HILLSBORO, TEXAS INQUIRY 1893

(Submitted by Jeffrey Meeks)

July 11, 1893
To The Sheriff of Pitt County NC

Dear Sir,

My father Wiley Buck was a native of your county. He died before I was capable of learning from him desired information relative to my paternal ancestry. I write to ask you if there are historic books, records or other means of information that may enable me to determine whether his father or grandfather or any other of his ancestors were engaged in the effort to establish American Independence, acting either in a civil or military capacity. My father's mother's maiden name was Newman or Newmans. I also desire to learn whether men named Bledsoe or Weatherred served in your state in such capacity. For such information I shall be willing to pay fairly for all labor and trouble involved.

Very truly yours,
J. G. H. Buck

OLDEST TOMB IN THE COUNTY
(Eastern Reflector 1889)

Senator A. J. Blow has for sometime been gathering data for a history of Pitt county. In his recent researches he found what is no doubt the oldest tomb in the county. It is on a grave about two miles below Greenville, on the north side of Parker's creek and only a short distance from the river bank. Sunk in the middle of the slab is a square of dark slate stone which contains the following inscriptions:

Death at a distance we but slightly fear
He brings his terrors as he draws more near
From stately palaces we must be gone
To lie benighted in the Tomb alone
Wise then's the man who labors to secure
His passage safe, and his reception sure

Here lies the body of Capt. John Speir,
Born in Virginia 25th Sept., 1693
Departed this life 20th April, 1764.

Ætat 71

If any of our readers know of an older tomb than this one in Pitt County The Reflector would be glad to hear from them.

SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE OF THOMAS HOLLOWAY

Equity Court of Sumter County, S. C. - Isaac Holloway vs Reddin McCoy 1818

Abstracted by member Martha Mewborn Marble from microfilm roll #0207712 obtained from the Church of the Latter Day Saints - Sumter County, S. C. Equity Court Records Roll #376-400

I first learned about the settlement of Thomas Holloway's estate in 1984 from a brief mention in "Nunns of The South and Southwest" which gave no details and did not indicate where the bulk of the information could be found. In 1994 Ruth Fentress mentioned that she had looked at some Equity cases in Sumter County and as I expected, she had made a few brief notes and was able to supply the microfilm roll number. It took five hours to read this information and take notes as many of the pages were badly torn or the microfilm is faded. This case is important to a number of families still located in the Craven, Lenoir, Pitt County area of N. C. and, of course, to those members of the family who moved from N. C. Between this case and that of the Griffin-Bryan Supreme Court Case, we can identify all of the children, all but one of their spouses and grandchildren of John Holloway who lived near Fort Barnwell on Half Moon Swamp, Craven County, N. C. It is not clear if the two Griffin sisters who married William and John Holloway were the mothers of these grandchildren and indeed, there is much conflicting information even among legal documents. Some of the Depositions provide ages and maiden names of other residents of this area. An example of these conflicts are the Craven County Estate Records for John Jr. which would indicate he never left Craven County. The Griffin-Bryan Case stated he went to Georgia and Bible records found in Georgia state he did go there; however, those same bible records give a list of children for John that are identical to those given for William in this case. Also, the Griffin-Bryan Case indicated William went to Georgia, and Depositions in this case indicate he died in South Carolina. Several of these families can be traced in Pitt and Craven County records and through surviving records in Lenoir County.

Thomas Holloway late of Sumter District, South Carolina died intestate by 1818 and left no wife or children. He was possessed of a large estate and Reddin McCoy, a nephew, appears to have been the only relative to have lived in the area and was appointed Administrator of the estate. He had not settled it and some of the heirs wished to obtain their share, which for the time, was rather considerable. Many Depositions were taken, in N. C., S. C., Miss., and in Georgia from various people who had known Thomas Holloway in order to determine exactly who were his brothers and sisters or their heirs. There was slightly different information in a few cases, one heir was almost swindled out of her money, and another person claimed to be an heir, but received no money from the estate. There is a detailed list of the estate sale, a plot of the 1340 acres of land Thomas owned and a list of his 14 slaves. In addition there is a long list of people who owed Thomas money. The distribution of the estate is listed in detail. Thomas was an elderly man when he died and his grown nieces and nephews were spread over N. C., S. C. Ga., and Miss. No doubt it took quite a long time to locate all of them, acquire depositions, and distribute the money. This case appears to have spread over the years 1818 to 1825.

As stated in a number of Depositions, Thomas was the son of John Holloway and grew up at Fort Barnwell on Half Moon Swamp. He was a carpenter and a joiner. There was never a mention of his mother. He had the following brothers - James, John, and William and sisters - Sarah who md. Joseph Price, Elizabeth who md. Daniel Wilson, Ann (Nancy) who never married, Isabelle who md. Francis Nunn, Mary (Polly) who md Elijah McCoy, and Bethsiah/Bettie/Martha who md John Pearson. All his brothers and sisters died prior to his death. One of the first pages indicates whether some of the heirs lived in South Carolina or out of state, however, these pages are badly torn.

The estate of Thomas was divided into 8 equal shares. Listed below are the 8 shares, those nieces and nephews sharing each share, and all information abstracted from this case including Depositions taken from many people. They are listed in the order found on the page with final accounting which may indicate order of birth.

- A. 1/8 share to heirs of brother James Holloway, dec - $2,952.60
 - a. Isaac Holloway - probably lived in Sumter County, S. C.
(A Deposition of Hardy Holloway who claimed to be a brother of Isaac, son of James, & nephew of Thomas dec. The children of Hardy were William, James, Thomas & Sarah)
- B. 1/8 share to heirs of Sarah (Sally) Price, wife of Joseph Price, sister - $2,952.60
 - a. Elizabeth Scurry - lived in South Carolina

- C. 1/8 share to heirs of Bettie/Martha/Bethsiah Pearson, sister $2,952.60
 - a. 2 children who were already dead - appeared to have no heirs
 - b. Elijah Pearson - lived out of state - in debt to Thomas by note
- D. 1/8 share to heirs of Elizabeth Wilson wife of Daniel Wilson, sister - $2,952.60
 - a. William Wilson
 - b. Willis Wilson
 - c. Karrepput md John Williams
 - d. Keziah md William Tuton
 - e. Jemima md Samuel Mills
 - f. Sarah md Nasby Mills
 - g. Beathe/Mathia md. George Slaughter/Statter(?) - lived in Laurens Co. GA - was almost swindled out of inheritance. Had a son, not named, and a daughter Susannah

According to Depositions, Elizabeth also had the following children who appeared to have died without heirs and did not receive a share: Elizabeth lived near New Bern in 1769 - Abraham Cox said she was born and raised in Craven Co. and lived after marriage in Pitt Co. where she died.

- h. Ferebee md. John Mills
- i. Daniel Wilson
- j. Elizabeth md Shadrack Tuten

- E. 1/8 share to heirs of Isabella Nunn, wife of Francis Nunn - sister $2,952.60
 - a. Joshua Nunn - gave deposition - stated he lived with Uncle John Holloway for 2 yrs
 - b. Stephen Nunn - in his deposition stated he was 64 yrs old & that he visited Thomas Holloway in Black River in S. C. - also listed another brother of Thomas as Mathais Holloway dec with no heirs - said James went to S. C.
 - c. William Nunn
 - d. Francis Nunn
 - e. Elizabeth m. Phillip Miller
 - f. Mary (Polly) md Moses Goodwyn (dec)

Isabella lived near New Bern in 1769

- F. 1/8 share to heirs of John Holloway, dec. - brother $2,952.60
 - a. John Holloway - Elizabeth Moore stated that John had a defect in one of his ears
 - b. Edmond Holloway
 - c. James Holloway
 - d. Lizzy Holloway who md ___ Jones- her last name given once as Ives so she could have been md. Twice - husbands name given in deposition in 1820 but torn.

John - lived out of state - lived near New Bern in 1769 - Sarah Lane stated that this John went to Tenn.

- G. 1/8 share to heirs of William Holloway - brother - $2,952.60
- John Holloway - lived out of state - represented his brothers & sisters - gave deposition on 19 June 1820 and used a mark
 - William Holloway
 - Jeremiah Holloway
 - James Holloway
 - Nancy md Thomas Kembull/Kimbook
 - Mary (Polly) md David Pridgen
 - Elizabeth (Betsy) md James Williams

Dau Lizzy who died as an infant according to deposition of Abigail Daughtry and a daughter, Susannah, was listed on one notation, but there was no Susannah who received a disbursement - this could have been Lizzy.

- H. 1/8 share to Reddin McCoy as Administrator of Mary (Polly) McCoy - $2,952.60
- Reddin McCoy
 - John McCoy
 - Elizabeth md _____ Pringle (Probably William who purchased from Thomas' estate

Mary lived near Thomas Holloway in Sumter Co.

{According to deposition of Stephen Nunn, John also had a son Mathais who must have been dec without heirs}

Depositions given by various people, most of whom lived in Craven, Pitt or Lenoir Counties, N. C. Most of the information has already been incorporated into the above and only additional information is given here.

- Petition by various members of the family on 6 May 1820 to settle estate

SHOOTING AT AYDEN (Daily Reflector May 4, 1899)

On Tuesday night at Ayden Elias McLawhorn, Sidney and Jim Moore and the latters' father, W. B. Moore, had a fracas about the election, all the Moores being after McLawhorn. The affair quieted down and everybody thought it was over. Wednesday morning while Jim Moore was walking down the street he was attacked by McLawhorn who shot at him several times. Only one of the shots took effect, making a flesh wound in the back.

DEATH OF FESTEL BROWN

WAS CORPORAL IN CONFEDERATE ARMY

Found in the Manning Room at Martin Community College by Clarice W. Mills and Jeffrey Meeks. Article appeared in The Watch Tower Volume XLV, No. 15, Robersonville, NC February 6, 1918.

Frestel L. Brown² died January 14th, 1918, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Keel. He was born in Pitt County, March 7th, 1845, and was nearing his 73rd birthday. He married Sarah Ward of Pitt County who crossed over the river several years before him. He leaves five children to whom The Herald and their many friends extend sympathy. The children are: James Brown, near Oak Grove; Linwood, Bethel; Robert, Wendell; Herbert, near Bethel, and Mrs. Keel at Oak Grove.

At the outbreak of the Civil War he was a mere lad of sixteen years, but impelled by a high sense of duty and fired with enthusiasm by a patriotic answer of his older comrades to the call of the South, he too bade farewell to those whom he loved and with nap-sack across his shoulder he strode out away, on and on until he reached the battlefields of Virginia where under the leadership of the illustrious Stonewall Jackson his youth ripened into manhood and for four long years he braved the horrors of war and won for himself the admiration and high esteem of his fellow soldiers.

He was corporal of Co. B. 33rd North Carolina Regiment, which his parole from Appomattox still in a good state of preservation will show. It reads as follows:

Appomattox Court House, Va. April 10th, 1865

The bearer, Frestel L. Brown of Co. B. 33rd Regiment North Carolina Troops, a paroled prisoner of the Army of Northern Virginia, has permission to go to his home and there remain undisturbed.

By Command

Col. R. V. Cowen, Com. 33rd N.C's

S. Whitaker, Sr. Adjutant*

If he was not with Jackson at Bull Run he likely helped repel Freemont at Cross Keys and route McDowell at Port Republic. The writer, while a student in Virginia, played ball on the old battlefield near Port Republic. Corporal Brown was likely with Jackson at the second battle of Bull Run, helped capture Harper's Ferry and fought in conjunction with Lee's army at Antietam. He no doubt fought in the battle of Fredericksburg and was possibly present at the battle of Chancellorsville and witnessed the awful tragedy when his beloved General, Stonewall Jackson, was wounded by some of his own men in battle and died on May 9th, 1863. This accounts for his being with Lee at Appomattox. It is next to marvelous that in all the battles in which he engaged, he was never wounded.

No more battles, no more burning bridges over the silver streams of the Shennandoah to hold back the enemy, no more fording the creeks on a Northern Va's cold December day, no more footsore tramping through the rugged, rocky Blue

Ridge passes. He has fought the last battle, he has burned the last bridge behind him and has crossed the deep chasm of death from which no traveler ever returns.

If he has been as faithful to the great Captain of his soul as he was to his beloved General, then all will be well.

May the great Comforter who said: "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted," speak words of comfort and solace to the bereaved and broken hearted, and bless and keep his loved ones, who like us all, must sooner or later answer the Captain's call and may it be "Come up higher."

Obituary Of Elder Josiah Nelson

From the Minutes of the Contentnea Primitive Baptist Association. Copy of original records located in the Heritage Room of Lenoir Community College. Transcribed and submitted by Clarice W. Mills

The committee appointed by this Association to prepare an obituary of Brother Josiah Nelson, I submit the following: He departed this life at his residence in Pitt County N. C. on the 31st of March 1872. He seemed to have a long tiresome case of consumption, but notwithstanding his long afflictions he seemed to be sound in the faith which was once delivered to the Saints. While he was confined to his house he spent a great portion of his time in reading the Bible, and conversing about the goodness of God. In this time of his he seemed to have a strong desire for his brethren and sisters and friends that visited him. I your unworthy servant visited him several times during his illness, and his whole conversation was upon the goodness of God in his salvation of poor sinners through the spirits of the blood of Christ. Brother Nelson previous to his death spent the most of his life in traveling and preaching.

He was very precise in his mode of preaching and in all of his dealings with his neighbours. He was found honest and upright in all of his dealings from his youth. He was the son of brother Caleb Nelson and Elizabeth his wife, both of Pitt County. He was born July 27th 1817 and was raised by very pious parents, and while in the bloom of youth it pleased God to arouse this dead faculties of his soul by his divine Spirit and caused him to see the exceeding witness of his heart and brought him to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Christ, soon after he was constrained to go to the church at Red Banks and relate his feelings to the same; he was received and was baptized by Elder James Griffin sometime in the year 1839.

He was found a faithful member of that Church and was appointed Clerk of the Church in 1844, which office he filled with promptness and humility, and in the year 1857 he was licensed to express his gift in the Gospel.

He was ordained in the year 1860 by Elders David House and Wm. A. Ross. He was married to Eliza Taylor March the 12th 1846, by whom he had six children, two sons and four daughters all are living but one he died in infancy. He has left a wife and five children to mourn the loss, but their loss is his eternal gain we believe.

May his children ever regard his precepts and follow his example, and may the Lord prepare them to meet their father when they will not have to part no more. If it can be his will may the Good shepherd of this sheep ever watch over her and her children, and keep them in the paths of peace, and finally receive them up unto glory there where the wicked shall cease from troubling and the weary be at rest.

Why do we mourn departed friends
Or shake at death's alarm?
Tis but this voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.
But all his labors now are over
And we shall hear his voice no more
His dust lies silent in the tomb
He's gone to heaven his final home

ZION'S LANDMARK OBITUARIES

BRITTANNIE NELSON

Zion's Landmark Vol. 14, No. 33 June 1, 1900. Submitted by Jeffrey Meeks

Our beloved grandmother died at her home in Parmele, N. C., January 11, 1899. She was caught on fire from the stove and seriously burned, which caused her death. She bore her afflictions and pains without a murmur. She was burned January the 9th, and died on January 11th. She is greatly missed by her people. She was born May 23, 1812, was married to Gilbrey Nelson about 1833. She was a kind and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She left behind a devoted husband, four children, thirty-three grand children, and six great grand children to mourn their loss. She united with the Baptist Church at Flat Swamp in 1871, and was a faithful member until the last. She never failed to fill her seat when able. I believe she was a good old soul if ever there was one. She would often say she was not going to live long though she was healthy as old people generally are. She is now gone from this community and to a better one we hope.

LUCRETIA JAMES

Zion's Landmark Vol. 33, No. 24 November 1, 1900 Submitted by Clarice W. Mills

The subject of this notice was born July 25th, 1821³, and died Aug. 29th, 1899, making her stay on earth 78 years, 1 month and 3 days. I feel that I can not do justice to her memory. She was married to Matthew James on the 16^h of May, 1844, who preceded her to the grave 15 years.

By this union two children were born unto them, one son and one daughter, both of whom lived to be grown. The son died March 6th, 1875. Her daughter is still living. She obtained a hope in Christ and united with the church at Flat Swamp the 7th of September, 1877. Her husband never united with the church, but was a firm believer in the doctrine of salvation by grace. I think her neighbors will bear me out in saying truly a good woman is gone, kind and affectionate in her family and to all with whom she came in contact. The writer's home was with her for over 30 years, and I can truthfully say more of her than of any one else I have ever seen. During my stay of over 30 years with her, I never saw her angry in my life, always pleasant and had a good word for all. How pleasant and good it is to be able to thus speak of our kindred and friends. Her disease was cancer. She suffered untold misery, but never complained. Oh! How we miss her, but of one thing we are satisfied, and that is, she is with her Maker at rest, which is a happy exchange for her. While it is sad to us to part with her, we hope we can say with David, while she cannot come to us we can go to her, as we humbly trust in that bright world above. Her walk in this life should be an example for us all.

Written by her son-in-law who loved her as a mother.

Pitt County Marriage Records 1796?

Source: Revolutionary War Pension records of William¹ and Thomas² Spain
Contributed by members Larry Brizendine and Jeffrey Meeks

I Henry Sheppard clerk of the court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the county aforesaid do hereby certify that I have examined the files in my office, for any bond for the celebration of marriage between Thomas Spain and Jemima Summerlin and there is no such bond to be found in my office which is the only place in said county for such a document. I further certify that there are no such bonds of this description filed in my office previous to the year 1796. Given under my hand and seal of office at Greenville this the eleventh day of March 1852.

I Henry Sheppard clerk of the court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the county of Pitt in the State of North Carolina do hereby certify that the forgoing is a true copy of the record or bond filed in this office for a licence of marriage, between William Spain and Nancy Church, with the exception of the date which is excepted on the record or bond in fair legible figures, as follows, viz. and dated the 25th day of February A. D. 1797.

I Henry Sheppard above named depose and say that I hold the office of clerk of the court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the county of Pitt aforesaid and that the above is a true extract from the records, or copy of said bond for a licence of marriage with the exception above named as certified by me and that the only public of marriages kept in this county is the filing in this office of bond for licence for marriage. The word "copy" on the first page interlined before certifying and signing the said Bond I find filed in my office, among other such bonds, and tabled as follows "W" Spain Licence Bond. February 7th, 1797

(Marriage Bond) Know all men by these presents that we William Spain and Isaac Church are held and firmly bond unto his Excellency Samuel Ashe Esquire, Captain General and Commander in Chief in and over the said state in the sum of five hundred pounds current money to be paid to the said Governor, his successors or assigns. To the which payment will and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Seated with our seals and dated (blank) day of (blank) year.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bounded William Spain hath made application for a licence for a marriage intended to be had and solemnized between him and Nancy Church of the county aforesaid. Note in case it shall not appear at anytime hereafter that there is any lawful cause to obstruct the said marriage the said marriage then the above obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full face and virtue.

(Signed) W. Spain, Isaac Church

Sealed and delivered in the presence of Geo. Evans

GEORGE MOY'S MARE

New Bern District Superior Court, Civil Action Cases; Box 2, Craven County, NC. located in NC State Archives, Raleigh, NC. Submitted by member Martha Mewborn Marble

Monday, twenty ninth day of October 1787, Burke County, GA

Deposition of Israel Joyner

Directed by the Superior Court of New Bern NC District to take deposition of Israel Joyner in a matter of controversy in aforesaid Court depending wherein George Moy is plaintiff and Benjamin Barrow Defendant - said Joyner appeared before the Justice in the County of Burke, State of Georgia and said on or about the tenth of January last past himself and the aforesaid Benjamin Barrow being riding together and in conversation about a suit bought by said George Moye against said Benjamin Barrow to recover the value of a mare the property of said George Moye. She being shot and killed dead near the plantation of aforesaid Benjamin Barrow, Israel Joyner on his oath said he being about to depart to the state of Georgia, he wanted said Barrow to tell him if he did shot Moye's mare telling said Barrow that as he had once been sworn on the matter and since he would probably never see him again and since he really wanted to know of Barrow did kill the mare, wanted to know the rite of the matter and the aforesaid Benjamin Barrow took him the said Joyner by the hand and told him with his own mouth in these words, we did kill Moyes mare meaning himself or his family as I understood said Barrow further sayeth that he had not hurt said Moye by killing his mare as much as they had hurt him further said deponent saith not.

Before Matt Jones

(Israel signed with a mark)

State of NC, Pitt County - May Term 1787

Deposition of Jonathan Jolly

Appeared and made oath on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God that on or about the 7th of June in the year 1782 he was at the house of said Barrow and going in the wheat fields of said Barrow with many other persons and observing that many of the heads of the wheat appeared to have been beaten and one of the company asked the aforesaid Benjamin Barrow how his wheat had been destroyed. He confirmed and said it was destroyed by the damage old Rebels horse and repeated the same several times over and at last said it was destroyed by old Moye which I understood to be George Moye. The said donent on his oath furtherways that Benjamin Barrow did say that is said Moyes horses did come there many times more that he would give them lead to eat or a belly full of lead which of the each _ persons I don't recollect. The deponent being asked what reason the said

Barrow called the said Moye a Dammed Rebel he said that he did think that it was because he declared himself a true friend to the American cause. The above mentioned circumstances passed sometime before the said Moye had a mare killed near about the said Benjamin Barrows plantation. Further the deponsant says not (there is nothing further and there was not a second page so it could have been lost from the file at some point).
27th day of October 1787 by Thos. Ringgold.

Pitt County - in obedience to the Honorable Court of the District of Newbern, we have caused Israel Joyner to come before us this first day of Janury 1787 who made oath on the Holy Evangalist of Almighty God that at Harvest in 1782 or 1783 he was in Company in Benjamin Barrows wheatfield at reaping and there was a good deal of destruction in the Wheat which appeared to be done by horses which Mr. Barrow aforesaid was done by Moyes horses or creating and William Jarmen Miller made infuses and said that if it hd been his wheat they should eat lead and further this deponant sayeth that he was at Rich Moyes Esqr and that Moye told him the Benjamin Barrow killed the mares as he believed _____ and the said deponant asked him if he could prove it and he the aforesaid Moye said no but that he would give him or any body five pounds would increase it or that he the attended & rice the more and further this deponant sayeth not.
Signed by Steph Brooks and Thomas Ringgold

(Jordan Teel married Rebecca Pearce 22 Aug 1845

See Pension record (#10,441) for Lodrick Teel:

1. Born in Pitt Co., NC in 7 Oct. 1754
2. Deponent has no record of his age as his father was a very poor man and illiterate and kept no record of the age of his family.
3. Deponent was living in Pitt County, NC near the village of Greenville first called Martinsborough and afterwards changed to Greenville. After the close of the war, deponent lived 11 years in Pitt Co., NC and from there moved to the state of Georgia and now resides in Harris County, GA.
4. Deponent was drafted into the service
5. He was in the company of Capt. John Barrow as well as Deponent can recollect. Deponent marched under the command of Major Inlow and Capt. Barrow to Wilmington in the state of North Carolina as sworn by deponent's application.
6. Deponent received a discharge from Capt. Barrow at the end of his term of service but said it has been long since been lost and he does not know where it is.
7. Deponent refers to Major Saml. Huey, Esquire, James Huey Esquire, A. Wilson, Capt. Samuel Clay and to the citizens of his neighborhood generally as persons who can testify as to deponent's character.

He served one tour of three months in the militia service as a drafted man in the war of the American Revolution. (He) further states that in addition to the above term of service, he served two tours of eighteen months each in said war by substitute. (He) employed and paid one Henry Anderson to serve the term of eighteen months first mentioned in this affidavit and (he) employed and paid one Thomas Spain to perform the second term of eighteen months herein mentioned.....3 Feb 1837.....(he) was regularly discharged at Wilmington and from there, (he) returned home to Pitt County and being unlearned and poor (he had) lost or mislaid the said discharge so that at this time (he does) not know where it is.....declared that his name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any State.

From Huntsville (Alabama) Advocate 2 Nov 1853 "There is an old man named Loderick Teel living in Coosa Co. in this state who is active and lively and is 113 years old. He served in the Revolutinary War."

THOMAS SPAIN

Source: Revolutionary War Records in the National Archives contributed by Larry Brizendine and Albemarle Parish Records. Abstracted and submitted by Jeffrey Meeks

Thomas Spain born July 12, 1760, christened August 17, 1760 son of Drury and Mildred Spane in Sussex Co. VA died January 23, 1840 in Pitt County, NC. Thomas married in Pitt sometime in either the year 1782 or 1783 to Jemima Summeril born 1763 and died in Pitt County December 26, 1841.

Thomas and Jemima had five known and named children, all born and raised in Pitt County. Polly born August 1784 who died before 1850 without issue; Drury born January 2, 1790 died sometime in the year 1860; Thomas Jr. born April 11, 1792 and died after 1850; David who died about four years old and Ruth (Rutha, Ruthy) born in August 1802 and died after 1850.

Thomas Spain enlisted in the Revolutionary War on the 10th of February 1777 for three years. A drummer in the 5th Regiment under Colonel James Armstrong in Captain James Mayo's company. Fought in the battles of Brandywine, Germantown and Monmouth. Was in Charleston, SC during the British siege in May of 1780 and was taken prisoner at the surrender. His three year enlistment had been served before his capture therefore he received his discharge and returned home.

WILLIAM SPAIN

William Spain born September 28, 1763 son of Drury and Mildred Spane in Sussex Co. VA and died October 23, 1841 in Pitt County, NC. William married in Pitt County sometime in the year 1797 to Nancy Church.

William and Nancy had five known and named children, all born and raised in Pitt County. Sarah born 1798 who died before 1850; Agnus born 1799 - died after 1850, and is believed to have married a Mr. Bell; Nancy born 1801 and died after 1850; Epps born 1803, died before 1850 and William Jr. born in 1805 and died before 1850.

William Spain gave a detailed account of his Revolutionary War service. In April 1777, at thirteen years of age, he offered himself as a substitute for his father and was received in his place. First he marched to Alexandria, VA, remained there 6 or 7 weeks, then to Philadelphia, PA, to Trenton, NJ, back to Philadelphia, then to the head of the Elk River, and was present at the battle of Brandywine on September 11th, 1777. On the 12th retreated to Philadelphia, then to Germantown and was there for that battle. October 4th, 1777 took winter quarters at Valley Forge, then marched to New Jersey and was at the battle of Monmouth June 28th, 1778. Marched to Brunswick, then to White Plains, NY, then to __Valley, to Hastings on the Hudson River, to West Point and remained there until the Virginia and North Carolina troops were ordered to go south and later to Charleston on March 3, 1780. He was in Charleston at the time of surrender on the 12th of May 1780, when he was taken prisoner. Kept a prisoner for five months then taken aboard a British ship and after an additional five months he enlisted in the British army. He stated that this was done only because he was destitute and needed clothes. A condition of his enlistment was that he go to the Spanish Main or to Jamaica and not fight against the United States. He remained in Jamaica until peace was declared, at which he received his release. Boarding an American vessel at port in Jamaica, he was dropped off in Nova Scotia. No accounts were given as to how he came back to Pitt County. William Spain served as a fifer.

AYDEN SISTERS RECALL EVENTS OF THEIR YOUTH, 75 YEARS AGO

The Daily Reflector _____ 1947 - by Gladys Best Tripp
Contributed by member Elizabeth "Betsy" Skinner

Ayden - The homespun dress of Civil War days, old-time tournaments with dashing cavaliers on horses, and the beauty contests they won 75 years ago are all vivid topics of conversation when two of North Carolina's oldest sisters, both in their nineties, swap stories around an open fire in the little tobacco town of Ayden.

Mrs. Martha Corey of Rocky Mount who recently celebrated her 92nd birthday comes often to visit her younger sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Cannon, 90, who has been confined recently to her home in Ayden during the past two years.

Born in Pitt County on a farm about five miles from Ayden just prior to one of the South's most turbulent periods, Mrs. Corey was six and Mrs. Cannon four when the Civil War broke out. Since the Post Office for the nearest regiment was located on their front porch, the two little girls had first-hand knowledge of war.

In Good Health

Now the two old ladies, both in excellent health despite their age recall vividly the days of their childhood. Their combined descendants number 9 children, 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Cannon lives with her eldest daughter, Mrs. Launa Haddock. Mrs. Corey lives in Rocky Mount with her eldest son, Hugh S. Corey, who retired this month from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad after 40 years service.

Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Nelson<sup>4</sup>, the little girls grew up in the days when Southern farmers raised their own flax for the women to spin to make clothes. Neither girl had "bought material" to make a dress with until they were in their middle teens although their father was a well-to-do farmer. Materials actually did not exist in the post war days following the War between the States.

Made Own Clothes

The flax was raised in the fertile fields surrounding their farmhouse in Pitt County. Then the girls and their mother spun, carded and wove the material for their clothes. All of their stockings were knit.

These homespun dresses, which have been immortalized in songs of the Civil War, were worn everywhere they went. "Even to Sunday School," Mrs. Corey adds, in describing the wardrobes of that day. The girls had much fewer dresses than today but since they were all made from the same material, little variety could be achieved.

Shuck hats were also the style worn by the North Carolina lassies of that period. "They were right pretty, too," says Mrs. Cannon, as she recalls how they decorated them with blooming flowers from their yard for Sunday outings.

The oldtime tournaments where the young blades of the day caught rings on their lances as they rode horses around a field are another favorite topic of the sisters. Colorful gatherings of a period when hoop skirts and chivalry were popular, the tournaments were widely attended by all the young folk in "riding distance." Horses, wagons and buggies were the mode of transportation.

The contestants rode at a furious pace and caught rings with their lances. The crowd cheered the contestants, and the "favorite riders" were loudly acclaimed.

Won Beauty Contest

The beauty contests of the day were held in conjunction with the tournaments. Mary Ann Nelson was thrice counted winner and reigned as queen over the ball and festivities following the tournament. Martha Nelson was also selected queen at one of the affairs.

At 18 years of age, Martha married Rhodes Corey, one of the leading farmers of Pitt County, and raised a family of four boys and two girls. She moved to Rocky Mount about 35 years ago when her son H. S. Corey, was transferred there by the railroad.

Mary Ann Nelson married John William Cannon, another outstanding farmer of Pitt County, when she was 20. He was a veteran of the Civil War and was wounded during the fighting at Appomattox. Held prisoner for months following the end of the war, he walked from Richmond to Ayden barefoot to surprise a family which had given him up as dead nearly a year previous. Mary Ann met him 12 years later at one of the tournaments, and they made their home two miles from Ayden where the colonial home place and surrounding farmlands still remain intact.

Times Are "Easy"

These are "easy times" compared to their childhood they point out, when postwar conditions are the topic. If more folks would make the most of what they have, the world would be a happier place, they say. Both are confirmed optimists.

Twice a year, in June and August, they go back to their childhood Primitive Baptist Church at Hancocks, near Ayden where their father preached for many years. Carrying a large portion of their families to these biennial gatherings, they usually fill half the church with the group.

Mrs. Corey's other living children in addition to her son of Rocky Mount are J. B. Corey of Tarboro, Mrs. T. R. Allen and Mrs. Herman Stokes of Ayden, Lieut. Comdr. Harold Corey, USN of Norfolk, Hugh Allen, Corey and Bruce Stokes, all of Ayden are grandchildren. She also has a great-grandchild in Norfolk.

Mrs. Cannon has four daughters and a son living, all of Ayden. W. C. Cannon, Mrs. Claud Burney, Mrs. W. J. Bullock, Mrs. M. K. Hart and Mrs. Launa Haddock are the children. Grandchildren include Mrs. J. T. Hardy of Maury, Mrs. Earl C. Hubbard of Raleigh, Mrs. Helen Makowiecki of Washington, D. C. Raymond Hart of Columbia, S.C. Durward Hart of Wendell, Misses Merle and Blanche Hart of Kinston, Miss Ruth Skinner of Wilmington, Lester Skinner of Norfolk, Va., Hugh Skinner of San Diego, Calif. She also has 13 great-grandchildren.

BIOGRAPHICAL

A short biographical sketch of the life of Elder James Griffin

From an original Minutes Of The Twenty-Sixth Annual Session of the Contentnea Baptist Association held at Rose of Sharon M. H. Lenoir County, N. C. on the 25th, 26th, 27th days of October 1856. Contributed and abstracted by Clarice Wood Mills

Elder James Griffin, one of the sons of Mr. Josiah Griffin, of Pitt County, N. C., was born on the 7th day of March, A. D. 1804, near Greenville, where he was reared a very moral man, and received only a limited education—trained up in the way he should go, and he never departed from it, as is well known to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. The writer of this has often heard him say. He could not bear to tell a falsehood; for his mother, who was a very pious member of the Baptist church had impressed it upon his infant's mind, that he must not tell a lie.

At the age of 18 he joined the Church at Red Banks, Pitt County, and was baptized on the 22nd of February, 1823, by Elder Amariah Biggs. He soon felt that he had a call to preach His Gospel and he obeyed the call. In 1825 he commenced the exercises of his gift, and on the 11th of February, 1827 he was licensed by the church to preach. In May of 1827 he accepted the pastoral care of Red Banks Church.

He occasionally traveled among the other churches, and in destitute sections of the country, preaching the gospel; and the Lord blessed his labors by adding many souls to his ministry. He was, for 18 or 20 years, almost the only Primitive Baptist Minister who travelled and preached between Neuse and Pamlico rivers, where were situated three of the old churches. He was also the instrument to assist in constituting the church at Milton, Craven County, on the 18th of January, 1851, and was called to, and accepted the pastoral care of it; and also the church at South Creek, Beaufort County, was constituted on the 1st Saturday in March, 1855.

He was married to a Miss Rebecca Ann Smith, of his native County, on the 15th of March, 1827, who was a very kind and affectionate wife by whom he had six children—five daughters and one son, four of which still survives. His first wife deceased the 15th of October, 1840, and he was again married to a Miss Margaret Ann Whitehead, of Edgecombe County, on the 28th of December, 1841, who also was a very dutiful, kind and affectionate wife; by whom he had four sons. He had a desire to move to the Western country as he expressed himself only to be providentially prevented from doing so. In January of 1852 he purchased a tract of land on Bay River, in the lower part of Craven County and in April following moved to it with his family. The new place was a vast wilderness of fertile land, which required hard labor to cultivate.

Elder Griffin was a poor man as regards this world's goods, and of a very weak constitution; and all the help he had was the son of his first wife and the four little boys by his last wife. He labored hard and broke in, drained and partially cultivated a small plantation. In October, 1855 the son of his first wife, James, a very promising young man, a dutiful son, deceased. The father felt the shock and mourned the loss.

He resigned the pastoral care of several churches in his native county, Pitt, but continued his care in Craven and Beaufort Counties until his death. He had several severe attacks of disease at his new residence, the last of which proved to be fatal. Death occurred on the 18th day of September 1856, leaving a widow and four orphan children, and four children of his first wife.

NANCY L. JAMES

Vol. LIV, February 15, 1921 No. 7 - Contributed by Clarice Wood Mills

It is with a very sad feeling I try to write of the death of my mother Nancy L. James who was born December 10, 1837, and died April 5, 1920<sup>5</sup>, and was buried the 6th in the graveyard by her last husband, my father, Bythel James who had been dead since July 16, 1902<sup>1</sup>. He was born December 20, 1824. They broke up housekeeping and moved in with me and he was taken sick and died here and left her alone in this world, a poor afflicted creature. It seemed she was always afflicted and not able to do but very little and was very childish, especially in her last days. She left here and went to Robersonville where she loved to stay so well and where her membership was and she was spending some time with my brother Ben when she was taken worse and died. It was very sad, yet we could not grieve as she had been spared these many years and was without a companion which she often spoke of and didn't seem to be satisfied anywhere and didn't stay at one place long at the time and we hope she is at rest where parting is no more. I miss her so much, it seems so often I ought to see her come, but we hope to meet her some day.

She had been a member of the Primitive Baptist for a long time. I was a small child when she was baptized sitting in her chair. She leaves 8 children, no brothers or sisters, she being the last one of the family. She was twice married, the first time to Lamuel Ross, brother to old Alfred Ross. Only one child was born to her by him, he dying before he was born. She is yet living.

Lammie Taylor or Puss, as she was always called was the oldest and myself the youngest, being 48. We two and one brother are Primitive Baptists and I truly hope some day the rest will be if it be our heavenly Father's will, for we feel to say Thy will be done, and not ours, for we know not what we need.

The children are: Mrs. Lammie Taylor of Rosemary at this time, M. H. James of Waverly, Va., formerly of Tarboro, N. C., Y. J. James of Ranger, Texas, W. D. James of Mount Olive, N.C., B. C. James of Robersonville, N. C., Mrs. L. Barnhill of Stokes, N. C., J. S. James of Princeton, N. C. and Mrs. Ed Barnhill of Parmele, N. C. Elder B. S. Cowen, her pastor preached her funeral to a large congregation of people, relatives and friends.. Her children all were present but two, one being sick and the other living so far couldn't get word in time to come, but we hope to meet her some sweet day where parting will be no more.

ELD. JESSE T. DAVIS DEAD.

Obituary Clipping found in the Davis Family Bible listed in Volume V, No. 1 February 1998. Contributed by Brenda Davis Stocks

Eld. Jesse T. Davis died at his home in South Ayden on last Saturday morning about 5 o'clock. He had been in feeble health for a long time, and his death was not unexpected. He had reached the age of 80 years and was nearing 81.

He was born and reared in Greene county being the son of Blake and Rhoda Davis. He was married long before the Civil war to Miss Martha Jones, daughter of Gardner and Bethany Jones, who still survives him. To them were born three children; Benjamin, James and Cornelius. Only 1 of which is now living. Jas A. Davis, a prominent citizen of Ayden. Eld. Davis reared his family on a farm, though he was a splendid mechanic and did much work at his trade. For a great many years he has been connected with the Christian church, holding his membership with the church at Hookerton. He felt called to the ministry and was early set apart to the work. He preached in many places and did a great work for his people.

Bro. Davis was very attentive to his religious duties as long as he lived. After he became too feeble to preach, he attended the Sunday School as long as he could walk to the church. His delight was in the Book of Books and he enjoyed the service of his Master. A good citizen, neighbor, husband, father, and friend has gone to reap the reward of a well spent life.

His remains were taken to the Christian church on Sunday evening at 2 o'clock, where a beautiful eulogy was pronounced by Rev. Cecil Outlaw of the Atlantic Christian College. Mrs. T. L. Willingham sang an appropriate solo. The body was then taken to the cemetery and laid to rest. A very large crowd being in attendance. The Rev. Outlaw performed the last sad rites.

Peace to his sleeping dust, and may God comfort the mourners.

AN AGED MINISTER DEAD

Printed in The Daily Reflector ___1899. Contributed by Levis Allen Churchill

Rev. B. B. Albritton<sup>6</sup> an aged preacher in the Free Will Baptist church, died at 2:30 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Harris, about five miles from Greenville. Mr. Albritton was a native of Pitt county, and was in his 85th year. He had been in the ministry for more than half a century, and with the exception of one year had been pastor of the church at Parker's Chapel all of this time and it was one of his regular appointments for preaching. In all his ministerial labors with different churches he received and baptised 3,460 members.

About ten years ago Mr. Albritton moved to Pamlico county, where he married a second time, and that county has since been his home. He always came back to fill his appointments at Parker's Chapel. Two weeks ago, he came to get ready for the yearly meeting, but was taken sick soon after reaching the home of his daughter and never got up again.

Do You Know These People?

Photo contributed by member George Hardy Wyatt. His mother Helen Meacham Johnson born 29 October 1892 descendant of Hardee Johnson & Catherine Cannon is the last person on the right. Helen was born in Grifton, and raised in Ayden, NC. George believes that this may have been a Methodist Church group in Ayden or Grifton and possibly Easter Sunday by the bareness of the trees in the background circa 1912-1915.

Announcing PCFR 1850 Pitt County Census Project!

Pitt County Family Researchers will be compiling information on the heads of households in 1850 in Pitt County, North Carolina. We NEED your help if you had ancestors in Pitt County within this time frame. It is our desire to compile information on each and every family located in the 1,317 dwelling homes listed. Most important is the fact that we are attempting to list the father and the mother of the head of household and the spouse if applicable. Contributors are encouraged to submit additional information.

The 1850 Census for Pitt contained 14 enumerator districts. Volunteers within our organization have adopted these districts and will tally the number of submissions received. This does not mean that these persons will be responsible for locating information on the listed persons. We need you to submit your family, share with us the details on your Pitt County ancestry. If you are not sure if you had ancestors here in 1850, please feel free to contact me or visit our web page.

We feel that as a burned county this will be an invaluable aid to genealogy research. This publication will be available for purchase upon it's completion.

WILLIAM C. MILLS JASPER COUNTY, IL

Portraits & Biographical Record of Effingham, Jasper, & Richlands County, Il. Containing Biographical Sketches of Prominent & Representative Citizens, Governors of the State and of the Presidents of U.S. Lake City Pub. Co. 1893 Chicago. Contributed by Alice Mills Elks.

William C. Mills, one of the extensive farmers and stock-raisers of Jasper County, living in Grandville Township, is a prominent and influential citizen, and well deserves representation in this volume. His life record is as follows: He was born in Pitt County, N. C., February 8, 1836, and is a son of Churchill and Holland (Dickson) Mills, who were natives of the same state. Their family numbered ten children: Patsy, Thomas, Mac S., William C., Wyatt J., John II, Henry, Asa, Leonard and Owen. The father of this family was a farmer throughout his entire life. He remained in North Carolina until 1840, when he emigrated to Crawford County, Ill., locating in Palestine. He made the trip with one horse and a cart. His wife had to walk part of the way and carry one of the children in her arms. Mr. Mills pre-empted some land near Palestine, and in the middle of the forest built a log cabin, 16x18 feet, and began the development of a farm, upon which he resided for five years. He then entered and pre-empted three hundred and twenty acres of land in Crawford County, within six miles of Robinson, and there made his home until 1870. In that year he took up his residence in Diona, Ill. upon a farm. Six years later he went to Leon, Tex. where he purchased a five hundred acre tract of land, and thereon lived until called to the home beyond. He died December 19, 1892. The day following would have been his eighty-fourth birthday. In politics he was a Republican, and was a man of sterling worth and highly respected. The mother of our subject died in September, 1865, after which Mr. Mills was again married. His second wife is still living. They had five children: Joseph, Sarah, Albert, Allen and Rhoda M.

We now take up the personal history of our subject, who was about four years old when he came with his parents to Illinois. He was raised in Crawford County, and in the subscription schools of the neighborhood acquired his education. He remained with his father until he had attained his majority, and then started out in life for himself. His father gave him twenty acres of land, and with this as a nucleus he has built up his present fortune. He began working as a farm hand during the summer months and in the winter season chopped wood and split rails. He was thus employed until the breaking out of the war.

In April, 1861, Mr. Mills gallantly responded to the call for troops, and joined the boys in blue of Company I, Twenty-first Illinois infantry. He was mustered in as a private at Mattoon, and took part in his first active engagement at Frederick town, Mo. This was followed by the battles of Perryville, Ky., Murfreesboro and Chickamauga where he was taken prisoner September 20, 1863. He was first put in a stockade at Atlanta, but after a short time was taken to Belle Isle, where he lay for nine days after which he was sent to Richmond, where he was held as a prisoner for two months. He was then taken to Danville, Va., and incarcerated in a tobacco house during the winter. Later he was sent to Andersonville, where he was held as a captive from April until the following March. He was released in April, 1865, after a prison life of over eighteen months. He then received an honorable discharge from the service. His army career was one of hardship, for those who languished in Southern prisons often had more severe suffering to endure than those who met wounds on the field of battle.

On being mustered out, Mr. Mills returned to his home in Crawford County. On the 17th of January, 1867, he married Miss Rhoda A., daughter of Randal and Caroline (Bargher) Haddock. Unto them were born thirteen children, as follows: Herma H., Mitchell E., Sarah A. C., Letitia M., Victor O., Virgil (deceased), William C., N. O., Rhoda A., Luke F., Grace E., Mary O., Goldie L. F.

Mr. Mills has followed farming throughout his entire life. He devoted his energies to the cultivation of his land in Crawford County until 1868, when he purchased a farm near Diona, Cumberland County and there made his home until April, 1876. That year witnessed his arrival in Jasper County. He first purchased three hundred acres of partially improved land on section 7, Granville Township, and engaged in its cultivation until 1861, when he removed to the farm which is still his home. He now owns six hundred acres of good land and is extensively engaged in general farming and stock raising. He is a man of excellent business ability, as will be seen by the success that has attended his efforts. Through his enterprise, industry and good management, he has gained a handsome competence, which makes him one of the wealthy citizens of Jasper County.

In his political views, Mr. Mills is a staunch advocate of Republican principles, but has never been an aspirant for official honors, preferring to devote his time and attention to business interests, which he has met with signal success. His wife is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and is a most estimable lady. The family is widely and favorably known in the community. Mr. Mills is a public spirited and progressive citizen, who manifests a commendable interest in all that pertains to the welfare of the community.

Crawford County, Illinois Letter 1899

Contributed by member Alice Mills Elks who contacted descendants of Churchill Mills and his wife, Hollan Dixon, who migrated from Pitt County in 1840 and settled in Crawford, County, Illinois. Through this contact she was given a letter written in 1899 by Charles Allen Elks, her husband's great-grandfather, to Churchill's son, William Churchill Mills. Charles Allen Elks wife, Rhoda Dixon, was first cousin to William C. Mills.

JOHN EDWARDS WIFE & OTHERS VS RODERICK CHERRY

Court of Equity, Pitt County, NC. Supreme Court case # 2053 in the NC State Archives. Abstracted and submitted by member Ruth Fentress.

Various witnesses were called and sworn to given testimony, among them: James Adams (signed name); James Brooks (signed name); James Edwards; Irwin Moye; Ephraim Brooks (his mark); William Adams (signed); Henry Smith, Esq.; Jesse M. Cherry (signed); William Hardee (his mark); Nasby Mills (his mark); Mrs. Elizabeth Moye (mark); Shadrick Corbin (mark).

Shadrick Corbin sworn, 30 Dec. 1826.

Says his father, James Corbin, had two wives. By wife # 1:

1. Esther Corbin (m. John Edwards)
2. Mary "Polly" Corbin ("Polly" went to Wash. Co., GA. and from there 24 Sept. 1822, she gave her P of A to John Edwards in order to obtain anything due her.
3. Elizabeth Corbin (m. William Brooks)
4. William Corbin & )
5. James Corbin ) They entered Rev. War & "never returned"... "died in service"..

Shadrick Corbin says his father, James Corbin, had him (Shadrick) by his 2nd wife

He said he was bound out to Arthur Forbes of Pitt Co. & served as an apprentice. When he was free, he married Penelope Smith. The Complainants at all times claimed him as their half brother, & he never heard them called by the name of Curbon until they filed the Bill in Equity against Roderick Cherry.

He, Shadrick Corbin, says he has been called Corbit & also Morgan, but that his proper name is Shadrick Corbin.

Many of the witnesses said they could not read or write and could not tell how the surname was spelled, the surname supposedly being Corbin/Curbon. It apparently was established by the witnesses that James & William Curbon/Corbin were brothers of Elizabeth Brooks, Esther Edwards, & Mary "Polly" Corbin...

Elizabeth (Corbin) Brooks & husband William Brooks were parents of:

1. Ephraim Brooks
2. Stephen Brooks
3. Polly Simon
4. Sally Ambros
5. Noah Brooks
6. Kizsey Brooks

James Edwards sworn

He said he was not a witness, along with George Cherry, to a P of A given to Daniel Cherry by John Edwards & his wife, that he'd often heard them say they'd never given their P of A....

William Adams sworn, 30 Dec. 1826

Says James & William Curbon lived close to his father's when he, Wm., was young—Mr. Gardner Moye often told him that James & Wm. Died in the service, & that one died in his lap---Gardner Moye went into service with them & was gone three years—

Henry Smith's deposition claims he knows the handwriting of John Edwards, & from that knowledge he believes that John Edwards & his wife Esther executed their P of A to Daniel Cherry on the 9 Feb. 1809, with witnesses George Cherry and James Edwards. Henry Smith signed on 30 Dec. 1826.

Jesse M. Cherry 30 Dec. 1826, says that George Cherry has moved to Georgia—gone seven or eight years, & that it is George Cherry's handwriting, which he knows.

William Hardee sworn

Says he has known Mrs. Esther Edwards, wife of John, 28 or 29 years. Also know her sister Polly Corbin, who lived within a mile of me many years ago at Mr. John Moyer's, & has since moved to GA.—(signed by mark)

Nasby Mills sworn

Says he knew the Corbin family 30 or 40 years.....

Mrs. Elizabeth Moyer sworn

She says she knew this family forty odd years... that they lived about a quarter of a mile of me for two or three years. She knew the old man James Corbin & his daughters, and a son John, who according to report, was drowned many years ago. She says they always went by the name of Corbin as far as she knows. When asked if she knew the brothers, Wm. & James Corbin, she replied that she did not.. "they were gone before I knew the family, and I only know of them what my husband often told me - he informed me that he (en) listed them in the army and that he helped bury them both." She says she cannot read or write, but "I have heard my husband read writing, which he called their names - he called the name Corbin.

William Cherry sworn

Says he did witness the P of A & the transfer that Stephen & Ephraim Brooks gave the defendant in this Bill of Complaint. He says that the defendant appeared to "be strictly on an enquiry to find the right heirs to the claim that he bought in part of Stephen & Ephraim Brooks, "& that he "enquired of me & Mr. Gardner Moyer to that amount."

Says he went with Roderick Cherry to the home of John Edwards on the same day that Roderick Cherry purchased the title of the Brookses, in order to purchase their titles, too, but did not find them at home.....Said the defendant authorized him to purchase the title of Edwards & his wife for him, but later the defendant asked if he had done so, and he had not, & then defendant said he was glad because neither the Brookses nor Edwards & wife were heirs of the Curbon claim...Wm. Cherry thinks that was after 29 July 1820.....

David Kight sworn

Says he knew James Corbin & daughters about 40 years, & that the daughters Esther, Polly & Elizabeth, had brothers named James & William Corbin, who went into the Rev. War....

8 Dec. 1824 Signed by David Kight

Gardner Moyer sworn 15 July 1820

Ephraim & Stephen Brooks were true heirs of James Curbon, a Continental Soldier in Rev. War & in the N.C. line & the ones due a Military Land Warrant for his services....

| WASHINGTON, NC 1862 - 1864THE TOWN THAT ALMOST GAVE ALL. |

The following excerpts were taken from "The Confederate Reveille" published in 1898, by The Pamlico Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Republished, 1964, in its entirety.

"On March 14th, New Berne was captured by the Federal forces under General Burnside. The canonade could be distinctly heard at Washington. Just before the battle at New Berne the bridge over Pamlico River at Washington was partially destroyed by incendiary fire, at night, to prevent the Confederates from uniting with the command of General Branch defending New Berne. Upon the fall of New Berne the town of Washington was evacuated by the Confederate forces, which included a Georgia regiment, commanded by Colonel McMillian. All that part of Eastern North Carolina adjacent to Pamlico and Albemarle Sounds and the rivers emptying into them passed under Federal control, and remained until the capture of Plymouth by the Confederates under General Hoke", (April 20th, 1864) " a two year period."

"On March 20th, 1862 the twenty-fourth Massachusetts, Colonel Stevenson, was sent from New Berne to Washington on the transport Guide, accompanied by the gunboats, Delaware, Louisiana and Commodore Barney. This expedition was stopped the next morning six miles below the town by the blockade, which the Confederates had placed across the river at Hill's Point. This blockade consisted of rows of piling driven into the bed of the river and sawed off about three feet below the surface of the water. The gunboat, Delaware, with two companies, passed the blockade and landed at the wharves of town. The transport and other gunboats remained at the blockade. At this time Washington had been entirely evacuated by the Confederates and no resistance was encountered. The two companies, proceeded by the regimental band, marched from the wharf to the court-house and hoisted the Stars and Stripes." "They then marched through the principal streets to the gunboat, and the fleet returned to New Berne. These were the first Federal soldiers to enter the town. The Colonel in his report states that he saw some evidences of Union sentiment among the citizens of the town. It was probably confined to few individuals. Soon after the return of the expedition to New Berne a permanent garrison consisting of cavalry, infantry and or artillery occupied the town, and held it to the spring of 1864. Gunboats were anchored in the river in front of the town. After the occupation of the town there were a number of affairs between outposts, including a spirited action at Tranter's Creek on June 5th 1862." "Colonel George B. Singeltary was killed and several wounded on the part of the Confederates. Unfortunately there were no official Confederate reports of this action published in the War Records. The Federals lost 4 killed and 11 wounded, three of them mortally."

"September 6th 1862, a Confederate force,...under the command of General J. G. Martin attacked the town." "The Federal garrison, including the crews of the two gunboats, numbered about 1,000 men. There are no official Confederate reports on the engagement published in the War Records, and their strength composition and losses are not given." "... Adams battery, raised in Beaufort County... cavalry... commanded by Captain Rufus S. Tucker raised in Wake and Johnston counties and recruited in Pitt County." "A number of citizens, who had moved away when the town was occupied by Federals, accompanied the attacking force and acted as guides."

"Upon Second Street the Confederates planted a piece of artillery in front of the Methodist Church and opened fire upon a Federal gun at the intersection of Second and Respass streets. The elms were in full leaf and the street between the two guns was filled with branches shot from the trees. On Main Street squads of Confederate cavalry and infantry advanced as far east as Market Street. Just after the fight opened the" (Federal gunboat) "Picket blew up, killing her captain and 19 of the crew and wounding 6 others." "...opened fire upon the Confederates between Main and Second streets and around the Academy. The firing in this part of the town was very sharp and continued for nearly three hours, the combatants approaching within fifty or sixty yards of each other and firing across lots from behind houses and fences. A number of men were here killed and wounded upon both sides and two sets of gunners were shot down at the Federal gun. Both sides held with great tenacity." "The Louisiana then turned her guns upon the town and threw shot and shell through that part from the Haven's residence westward. Few houses in the line of her fire escaped and after the fight that part of town presented a shattered and wrecked appearance. What is now the Satchwell residence was completely riddled." "... a hand to hand fight occurred in the front of the James W. Redding and DeMille residences." "Mrs. Redding, in the front room of her house was wounded. The marks of this fight are still to be seen upon the porch in the front of the house." "... The Confederates withdrew, carrying with them four captured guns. It was a well contested action and creditable to the gallantry on both sides. The Federals lost 27 killed, 53 wounded and 4 missing, according to their report. They claimed to have found 12 dead and 12 wounded Confederates upon the streets and to have captured 20 prisoners. The Confederates carried off a part of their dead and wounded." "Wm. O. Respass was severally wounded upon the porch of the Carraway residence, ..., while firing upon the Federal gunners serving the gun at the foot of Bridge Street."

"The Confederate forces under General D. H. Hill began the siege of the town on March 30th 1863." "In all the force under General Hill engaged in the siege numbered about 9,000 men." "The garrison, at the beginning of the siege, numbered about 1,500 men. On the night of April 13th, the transport Escort ran the strength of the garrison to about 2,000 men. The fortifications around the town were well constructed and were of great strength. A deep moat, for the greater part filled with water, ran along the front of the works. The woods had been felled around the town for a half a mile or more in front of the fortifications to allow the play of guns to render attack difficult." "A fort was constructed inside town at the foot of the bridge to command the river road and the streets of the town." "Every day during the continuance of the siege the confederate batteries engaged the Federal forts and gunboats. Many shot and shell fell in town.... Some of the citizens constructed bombproofs upon their lots...." "... to reinforce the army of Northern Virginia, the Confederates, on April 15th raised the siege of the town."

"The Confederates under General Hoke, on April 20th, 1864, captured the town of Plymouth with its garrison of nearly 3,000 men. It was a brilliant operation and reflected a great credit upon General Hoke and his command." "Immediately upon the fall of Plymouth General Harland, in command at Washington, was ordered to evacuate the town. On April 30th, the last Federal troops, after firing different portions of the town, embarked. For the three preceding days the town was given up to sack and pillage."

"A board of investigation, presided over by Colonel James W. Savage, Twelfth New York Cavalry, among other things, reported as follows: "At about 11 p.m. on the 26th of April, 1864, Brigadier-General Harland, in command at Washington, N.C., received orders to evacuate that place, and in pursuance of his instructions the post was finally abandoned about 4 p.m. on the 30th. The intended evacuation seems to have become known, or to have been generally suspected, on Wednesday the 27th of April. During the afternoon of that day there appears to have been instances of theft, and before morning of Thursday pillaging commenced, at first in the Quartermaster's store of the First North Carolina (Union) Volunteers, which during the day became general. Government stores, sutlers' establishments, dwelling houses, private shops and stables, suffered alike. Gangs of men patrolled the city, breaking into houses and wantonly destroying such goods, as they could not carry away. The occupants and owners were insulted and defied in their feeble endeavors to protect their property. The influence and authority of officers, though sufficient to restrain these excesses when they were personally present, was forgotten or set at naught as soon as they were out of sight, and the sack was checked only by lack of material to pillage, and ceased only with the final abandonment of the town. It is claimed, and may be true, that some portion of these outrages arose from a general impression that a large amount of stores and property would, upon the abandonment of the place, either be destroyed or left to fall into the hands of the enemy, but this is probably not seriously regarded by any one as a justification, or even palliation, of the utterly lawless and wanton character of the plundering."

"The fire broke out at 10 o'clock in the morning of April 30th, as the last Federal troops were embarking. It burned from the river through to the northern limits of the town, extending from VanNorden nearly to Respass streets, and spreading both to the east and west as the flames advanced. The bridge was fired and destroyed and the fire extended to that portion of the town. Quite one third of the town was consumed. Other fires were kindled, but extinguished by the citizens. No military necessity required the burning of the town. It was not necessary to cover the evacuation or to aid the escape of the garrison. No hostile force was then investing the town."

The Confederates took possession in a few days and an accidental fire broke out and the flames, fanned by high wind, consumed a large part of the town east of Market Street. After this baptism of fire the town was desolate and ruined. There were scarcely five hundred inhabitants remaining of what had been an enterprising and prosperous town of thirty-five hundred three years before. Many of its citizens left before the Federal occupation and sought refuge in the interior towns of the State and elsewhere. They remained where the chances of war carried them, as their property and homes were destroyed. The entire colored population departed at the evacuation. The streets were deserted and the stores and most of the private residences were unoccupied. No work or business of any kind went on in the town."

"The work of restoration has been slow. For many years the chimneys stood to mark the path of the conflagration, and, even now, after the lapse of a third of a century, the waste places have not all been built up. No town gave more freely of its men and means, and no town suffered more for the cause of the Confederacy."

Obituary (abstracted) - With sadness we announce the death of our friend & brother Wm. H. Ellison, who was generally known throughout the County. He died at his house in Vanceboro last Friday night about 2 o'clock in the 74 year of his age. He was a member of the Episcopal Church. He made us a good Post Master for years in Vanceboro, also was Justice of the peace. The funeral services were performed by Rev. Colin Hughes, on Sunday evening. (Undated)

Died - Near the line of Pitt and Craven counties October 18th, 1871, at her residence, Mattie E. Moore, wife of John R. Moore, and daughter of James and Mary E. Brooks, after an illness of five days, of disease of the brain, age 19 years 4 months and 20 days.

Sister Mary E. Murphy (abstracted) - Died at the residence of her daughter, in Newbern, July 11th, 1880, of heart disease. Sister Mary E. Murphy, in the 66th year of her age. She was married twice and followed both of her husbands to the grave. She was the mother of eight children, and only one survive her. Sister Puss Stilly, who is known to our readers as a most exemplary Disciple. Sister Murphy's young days were spent in Green county, and after the marriage of her only daughter, she accompanied her to Beaufort county, where she remained only a few years, then moved to Swift Creek, Craven county, and from there she came to Newberne, where the angel of death bore her spirit to a land of glory, honor and immortality. Her body was taken to Hookerton, her old home, for interment. In token of the high appreciation in which she was held, in that town, all business was suspended, and her funeral was largely attended. Dr. Walsh, preached an able and consoling sermon on the occasion, after which her remains were followed to the cemetery.

A SHORT BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH of

ELDER ICHABOD MOORE

From the Minutes of Contentnea Primitive Baptist Association October 1857
Contributed by: Clarice W. Mills

Departed this life at his residence in Pitt County, N.C. on the 1st day of May, 1857 Aged 64 yrs and 20 days.

Elder Moore was the son of William and Millasent Moore who were members of the Baptist Church 40 years anterior to their death. He was born the 10th of April 1773 in a natural state as the rest of the family of Adam are, and was nursed and brought up by his parents in the nurture and brought up by his parents in the nature and admonition of the Lord yet he was a stranger to grace. He bore a ruddy and beautiful countenance and was quite robust in his youth yet he never indulged as some do, against the natural law.

The writer has often heard it remarked by them who was intimately acquainted with him that he did not use profane or vulgar language such as curse and swearing. He was of a quick and comprehensive mind and when at school was not excelled by any of his school mates. He was very fond of reading the Scriptures and was always ready to contend with any person of a different sentiment from himself, though was like other boys rather wild and jocutative inclined.

But we have heard him say that while in his 1st year it pleased God who had a work to perform through him to show him that he was a poor sinner. Yet he did not very soon comply with the ordinances of baptism and while out of his duty the war of 1812 came on and he served a six months tour in defence of his country at Beacon Island N. C. and then returned home sometime after this his Father and Mother both died and he was married. Elizabeth Jones daughter of James and Martha Jones of Greene County N.C. by whom he has eight children living five Sons and three daughters.

He joined the church at Meadow M H Greene County N. C. on Saturday before the 4th Lords day in June 1821 and was baptized the following Sabbath by Elder Thomas Dupree. On the 4th Lords day in June 1826 he was ordained by Elders Benj. Bynum and Samuel Moore. In 1832 he and a number of other brethren and sisters constituted a church at White Oak M H Edgecombe County now in Wilson County. He was chosen their pastor where his membership remained until his death.

The deceased was a kind husband and father and an obliging neighbor. He managed his household well both temporal and spiritual.

ELDER A. J. MOORE

Volume # . 19 Submitted and Abstracted by Clarice W. Mills

Elder Andrew Jackson Moore, son of Elder Ichabod Moore (1793-1857) a soldier of the Mexican war, and his wife, Elizabeth J. Moore (1801-1873) was born in Pitt County, N. C., January 18, 1837, and gently fell asleep in Jesus at 2:30 A.M., October 26, 1925, at his home in Whitakers, N. C. He was educated at Wilson, Oxford and the University of North Carolina. At the breaking out of the Civil War he joined the Orange Light Infantry, and was at the first battle in Virginia (Big Bethel, 10 miles northeast of Fortress Monroe) June 10, 1861; and when that company was disbanded he went home, and formed a company from Pitt, Wilson and Greene counties (Co. F., 1st Regiment), and was chosen its captain, and served with gallantry till the end of the war. He was severely wounded in the right elbow, during a charge on Battery Wagner, in Charleston Harbor, August, 1863, and was in a hospital several months. In January 1864 he married Elizabeth, daughter of Larry D. Farmer and wife, of Wilson; she was born January 14, 1840, and died January 5, 1918. To this union eleven children were born, of whom two died in infancy, and nine, who were married, are still living. On October 19, 1870, Brother Moore related an experience of grace to Toisnot church in Wilson, and was baptized the same day by Elder Robert D. Hart.

He was liberated to exercise his gift of speaking November 1872, and was ordained to the full functions of the gospel ministry in December, 1873 by Elder P. D. Gold and D. B. Pitt. He was granted a letter of dismissal (with others), and formed the church at Moore's (named after him), eight miles east of Wilson, and also teaching school. He removed to Whitakers, in Nash County, N. C. in December, 1879. While residing in Wilson County he served the churches at Contentnea, Black Creek, and Moore's and he founded and served the church at Elm City. And after he removed to Whitakers, he continued to serve the churches at Black Creek and Elm City some years, and he formed the church at Whtakers, and served it and Kehukee church about 40 years, and Rocky Swamp church about 15 years. He taught school at Whitakers about 30 years. With his godly and beloved wife, he reared his children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. His older daughter, Sister Cornelius White, was a bright and lovely christian, and died in 1923. His eldest son, Elder Julius C. Moore, is most exemplary, does a large time mercantile business, and serves four churches most acceptably. And his son Andrew J. named after himself has long been the effecient general freight agent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad at Wilmington, and is a strong Primitive Baptist. His son Larry is a fine lawyer, and lives at New Bern, N. C. His son, Owen, is the express agent at Scotland Neck, N. C. His daughter, Mrs. Mattie Taylor, lives at Florence, S.C.; and his daughter, Mrs. Minnie Taylor at Whitakers. His widowed daughters, Mrs. Lula Price and Mrs. Ruth Harrison, lives at Whitakers.

I do not know of any more excellent and useful citizen, Elder Moore was a fine disciplinarian in his family, his school, his church and the army.

We were members of the same class at the University of North Carolina, and, outside of my family, he was, for 67 years, my dearest friend.

SISTER N. E. DANIEL

Volume # XLIV, July 1, 1911 - Contributed by Clarice Wood Mills

Sister N. E. Daniel died near Greenville in Pitt County, N. C. February 21st, 1911. She was the daughter of Lewis Purvis and wife of Edgecombe County, N. C. She was born the 11th day of August, 1828, making her age 82 years, 6 months and 10 days. She was married to Robert Daniel by whom she had one child who married W. H. Harrington and preceded her in death. She leaves several grandchildren. She joined the church at Briery Swamp and was baptized by Elder John L. Ross and died a loving, faithful and consistent member of that church. She was afflicted with cancer for a long time of which she died. She was faithful to attend her church as long as she was able. She was a faithful, industrious and noble woman and accumulated a considerable estate. She was greatly esteemed by those who knew her and lived out the religion of Jesus which she professed and has fallen asleep in Him.

ALFORD MOORE

Volume XLIV, September 1, 1911 - Contributed by Clarice Wood Mills

The subject of this notice was born in Pitt County December 27, 1851, and died July 12, 1910, at 3 p. m. He was the son of Alfred Moore and Lucy Ann Moore, his wife. On the 22nd of October, 1887, he was married to Miss Telala Ann Turnage, unto which union were born five children, two girls and three boys, one preceding him to the grave. Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in August, 1901, he united with the church at Tysons, Pitt County, N. C. and was baptized by the pastor, at that time Louis E. Everett, and lived a consistent member until his death.

The 3rd Sunday in December of the same year, he was set apart to deaconship, which office he filled with honor. He was a successful farmer and seemed to have a thorough and energetic mind, entertaining in conversation. His home always welcomed Baptists. He never had but one sister and she preceded him to the grave. In his death the community loses a good neighbor, the church a good member, his wife a loving husband, and his children a kind and affectionate father.

Brother Moore's health was poor for many years suffering with a stomach trouble, which grew worse each year, until the end came. His funeral services were conducted by D. A. Mewborn. We believe our loss is his eternal gain. May God smile upon his dear family and cause them to walk in the example he set before them. The writer was not permitted the opportunity of going to see him in his death sickness but visited his home occasionally, and always felt welcome.

| WILLIAM HARDEE1795-1877 |

Obituary of William Hardee Jr.

Clipping of Obituary found in the Bible of his son, Hosea Franklin Hardee. Original in possession of Lucille Hardee Porter. Submitted by Craig Smith, Conway, SC.

On the 30th of March, 1877 at his residence near Pleasant Meadow Church in this county, Mr. William Hardee in the eighty-second year of his age.

While acknowledging the innovations time has made in the customs, that has made obituary notices and funeral sermons, like the dead - almost things of the past - yet we plead the sincere affection of children for a loved departed parent, and an honest pride in the belief that a short sketch of his life will not be without interest to the many friends and relations among whom his integrity of character as a citizen, and faithful walk as a Christian was so well known.

William Hardee was born in Newbern County, N. C. and at the age of ten years, with his father, moved to this county, and here he grew up to manhood and lived out his days. In 1817 he married Miss Mary Singleton, of whom he was bereft in three short, but happy years. She left one child.

In 1821 he married Miss Amelia Porter, with whom he lived happily until she was called from time to eternity, in the thirty-third year of their married life, leaving him with thirteen children to care for. In 1853 he again married his third wife, bearing for him eleven children.

In the decline of life he was much afflicted. He became very poor and dependent upon his older children who provided for his comfort with an open, generous and bountiful hand until his death. Before his death, and while stranded on the bed of affliction, he found great comfort in his abiding faith in the Lord Jesus. A short time before he died he called for his bible and tried to read the passages of scripture that had so long afforded him joy and peace, but his eyes had dimmed on timely things as the heavenly land opened to his view. He could not see to read but asked for the reading of select passages, during the reading of which his spirit passed over the river to the God who gave and redeemed it, and where it will be infinitely more happy when joined by his children.

The older children return their thanks to kind friends who were so good to their father in his last affliction. They also desire to bear record of the faithful loving kindness of his daughter Delia Caladonia to her father.

PCFR Note: There has been much confusion with the father of this subject whose name was William Hardee Sr. of Pitt County who migrated to Horry County, SC and the William Hardee that remained in Pitt County. To make the puzzle much more complex; both had wives named Nancy. Due to erroneous published information, many people claim the ancestry of Colonel John Hardee as the father of William Hardee who remained in Pitt. Lineage can be proved only through the daughters of John Hardee as he had no male sons to live to maturity.

Colonial Building Code

Source : Abstracted from Pitt County Potpourri by John G. Duncan 1966

Many were coming to the lands that the early settlers had won. By 1700 there were about 5,000 people living in North Carolina. At the start of the Tuscarora War there were about 11,000. About 1715 there were 7,500 whites and 3,700 Negroes living in North Carolina. As early as 1726 there seems to have been a concern about the future of the land and the type of homes being built.

All land patentees were required to build a habitable house and to clear and fence and plant at least one acre within three years after his patent. Houses were to be 15 feet long, 10 feet broad and to be made of "Clapboard or Logs squared with a roof and chimney place and Door place..." The cleared and fenced acre was to be planted with "fruits, trees, or grain".

Even prior to the building code of 1726, Pollock had required that houses built in New Bern should not be less than 15' X 15'. By 1741 the building of wooden chimneys was forbidden in Edenton. In 1756 Edenton residents had to build home at least 20 X 15 with 8 feet between the first floor and joists.

When the small Village called Newton on the Cape Fear was changed to Wilmington in order to vote a resident had to be "a Tenant of a brick, stone or farmed habitable house, of the length of twenty feet and sixteen feet broad; or an inhabitants of a Brick house of the length of thirty feet, and sixteen feet broad between the Bound of said Town..."

Those that settled the lands first chose land along the river and streams. In order to prevent any one person from getting too much land on the river laws were passed limiting 640 acres to each tract and not another within two miles, without special warrant.

How ineffective this proved to be is shown in the huge grants of lands made to some persons. Some of the wealthy planters owned twenty or thirty thousand acres. In answer to charges that some of them owned more than a hundred thousand each; John Porter, Edward Hyrne, John Swann, Sam Swann, J. Davis, M. Moore, Thos. Jones, Nathaniel Moore and Jno Davis signed a memorial stating that "they together did not own more than 75,000 acres."

Age of photograph determined by the teacher in this photograph, Lottie Justice Brooks daughter of John Wilkes Brooks & Susan Elizabeth Fields. She married Edmund Hoover Boyd the following year and thus ended her teaching career as only single women were allowed to teach. We regret that we have been unable to identify any of the children in this photograph.

Seeking info. On Moses NELSON and his wife, Charity PURSER, of Beaufort and Craven counties, NC. Moses had close ties with the NELSON's in Pitt, Beaufort and Craven counties. Some of the names of his children and or grandchildren coincide with signatures in a Family Bible which belonged to my great-great-grandmother, Elizabeth E. NELSON GALLOWAY (b.1830, d.Beau. Co.). Was she related to Moses NELSON (lawfully begotten or otherwise)? Another Bible states that her mother was Charity NELSON, but gives no father's name. A photo-postcard in the family papers, addressed to "Aunt Bet" was sent by a J. L. or T. L. NELSON from Live Oak, FL around the turn of the century.

SUTTON FAMILY HISTORY

The following letters are in the possession of Claude Christopher Jr., son of Claude Christopher Sr. and Clara Sumrell. Clara Sumrell was the granddaughter of James Allen and Cinderella Sutton. Submitted by Claude Christopher Jr.

First Letter Undated -

Dear Lena:

I was surprised to hear from you. Sure wish you could come to see me, as I am not able to go any where. I have been staying in a nursing for a while, but am back home now.

My Grandmother on my Daddy's side was named Cinderella Ann Sutton - her father was named King David Sutton. He was a preacher at Red Banks Church and she was raised on the same road that Odell lives on. If you go up the road just a short way, you will see a grave yard fenced in on the right hand side of the road. My Grand Father Sutton is buried there.

My Grandmother Sutton Allen had 5 sisters

Barbara Ann married a Nobles (Johnson)
Sally Ann Married a Braxton (Felix)
Betsy Ann Married Barber (Abraham)
Lydia Ann Married Simon Nobles
Trish Ann Married Guilford Stokes
Cinderilla Ann (my Grandmother) married Jimmie Allen

Uncle William Allen was my Grand Fathers brother

My Father had 5 sisters as follows

Drucilla - waa married 3 times. 1st to Jack Nobles
2nd to Joe Sutton
3rd to John Crawford

Julia Married Bill Joe Sumerell

Marth Married Asa McLawhorn

Sally Ann married Bob Allen

Lydia Ann married Craven Sumerell

Lydia was Grandma's baby and was borned after father died He was in the woods they would have called it a stroke now, he did not speak. My mother said the Dr. came gave him somethng she thought after she was older, it was laudamun

Love Nolia (Stokes)

2nd Letter
August 20, 1957

Dear Clara,

I do hope you are well. I am almost blind. Can't see to write very good, but will answer the best I can.

Sorry to hear that Velma is so sick. I have the asthma real bad. Also have several fractured vertebrae in back. Have to wear a heavy corset brace.

My Grandmother Allen was Cinderella Sutton. She was raised on the road that is now called Hooker Road. In my young days it was called the Sutton Road. My Grandmother's father was King David Sutton. He was a Preacher at Red Banks Church. The records were in the church when they built the one that is there now.

My Grandfather Allen was Jimmie Allen. He died there where Uncle Bill lived and was buried there in that graveyard.

My Grandpa & Grandma Allen had nine children as follows:

Drucilla married three times - First Jack Nobles , 2nd Joe Sutton and 3rd John Crawford

Julia married Bill Joe Sumrell

Bill married 3 times - first Sara Flake second Mary James and 3rd Betsy Sutton

Martha married Aza McLawhorn

Sally Ann married Bob Allen

John Allen (my daddy) married Amanda Haddock

Henry Allen married Mary Tyson

Lydia Allen married Craven Sumerell

Thomas was lost in the war.

I hear from Queenie now and then but how about the rest of your family? Write me some news about them or better still come to see and tell me all about them.

I can't go anywhere and I love to have company.

Love Nolia (Stokes)

Pitt County

From Pitt County Potpoupri by John G. Duncan 1966

In May 1760, the assembly meeting at New Bern was presented with a petition of "Sunday Inhabitants of Beaufort" asking that a division of the county be made. They have as their reason for requesting this division, the fact the county was "a hundred miles or more, and divided by a boisterous and tempestuous river." Those against the measure, contended this wasn't true - that the river wasn't the formidable obstacle as pictured. However, the measure was passed in the November assembly.

In the first day of January, 1761, "the upper part of the said county of Beaufort, beginning at a line between the said county and Tyrrell, running south, southwest to Cherry Run, where the main road crossed the said run; thence down the said run to Tranters Creek; thence down the said creek to Pamlico River ; thence down the said river to the Fork Point on the south side of the said river; thence up to Chocowinity Bay and Creek to the head thereof; thence south southwest to the dividing line of the said County of Craven; thence along the dividing lines of Craven, Dobbs, Edgecombe and Tyrrell; so that all that part of Beaufort County to the westward of Cherry Run, Chocowinity Bay and Creek, shall and is hereby declared to be a separate county and parish and shall be called and known by the name of Pitt County and St. Michael's Parish, with all rights, privileges, benefits and advantages, etc."

So after many thence and said, the county Pitt was born. John Hardee was one of the commissioners for building a courthouse, prison, pillory and stocks. These were to be built on Hardee's lands. "A tax of two shillings on each taxable poll in the county was levied for two years," to pay for these items. Until the courthouse was built, the courts were held in John Hardee's house.

OBITUARY OF ELDER HENRY PEEL

Falls of Tar River Minutes Oct. 1908. Submitted and abstracted by member Clarice Wood Mills

By the request of the church at Smithwick's Creek in conference, Saturday before the fourth Sunday in June, 1908, we attempt to write a short sketch of the life of our beloved brother and highly esteemed pastor, Elder Henry Peel, who was born in Martin county, N. C. January 11, 1829. His father and mother were Henry and Prudence Peel. His father died when he was only 9 years old, and his mother died some years before his father. Brother Peel having been left a poor orphan boy, had to live with his uncle, Thomas Peel, until he was able to care for himself.

When he was about 22 years old, the Lord saw fit to arrest him from his wild career. He united with the church at Smithwick's Creek, Saturday before the fourth Sunday in October, 1852, and was baptized the following day with Brethren Noah Peel and William Tice.

In June, 1860, the church, seeing that Brother Peel had a gift, liberated him to exercise his gift, within the bounds of the church. By September of the same year his preaching had proven so satisfactory that the church gave him written license to exercise his ministerial gift where he might feel impressed to travel. Elder Peel was ordained to administer all the ordinances of the church of Christ in March, 1864, by Elders C. B. Hassell and William B. Perry. After the death of Elder W. Whitaker in 1874, he was chosen jointly with Elder Levi Rodgerson to the pastoral care of the church at Smithwick's Creek. He remained pastor until his death which occurred May 23, 1908.

The church at Jamesville called him as their pastor Saturday before the first Sunday in June, 1886, and he resigned the care of this church in July, 1898, on account of his advancing age and infirmities.

Elder Peel was married three times. About the year 1852 he was united in marriage to Mary Ada Perry, a member of the church. They lived happily together until her death, June, 1854. After the death of his wife, he decided that he would never marry again, and sold his home and went to school, but would never take any part in debate and speech making, saying that he never intended to make a public speech. On December 16, 1856, he was united in marriage to Armita Lilley. Unto this union were born ten children, but only one survives him. After the death of his second wife, in 1877, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth F. Godard, unto whom one son was born. This wife and son still survive him.

Some time in January, 1908, he was taken with the la grippee. Owing to his advanced age, he was never able to leave home any more. Although too weak to sit up all the time he would be glad to have the brethren and friends visit him, and would talk.

On Saturday night, the 23d of May, 1908, Elder Peel gently fell asleep, as we believe in Jesus. On the next day, Sunday afternoon, his funeral was conducted by Elders John N. Rodgerson, A. D. Mizzell, and Brother W. H. Peel. A very large congregation of brethren, relatives and friends met to pay their last respects and see him laid to rest in the tomb, there to wait until the morning of the resurrection.

Fire Near Grimesland

The Daily Reflector, December 24, 1896

Handsome Residence of Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse Destroyed

Information reached town today that the dwelling house of Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, near Grimesland, was destroyed by fire early Wednesday night. The fire destroyed about 7 o'clock the building catching on the roof by sparks from the chimney. When discovered the flames had made such headway that they could not be checked. The light from the fire was seen here. The building and most of the furniture was destroyed. There was some insurance on both but we could not learn how much of the amount of the loss. Mr. Laughinghouse had one of the best houses in the county and this loss is indeed a severe calamity to him. Every one will truly sympathize with him, and feel much sorrow over his misfortune.

Note: The following notice from newspaper was glued in front of Bible:

"Died

At Greenville, N. C. on the night of the 18th. inst., Col. Thomas C. Singeltary, in the 33rd year of his age. A devoted wife, an only brother, other kindred and numerous friends mourn their loss. In character he was gentle, affectionate and true, and they who knew him best, and loved him most, are not without hope that the great, just and merciful God, who "seest not as man seest," has taken their loved one to an eternity of blessed rest and peace for Christ's sake."

Searching for information regarding William House WHITLEY b. 1811, son of John WHITLEY. One record says that John md Elizabeth SMITHWICK and had a son Smithwick WHITLEY, however, Elizabeth was not William House WHITLEY's mother. Could John have also been md to a daughter of William House? William House WHITLEY md Alif MEAN. Searching for parents and siblings. From family letters there was a family connection between Bithel BULLOCK and the William H. WHITLEY family. Any ideas as to how they were related? Could Alif MEAN have been a BULLOCK? Looking for anyone with information about any of these families.

Still trying to figure out why my grandfather (William Olivier ELLIS, d. 1942) was quoted as saying that he was descended from Elias GODLEY! Grandfather's mother was Susan GODLEY (d. by 1870?), as shown in the family Bible. Available public records do not, however, reveal a Susan among the (lawfully begotten) descendants of Elias GODLEY. The GODLEY's lived on the Pitt-Beaufort county line (and still do).
Does anyone have a clue?

Seek information on Joseph Bryan Miles BLOUNT b. 16 Jan 1812 Beaufort or Pitt Co. died in 1883 at Robbs, Pontotoc Co. MS. Joseph was made ward of guardian John Ellis, Dec. 9, 1818. He md Millie Owen REED Jan. 8, 1834 d/o Reuben REED. On Mar 10, 1834 he gave Reading BLOUNT POA to sell a tract of land willed to him by Bryan BLOUNT. The records state that he was moving to Pickens Co. AL. Bryan BLOUNT rec'd this land from his father Reading BLOUNT whose will stated that the land was not to be sold out of the Blount family. Bryan's will also states it is not to be sold out of the Blount family. Reading S. BLOUNT sells the land to James S. BLOUNT son of Jesse brother of Bryan BLOUNT. I find records of two Miles BLOUNTS in the area. Court of Pleas and Quarter Session show one on June 10, 1813 bounding Hade Pearce as Adm. and the 2nd dated Sept 8, 1814 bounding Joseph BLOUNT as Adm. I would like to know who Joseph Bryan Miles BLOUNT's parents are and ancestors. Did he have brothers and sisters?
