winterville cemetery. The deceased, besides numerous nephews and nieces, leaves a devoted wife, a sister, Mrs. Fannie CARROLL, and a brother, Dr. B. T. COX to mourn their loss.

He was always interested in politics of his county and state, was elected to the Legislature of 1891, and aserved as Clerk of Superior Court of Pitt County from 1914 to 1918, when he retired from business.

A true friend, a faithful husband, a noble man. (Written by his nephew, J. F. STOKES)
