Question by R. W. KING agent for James B. WHITFIELD have you ever given a deed to Imly N. MILLER for the land you sold as clerk and master in Equity and does he own any other land Except that you Sold as clerk and master in Equity

Answer I have given no deed to Imly N. MILLER for the land I sold as clerk and master in Equity under and order from the Court, but it is proper that I should State the whole circumstances of this case. Imly N. MILLER was Entitled to one ninth part of a parcel of Land in Lenoir County consisting of three thousand acres or more as one of the hiers at law of his father Phillip MILLER decd, his father had made a will and devised to the said Imly the whole of this land but from a defect in the will I think from one of the Executors being of a witness or some other cause he was advised by Council that the real Estate did not pass under the Will he with other hiers filed a partition in the Court of Equity in Lenoir County for a sale and partition of these lands, the Court ordered a sale to be made and the land was sold according to said order to the said Imly N. MILLER and a report of the sale was made to the next ensuing term and the report confirmed by the Court and the clerk and master was ordered to Execute a deed to said

MILLER upon the Payment of the purchase money.. the purchase money was paid by him, but a deed has not bin Executed in consequence of a difference of opinion between me & said MILLER as to the Kind of a deed I Should give him. Whether he owns any other

In this latter we find a report of Sharon Lodge No. 78 of Greenville. The officers were:

In the March 1866 session of the North Carolina General Assembly, an Act was passed concerning negroes and persons of color. Justices of the Peace were to collect and record in the County Clerk's office, a record of the cohabitation of former slaves to ratify their state of marriage. The Court Clerk was required to maintain a record book for this purpose and to receive 25 cents per entry for his service. In Section 6, Chapter 40 of the Act, it was a misdemeanor if negroes did not record their marriage by Sept. 1, 1866, This section of the Act was amended by Section 1, Chapter 70 (ratified March 1867), to extend the time of recording these marriages to Jan. 1, 1868. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

IN MEMORY OF ALLEN CHURCHILL

With great sadness we must report that the Pitt County Family Researchers has lost another great friend and genealogist when Levis Allen Churchill (called Allen by his friends) passed away at his home on Monday, Feb. 20, 2006, at the age of 75. Allen was one of those people that after you met them you were compelled to verbally proclaim "What a nice man!" He was warm, witty, kind, generous, compassionate, dependable and serious. And boy was he serious about genealogy.

When Bill Kittrell called the first meeting of the Pitt County Family Researchers in the Fall of 1994, Allen was there as one of the founders. He was elected as the first Vice President of the group and then served as the second President of PCFR from 1996 to 1997. He then served on the PCFR Board several years.

Everyone who knew Allen, knew how much he loved to help people research their family genealogy. Allen's own family history was rich with connections into numerous prominent and obscure families in Pitt County and eastern North Carolina. He haunted the Pitt County Court House and the North Carolina Collection of the J. Y. Joyner Library at East Carolina University doing research. He even started his own genealogy collection on local families in the East Carolina University Manuscript Collection in the J. Y. Joyner Library.

He apparently never knew a stranger because he would boldly ask anyone and everyone about their family history. Because he was so generous with his time and knowledge he made numerous friends all over the State and nation. He published nearly one dozen books on local genealogy, not to make money but to share with others. He then put copies of them in all the local libraries of the surrounding counties in hopes of helping someone.

I knew Allen as a witty man who loved his family and his church, loved roses and loved to stay at their place on the Pamlico River. He and his wonderful wife Rachel opened their home to all their friends and it was always hard to leave because of all the laughter. Allen was a living resource about Greenville's history since he worked at such vanished landmarks as the first Silo Restaurant and ran the movie projectors in the three Greenville theaters, the Pitt, The State and The Colony. He was a notorious night owl and it wasn't unlike him to call a dozen times late at night to fellow researchers if he was working on a family. He was fun to be around and made you feel good about yourself.

Allen Churchill was a native and lifelong resident of Pitt County. He was a graduate of Greenville schools and East Carolina University. He served a number of years as Assistant Clerk of Court for Pitt County and later began a career with East Carolina University as an Associate Professor with the Division of Continuing Education, retiring in 1992. He was an active member of the Hooker Memorial Christian Church. His body was laid to rest in the mausoleum at Pinewood Memorial Park.

At his death, Allen left his wife of 56 years, Rachel Little Churchill; a son, Levis Erik Churchill and wife Susan, of Graham, NC; a daughter, Rachel Erika Churchill, of Snow Hill, NC; grandchildren, Jakob Alexander Churchill and Kirsten Taylor Churchill; a brother, Mack Churchill, of Atlantic Beach, NC; and a sister, Carolyn Studeman and husband Daryl, of Atlanta, Ga.

All of Allen's friends know he was truly a wonderful person and he left a generous legacy to the future with all his publications. He will be missed.

CONTENTNEA ASSOCIATION AT RED BANKS

Eastern Reflector, Friday, Oct. 17, 1902

The Sunday session of the Contentnea Association of the Primitive Baptists at Red Banks was favored by all the circumstances that go to make such occasions all that the church and the visiting public could anticipate. Weather conditions were perfect, insuring a pleasant drive through the country, and allowing open air service, which made it possible for a much larger number to hear the sermons that the church could have accomodated. A raised platform under a large oak served as pulpit and around this, completing almost a circle and extending far out into the grove, substantial board seats had been constructed. The first sermon of the morning was by Elder P. D. GOLD, of Wilson, editor of Zion's Landmark. The morning service was concluded with a sermon by Elder BUCK, Elders ROBERSON and JONES preached in the afternoon.

With a crowd estimated from two thousand to three thousand, it is doubtful if ever a similar occasion witnessed better order.

The writer did not see nor hear of a single drunk, or any incident to mar the pleasure of the association proceedings. With such a crowd, under no restraint apart from that attached to the nature of the occasion, the deportment of those having no interest in the religious program was noteworthy.

The feature of the noon recess was dinner upon the grounds. Well, it was "a square meal." Somebody said that the people around Red Banks had been cooking for a week. Many visitors carried lunch, and a fine courtesy was made for all.

MCGLOHON BOY SHOT

Eastern Reflector, Wed., November 19, 1890

The 12 year old son of Elder Fred MCGLOHON was accidentally shot by his uncle Louis MCGLOHON, on last Thursday night. It seems that the boys went hunting, had pistols along with them and while practicing a discharge from Louis' pistol entered the body of the younger boy and after penetrating the heart came out on his back. He died instantly. Such is the sad wail when boys are carrying pistols.

PETITION TO ANNEX PART OF PITT TO EDGECOMBE COUNTY, 1787

This petition was found in the NC General Assembly Session Records, Nov.-Dec. 1787, box 3, folder 23;
NC Archives, Raleigh, NC. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

“To the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina now setting at Tarborough

The Petition of the subscribers humbly Sheweth

That we your petitioners composa a small part of the County of Pitt, that we are in that part of it which is at the greatest distance from the Court House adjoining the County of Edgecomb to the Court House of which latter County it is but the distance of a few miles from our respective places of residence compared to the great distance we are from the other. Your Petitioners further shew that between their respective dwellings and the Court House of Pitt County there are several very large and in time of fresher almost impassable swamps, add to there the low grounds of Tar river two miles in breadth which we all have to pass on public meetings at a very considerable expense and great risque of our Persons, whereas on the contrary between our habitations and the Court House of Edgecomb there are no such obstacles and the distance is not so great we may very conveniently go and return after doing our business in the compass of a day. All these considerations have induced us to exhibit to your honors an exact view of our present situation and implore your legislative interposition on our behalf by annexing us to the County of Edgecomb we are the more emboldened to do this as we have always demeaned ourselves in such a manner as to give full demonstrations of the most loyal affection to the present Government and to merit the title of good citizens and because we are fully able to evince to your honors the reasonableness and necessity of this application which if granted will be ever held in grateful remembrance by your humble petitioners”

FIRE AT J. S. HINES NEAR AYDEN, 1893

Eastern Reflector, Wed., May 3, 1893

Mr. J. S. HINES, who lives near Ayden, told us the other day of a narrow escape from fire he had on that windy Friday of week before last. His wife concluded she would scald the bedding and furniture that day, and while heating water out in the yard the wind blew sparks into a lot of bed clothing piled up in the piazza of the house. In a moment the fire was in a big blaze. Fortunately Mr. HINES was very near the house and summoning help with his farm bell succeeded in putting out the fire after a hard fight. About $20 worth of bedding was burned and the house damaged slightly. Mr. HINES received severe burns about the hands and singed his hair while fighting the flames.

Eastern Reflector, Wed., February 27, 1884

Mr. Lemuel MCGOWAN, who resides below Greenville, killed himself by cutting his throat last Wednesday. He had been acting strangely for several days prior to his death, and when his absence was discovered, search was made for him. He was found in a dense pine thicket about a mile from his home, lying upon his back, with a frightful gash, in which a man could turn his fist across reaching almost from ear to ear. The knife with which the deed was committed was lying in a pool of blood about a yard from the body when found. Life was not quite extinct and Dr. J. T. SLEDGE was sent for, but could render no assistance. Mr. MCGOWAN dying in about fifteen minutes after Dr. SLEDGE reached him. The causes prompting Mr. MCGOWAN to take his life are supposed to be trouble over the loss of his property, which brought on insanity. His family is in very destitute circumstances.

ALF FORBES PLAYING WITH GUN KILLS MAN

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Nov. 12, 1890

A very sad homicide occurred four miles above Greenville Monday afternoon. The particulars, as we learned them yesterday, are that Mr. A. A. FORBES, who had come down to town with a load of tobacco for shipment, left word for his little son Alf and a negro named Bill, a half witted man who lived on the place, to carry home a buggy that had been borrowed from a neighbor. Before starting with the buggy Alf had gone in his father's room and put the latter's pistol in his pocket. When they had got off up the road a bit the boy climbed up in the buggy to ride and told the negro to pull it along. While sitting in the buggy he began fooling with the pistol and fired it off in the air. He fired it again, the second ball striking the negro man in the back. The man fell in the road and the boy thinking he had done so in fun called to him and told him to go on with the buggy. Not getting up the boy went and jumped on the man playfully, and as he did so saw the man gasping in the last agonies of death. This frightened the little fellow and he ran back home and told what had happened. It is truly a sad occurrence, and draws out sympathy for the parents and family of the little boy. It also be a warning against boys fooling with pistols.

Elizabeth TISON vs Wm B MOORE} July Term 1800

William B. MOORE defendant in this suit maketh oath that the property sold by him as administrator of Samuel TISON as well that which was sold by the consent of the plaintiff as without amounted to the sum of one hundred and twenty four pounds some shillings or thereabouts. That the property sold as high as usual at such sales except what the plaintiff herself bought to the amount of about twenty pounds which sold very low. That Samuel TISON the decd left property at his death to the full value of that sold by the deponant, to wit a horse (house?) worth fifty pounds, eleven head of cattle, upwards of fifty head of hogs, a flock of sheep & furniture and other things. That an inventory of the property was taken which this deponant can procure & can prove the property to be worth as much as that sold by him. That all this testimony he could and would have produced on the trial, but was informed by his council in the court below it would be immaterial and unnecessary and under this belief he came to trial without it. That he was also advised by his council below that there was no made by which a distribution of the property could be had but by compelling the plaintiff to administer or to administer himself, and to sell the property for if an action was commenced the Statute of limitations would bar. MAIMED & BLIND CIVIL WAR SOLDIERS

The following are selections taken from a Register of Maimed Pensioners and Artificial Limbs found in the NC State Auditors Papers, AUD 6.1; NC Archives, Raleigh, NC. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

By Resolution and Law the second Legislative session of 1866 voted to provide artificial limbs for veterans or commutation money ($50) for those who either had procured limbs at their own expense or had useless limbs. Pensions for the blind and maimed were started by Public Law in 1879 which provided only for veterans who had lost their sight, both feet or both hands to get $60 a year for life and was administrated by county committees. The stipend increased to $120 a year in 1883. In 1889, the benefit was extended to veterans who had become blind since the war.

DEATH NOTICES

John G. Mason Bled to Death

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Sept. 6, 1893

Mr. John G. MASON, who lived just beyond Grindle Creek, met with a sudden death on Saturday evening. He was in town that day and started home riding alone, and just before reaching the lumber railroad his horse shied and threw him out of the buggy. On one of his legs was a very bad sore with which he had been troubled for some time, and in the fall ruptured an artery near this sore from which he bled to death. He was carried from the scene of the accident to his home and expired soon after reaching there. Mr. MASON was about 70 years old.

HANRAHAN ITEMS

Eastern Reflector, Wednesday, May 7, 1884

Hanrahan, N. C., April 28, 1884.

Editors Reflector: The fruit crop was never more promising in this section. The trees have more fruit on them than they will be able to bear. If no colds or frosts from now, come to see me in peach and apple time and I will show you I am truthing.

Farmers are very busy just now preparing and planting cotton, and trade is almost completely paralyzed. Occasionally a fellow steps in and wants a square of pork and asks you please to charge it to account. Miss Annie, daughter of Fred HARDING, Esq., will be 15 years old next July and weighs 175 pounds. Justice HARDING and daughter are residents of Swift Creek township. He raises plenty of hog and hominy.

I understand that Mr. Skilton DENNIS, of Contentnea township has two daughters, 15 and 13 years of age, weighing 240 and 200 lbs. Respectively. Skilton is a good, sober Democrat, who raises plenty of hog and hominy.

Mrs. Maggie W. SMITH is teaching school for us, and is one of the best instructors in the State, Kemp BATTLE not excepted.

I saw B. H. IVES driving by the other day at a rate of 18 miles an hour, mad as a wet hen because it wasn't of the right sex to name Tom SKINNER. Simon.

BAKER VS. CARSON, SUPREME COURT CASE, 1833

The following is an abstract of Supreme Court case #2785; John Bunyan Baker and wife Licetta vs. Rebecca Carson, widow of Thomas Carson, dec'd.; found in the NC Archives, Raleigh, NC.

Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

Deposition of John B. BAKER, May 30, 1831

John Bunyan BAKER married on March 29, 1826 to Lisetta CARSON. At that time he lived on a piece of rented land about three or four miles from the residence of Mrs. Rebecca CARSON and lived on it until January 1827 when his lease ran out. He was planning to move to a piece of land he owned about three or four miles farther away from Rebecca CARSON'S residence and was "in treaty" with Amos TURNAGE for the purchase of another piece of land adjoining it. Rebecca CARSON intervened and said the manor plantation on which she resides contained a large portion of uncleared land, which was of no service to her. She said a good settlement could be made by them and proposed that the heirs have a division made of the lands of Thomas CARSON, dec'd. and BAKER and his wife should take possession of the uncleared lands contained in the part allotted them and make a permanent settlement there. Rebecca declared her readiness to make them at any moment a conveyance of all her interest and right in the uncleared part. BAKER and his wife said they couldn't move there when their lease ran out because there was no place to settle. Rebecca told them they should live at her house until a new place could be rendered fit to receive them. Rebecca was distressed that her youngest daughter would move so far from her and her protests were so reasonable and kind that BAKER and his wife assented to them. In January 1827, they moved to Rebecca's house and in February Court 1827 they filed with the other heirs of Thomas CARSON, dec'd. to have their share of the lands allotted to them. At the Partition, BAKER and wife were allotted Lot #2 on Pine Log Swamp on William HEMBY'S line, through Hurley Branch Pocosin, being 152 acres. They made a contract with Rebecca and she approved of the division. BAKER then sold his land and got TURNAGE to break off the deal for the TURNAGE land and they settled on the land allotted them. BAKER said he cut a ditch on the cleared part more than 600 yards long, 3 feet wide and averaging 3 feet deep. He erected a decent dwelling house and a plain, but substantial, log kitchen, smoke house, corn crib and other smaller erections. He cleared between 20 and 29 acres, which yielded him last year 2 ½ to 3 bushels of corn an acre. All of this was done with the knowledge of Rebecca CARSON in execution and performance of the contract between them. On March 20, 1828, after having gotten their new settlement fit to receive them, they moved onto the land and lived there without the slightest intimation from Rebecca of any design on her part to violate their contract. On Sept. 25, 1830, a notice from Rebecca was delivered by the Sheriff of Pitt County to BAKER to leave Rebecca's land by January next (1831) or she would go to court. Ruel ANDERSON acted as agent for Rebecca CARSON to get the eviction notice. BAKER said that a short time before the notice was received by him that there had been some disagreement between himself and Ruel ANDERSON, brother of Rebecca CARSON. BAKER believed this whole business was intigated by Ruel ANDERSON who sought to avenge his private quarrel. BAKER went to Rebecca's house and in front of witnesses applied to her to learn if she authorized the notice and she answered that ANDERSON would not have done it had he not had authority for it. BAKER proposed to Rebecca that he would remove from the land as she required, if she would pay him back for the improvements. But she refused. In April 1831, BAKER and wife were served with a declaration of ejectment. BAKER prayed to the May term 1831 Pitt County Court for relief.

John B. BAKER

Deposition of Mrs. Rebecca CARSON, Sept. 8, 1831

She said that Thomas CARSON died and by Will left land to his widow Rebecca during her life and widowhood. They had three daughters: Elizabeth, Sarah and Lisetta, who married John B. BAKER. According to Rebecca, the marriage of John B. BAKER and Licetta took place against the wishes of the BAKER family and Rebecca fearing Licetta would be treated badly if they settled in the BAKER neighborhood at a distance from her, Rebecca induced John to settle on her life estate. Rebecca said she never intended to give John deed to the land, but did assent to the division and having him building on it and occupying it. Rebecca said John erected erected indifferent buildings on the land, cleared some 10 to 15 acres and occupied it since March 1828. Rebecca said that John treated her harsh and unkind after they inhabited the new dwelling. She said John keeps her daughter from visiting her when she was sick and believes he has done much injury to her stock, which has never happened before until he became a near neighbor to her. Rebecca got her brother, Ruel ANDERSON, to take steps to get them off the land.

Depositions at the store of Sherrod TISON, Pitt Co., taken by John JOINER and Isaac JOINER, Justices, July 5, 1831, of Selah HENBY (HEMBY), Absalom SANDERS, Sherrod TISON and Jesse BAKER.

Deposition of Selah HENBY (HEMBY)

She said she heard Rebecca CARSON several times persuade BAKER and wife to settle on the Carson land. If BAKER paid the expenses for division, and he settled on it, she would give up all her right to all the uncleared land. HEMBY said BAKER was reluctant at first, but did comply with her. John B. BAKER was about to buy the Benjamin BAKER place. Rebecca said that her daughter was young and would require her further assistance and instruction. For BAKER and his wife to buy the Ben BAKER place they would have to go into debt.

Signed Selah (her mark) HENBY

Deposition of Absalom SANDERS

SANDERS said he heard Rebecca say she would give each of them the preference to rent that part of the land that fell to them and if they would not rent it, she would have liberty to rent it out to someone else. She did not want her children to settle on it until it was devised. SANDERS heard Rebecca say her daughter Lisetta was young when she married and she didn't want her to settle far from her. According to the Will of Thomas CARSON, Rebecca could only get firewood and rail timber from the woodland. The Will prohibited her from cutting boxes or making tar or anything that would damage the land. SANDERS heard Rebecca express great confidence in BAKER after he settled on the land. She would not let Allen TISON build on his lot because he had treated her so mean and BAKER had been so good to her. SANDERS was at Rebecca CARSON's house on Nov. 2, 1830 when BAKER confronted Rebecca after the eviction notice had been delivered. BAKER asked her to pay him for his labor, but she made no reply and left the house.

Signed A. SAUNDERS

Deposition of Sherrod TISON

In February 1827, Mrs. Rebecca CARSON, John B. BAKER and his wife, Licetta were together at the store of Sanders and Tison. Sherrod got into a conversation with Rebecca in which she said her daughters married men without land and the Will of her husband gave her all the lands during her life and widowhood. She said that she had more lands than she could use and the wood land was of very little use to her except for timber and firewood. She was willing that her son-in-laws should have some profit from the land and if they had the land divided, they could settle on their parts. Sherrod said he was on the Commission to divide the estate of land and negroes of Thomas CARSON among the heirs. During the Division, Sherrod said he had another conversation with Rebecca in which she said she could not give up the cleared land, that she needed that for her support. TISON told her that she could rent the land to her sons-in-law, the part they received if they would give her the same rent as others for her support, which she agreed. TISON said that if they build and settle on the land and improve it, she shouldn't take it away from them until they had benefit of their labor. She said she would not, that she only wanted privilege of the woodland.

Sherrod TISON

Deposition of Jesse BAKER

Jesse BAKER said that in 1826 my son, John B. BAKER married Lisetta CARSON. That at the time John was renting a place belonging to the heirs of James MAY, known as the BECTON place. During that year John was planning to purchase lands adjoining a place he then owned, 3 or 4 miles from where he lived then, which provided shingles and lumber for building on that place. Jesse said he talked with Rebecca CARSON frequently and she wanted him to use his influence as a father to have him settle on the Carson land. After John moved to Mrs. CARSON'S, Jesse was there and heard Rebecca CARSON say that John could stay as long as he pleased.

Depositions at the store of Sherrod TISON, Pitt Co., on Jan. 30 and 31, 1832, of Elijah RANDOLPH, Jesse RANDOLPH, William MOORE, Bathsheba SMITH and Sherrod TISON

Deposition of Elijah RANDOLPH

He says that John B. BAKER, called Bunyan BAKER, was living in Rebecca CARSON's kitchen while he was clearing the land.

Signed Elijah (his mark) Randolph

Deposition of Dr. Jesse RANDOLPH, Sr.

Says he visited Rebecca CARSON in her sickness in September 1829 and saw John B. BAKER and Licetta there.

Jesse RANDOLPH Senn.

Deposition of William MOORE

Says he was one of the Commissioners to divide the land of Thomas CARSON, dec'd. among the heirs. The Commissioners met in the home of Rebecca CARSON.

Deposition of Bathsbea SMITH

Bathsheba said she was the aunt of John B. BAKER. Bathsheba said that she and Rebecca CARSON were both together at John B. BAKER'S the day after his first child was born. Bathsheba in conversation with John that day mention was made of him moving away. Bathsheba asked Rebecca why John could not settle on the land which fell to Licetta and Rebecca answered that she wished John would settle there and asked Bathsheba to tell John so. That Rebecca would give him the use of one of her houses until John could build. Rebecca said that her other two daughters were no satisfaction to her and that if Licetta was carried away she should die. Rebecca requested Bathsheba to use her influence as aunt to persuade John to live with her.

Feb. 11, 1832, ordered John C. GORHAM and Goold HOYT, Justices to take depositions on March 2 and 3, 1832 at the Court House of Allen TISON and Sally TISON, Elizabeth WILLOUGHBY, Richard CARSON, Joel TISON, Jordan EVERITT and Blaney WILSON.

Deposition of Richard CARSON

CARSON says he heard John B. BAKER say he was putting up a fence, after he got notice to leave the land and that he expected to get paid for making it by Mrs. Rebecca CARSON. Richard heard BAKER say he does not have right to the land. CARSON said BAKER first settled on the woodland part of the land. He heard BAKER say he was willing to go off the land whenever he was paid for his labor. CARSON said BAKER had been living on the land for three years and only tended a garden the first year. BAKER hired a negro man who worked part of the year on the land.

Richard CARSON

Deposition of Joel TISON

TISON heard BAKER say he had no right to the land and would leave off of it if he got paid for his labor or was turned off of it. If he was paid for his labor he would be willing to get off any time. TISON said BAKER made three crops on the land. He put up a fence since 1831.

Joel TISON

Deposition of Elizabeth WILLOUGHBY

WILLOUGHBY says she heard BAKER say he didn't have a right to the land and that Mrs. Rebecca CARSON had the advantage of him. She could turn him off the land whenever she pleased.

WILLOUGHBY heard that Mrs. Licetta BAKER was "at law" about the land.

Elizabeth WILLOUGHBY was a daughter of Mrs. Rebecca CARSON and did see Licetta at her mother's house a few times. When Rebecca CARSON was sick and under the care of Dr. RANDOLPH, WILLOUGHBY said that she sent a negro man named Charles and a Mrs. ANDERSON to send for her sister Licetta BAKER to come to their mother's house. Willoughby heard her mother say that Allen TISON and John B. BAKER might live on the woodland if they would have it divided among the heirs and they could have what they could make off of it, but not live on it. WILLOUGHBY said that Allen TISON did not live on the land that fell to him.

Elisabeth WILLOUGHBY

Deposition of Allen TISON

TISON says he was at John B. BAKER'S one day and TISON was about to take BAKER'S oldest child to its grandmother (Rebecca CARSON) when BAKER objected to it and said he did not want his child or any other person that he had control over to visit Rebecca CARSON. This was before the Court order notice was given to BAKER. Allen TISON was displeased with Mrs. Rebecca CARSON, when he was about to carry the Baker child over to her house, but they had not had any unpleasant words with each other. TISON said that he has had a habit of drinking to much spirits at times and was drinking at the time he was going to carry the BAKER child over to Mrs. CARSON'S. TISON said BAKER grew a garden on the land the first year and made very little on the land the first year on account of the roughness of the land and wet weather.

Allen TISON

Depositions at the store of Sherrod TISON, Pitt Co. on March 2, 1833

Deposition of Alfred MOYE

He says that in March or April 1827 he was called on by John B. BAKER and Allen TISON to survey the land of Thomas CARSON, dec'd. MOYE proceeded to survey and divide the land among the heirs as directed by the commissioners appointed for that purpose. While he was surveying he was at the house of Rebecca CARSON (except for the time he was engaged in the woods) where she provided for him and after the division had taken place, MOYE recollected that John B. BAKER appeared to be gratified at the lot of land that fell to him and his wife. It appeared to also be convenient to Mrs. Rebecca CARSON. That there was a piece of woodland that John B. BAKER wanted to clear and settle on. John B. BAKER paid MOYE $9.00 as his half part of the expenses of the survey in May 1827.

William CLARK, Clerk and Master of Court of Equity of Pitt County to hold court at the court house in March 1833.

Depositions at the store of Sherrod TISON, Pitt Co., taken by John JOINER and Alfred MOYE, Justices, April 26, 1837, of Amos JOINER, Isaac JOINER, William HEMBY, William MAY, Sherrod TISON and Moses TURNAGE.

Deposition of William I. (J.?) BAKER, April 26, 1837 at the store of Sherrod TISON

William BAKER said he saw John B. BAKER put manure on the land, which he adjudged to be 100 cart loads of one horse, which improved it greatly.

William MAY and Goold HOYT, Justices ordered to take the depositions of Wiley NOBLES and John S. BROWN, May 5, 1837.

Deposition of Wiley NOBLES, May 5, 1837

Nobles said he surveyed the land in question the day before, it being 13 ¼ acres. He valued the improvements on the land when new at $210. He valued the improvements:

Dwelling house $62.50

kitchen $13.00

smoke house $13.00

corn crib $20.00

hen house $2.50

gig shelter $3.00

garden $5.50

well $3.00

ditches $17.50

clearing the land $70.00

The houses are principally constructed of pine logs, the dwelling house logs I think are split and the inside hewed. The corn crib logs are split but as to the others I do not know whether they are split or not. The hen house, kitchen and dwelling are decayed some. NOBLES judged the value of the land at $32.50 per year from 1831 until this time. Half the ditches need considerable work. NOBLES said he saw the land several times before it was cleared, but only from the road. NOBLES lived 8 ½ miles from this land. Wiley NOBLES was county surveyor until he resigned Feb. term 1837. Signed: Wilie NOBLES

Deposition of John S. BROWN, May 5, 1837

BROWN says he was with NOBLES surveying the land the day before. The dwelling house, smoke house and corn crib are split pine buildings. Inside the dwelling the logs are hewn. The kitchen and hen house are round logs with pine slab roofs. The hen house and kitchen are considerably decayed. The garden and well is in tolerable good repair and the ditches need clearing out. BROWN said Mrs. Rebecca CARSON is about 50 years old the same age as him. The ditch on the property is 627 yards long. Some portions are 5 feet deep and other parts are not more than 6 inches. It is 3 feet wide in some places and 2 feet wide in others. The narrow part of the ditch was 125 feet long. The shallowest part is 20 yards long. BROWN said he passed the land on the road before BAKER moved on it. It was piney land, 1/3rd of which would be heavy land to clear. The balace of the land might be plowed up by scutter grubbing. It was worth $5.50 to clear at a total of $70.00. It is worth at least $8 to $9 per acre considering all the improvements BAKER made. BROWN recalled a ditch along the road before BAKER moved on the land. J. S. BROWN

Deposition of Willie BROWN, May 5, 1837

BROWN says he had never been on the land but helped survey it the day before. BROWN says he saw the ditches about 20 years before. There was a ditch on the land along the road before John B. BAKER moved on it. The ditch was 330 yards long, 3 feet wide and 1 ½ feet deep on average. Willie BROWN

Deposition of Lewis TURNAGE, May 16, 1837

He said that the lumber on the land would cost $3.00 for every hundred yards to cut it on average.

Signed Lewis TURNNAGE

Red Banks Church Well

Daily Reflector, Thurs., Sept. 12, 1907

Elder H. B. TUCKER tells us that some wanton persons have been causing considerable trouble to the well at Red Banks church, four miles from town. An old fashioned sweep was first used at the well, but somebody tore this down. Then a wheel with chain and bucket was provided, but the chain was soon carried away. Recently a pump was put in the well, but in less than a week this was broken and rendered useless. The well is at a convenient place for people to get water when passing, and it was kept in use as a matter of public convenience. Why any one should be so wanton as to keep injuring the well we are unable to see. Some people are very thoughtless of the comfort and convenience of others.

STONEWALL LODGE HISTORY

The following history of Stonewall Lodge in Robersonville, Martin County, NC was written by Paul D. Roberson, Master of Stonewall Lodge. It appeared in the Weekly Record, Robersonville, Aug. 20, 1941. Contributed by Judy Nobles Lewis.

Stonewall Lodge was organized during April, 1869, Robersonville. On December 27, 1869, the lodge was convened by dispensation from the Grand Lodge for the purpose of constituting, consecrating and dedicating the lodge and installing the officers, which was done according to the ancient usage. The growth of the lodge has been continuous, and its activities have followed closely along the well-chosen path of Freemasonry.

On the 19th day of August, 1871, Henry D. ROBERSON gave a lot on which to build a temple. This lot of 70 feet square on the east side of which is now Main Street of Robersonville, is the home of Stonewall lodge. Immediately after the lot was given, the members of the local lodge constructed the building which is now located on the lot. It is the oldest building now standing on Main Street.

The lower floor of this building was used for the purposes of refreshment by the Masons, and by Professor Stephen W. OUTERBRIDGE as a school until the latter part of the nineteenth century. The lower floor is still used by the Masons when they desire the use of it. The lodge permits the Senior and Junior Woman's clubs and other non-profit organizations which have for their purpose the betterment of the town and community of Robersonville to use this lower floor at the present time. At the present time, one of the small rooms on the lower floor is used by the Junior Woman's Club for the purposes of conducting a public library.

Originally the entrance to the second floor was by means of steps entering from the south side of the building. This was changed several years ago by removing the original steps and making a winding stairs within the hall leading from the first floor to the second. During the past few years with the assistance of the ladies, the Masons have improved the grounds surrounding the temple by appropriate posts and the planting of shrubberies and flowers. During the year 1937 the building was completely renovated. At that time a small porch was built to the building, and a new roof was put over the temple. At the present time, the temple compared favorable with the best in the Fifth Masonic district.

Several times in the past Stonewall lodge has been favored by visits from the Grand Masters and other high ranking State officers of the Masonic Order. During 1938 the local lodge was host to the district meeting.

The lodge has never had its charter arrested, and it has always been in good standing with the Grand Lodge. It has contributed continuously to the support and relief of the Orphan's Home and the Eastern Star Home. At the present time there are thirteen members who hold a record of over 25 years of continuous service as members in good standing. Spier COCHRAN has served continuously as Tiler for more than 35 years.

The first Master of the lodge was James Augustus WHITLEY, who was an outstanding farmer and citizen of Martin County. He lived near Everetts, and represented the county in the State Legislature. COHABITATION RECORDS

Part 8

In the March 1866 session of the North Carolina General Assembly, an Act was passed concerning negroes and persons of color. Justices of the Peace were to collect and record in the County Clerk's office, a record of the cohabitation of former slaves to ratify their state of marriage. The Court Clerk was required to maintain a record book for this purpose and to receive 25 cents per entry for his service. In Section 6, Chapter 40 of the Act, it was a misdemeanor if negroes did not record their marriage by Sept. 1, 1866, This section of the Act was amended by Section 1, Chapter 70 (ratified March 1867), to extend the time of recording these marriages to Jan. 1, 1868. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

IN MEMORY OF JEFF McALLISTER

Pitt County Family Researchers has lost another friend, Jeff McAllister, a former PCFR Officer. Jeff joined PCFR in 1996, served on the Executive Board in 1997, was Vice-President of PCFR in 1998, and served as Secretary of PCFR in 1999. He and his wife Phyllis were always so gracious; letting us put together the Quarterly at their beautiful home. Back then, we would have pages of the Quarterly strung everywhere, with people collating, some stapling, some stuffing envelopes and others addressing. Then we would spend another hour trying to understand the bulk mail rules and get the Quarterlies in stacks and into certain tagged bags. There would always be laughter and of course lots of genealogical talk.

I have a personal connection to Jeff that I didn't realize until about two years after I knew him. He had ancestry back to West Virginia and would occasionally ask me about research techniques on tracking that family there. About two years later I was tracking a line of my mother's family out of Texas, which lead me to Indiana and then West Virginia. When I went on-line looking on message boards for this family I found a message about them. It turned out to be a message from Jeff McAllister! He came off the son and I came off the daughter of the same family. So, however unlikely, I found a distant cousin in Greenville, NC, since my mother's people lived in Texas. Jeff was warm, direct, intelligent, and loved gardening. I really appreciated his being direct (which came from his military training) and he did much for PCFR in its troubled and stumbling years. He will be missed and Phyllis and their children will be in our thoughts.

According to his obituary, Jeff McAllister, 81, died Wednesday, Aug. 30, 2006, in Greenville, NC at Pitt County Memorial Hospital. He was a native of Hopewell, Va. and later served in the United States Navy during World War II and the Korean Conflict. Following his military career, he was employed with the Voice of America as a radio technician. For several years he served as director of the Pitt County Council on Aging.

Mr. McAllister was preceded in death by four brothers and three sisters. He is survived by his wife of 24 years, Phyllis J. McAllister; two sons, James McAllister of Winston-Salem, NC and Kevin McAllister of Scituate, Maine; three daughters, Eileen Demain of Fairbanks, Alaska, Kathleen Albritton of Mount Airy, NC and Heather Jones of Denver; two stepsons, Joseph Kernen of Greenville, NC and James Allen Kernen of Dallas, Tx., a brother, John W. Pitt County Cohabitation Records, 1866

(last installment)

In the March 1866 session of the North Carolina General Assembly, an Act was passed concerning negroes and persons of color. Justices of the Peace were to collect and record in the County Clerk's office, a record of the cohabitation of former slaves to ratify their state of marriage. The Court Clerk was required to maintain a record book for this purpose and to receive 25 cents per entry for his service. In Section 6, Chapter 40 of the Act, it was a misdemeanor if negroes did not record their marriage by Sept. 1, 1866, This section of the Act was amended by Section 1, Chapter 70 (ratified March 1867), to extend the time of recording these marriages to Jan. 1, 1868.  of WORSLEYS Resentment--- Your Petitioners shew that the Depredations of Mr WORSLEY and his adherents had brought down the resentment of the Neighbourhood to defend themselves by those Laws which God and Nature had vested them with--- That Mr WORSLEY and his Followers had bound themselves by Oath to use every Stratagem in plundering the Neighbourhood and defending themselves thereafter in such a manner that they were above the operation of the Laws. this being the Case the Villians who were beyond the reach of the Law Your Petitioners humbly shew that being poor and indigent persons with large famileys, to Support, the fines are more then they are any way Capable of

In the southwest corner of Beaufort County near the Craven and Pitt lines is the grave of "Private" Joseph GUILFORD. Until 12th of this month (April) his grave was marked by a cedar head board. At that time the North Carolina Society Sons of the American Revolution placed a government marker to his grave.

Near a station on the N. & S. R. R. called "Frederick" is the unmarked grave of Sergeant Israel HARDING.

Corporal Benjamin ROSS is buried about one mile west of the town of Edward. His grave is unmarked.
