Pension Records located at National Archives, Washington, DC. Abstracted and contributed by Roger Kammerer.

本事事事

Deposition of Samuel VINES, age 71, before Marshall DICKINSON, J. P. of Pitt County, March 25, 1846. Samuel VINES says that when he was about 14 years old his father put him on a farm with a few hands to take care of himself, about eight miles west of "Greeneville, Pitt County." Vines remained there until the latter part of 1802, when he moved to where he now lives further west. When Vines lived on his first farm he knew Henry TYSON, a Revolutionary War soldier, and Sarah his wife, because they lived nearby. Vines knew them as husband and wife and they had several children. They had a son Edmund TYSON, who was "rather deformed", who was then about the age of 8 or 10 and who died before fully grown. They had another son, Abner TYSON, who was born after Edmund, and some years later they had a daughter who married later to Arden NICHOLS. The daughter was born after Vines left the neighborhood. Vines recalls hearing of Henry TYSON losing other children besides those he already named. Vines did not know of any person then living in the neighborhood old enough to have been a witness to the marriage of Henry Tyson to Sarah, unless that person was a mere child at the time.

Saml VINES

Deposition of Ruthy NORRIS, age 68, nearly 69, before Marshall DICKINSON, J. P. of Pitt County, March 25, 1846.

Ruthy NORRIS says that Henry Tyson and Sarah were married long before she knew them and always understood they were married about the time she was born. Ruthy was married in her seventeenth year to John NORRIS, brother of Sarah TYSON. Sarah TYSON and her son, Edmund TYSON, aged about 15, were present at Ruthy Norris' wedding. Edmund TYSON died soon after. At that time, Henry and Sarah TYSON had another son named Abner TYSON who was about 8 or 10 years old. Ruthy was somewhat acquainted with the Henry TYSON family five or six years before her marriage, when they had four or five children living. Ruthy remembers James, John, Edmund and Abner TYSON. John or James TYSON was larger and older than Ruthy. After Ruthy's marriage she understood from the family that besides the children already named, there was a girl named Polly TYSON, who died an infant. There was also a son, born between Edmund and Abner and a son William TYSON, born after Abner, who both died young. Ruthy heard that a child was born while Henry TYSON was in the army, but doesn't recollect which one it was. She also heard that Polly TYSON was the first born child. All the TYSON children died before being fully grown except Abner TYSON. Sarah TYSON had no more children after William for ten or twelve years and then she had a girl named Edy TYSON, now the wife of Arden NICHOLS. Not more than a year after the birth of Edy, Henry TYSON died and Sarah TYSON and her two children moved further away and Ruthy did not see much of them anymore. Ruthy heard that Abner TYSON, who was weakly and infirm, lived a long time in the Poor House and died there some years before. All of the Henry TYSON family is dead except Edy NICHOLS. Ruthy NORRIS further states that Henry TYSON and his wife lived in the same house with Ruthy and her husband for a short time and heard Henry TYSON talk about fighting in the war, of being in nine States while being a soldier and returning home. Sarah TYSON complained that she had to work hard for their support since she got little help from him. Sarah said "she never seen a brass farthing for all the fighting he boasted of." Henry Tyson agreed saying he never anything himself except victuals and clothes and hardly that. Ruthy doesn't remember the year Henry TYSON died or his age, but believes he was as much as fifty years old when he died. Sarah TYSON, age unknown, remained a widow and died the summer before last. Just before the death of John NORRIS, he stated he was 81 years old and Ruthy understood from the him and the family that Sarah NORRIS was the oldest and his brother, Henry NORRIS was next and John NORRIS was the youngest. John NORRIS died three years ago last fall and spoke of Sarah Norris marrying young.

Deposition of John JOINER, age 66, before Marshall DICKINSON, J. P. of Pitt County, April 29, 1846. John JOINER states that he knew Henry and Sarah TYSON and believes him to be the same Henry TYSON who served 3 years in the Revolution. John JOINER knew Henry TYSON when he was older and pale and did little work. His wife Sarah was a hard working woman. JOINER thinks Henry TYSON died in 1803 or 1804, being over 50 years old at his death. JOINER believed there was no record kept of the ages of Henry and Sarah TYSON'S family. JOINER recollects only two children of Henry and Sarah TYSON, being Abner and Edy, but understood that there were other children who had all died. John JOINER

Deposition of Isaac JOINER, age 54, before Marshall DICKINSON, J. P. of Pitt County, April 29, 1846. Isaac JOINER states that when he was a small boy he was acquainted with Henry TYSON, a Revolutionary War soldier, and his wife Sarah and they lived about two and a half miles from his fathers. When Isaac JOINER was about ten years old, Henry TYSON and his son Abner came to his fathers house for a visit. JOINER recollects that Henry TYSON saving he had lost all his children except Abner. Abner was about 4 or 5 years older than JOINER but was "puny." Henry TYSON died a few years after this visit in the latter part of 1803 or the early part of 1804. Henry TYSON had another child before his death named Edy, who is now the wife of Arden NICHOLS. Joiner believed that Henry and Sarah married before or during his military service. The fact of his being a soldier of the Revolution was "notorious".

State of North Carolina Pitt County Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions May Term 1846

Deposition in open court of Arden NICHOLS, age 40, before the Justices of Pitt County, May 6, 1846. Arden Nichols of Pitt County made the following deposition in order to obtain benefit of the Act of Congress passed July 4, 1836 granting pensions to widows of soldiers of the Revolution. He claims a right to the pension by his marriage to Edy TYSON, only surviving child and heir of Sarah TYSON, the widow of Henry TYSON, a soldier of the Revolutionary war. Henry TYSON, as Arden NICHOLS had been informed, served in the NC Continental Line for the term of three years, one month and twenty one days. The first portion of his term TYSON served as a corporal in Capt. ALDERSON'S Company, of the 5th regiment. The remainder of his term, TYSON was a private, as appeared in the muster rolls in the office of the NC Secretary of State. Henry TYSON died in 1803 or 1804, leaving his widow Sarah and a son named Abner TYSON and a daughter Edy TYSON, his only living children. Arden NICHOLS says he married Edy TYSON in January 1830 and that Abner TYSON died in the Pitt County poorhouse some four or five years previous. Arden NICHOLS believed he was entitled by law to the pension of Mrs. Sarah TYSON by virtue of his marrriage to Edy TYSON. Nichols stated that there were no public or family record of the marriage of Henry TYSON and Sarah or the births of their children. From conversations with family relations, NICHOLS believed that Henry TYSON and Sarah were married before he went into service, or before the end of it. That Henry and Sarah had five children before having Abner and that Abner would be about 60 years old if he were living. NICHOLS was unable to find anyone living who was present at the marriage of Henry and Sarah TYSON. Sarah had four brothers, two who were younger than Sarah were presumed to have been present at the wedding, but are now dead. The last brother dying more than three years previous. NICHOLS heard Sarah TYSON give her age numerous times and at this time she would be between 87 and 88 years old. Sarah stated she was married when she was 17 years old. Arden NICHOLS stated that Sarah TYSON lived with him, with the exception of a few weeks, from the time of his marriage to her death. During the first two years she could get around, but she had no property and NICHOLS had to support her. The last eight years of her life Sarah TYSON was helpless, she having to be moved around the house, her food to be cut up and fed to her. Sarah TYSON died at Arden NICHOLS house on the evening of August 1, 1844. She never remarried and remained the widow of Henry TYSON. Arden NICHOLS declares that he is a poor man and has seven children now alive, one a cripple, and he and his wife have had a hard struggle to support the family. NICHOLS had always been afflicted with partial blindness and is now almost blind. His state of sight kept him at home and his mother-in-law health kept them both ignorant of the Pension Laws. A short time before her death, NICHOLS heard a "flying rumour" that widows of Revolutionary War soldiers were allowed pensions. He told his wife about it, but concluded not to trouble "the old lady" about it until he found out more about it. NICHOLS inquired among his neighbors about it, but got little information and decided to give up. During the last year a stranger called on NICHOLS at his home, who told him his mother-in-law was entitled to a pension and offered to get it for him, but he never returned. NICHOLS now made application to the magistrates of Pitt County to put him in a way to obtain whatever may be due him.

Arden [his mark] NICHOLS

Sworn to and subscribed by William D. MOYE, Clerk of Court May 6, 1846.

Deposition of Edv NICHOLS, age 43, before Marshall DICKINSON, J. P. of Pitt County, May 8, 1846. Edy NICHOLS deposes she is the only surviving child of Henry and Sarah TYSON. She had been told that her father died when she was a small child and doesn't remember seeing him. Edy lived with her mother until her marriage to Arden NICHOLS. She and Arden had eight children, seven now living. From what her mother told her, Edy would be 43 years old in the present year. A few months before her death, Sarah TYSON said she was 86 years old, but never mentioned the month or year of her birth or marriage. She and Henry TYSON had eight children viz: Polly, James, John, Edmund, Aaron, Abner, William and Edy TYSON. All the children were dead, except Abner, at the birth of Edy. The children, as Edy NICHOLS was told, are believed to be in the order of birth. Polly died an infant. Edmund lived to be nearly grown. James lived to be about 14 years old. All the others, except Abner, died at a younger age. Abner TYSON died four or five years before in the poorhouse, where he had been for many years. He was a sickly and infirm man who would be 60 years old if he were living. Edy knew nothing of the age of her father at his death, but knew he died not long after her birth. Edy heard her mother say her father served in the Revolution for three years, three months and 11 days. That he returned home during the war and that he had been in nine States while in service. Her mother also said some thirty years before a man named STUBBLEFIELD purchased from Abner TYSON his right to his father Henry TYSON"S military land and who come back and purchase Edy TYSON'S right when she came of age, but he never came back. [Much of this deposition is the same as Arden NICHOLS]

"State of North Carolina Pitt County)

Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions, Augt. Term 1846

I William D. MOYE Clerk of the said Court do hereby certify that it has been given in evidence to the Satifaction of said Court, that Sarah TYSON, widow of Henry TYSON, a Revolutionary Soldier, died in said County on the 31st day of July 1844 and that Edy NICHOLS, wife of Arden NICHOLS, of said County, is the only Surviving child of the said Sarah TISON, and is of lawful age.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my Seal of Office and subscribed my name this 7th day of Augt. 1846 William D. MOYE CLK"

Letter dated March 13, 1846, Raleigh, NC to Marshall DICKINSON from W. HILL.

HILL states he had enclosed a certificate showing how Henry TYSON'S name stands on the muster rolls. His Land Warrant No.# 243 was drawn on Feb. 28, 1814 by Clem. STUBBLEFIELD for 274 acres which had long since passed into a Grant for land in the Western District of Tennessee. Abner TYSON as heir to Henry TYSON gave the power of attorney to STUBBLEFIELD to draw the Warrant. Fees for this service 50 cents.

Admitted Corporal 18 mos., & Private 6 mos. at $86 per annum from Mar 4, 1831 to July 31, 1844 Only surviving child Edy NICHOLS

Agent A. H. MARKLAND Present

This letter is sent only to shew the identity of this TYSON with the one on the rolls.

Letter dated May 12, 1846, Greenville, Pitt Co., N. C. from Marshall DICKINSON to J. S. EDWARDS, Commissioner of Pensions.

Sir, I enclose the declaration of Arden NICHOLS for a pension, and the affidavits in its support. I might avail the declarant of the assistance of our Representative, or of some of the agents for such purposes in your City, but I think it would only make you more trouble, without any advantage to him. I take the responsibility of pursuing this course. If I believed in the statement of some member of Congress made lately in the H. R. I should not send in this application because no possitive proof is made or can be made, of the marriage, but I cannot think that statement correct. The circumstantial proof in this case is much stronger for any Court or Jury here than it would be considered if two ordinary witnesses swore to the fact. No couple could have lived together in that neighbourhood, where they were both born & raised, as man & wife, without suspicion, who had not been legally married. This is the opinion of all the old people there that I have had a chance to converse with. The witnesses are all unexceptionable, Colo. VINES is a planter of the first standing for virtue & probity. The Mr. JOYNER'S are of the highest respectability, and each has represented the County many years in the Commons, and also in the Senate. All are remarkable for their caution in giving testimony, and must be understood to mean full as much, and a little more, than they express. Mrs. NORRIS, the only intimate acquaintance of an advanced age, living in the same rank with TYSON & wife, now to be found, is a poor woman, against whose testimony her neighbours inform me, no exception can be taken. I have this not only from her poor neighbours, but also from all I enquired of & from Colo. VINES and the two JOYNERS. In fact Colo. VINES & the JOINERS refered her expressly to her, as probably knowing more about the matter than any other person alive, and as one who could be depended on. The declarant & wife are also poor, worthy people, inoffensive in every way, and have been compelled to live much at home in a very obscure situation in the piny woods, where the old lady also was confined, without ever going abroad as I understand, except when she was transported in a cart to the poorhouse to see her sickly son. I lived for 3 or 4 years within two miles of NICHOLS (by crop path) but as during that time I did not visit his house. I never saw the old lady, and knew nothing of her. I mention these facts to account for their ignorance of the pension laws, at a time when they could have proved the marriage, and when they so much needed assistance. You will pardon me for it, in such a hard case, where I cannot help feeling as others acquainted with the facts feel. I have not thought it proper to introduce proof of credibility of the witnesses any further than your rules prescribe viz. in Court. If it is deemed of any importance the credibility of either & all can be fully supported. Colo. VINES & the JOINERS are known to Mr. CLARK, our representative and a more especially to Mr. BIGGS & Mr. DANIEL, who have practiced in our Courts. The certicate of our Secretary of STATE I send, though not in proper form, as I suppose you have in your office, a Copy of the same Muster Rolls. Yours Respectfully Marshall DICKINSON"

Letter dated Sept. 20, 1846, Greenville, Pitt Co., N. C. from Marshall DICKINSON to J. S. EDWARDS, Commissioner of Pensions, Washington City, D. C.

"Sir, On receipt of your letter 17 July in the case of Sarah TYSON. I sent word to Arden NICOLS, her son in law, and received a message in return that he was too unwell to attend to the business, & unable to get to town. I requested a man in old Mr. TYSONS neighborhood to make enquiries on the subject, but have heard nothing from him. I have not seen NICHOLS since. I have done all for the poor fellow that I feel bound to do, and must drop it here. I am convinced there is no person now alive to prove the marriage nor any other evidence of it. I enclose the proof of the Widow's death, and namr of her child and the certificate of the Clerk that there is no record of the marriage in Court. OUR RECORDS FURNISH NOTH-ING BUT THE BOND FOR LICENCE AND THE CLERK INFORMS ME THAT THEY DO NOT GO BACK FURTHER THAN 1793 OR 1794.

Letter dated Sept. 8, 1847, Greenville, Pitt Co., N. C. from Marshall DICKINSON to J. S. EDWARDS, Commissioner of Pensions.

"Sir, I wish to call your attention to the case of Sarah TYSON, decd. Your letter of the 17 July '46 stated that the evidence did not sufficiently established the fact that she was married before 30 Jany 1780, when her husbands service terminated, so as to bring her case within the act of 4 July 1836. You refered me to the Clks office for further proof, and added that the Court should certify the day of her death, and names of her living children. I procured a certificate from the Clerk that there was no evidence in the office as to the marriage, and also the Certificate of the Court as to the widows death, and her living child and on the 20th Sept. following, I forwarded them. I think I stated, that there was no person of the neighborhood old enough to prove the actual marriage, and knew of no further testimony. I supposed the matter would be determined in a short time. Enquiries were frequently made by the claimant about the issue, but, altho I really feel much solicitude in his behalf, such was the bad state of my health for a long period, that I have not hitherto troubled you on the subject. Perhaps a decision was made, and the notice of it miscarried. If no decision has been made, I can only add that I know of no further evidence as to the marriage, except the evidence of those who knew them only many years subsequent to the marriage who could know nothing about the actual marriage, but who will testify that no charge or suspicion was entertained at that time as to their previous legal marriage. If such testimony would be of any avail, sufficient can be had. Please inform me on the subject.

Very Respectfully, Sir, Your obt. Servt. Marshall DICKINSON"

Letter dated Oct. 19, 1852, Greenville, Pitt Co. from Marshall DICKINSON to J. E. HEATH, Commissioner of Pensions.

"Sir, In May 1846 I enclosed papers in the application for a Pension, by the Heir of Sarah TISON, widow of Henry TISON, late of this County and after some time, was informed by letter from the Comr that the evidence of marriage was not sufficient. I then advised the applt. that he had better apply to Congress, as his claim was undoubtedly a just one. NICHOLS, the Husband of the only Heir, being an infirm man and blind neglected to call for a long time, and before I had prepared his Petition, I became sick myself. I was afterwards advised to wait as there was expectation that positive proof would not long be required so rigidly. I have since perceived that a more liberal course is pursued in that respect, and I request you to inform me on the subject as far as your rules permit, and if further testimony is neccessary, I should be extremely glad on account of a very worthy & poor man and family, to be informed.

Yours respectfully M. DICKINSON"

Letter dated Nov. 21, 1852, Greenville, N. C. from Marshall DICKINSON to J. E. HEATH, Commissioner of Pensions.

In this letter Marshall DICKINSON again asks the Commissioner to look in the case and offers any assistance. DICKINSON believes it is a just claim.

"State of North Carolina Pitt County)

I Henry SHEPPARD Clerk of the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions for the County aforesaid, hereby certify that I have made diligent search and cannot find amongst the records of this office, any record or bond or license of marriage between Henry TISON and Sarah who was his wife, and THAT NO SUCH RECORD IS TO BE FOUND AS FAR BACK AS THE YEAR 1780, and that this is the only proper office in the County where such records are required by law to be made. Given under my hand and the seal of my office this 14th day of July 1853.

H. SHEPPARD CLK"

NOTES ON CASE:

synopsis of facts from the depositions say Sarah TYSON was born about 1758/1759, married in 1775/1776 at 17 years of age and died July 31, 1844. Henry TYSON died about 1803 and appeared over 50. Samuel VINES became acquainted with Henry and Sarah TYSON in 1789 when he was 14 years old.

Some Pitt County People

Eastern Reflector, Aug. 14, 1895

A friend at Grimesland sends us the following item which proves beyond doubt that there are centenarians in this section. Mrs. Lucretia HODGES was born in Chicod township, Pitt county, July 12th, 1792. She is now living in Beaufort county near the line of Pitt and is in good health. She is the mother of seven children, has sixty grand-children, ninety three great grandchildren and three great great great grandchildren. Her son, S. V. HODGES who is next to her youngest child, is fifty-nine years old, has seventeen living children, fifty two grandchildren and three great grand children. If any county can go ahead of Pitt the Reflector would like to hear from them.

CLARENCE V. CANNON LETTERS

The following informative letters were written to Jesse Lillington Jackson, Pitt County historian, by Clarence V. Cannon. In 1990 they were located in the J. L. Jackson Papers, Sheppard Memorial Library, Greenville, NC. Transcribed and contributed by Roger Kammerer.

Ayden, N. C. January 23 1947

Dear Mr. JACKSON,

While the work is interesting it is at the same time rather tiring and I fear what I am sending you may not be what you wanted. Probably I should have given more dates, some of which I do not have convenient, and maybe you wanted some comments about who the different people were, what they did and where they lived.

I have been thinking I would take time and undertake to go back further with the lines but I have not gotten around to it somehow.

CANNON, MAY and ROUNTREE. There are only three as the ROUNTREE runs together as both my paternal and maternal grandmothers were of that name.

CANNON: There are an unusual number of Caleb connected with this family. For example, my grandfather, my great grandfather and my aunt Martha CANNON married her cousin Caleb who was the brother of cousin Jesse CANNON. My great grandfather CANNON was killed by falling tree in 1815, the year my grandfather was born. I would like to go back beyond my great grandfather who was born about 1765. I have rather vague data on the family going back as far as the crusades and a coat of arms but I would like to be able to trace definite lineage further than I now have.

MAY: On my mother's father side I can get back to Major Benjamin MAY all right but would like to go further but this would likely be in England or English records. At Farmville each year there is held a TYSON —MAY reunion.

ROUNTREE: It seems this family came to Virginia and from there to this state and Mass. as well as some in Lousiana. I have been in touch with descendants of the family in several states and several are working on different branches of this family history.

I wish you good luck and happiness in your undertaking and if I can be of further help or explain some of this I am sending, please call upon me.

Sincerely, Clarence V. CANNON

Ayden, N. C. September 16 1947

Dear Mr. JACKSON,

I regret very much I was not at home when you called last week but I do appreciate very much the data you mailed to me in your letter of the 9th. At different times I had run across or heard of some in the list you mailed but by no means the number or information you sent me.

In my direct CANNON line I have understood it about as follows going back: My father Robert C. born 1859, Caleb 1815, Caleb 1781, Thomas 1757, John 1712. About the last or first one, John, I am not so sure. I would like more information about him and both his wife and Mary, the wife of Thomas, as to who they were.

Mrs. CANNON thanks you for your inquiry as to her family. She asked me to say that she was in possession of the data on her direct line back to Keeley TUCKER and that she would be glad to furnish you this information if it will be helpful to you.

I think it is a fine thing you are doing to work on the assembling of facts on the genealogy of the older families in this section. It must be quite tiring and yet very interesting. I hope to see you when you are again in this section.

Sincerely, Clarence V. CANNON

CANNON MARRIAGES, 1867–1900

From the original indexes, Pitt County Court House, Greenville, NC; transcribed and contributed by Elizabeth Ross.

The Pitt County marriage bonds and certificates no longer exist, but the index books at the court house abstracted much of the information before the originals were lost or destroyed. If the information was not given in the original index, it is so indicated here as or "ng" or is simply left blank (as in the case of ages or witnesses, particularly). The mothers' maiden names were rarely given, so in this transcription, the married names are not repeated.

JAPHET TYSON DEAD

A Good Patriarch Gone To His Reward Eastern Reflector, Fri., March 31, 1905

There is a sweet melancholly pathos in the thought of an old, honorable, upright, well beloved citizen passing away in peaceful sleep; One who has born the heat and burden of the day, living among the friends of the same community all his life, more than eighty years; living upon the same homestead from his birth, sharing the love and good will of all who came within his acquaintance, living the simple, plain, honest, virtuous life of a hardworking farmer, making a good living by work and economy, wronging no man of one penny, as living evidence of God's most loving approval.

At 3 o'clock Saturday morning, the spirit of Japhet TYSON took its flight in the unknown beyond. Peaceful and content he was ready to go when the Master called him home. Japhet TYSON was born in the year 1824, on the same plantation where he died on Saturday, 25th of March, 1905, being about 81 years old. He was twice married. His first wife was mary EVERETT, by whom there was born two daughters, both of whom are dead. The second wife Celia FLAKE who survives him, no children have been born by that marriage.

By hard, sober and steady perseverence he accumulated some estate. Scrupulously honest, he believed in rendering to Ceasar the things that are his, and to God the things that are God's. He was for many years a leading member of the Free Will Baptist church at Piney Grove near his home. Besides the estate he leaves behind obtained by his energy and economy he leaves a heritage of uprightness and honest integrity that is attested by all who knew him. Truly a good man has gone to his reward.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Theophilus BLAND, which occurred yesterday at his home, near Grifton. He was taken with a congestive chill and soon passed away.

Arch MCGOWAN In Fatal Accident

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Feb. 11, 1891

Mr. Arch MCGOWAN, a citizen of this township, was accidently killed Monday morning. He left his home, four miles distant, on horseback intending to come to town. Just below PARKER'S Cross Roads, his horse stumbled and fell, throwing him off. In the fall, Mr. MCGOWAN'S neck was broken. Two persons riding along the road at the same time saw the accident. Mr. MCGOWAN was dead when they reached him.

J. L. W. NOBLES Dead

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Aug. 22, 1894

Mr. J. L. W. NOBLES, an excellent citizen of Contentnea township, died Sunday night. He was buried Monday afternoon with Masonic honors.

Alonzo ADAMS Killed

New Bern Daily Journal, Wed., Dec. 20, 1882

Last Saturday night, near Kinston, the horses ran away with the wagon with which Alonzo ADAMS, of Pitt county, was moving Dr. H. D. HARPER'S effects to Kinston, throwing ADAMS out and killing him very soon by the passage of the wagon over him.

Wade MOORE

Washington Progress, Thurs., April 17, 1913

Mayor F. M. WOOTEN, of Greenville, acting coroner, went to Belvoir township to hold an inquest. There was a party in a schoolhouse out there. After the party two boys, Wade MOORE and Moses TYSON, both less than 17 years old, had a fight and TYSON is said to have struck MOORE across the temple with a strip of board.

Eastern Reflector, Fri., Aug. 5, 1904

A distressing accident occurred near Winterville, Saturday afternoon, in which a boy lost his life. Ollie KITTRELL, a son of C. T. KITTRELL and Louis CRAWFORD, a son of David CRAWFORD, both about 16 years of age, were out together shooting at the mark with a breech loading gun. While young KITTRELL had the gun young CRAWFORD happened to step in front of it just in time to receive an entire load from the gun in his left shoulder and was almost instantly killed. Young KITTRELL was almost wild with grief over the accidental slaying of his playmate. Both families are greatly distressed. The victim of the accident was buried Sunday.

Mr. John S. HARRIS Dead

Daily Reflector, Wed., Oct. 31, 1908

We learn with regret of the death of Mr. John S. HARRIS, which occurred at his home in Falkland township on Tuesday, after a long illness. Mr. HARRIS was about 55 years of age, and is survived by one daughter and four sons. He was truly a good man, and one of Pitt county's very best citizens. Among his neighbors he was known as a man of exceeding kindness and generosity, and was never known to turn a deaf ear to an appeal for charity or help. He was one who loved uprightness, and his own life was marked with the highest honor and integrity. His death is indeed a loss to the county.

PITT COUNTY PLANTATIONS

The following letter appeared in the Washington Progress, Washington, NC, Tues., June 28, 1887. This interesting article names the farms between Washington and Greenville in the order in which they existed.

Editor Progress:

Your excellent article in this week's Progress relative to Washington's Needs for Railroad facilities contained one decided error. In discussing the most favorable line of Road you sagaciously prefer the one from Washington via Greenville to Wilson, but say, "while the country from Washington to Greenville is very poor and undesirable, it should be remembered that from Greenville to Wilson a more thrifty and energetic class of farmers cannot be found in the State." I am thoroughly acquainted with the farms and farmers on and adjacent to the road from Washington to Wilson and take the responsibility of declaring that from Washington to Greenville, no better farms and no better farmers are in North Carolina. If you take the road south of the river you pass the farms of W. H. PATRICK, J. T. WINFIELD, the GRIST farm, the STICKNEY farm, the SATTERTHWAITE place, the Joe SAUNDERS farm, Gen. Bryan GRIMES' farm, the WILSON farm, the William GRIMES' place, the TAFT farm, the John CHERRY place, the TUCKER farm, the BROWN farm, and Col. YELLOWLEY'S farm. These lands are all in high cultivation and are worked by men of intelligence, men of energy and men of wealth. If you take the road North of Tar River you pass, by the farms of Col. WHARTON, John GRIMES, R. R. FLEMING, the LITTLE place, the numerous PERKINS", DAVENPORTS", LANGLEYS', DANIELS" and others. Indeed right along that route lies the best corn producing section of the State excepting Hyde County and the cotton lands are excellent. Come up to Greenville next week on one side of the river and go home on the other and you will see the finest prospects for big crops of corn and cotton—the best evidence of intelligence and thrifty farmers that ever you did see, With this additional inducement for the Road from Washington to Wilson we trust you will increase your most commendable efforts to arouse our people to a sense of their almost criminal supineness in such matters and rest not until the thundering echoes of the mighty engine steed and the shrill blast of steam struggles shall convince them that in truth and in fact their slumbers are over.

> Very Truly, Andrew JOYNER Greenville, June 21, '87

PETITION TO ANNEX TO MARTIN COUNTY, 1805

The following petition to annex part of Northern Pitt County to Martin County is found in the NC General Assembly Session Records, Nov.-Dec. 1805, NC Archives. The request to annex was rejected. Contributed by Leah McGlohon.

Petition of William ROGERS of Pitt County and others

To the Honourable the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina

Gentlemen your petitioners Humbly beg leave to represent to you the great inconvenience they labour under at this time in consequence of their Local stuations living at the distance of Eighteen or Twenty Miles from their Court House and divided from the seat of their County by the waters of Tar River Trantress Creek and Flat Swamp which often prevents your petitioners from attending to their public duty in sd County on account of the overflowing of the above Creek and swamp and in the winter they are often completely frozen over. When should you in your wisdom pass act to annex tham to the County of Martin they would not have to have more than Eleven or Twelve Miles to Transact any of there public business and that on a pleasant Road without any waters to interrupt there passage. Your petitioners furthur state that there is but five familys thus situated and the part under consideration does not exceed fifeteen Hundred Acres of Land. Therefore your petitioners Humbly pray that you woul take their case into consideration and grant them relief by annexing them to the County of Martin and as in duty bound they will ever pray

The PCFR maintains a growing library of books and vertical files at Pitt Community College. Please consider adding your pedigree charts, lineages, or other hard-copy material to the resources available. Send any/all submissions to the secretary (see inside cover for addresses).

Resource transcriptions which are too large for our Quarterly are published on the PCFR, Inc., website. If you would like to participate in this form of free, open-access material, contact Elizabeth Ross, webmaster (see inside cover for email information).

Thank You!

Subscriptions run concurrently from January 1 to December 31 of each year. Your subscription entitles you to submit up to four queries per year in our PCFR quarterly. Query entries should be brief and include a time frame (i.e. 1850, ca 1850, etc.) and geographic area (i.e. NC, SC, Pitt Co, etc.), if possible.

Please return completed subscription form, check (payable to PCFR), and queries to PCFR, P. O. Box 20339, Greenville, NC 27858-0339.

Pitt County Family Researchers, Inc., was established in November 1994 as a non-profit organization. Our purpose is to establish a network to aid persons researching family origins in Pitt County.

Our quarterly subscription fee is $20.00; subscriptions run concurrently from January 1 to December 31. Back issues (Winter 1994–present) may be purchased at $5.00 per number, or $20.00 per volume. Queries are free to subscribers (four/year, pending space).

Members and readers are invited to submit primary resource material concerning Pitt County, NC, and its adjacent counties, preferably in the form of photocopies of the original document(s). A clean, typed, transcript would be acceptable. Please state, clearly, the location of the original material; copyrighted material must be accompanied by a statement of permission from the holder. Articles approved for entry by our Quarterly Committee and our board will be published as given. PCFR assumes no responsibility or liability for errors on the part of the contributor.

The Pitt County Family Researchers, Inc., has a website on the World Wide Web, now being maintained at http://www.rootsweb.com/~ncpcfr/ [Elizabeth Ross, webmaster].

MOORE FAMILY HISTORY

The following are short biographies of members of the Moore family from Pitt County found in Goodspeed's Histories of Tennessee Counties. Contributed by Erin H. Moore.

Martin MOORE

Goodspeed's History of Tennessee, Fayette and Hardeman Counties, 1887, p. 932

Martin MOORE, a prominent farmer of the Fourth District, was born April 11, 1819, in Pitt County, N. C., in which State his parents were born, raised and married. His father, William MOORE, while a resident of his native State, was a magistrate for a number of years, and a constable until he was forced to sell the household goods of a family. He was of so kind and sympathetic a disposition, that he resigned rather than perform such duties. He married Miss Frances FORREST, of English origin, by whom he had five sons and three daughters. In 1835 he moved his family to Tennessee, locating in the western district, Haywood County. He was a prosperous farmer and Jeffersonian Democrat. His death occurred in 1836, and his wife's in 1873. Both were Christian people, true and honorable, but never united with any church. The grandfather FORREST was a faithful soldier of the Revolutionary war.

William B. MOORE

Goodspeed's History of Tennessee, Haywood County, 1887, p. 936

William B. MOORE, M. D., a well known and popular practitioner of Haywood County, was born in the county, September 15, 1835, and is the son of Alfred and Elizabeth (PHILLIPS) MOORE, both natives of North Carolina. His father was born in 1810, and in 1835 came to Haywood County, settling eleven miles south of Brownsville, and is still living. Dr. MOORE's mother was born in 1815 and died in 1848. After finishing his education Dr. Moore went to the medical university at Nashville to study medicine, in 1860-61, but the war coming on, he enlisted in it, and in the fall of 1865-66 he obtained his diploma at that university. In 1866 he went to the New Orleans Medical College, for the purpose of securing a more thorough knowledge of diseases peculiar to the south then returned to Haywood County and commenced practicing, locating eleven and a half miles west of Brownsville, and met with the most gratifying success. July 24, 1867, he married Miss Eliza J. HUDSON, a native of Hardeman County, born July 1, 1840. Unto this union were born seven children—four sons and three daughters—one of each having died. Dr. MOORE is a firm Democrat, and with his wife belongs to the Missionary Baptist Church. He is regarded as a well posted physician.

The Report of John WILLIAMS Arthur FORBES and William BLOUNT To November Term 1789

State of North Carolina. Pitt County

To the Honourable the Judges of the Superior Court of Law for the District of Newbern Mr. John FRY in his capacity of Executor to the Estate of Richard EVANS Esquire Deceased exhibitted to us the Annexed Account and We in Obedience to the Annexed order have Audited the same and Report That the Eight first charges commencing September the 16th 1771 and ending May the 14th 1772 amounting to L 25.12.4 appear to be Supported. That the five Succeeding charges under the date of Septemr the 2nd 1777 amounting to L 208.5.0 aught to be Ballanced by the Hire of the Two Negro Wenches Abigall and Nell being the same creditted for by Mr. FRY for Four Years and Nine Months Service at L 12 pr. Year and extended L 56. It having appeared in Evidence to us that the said Two Negro Wenches Abigall and Nell were put into the hands of the said FRY by George EVANS Esquire now deceased who was also an Executor to the Estate of the said Richd. EVANS and who while living was the Principal Acting one to the end that the use and Service of the said Wenches Abigall and Nell should compensate the said FRY for all the Charges purposes and Services charged under the date of September the 2nd 1777 and that Mr. FRY assented thereto. That the remainder of the Charges Commencing under the date of October the 3rd 1773 except the charge for Negro hire to repair the Mill and the last Charge for time and overlooking appear to be Supported they amount to L 29.6.5 That from the Evidence we received respecting the abilaty of the Negroes for which Hire is charged namely that one was a Boy the second a Common Fellow and the Third an old negro Wench which the said FRY purchased of the said Richard EVANS for Twenty Five pounds and is the same Twenty Five pounds that makes the first Credit in the annexed Account and from the Manner of their working it is our Opinion that Three Shills pr. day as charged by Mr. FRY is too much and Two Shillings per day is Quite the Vallue of their Labour and finding so that it is our Opinion that in place of L 159.9 which is the amount of the whole of Mr. FRY's charges for negro Hire he oughtt to be allowed Only L 106.6 and that as to the last charge of L 50 for time and overlooking and directing It is our Opinion that it is not Supported by the Articles of Agreement and that it ought not to be allowed. That the whole of the sums by us allowed Amount to L 171.4.9 That by the Annexed account It also appears to us that the said FRY hath received sundry articles amounting to L 227.6 enclusive of the L 56 as before shewn to placed against the Debits under the date of September 2nd 1777 so that there appears to us to be due on the said anexxed account from the said John FRY to the Estate of the said Richard EVANS the sum L 56.1.3 with Lawful Interest from the first day of July 1778 untill paid.

We further report that George EVANS the Son of the said Richard EVANS and at this time also an acting Executor to the Estate of his Father exhibited to us a Note of hand which is also hereto Annexed which note appears to us to be in the hand Writeing of John FRY and to have been by him Subscribed; upon it's being shown to him he answered he knew nothing of it and would not agree that it should be placed to his Debit and from the Antiquity of this Note which bares date January the 31st 1760 we feel ourselves at a loss to determen wheather it should be placed to his Debit or Not therefore Submitt that Charge to the Court. It is to be remarked that Richd EVANS aforesaid Marryd Miss COTANCH the only child of Michal COTANCH and that he the said Richard EVANS thereby became sole Legatee or Heair to the Estate of the said Michal

Given under our Hands and (torn) at Greeneville this 26th day of October 1789.

The Court found that John FRY owed the estate of Richard EVANS, dec'd., 139 pounds, 12 shillings and 9 pence. John FRY objected and appealed to the Superior Court, which objections were rejected. This estate file has a long list of accounts given by John FRY. The following are some of the most interesting items in the accounts:

REV. WAR PENSION: THOMAS JENKINS

The following pension record is found at the National Archives, Washington, DC. Transcribed from photocopies of the original pension records on microfilm by Roger Kammerer.

"State of North Carolina Edgecombe County)

August Term 1832 Court of pleas and quarter Sessions

On this 29th of August personally appeared in open court before the Justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions now setting. Thomas JENKINS aged 74, a resident of the County of Edgecombe and State aforesaid, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress of June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officer and served as herein stated.

He was born in the County of Pitt N. C. in the year 1754—the record he received from his father & mother Residing in the County of Pitt he volunteered and was put in a company commanded by Capt. Samuel BARROW with John THROGMORTON Lieut. This company was of the regiment of Col. SUMNER. He does not recollect the period at which he entered the service nor when he left it. He met his company at Greenville marched thru Smithfield to Salisbury and remaining there a short time we proceeded to Charlotte meeting a few skirmishing parties of Tories and returned to Salisbury and were discharged. He recollects to have seen Genl. SUMNER. This service embraced a period of five months.

Having remained for some length at home he volunteered and was put in the company of Capt. Richard REEVES whose Lieutentant was Saml. WARREN, Ensign Chas. WALDRUM. He went to Wilmington and on his march met Col. SHEPARD at Kingston N. C. and halted for some weeks. Then went into Hanover. He was in pursuit of Major CRAIG a British officer. He was in a skirmish at Longfield COXE's upon Neuse. This service embraced a period of Three months— Having returned home he was discharged.

In a short time he volunteered again for a term of two months and was put in the company of Capt. Saml. BARROW, with Saml. WARREN his Lieutentant. He belonged to the regiment of Col. SHEPARD. He went out after having embodied at Greenville under under the general command of Genl. CASWELL to Smithfield and thence to the Western part of North Carolina and after spending the time for which he had engaged in pursuit of Tories returned to Greenville and was discharged.

He sustains the first clause of this declaration by the oath of John BRYAN who was with him. The second and third he is without any direct proof of. He hereby relinquishes all claims whatever to a gratuity or pension other than the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency of any State.

Sworn to and subscribed

Thomas (his mark) JENKINS

I John BRYAN of the County of Pitt do hereby certify that I was with Thomas JENKINS in the service of the United States and believe the facts set forth in the first clause of his declaration to correct. Sworn to and subscribed John (his mark) BRYAN

We John BRYAN Edmond RICKS do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Thomas JENKINS— That we believe him to be 74 years of age —that he is reputed and believed in the neighborhood where he resides to have been a Soldier of the Revolution.

Sworn to and subscribed

John (his mark) BRYAN Edmund RICKS

And the said Court as hereby certify the opinion after the investigation of the matter and after putting the interrogations prescribed by the War Department that the above named applicant was a soldier of the Revolution and served as he states. And the Court further certifies that John BRYAN and Edmod. RICKS whose certificates are herewith annexed are creditable persons and the statements entitled to full credit.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office and do hereby certify that the above contains the original proceedings in the matter of the application of Thos. JENKINS for a pension. August 29, 1832 Michl HEARN CC

North Carolina Edgecombe County Feby Term 1833

In addition to the facts set forth in the proceeding declaration, Thomas JENKINS personally appeared in open court & deposes to the following facts—

That when he was called into service he resided in the County of Pitt when he was born— and he continued to reside there until the year 1790 when he removed to the County of Edgecombe N. C. and has continued to reside there until the present time.

He further states that he was unable to procure the certificate of a clergyman in consequence of none being convenient to him and his age and infirmities prevented him from taking the pains that were necessary to have enabled him to do so.

The declarant further states that his witness John BRYAN is confined to his bed at home with palsy, a distance of fifteen miles and that his own infirmities put it out his power to visit him for the purpose of obtaining a more full statement of his services with declarant.

Declarant further states that he did serve as herein stated for nine months as a private in the companies as stated in the declaration hereto attached and for this he claims from his country such justice as the laws has provided.

Sworn to and subscribed

Thomas (his mark) JENKINS

In testimony whereof I Michael HEARN Clerk of said Court do hereby certify that the above was sworn to in open Court and have hereunto set my hand and seal of office.

Letter to J. L. EDWARDS, Commissioner of Pensions, Washington City, from Spencer D. COTTEN.

Tarborough April 13th 1835 Dear Sir

Your letter of the 8th Jany past directed to Doct. John W POTTS, was duly received by this gentleman and handed over to Mr. Thomas JENKINS.

The Doct. removed to the west some time past and the poor old Soldier did not Know what Course to take to reinstate himself on the pension list.

Accident threw me a few days past to his humble hovel and I found him in much distress and affliction he has been Sick Since the 1st Jany and looks much like dieing very soon, he is destitute of the Common Comforts of life, having him lately depressed of which title property he had by executions and Sales.

It is possible he may recover, but from appearances I Should Consider it a miracle if he does. I was perfectly ignorant of his bounty being Suspended untill the day I was at his Cabin, his situation being to deplorable prompts me to address you in his behalf. Your letter before alluded to was handed me, and in enquiry of the old man how he should have made Such a mistake he says he Cannot account for it unless the Justice of the Peace Should have made the error, perhaps in writing BRYANs age at the same time which probably might have been Seventyfour. The facts are entirely unknown to me, but I believe allwho Know him have no doubt of his Serving in the Revolution how long or on what particular occasion I dont pretend to say.

Could the old man be reinstated it would be an act of Charity, and I sincerely believe he will not long require the aid of the Government.

Any Communication you may feel at liberty to make will have the attention required as soon as possible. Very respectfully Spencer D. COTTEN

P.S.

This is written at the request of the old man who I have no doubt is 83 or 84 years old S. D. C."

[Note: There is no family information given in these pension records. Thomas JENKINS was allowed a pension on his application executed on Aug. 29, 1832 and then lost it. There is a letter dated July 24, 1924 in the records to an Elsie M. CLANAHAN, of East St. Louis, Illinois, who had inquired about the pension of Thomas JENKINS.]

PITT COUNTY BIOGRAPHIES

The following are abstracts of very informative biographies of Pitt Countians found in various publications. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

Zeno Lester EDWARDS

North Carolina, The Old North State and The New, Vol IV, NC Biography, The Lewis Publishing Company, Chicago, Ill. 1941, page 172.

Zeno Lester EDWARDS, D. D. S.; b. September 27, 1890, in Pitt County, NC, was a son of William Thomas Jefferson Edwards and Jack Ann GASKINS. Jack Ann GASKINS, born in Craven County, NC, was a daughter of Thomas GASKINS, a farmer and Confederate veteran. The grandparents of Doctor EDWARDS in his paternal line were Mason EDWARDS and Susan STOKES of Pitt County. Mason EDWARDS was a Confederate veteran and a farmer by occupation.

Dr. Z. L. EDWARDS first attended private schools in Pitt County and continued his education in the Collegiate Institute from 1910 to 1914. He then matriculated at the University of Maryland as a dental student, graduating in 1917. In the same year he became a first lieutenant in the Dental Corps and he had previously joined the Reserve Corps. He was stationed at Camp Hancock and received his discharge on December 23, 1918.

When the war was over Doctor EDWARDS came to Washington, NC and for three years was associated in a dental practice with Dr. L. H. MANN. Since 1923, he followed his profession independently and his well equipped office was an indication of his success.

On November 29, 1924, Doctor EDWARDS married to Lucinda SIZEMORE, of Clarksville, Virginia, a daughter of Henry B. SIZEMORE, who was a farmer and merchant. The children of this marriage are Zeno Lester EDWARDS, Jr. and Lucinda EDWARDS.

The Doctor owned considerable farm land and he was widely known in this section of the state not only because of his professional activity but also because of the part which he had taken in the public life of the community. Politically he was a Democrat and represented Pitt County in the State Legislature. Fraternally he was a Mason and Mystic Shriner, an Elk and a member of the Improved Order of Red Men. He also served as chairman of the board of school trustees. Mrs. EDWARDS was a member of the Baptist church and a member of the Adisto Book Club. Doctor EDWARDS was a member of and past president of the North Carolina Dental Association.

John Robert JENKINS, Jr.

John Robert JENKINS, Jr., an attorney at law practicing in Aulander, NC, was born April 27, 1912 in Pitt County, NC, a son of John Robert JENKINS and Lucy MANNING, also natives of Pitt County. Both the JENKINS and MANNING families were owners of a considerable amount of land and a number of slaves. The grandfather, John Thomas JENKINS, a planter and Confederate veteran, was a son of James JENKINS, a native of Martin County, NC. The last named was the great—grandfather of John R. JENKINS Jr., and his mother's great—grandfather was also a brother of James JENKINS. John Robert JENKINS, Sr., was a prosperous farmer of Pitt County. He married Lucy MANNING, who was a graduate of Atlantic Christian College at Wilson, NC, and who prior to her marriage engaged in teaching school. Mr. and Mrs. John Robert JENKINS, Sr., reared the three children of Joseph JENKINS, brother of J. R. JENKINS, Sr.. Being left orphans, they went to live with their uncle. When the two small daughters of Mrs. JENKINS' brother lost their mother in 1934 they, too, were taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert JENKINS, Sr.

John Robert JENKINS, Jr. was an only child and was educated in the schools of Robersonville, NC, graduating in 1928. He gained his Batchelor of Arts degree at Duke University in 1932 and his Batchelor of Laws degree from the UNC, Chapel Hill in 1935, in which year he was also admitted to the bar. Hearing that there was a good opening in Aulander, Bertie County, NC, he went there and established his office. He was the only attorney of the town and he is enjoyed a good practice. On September 16, 1939, he married Miss Marjorie Elizabeth SMITH, of Robersonville, NC. John served as mayor of the town, and belonged to the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, the Woodmen of the World, the Kiwanis Club and Ruritan Club. He had always been interested in music and was a baritone singer of ability, being often called upon to sing at local events.

James Walter KEEL

North Carolina, Rebuilding an Ancient Commonwealth, 1584-1925, Vol. IV, by R. D. W. Conner, The American Historical Society, Inc., 1929, page 322.

James Walter KEEL. an attorney practicing in Rocky Mount, NC, was born on Nov. 1, 1875 in Carolina Township, Pitt County, NC, the son of Theophilus KEEL and Artemisia PAGE. His grandfather, Irvin Nathaniel KEEL, was born in 1793, and died in 1876 on his plantation which he had started in Carolina Township. There he was an extensive planter and large slaveowner, and a man of supreme importance locally.

Theophilus KEEL, was born on the Keel plantation in 1827, and died on it in January, 1890, having inherited it from his father. He, too, was a planter and slaveholder on a large scale, and he was a local leader of the democratic party, and held a number of political offices. In addition to his plantation he operated a country store, a saw-mill, a grist-mill, a corn-mill and a cotton gin, and was connected with practically all of the activities of his neighborhood. The village in which he lived was incorporated and was named "Keelsville" in his honor. Theophilus was a member of the Christian Church of the village, where he was its main pillar, and was the leading factor in the building of the church. When the Civil War broke out he joined the Confederate army and served from the beginning to the close of the war. He married Artemisia PAGE, who was born 1837 in Martin County, NC, and died on the home plantation in January, 1900. The following children were born to their marriage: William D. KEEL, who was a truck farmer, who died in Jacksonville, Florida, aged thirty-two years; Ella KEEL, who resided in Norfolk, Virginia, was the wife of Willis R. WHICHARD, a representative of Masonic bodies in Virginia; Lela KEEL, who died in Robersonville, NC, aged forty-five years, was the wife of Marcillus EVERETT, a merchant who died in the same place; John H. KEEL, who owned and operated the home plantation; X. Theophilus KEEL, who was a realtor and former merchant of Rocky Mount, NC; Attorney KEEL was the seventh child in order of birth; Susie Artemisia KEEL, who was unmarried, held a position in the agricultural department of the United States government and was a licensed attorney in Washington, DC; Magnolia KEEL, who was called Nolie, resided in Robersonville, NC, and was the wife of James Milton HIGHSMITH, a farmer and owner and operator of the moving picture theatres of that neighborhood; Charles H. NC Supreme Court: Hanrahan vs. Pugh

"State of North Carolina

To the worshipful the Justices of Pitt County Court. The Petition of Sarah CANNON and of Mary CAN-NON an infant by Shadrach P. ALLEN her next friend Shewth that Shadrach A. CANNON Late of Pitt County died intestate in the year One thousand eight hundred & fourteen, leaving your petitioner Sarah his Widow, and your petitioner Mary his only child, entitled to distribution of his estate. Administration on the estate of said intestate was in the same year granted by your Worships to William PUGH Esq. of Pitt County, who by virtue thereof took into his possession the personal estate of said intestate, consisting of Slaves, Cattle, Horses, hogs, farming utensils, crop of grain and various other articles to the value of Ten Thousand Dollars or some other large amount, which property and the profits thereof, as well as the monies the proceeds thereof and also monies collected for debts due the intestate, the said William PUGH has retained in his possession, using, employing & enjoying the same, and deriving great gains therefrom. Your petitioners since the lapse of two years from granting said Administration have in a friendly way applied to the said PUGH, and desired an Invatory and account of his Administration, and that their respective shares of said property should be paid to them respectively, or be secured for their benefit, but with these requests the said PUGH has on various frivolous pretences refused and still refuses to comply. To the end therefore that the said William PUGH may upon his oath true answer make to the matters herein charged— that he may set forth a full and particular inventory of the property of his Intestate the said Shadrach A. CANNON of which he died possessed or entitled to, and which the said PUGH has received or which but for his neglect he might have received, that he may exhibit a just account of his disposal and management thereof, and of the issues and profits thereof; that he may declare whether he has not used the monies of his intestate to his own purposes either in paying debts, purchaseing property, lending it out or otherwise, so as thereby to make interest and other great gains; that he may be decreed to pay to your petitioners the sum due them respectively or such account, as well interest as princpal, and that they may have such other and further relief as the nature of their case may entitle them to. May it please your worships to grant your petitioners a writ of Subpoenae directed to the said William PUGH, commanding him to appear at the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for Pitt County on the first Monday of February to answer the premises and to abide and perform such order & decree therein as to your Worships shall seem meet.

And your petitioners shall ever pray.

"The Plantiffs in the case offers evidence all the proceedings in the suit instituted by Sally CANNON and Mary CANNON, now Sally HANRAHAN, against William PUGH, which suit was brought for settlement of the estate of Shadrack A. CANNON dec'd. The Plantiffs also offer in evidence the proceedings of the County Court in a suit instituted by James Hanrahan and Wife against William PUGH for a settlement of the estate of Shadrack A. CANNON dec'd."

Shadrack A. CANNON died on July 2, 1815.

Deposition of Joseph W. WORTHINGTON, Mar. 9, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says Mrs. Sally CANNON was the widow of Shade A. CANNON. She had a brother John ALLEN. She asked her brother John ALLEN, when he returned from Alabama, about an affidavit he had given William PUGH, but John said he ought not have done it.

Deposition of Shadrack P. ALLEN, Mar. 9, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he is the brother of John ALLEN. Shadrack says he was under the impression that he heard William PUGH and Shadrack A. CANNON about 1813/1814 say that CANNON was to pay upwards of $600 on account of John ALLEN who owed that sum on settlement to William PUGH. About one or two years before Shadrach A. CANNON died, Major PUGH sent Shadrack P. ALLEN to see CANNON for some money and CANNON appeared to be displeased and said that he did not owe William PUGH as much as he thought.

Deposition of Rachel PUGH, Mar. 9, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says she heard John ALLEN say he owed William PUGH and he would be oblidged to sell his negroes to pay him. John ALLEN went to Shadrack A. CANNON's to see if he would buy his slaves. CANNON went to New Bern to get the money he owed William PUGH, but returned without it. Sometime later Major PUGH sent Shadrack P. ALLEN to get money from CANNON, but he did not have any. The negroes went away from Major PUGH's and went to Shadrack A. CANNON's.

Deposition of Polly KENNEDY, Mar. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says that Rachel PUGH is not a person of truth. There were no quarrels between them, but says "there are others I like better."

Deposition of Simon BURNEY, Mar. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he has no right to disbelieve Rachel PUGH because he had never heard her swear. He says people think badly of Polly KENNEDY about her telling things that are not so. William PUGH is my uncle and Sally HANRAHAN is my cousin.

Deposition of Zilpha BLOUNT, Mar. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says that Rachel PUGH has a bad character. They were not on friendly terms because of a misunderstanding between them.

Deposition of John H. BURNEY, Mar. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he is cousin of Rachel PUGH and Mrs. Sally HANRAHAN. He is a nephew of Major PUGH. Says he would trust Rachel PUGH on her oath, but not Polly KENNEDY.

Deposition of Bryan KILPATRICK, Mar. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says that Rachel PUGH is accused by some of the neighbors of not telling the truth, but I could trust her oath. He has known Polly KENNEDY ever since he moved into the neighborhood. William PUGH is my uncle and Mrs. Sally HANRAHAN is my cousin. I have heard Rachel PUGH and her sisters say they were not friendly with Polly KENNEDY.

Deposition of Marshall DICKINSON, Mar. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he heard Mr. PUGH say that Shadrack A. CANNON and John ALLEN met at PUGH's house to arrange a debt of $600 or more.

Deposition of Lewis BURNEY, July 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he was a constable from 1814 to 1815. He knew William PUGH was hard pressed for money for about five years. William PUGH wrote him asking for money since PUGH's property was in danger then of being sold for debt. William PUGH is my uncle and Sally HANRAHAN is my cousin. He had heard from the neighborhood that Polly KENNEDY tells untruths, but doesn't know of it. He would trust her oath.

Deposition of Isaac JOYNER, July 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he lived with Shadrack A. CANNON in the fall of 1813. Dr. ALLEN came to Shadrack A. CANNON's in Oct. or Nov. 1813 and they went to William PUGH's house and stayed all night. The next day Shadrack A. CANNON came back and had bought a negro woman Lydia and two children from ALLEN for about $600 on credit.

Deposition of John F. SMITH, July 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he has known Major PUGH a long time and knew he was needy of money. He says he has been at Polly KENNEDY's father's house, but didn't particularly know her. He would believe her oath.

Deposition of Hardie SMITH, July 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he was 18 years old in 1814. He understood that Mr. PUGH was hard pressed for money in 1813— 1815. He was well acquainted with Polly KENNEDY and her character was as good as any of the neighbors.

Deposition of Jacob BLOUNT, Aug. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he had been accquainted with Polly KENNEDY for five or six years, having frequently visited her father's house and conversed with her. He would trust her oath.

Deposition of Frederick JOHNSON, Aug. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he knew Polly KENNEDY for about seven to eight years, he living about a mile or more from her father's house. He would trust her oath.

Deposition of Pamela JOHNSON, Aug. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says she held considerable amount of debt against William PUGH in 1810—1811 for about $2,300. They were about to purchase a 50 acre piece of land from Guilford MURPHY and declined it in consequence of knowing William PUGH's inability to pay the amount of the note without selling property. She lives a little over a mile from Miss Polly KENNEDY and frquently walk over to her house. She would not doubt her oath.

Deposition of John C. PATRICK, Aug. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he is the son of Joel PATRICK. Joel PATRICK held a note against William PUGH for over $1000 about 1810—1811 and he indulged on the note for several years. Mr. PUGH let Joel PATRICK have 25 acres at $15 an acre and could never get the balance of the note.

Deposition of William MURPHY, Aug. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he heard Rachel PUGH say she wasn't friendly with Polly KENNEDY. His mother and sisters have not visited with Polly KENNEDY for some months. Something happened between Polly KENNEDY and Murphy's sisters at a Ball. That Polly KENNEDY said something to William about his sister, Nancy MURPHY, and he went home and told Nancy and she "told me to clear out she did not care what Miss Polly said."

Deposition of Allen PATRICK, Aug. 10, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he knows that Rachel PUGH and Polly KENNEDY were unfriendly towards each other.

Deposition of Guilford MURPHY, Aug. 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he was born and raised within about four miles of Polly KENNEDY and they grew up together. He would trust her oath.

Deposition of William WOOTEN, Aug. 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he lived in the neighborhood of Miss Polly KENNEDY and he would trust her oath.

Deposition of Council WOOTEN, Aug. 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he lived about five miles from Miss Polly KENNEDY and he frequently visited her father's house. He would trust her oath.

Deposition of Allen CHANCE, Aug. 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says he lived about six miles from Mr. PUGH. He heard that from 1812 to 1815 Mr. PUGH was hard pressed for money. Shadrack A. CANNON died about 1815.

Deposition of Frederick JOHNSON, Aug. 20, 1831, before Archibald PARKER, J. P. Says that Major PUGH gave him his notes that were due in 1814, 1815 and 1817. The notes were settled by Frederick's mother by her buying a tract of land.

FLORIDA CRASH IS FATAL TO PITT AND FUQUAY MAN

Farmville Enterprise; Fri., Dec. 23, 1938

"Greenville, Dec. 21. — Charlie NELSON, 27-year-old Pitt County resident, was killed instantly and his brother, Elmo Lee, is not expected to live, as a result of an automobile-truck crash near Live Oak, Fla., last night about 8 o'clock. Lennie WHITTINGTON, 40, of Fuquay Springs, riding with the Pitt men, also was killed.

Brown NELSON, a third brother, and Thomas GREY, another Pactolus resident are confined to Griffin Hospital in Valdosta, Ga., but their injuries are not regarded as serious. Elmo Lee is in the same hospital. C. A. NELSON, father of the dead and injured Nelson men, left today for Valdosta to be with his sones.

Funeral arrangements for Charlie NELSON have not been completed, pending the outcome of Elmo Lee's condition. Nelson's body will be returned to Pitt county.

The accident occurred on a highway between Valdosta and Live Oak, Fla. The automobile, believed to have been driven by Charlie NELSON, is said to have struck a truck laden with pulp wood. It is understood that the truck had been left parked on the highway without a rear light. Both motor vehicles were badly damaged.

A farm was purchased in Valdosta recently by the NELSON family. The Pactolus men left last Sunday to make arrangements for moving the family to the Georgia home.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. NELSON, surviving Charlie NELSON are five brothers, Willie B., Lacy, Guy, Roy, Elmo Lee, and C. A. NELSON, Jr., and two sisters, Lola Mae and Annie E. NELSON, all of the Pactolus community."

LITTLE GIRL GOES TO FARMVILLE IN 1870

The following article is from the Farmville Enterprise, May 24, 1940. It was written by Mrs. Josie Joyner McArthur (1864-1958) wife of Charles William McArthur and daughter of Calvin Joyner and Mary Ballard. This article is a wonderful historical record of relationships and locations of houses from near Ballard's Crossroads to Farmville, Pitt County. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

"When Father had ordered our drive horse, Jack, hitched to the "top buggy" and we were snugly tucked in , brother and I in the foot, from which we could see everything our youthful minds might take in by peering over the dash, we headed South for Farmville.

The first place we passed was the home of our aunt, Mrs. William BELCHER, about three or four hundred yards father on was the home of J. T. SMITH, later to become Sergeant SMITH, of Greenville, here we found a cousin, Mrs. SMITH.

Across the branch a quarter of a mile or a little more, we came to the home of William McARTHUR, an uncle by marriage. Reaching the crossroads and turning right we passed next the home of J. L. BALLARD, an uncle; Mrs. BALLARD, a neice of my mother by her first marriage.

Farther on across the creek, just ahead, was the home of Moses JOYNER, a cousin. On another half mile was the home of Mrs. Mary Ann ANDERSON, a cousin. Mrs. ANDERSON was the widow of Laurence ANDERSON, a Captain in the Confederate army. The next house on the left, well back from the road, was the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Moye EASON. Set well away from the road in a grove of fine oaks at the crossroads on the left we see the house of William LANG and his wife, Mrs. Priscilla Moye LANG, a cousin.

Jogging along at a leisurely pace, turning to the right, we passed on the right Aaron TURNAGE' home, a cousin; farther on still on the right way back from the road is the house of Moses TURNAGE, a cousin. Next, on this most pleasant journey, we passed the home of Albert CARR, a cousin. Not far ahead we see on the left the home of Robert TURNAGE, mother's nephew by her first marriage.

A bit farther on still to the left we see the home of Mrs. Betsey DUPREE and her sister, Mrs. Eliza MOYE, a cousin, this home is on our right, and just a little way ahead on the left is the home of William FLANAGAN. Each home excites our juveline interest and we ask again and again, "who lives here?"

Soon we spy a home fare back from the road on the left, the home of Mrs. Lucy MOORE, and nearby on the right is the home of Thomas FLANAGAN. Next, well away from the road is the home of William JOYNER, his wife a cousin. Now, far ahead is the home of Mrs. Susie JOYNER. The beautiful plot of pasture land across the road in front is still a joy to the eye. Away from the road on the right is the home of William SMITH, Mrs. SMITH a cousin. Nearby but well off the road on the right lives Eli WILLIAMS, Mrs. WILLIAMS, a cousin.

Next and not far away on the right was the home of Jahob JOYNER, a cousin, we were then only one mile from Farmville".

DIED.

Tarboro Southerner, Mar. 28, 1872

"Suddenly in Charlotte, N. C., March 1st, 1872, Mrs. Jane C. WARD, aged 76 years, 2 months and 8 days. She was the widow of the late Dr. Francis WARD and daughter of John and Penelope STUART, who settled, on coming from Scotland to this country, at Daly's Hill on the Roanoke river, Martin County. In the Provincial Congress assembled at Hillsboro in August, 1775 and subsequently represented Martin in both Houses of the Legislature.

Deceased had been of many years a faithful member and ommunicant of the Prot. Ep. Church and was dear to all who knew her."

OBITUARY

Tarboro Southerner; June 12, 1873

"Died, at Haspania Plantation, Louisiana, on Sunday evening, May 5, 1873, Captain William BIGGS.

He was born in Williamston, N. C., on February 26, 1813, and emigrated to the South about 1835. He successively resided Vicksburg, New Orleans, and upon his plantation in Louisiana. He was married to Miss Susan FLOWERS, and had an only son named Willie, upon his attaining manhood, by an inscrutable dispensation of Divine Providence he was removed from his devoted patents, and since then the health of the subject of this memoir has declined, until he peacefully and quietly passed away. The last few years he has lived a retired life devoted to his wife, and she to him, and now this cord is snapped asunder and we humbly trust "the wind will be tempered to the shorn lamb," and that she may be comforted in this, her great affliction.

We have reason to hope in his death, for, during his last illness, he expressed a confidence in God's mercy, and a faith and hope that he would dwell on high.

Rest, dear one, in the memory of your brothers and sisters, relatives and friends, the first link severed in the family chain."

A. B."

Jonas Dilda Family

The following feature article written by Mrs. Robert McArthur appeared in the Greenville Daily Reflector, Oct. 14, 1950. There is a photo of the family accompanying the article. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

"If you were to travel about two miles east of Fountain on the Falkland highway, you would soon come across the farm of one of the oldest Pitt citizens now living. The gentleman in question is Mr. Jonas DILDA who will observe his 93rd birthday on Sunday. The present homestead is the site of Mr. DILDA's birthplace in 1857.

Relating his boyhood memories of the Civil War experiences is one of his versatile means of interesting varied age groups of the five generations of his immediate family. The youngest son and sole survivor of Benjamin and Matilda COBB DILDA; Jonas DILDA was first married in 1875 to Louisiana GARDNER who died about 1900. To this union were born three sons, J. C., J. L., and Ben; two daughters, Mrs. Allie PHILLIPS and Mrs. Mollie OWENS (died in 1941). His second marriage in 1907 was to Frances Moore of Edgecombe county who is nearing her 77th birthday. There were three children by this marriage: S. L. and R. M. DILDA and Mrs. Robert McARTHUR.

In addition to more than 35 grandchildren, 40 plus great grandchildren, Mr. DILDA has 5 great great grandchildren located as far as California, south to Texas and Florida and others in Washington, D. C.

Until recent months this widely known pioneer Pitt County farmer has been in excellent health and unusually active mentally and physically to the extent that his numerous friends of both races frequently call him "93 years young." Mr. DILDA has ever been optimistic of the world condition and particularly in his sentiments of the advancements of the youth of today.

In recalling the day when he rode horseback six miles to Falkland once a week for mail. Mr. DILDA reminds the present day complainer that just as many things happened in the old by-gone days in proportion to the population, but people were months in being informed about the events because of the lack of communications facilities.

Searching back into the past, the old gentleman recalls the day when Greenville was only a small station and still a mere crossroads town. As late as 1916 he built a one-room school house chiefly attended by his grandchildren and great nieces and nephews. He paid the teachers, the salary was then about $40 a month, without any aid from the county. Mrs. Mattie SMITH STANCILL of Farmville was the last teacher of the DILDA school before its consolidation with the Fountain School.

The former school is now known as DILDA's Free Will Baptist Church. There is also a colored Free Will Baptist Church by the same name, to which he gave both the property and land itself to the colored people of that section in addition to a colored school near the same site.

"If I could turn back 50 years of time (with the opportunities of today) I feel that it would be easy to accumulate a small fortune," says this ninety-three year young citizen of Pitt County."

DIED.

WILL McLawhorn Killed at Ayden

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Aug. 2, 1893

"Saturday night Coroner W. E. WARREN received a telegram from Ayden that J. W. HARRINGTON had killed Will McLAWHORN with a pistol, and asking him to go down and hold an inquest. The Coroner went down and the inquest was held Sunday morning in SAVAGE'S barroom where the shooting occurred. From the evidence before the inquest the jury returned a verdict that the killing was accidental. It developed that HARRINGTON, McLAWHORN and some others were drinking freely at SAVAGE'S bar, when there was a sudden report of a pistol and McLAWHORN fell dead with a bullet in his right breast. It seems that no one present saw the shooting and could not tell just how it occurred, but HARRINGTON says that while they were drinking he went to show McLAWHORN his pistol and in taking it from his pocket it got hitched in his hankerchief and accidently discharged.

While it is one of those mysterious affairs that cannot be explained fully, it is safe to say that whiskey was at the bottom of it. Maybe some of those who worked so hard to undo the work of incorporating Antioch Church and get a bill through the last Legislature to allow whiskey sold in Ayden will be satisfied at such results as this growing out of their labors."

Letter About Drury GRIMMER

"Sparta NC Augt 7. 1849

Mr. Hill Sir

I am requested to ask you, if there is any record in your office, of the names of the Officers & Soldiers, who served in the Revolutionary War, and if so- whether the name of Drury GRIMMER, a private under Capt Richard REEVES of Pitt Co. is among them. If your office is not the proper one for such records, will you be so good as to inform me what office I may refer to—I wrote to Mr. COLLINS some 6 or 8 weeks past on the same subject but have not had the honor to have my letter acknowledged by that functionary. Your attention will command my respects & place me under many obligations.

Letter About John KENNEDY

"Bishopville 24. Novr. 1849

William Hill Esqr. Secty. State of N. C. }

Dear Sir;

The heirs of John KENEDY (who was a Soldier in the war of the Revolution a native of Pitt County, N. C. and who Entered the Service in that State) are attempting to procure a pension on acct. of his Services. From Enquiries that have been made of you heretofore, you have stated that there were three John KENEDYs in the Service, as appears from the muster rolls of No. Ca. and it is probable that this same John KENEDY was Entered more than once and Served under different Captains, I Enclose to you three dollars with the request that you will furnish three certificates with a list of the names of all the Soldiers who Served in the Same Companies with the Said John KENEDYs. Also the Counties where they all belonged, if it appears upon the records of the war department. From the fact that the old Gentleman in his lifetime often mentioned the names of his Brother Soldiers, it may Enable persons to dtermine with Certainty to which Company, or Companies, he belonged. Please Give all the infermation in your power touching this case, and if the money Sent is not Sufficient to renumerate for the trouble, inform me, and the ballance Shall be Sent you.

Your Early attention to this matter will much Oblige your Obt Srvt

Letter About William McELROY

'Washington 30th Dec '51

Dear Sir

William McELROY was drafted in Pitt County N. Carolina, during the Revolutionary war. His Captain's name was Samuel BARROW and Colonel's name, SOWELL or LOWELL. Gen. SUMTER was his commanding officer. No such officers can be found on the Rolls of the Continental Line of your State, so that they probably belonged to the militia or State Line of N. C. not mustered into the service of the U. States. Will you be good enough to inform me, whether McELROY's name, under the above named officers, are on tour State Rolls, and if so, whether McELROY would be entitled by your laws to any Bounty in money or Land.

Respectfully Yours

Letter About Charles BUTLER

"New Harmony Indiana Sep. 28th 1850

To Secretary of State or The Govenor or Adjutant General of the State of N. C. at Releigh Dear Sir

I take the liberty of writing to you concerning the claim of a Revilutionary Soldier of North Carolina. Charles BUTLER served in a N. C. Rigt. during the Revilutionary war & afterwards drew his Pension at Releigh (N. C.) but how often the heirs Know not. He was wounded the heirs say in his face, they are informed that C. BUTLERs name appears on the records at Releigh as a pensioner. He lived and died in Craven County, N. C. His heirs live in the State of Indiana To Wit: Susana BUTLER, Louisa BUTLER & Penelope TANT all of whom are children of Chas BUTLER which can be proven. The heirs cannot tell what particular Company, or Rigt. or line said C. BUTLER served in or under what officers, They had a certificate by which said BUTLER drew his Pension but it is lost or mislaid, I understand one certificate was sent on to washington a few yrs. ago which I suppose might be procured if necessary Will you be kind enough to write to me as soon as possible and let me know whether or not said Chas. BUTLERs name appears on the records at Releigh as a Pensioner & if so all that you can find out concerning the Premises If there is any chance of Prosicuting the claim to a favorable conclusion the heirs will send the funds to pay the necessary expenses. I remain your obt. humbl sevt Respectfully

Letter About Joseph PARKER

"Sparta Geo Jan. 13th. 1848

Dr Sir

Your kind reply dated 18th last month came to hand indue time. Enclosed I send you one dol. So. Ca bill in addition to which you have my most sincere Thanks for your kindness. Things have prevented me from writing to you sooner. I will here state that I wish to engage your services a little further in this matter, and I will cheerfully attend to your fee. You are right in supposing the first transfer of that land to be a forgery. While I wright I am in the immediate presense of a child of Joseph and Gemima PARKER. Joseph PARKER married Gemima HEMBY and I presume the marriage took place under the crown of England, in what was then called Dobbs County or perhaps Lenoir. I wish to ascertain whether the marriage is on the records if so that will prove the first transfer a forgery or something wrong. As I hope happily opened a correspondence with yyou I hope you will be kind enough to find out this fact, and let me know, some person would search out this for you when I could perhaps not even get a reply Please attend to this as soon as you can conveniently and send me the charge of your fee

THE CASE OF JOHN & NILE MANNING

The following are several articles in Greenville newspapers concerning an incident in the Manning family in 1900. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

"MURDER IN CRAVEN

Mr. John MANNING Killed by His Nephew and Son.

Eastern Reflector, Tuesday, June 12, 1900.

A brutal murder occurred near Vanceboro, Thursday night when John MANNING was shot and killed by his nephew Nile MANNING in company with John MANNING Jr., the son of the murdered man. Mr. John MANNING was visiting near Vanceboro, and John MANNING Jr., and Nile MANNING, who had previously had some troubles left Hanrahan's Thursday morning and after walking four miles below Vanceboro, where they met Mr. John MANNING in the road and got in a fight. Nile MANNING shot Mr. John MANNING three times and then both walked back to their home leaving Mr. John MANNING, as they supposed dead in the road.

The defendants were arrested Friday by Mr. Jos. McLAWHORN the Constable at Ayden, and brought here this morning and put in jail for safe keeping until the sheriff of Craven county can come and take them to New Bern. These are the facts as were learned from the prisoners themselves: Nile MANNING, who did the shooting, is a desperate character, having served one term in the New Bern jail and once or twice in the jail here. John MANNING, Jr., who is a son of the murdered man, claims to have had nothing to do with the killing but walked to Vanceboro with and allowed Nile MANNING to kill his father without trying to prevent it. All the parties live in Pitt county, but the murder was committed in Craven."

"Mr. MANNING Not Dead

Daily Reflector, June 13, 1900

Sheriff KINSEY, of Craven county, came up this morning from New Berne to take the prisoners, John and Nile MANNING, who are wanted for shooting Mr. John MANNING last Thursday night near Vanceboro, back with him. Sheriff KINSEY says that Mr. John MANNING did not die from the effects of the shot as was first reported. He is still in a critical condition, however, but there are chances of his getting well again. The prisoners will be given a trial when they reach New Berne."

"Recaptured

King's Weekly, Dec. 14, 1900

Nile MANNING and John MANNING who recently escaped jail at New Berne, had a fight near Hanrahans last Saturday and John was baddly beaten. John was arrested and taken back to New Berne but Nile is still at large."

"SLICK FELLOW

King's Weekly, Dec. 21, 1900

John MANNING who recently twice escaped from New Berne jail must be a slick fellow. He was serving a sentence, when with two other prisoners, he escaped jail. About two weeks ago he was arrested and placed in the Ayden lock up. Remaining in that on Sunday was too much for him so he broke out. A few days later he was again caught and that time taken back to New Berne jail. In a few days he was again out and gone. But he made the mistake of returning to his old haunts and for the third time Constable McLAWHON arrested him. Tuesday he was taken off to New Berne jail again."

Trip Out of Farmville, 1929

The following is an interesting article that appeared in the Greenville Daily Reflector, Aug. 30, 1929, which talks about the people and houses along Grimmersburg Road from Farmville to Lang's Crossroads, Pitt County. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

"Grimmersburg News

Coming from Farmville on route 91—the first farm belongs to R. L. DAVIS and is known as the Jacob JOYNER farm. On this farm right where you see the old read oaks, O. L. JOYNER, of Greenville and D. C. JOYNER, of Farmville, were born and brought up.

On the same farm, on the left or south side of the road, is a filling station owned by R. L. DAVIS and run by a bachelor, TRIPP, who now closes at sunset as he is the man that was attacked by the negro who was this week sent to the roads for four years. South of the filling station in a large natural grove live J. W. MOYE and family. The next house, on the left lives Dexter JONES and wife and grandchild. The house on the right belongs to Charley JOYNER who has ever lived on this land. It is known as the Tommy JOYNER farm and has been in his family for a century. The next place where you see such nice yellow cannas on each side of the drive way, is R. L. SMITH's—Jesse SMITH place.

The next farm on the right is Alfred MOORE's home and this has been occupied by the MOORE's continuously for over a century. The next house of importance is on the left and is owned by Hepburn BURNETT. BURNETT is a recent settler in this neighborhood. He owns the old Earl WILLIAMS house. WILLIAMS was for several years the banker, of Farmville, as William WHITEHEAD was for the country.

B. S. SMITH owns, but does not live upon, the next farm on the left, a hundred years ago his grandfather, William JOYNER, lived on it and his wife had the first kitchen and dining room connected to the main dwelling in the vicinity.

On the right and opposite B. S. SMITH's farm, lives Johnnie JOYNER, and wife, an Alabamian, Bertha JOYNER, widow of R. L. JOYNER, and a very attractive marriageable daughter. This farm is also an heirloom.

When we come to M. L. MOYE's Bill FLANAGAN place. MOYE is the manor born, but he bought this place of Sheriff FLANAGAN's heirs.

Just around the bend of the road lives A. J. MOYE, the oldest person on the road. Next is the DUPREE place, and then comes the Robert TURNAGE farm, owned now by his children and grandchildren. TURNAGE had four daughters, splendid girls, and no buggy.

L. A. FULFORD is a recent acquisition to the neighborhood, who owns and lives upon the Matthew CARR farm. Aaron TURNAGE, Jr., lives where the old MOYE school house, which all the children of the neighborhood received their education. At least most of them never attended any school of higher education until Prayther HINES opened an academy in what is now HORTON's apartment house. On this farm stands the house from which General TYSON's father carried away his beautiful bride.

On the same side of the road in an oak grove resides A. P. TURNAGE, two years the senior of A. J. MOYE, his wife, Carrie SPEIGHT TURNAGE, Lester and wife and children.

Near LANG's Cross Roads is Jesse BAKER's filling station and menagerie. BAKER's has not been robbed, if it is so reported in the papers. No, sir, LANG's Cross Roads is fortified against robbery, for Mrs. Jesse BAKER surely sees to it that no one assaults Jesse and gets away with it. Why Jesse has a live wolf and an alligator and several other strange creatures on his school house property."

Deserted, James FLANEGIN, 1813

Carolina Federal Republican, New Bern, NC, Jan. 15, 1814

DESERTED. From the Rendezvous at this place, on the 12th ult, James FLANEGIN; 26 years of age, five feet five an a half inches high, light complexion, dark eyes, brown hair, and by profession a Planter. Ten dollars reward will be paid for the above deserted Soldier, on his being delivered to me, or any officer of the U. S. Army, or on his being confined in any Jail, so that I get him, and all reasonable expences paid. New Bern, Dec. 30th, 1813

JONAS NELSON FAMILY NOTES

The following information was written on the back of a family lineage chart in 1956 by Davis L. McWhorter, of Bethel, NC, a local historian, to Marvin Key Blount. It is found in the William H. Bason Collection, # 528.36, East Carolina Manuscript Collection, J. Y. Joyner Library, East Carolina University, Greenville, NC. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

"Information above mostly from my grandmother Mrs. Jeannette Whichard NELSON (1843-1919), second wife of James Righteous NELSON ("Right") Descent from Jonas NELSON, Senior, who died ca 1822 can be proved by documentary records in Martin, Edgecombe, and Pitt Counties. A Martin County Deed (dated 1801, Jonas NELSON from Sam'l WHITLEY) states that Jonas NELSON was of Northampton County, N. C. The NELSON family lived in Martin County north of Parmele & Robersonville, near Edgecombe County line. The Martin County deeds show that Kinchin NELSON bought the Land shares of his four brothers around 1822, indicating death date of father. James Righteous NELSON, grandfather of Marvin K. BLOUNT, inherited the old NELSON place from his father Kinchin NELSON. I have seen the old Family Bible of Jonas NELSON, Jr formely owned by Dr. NELSON of, Robersonville. It stated "Jonas NELSON, the son of Jonas NELSON and Mary, his wife" born Jany 27, 1792." This was Kinchen NELSON'S older brother Nothing else in this Bible of interest in our descent. Kinchin must have been born about 1795 as he was said to have been 86 yrs old when he died in 1881. Kinchen NELSON'S family Bible was said to have been burned when BLOUNT home was destroyed by fire ca 1910. Northampton County records have not been adequately examined, but show that Jonas NELSON, lived in Northeast section near Meherrin River. An old William NELSON there may have been the grandfather or father of Jonas NELSON. Other NELSONS probably related were an Abraham NELSON and a John NELSON. An old sword (which was lost in the BLOUNT home fire, but which we played with as children) was said to have belonged to a NELSON ancestor, an officer in the revolutionary War (by Great Aunt Martha Nelson CARSON) The NELSON family was of Primitive Baptist faith, but the name "Righteous" hints of Quakers.

FOUR GENERATIONS LIVING—Perhaps the largest Family in the State. Daily Reflector, May 24, 1904

Mr. Jeremiah WETHINGTON was in town today and says that he is now 78 years old. He has living nearly one hundred children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Few people can say as much. Mr. WETHINGTON is well preserved and works on the farm. He has been married twice but all these children, grandchildren and great grandchildren are of the first marriage. He has twelve great grand children in one family that of Mr. Curtis COREY, and in all there are more than forty great grand children. There is probably not another family of such number living in the state that sprung from one [torn] the lifetime of the ancestor. Mr. WETHINGTON married first in April, 1844.

Farmville Enterprise, Fri., March 26, 1943

Funeral rites for John Richard WAINWRIGHT, 75, well known Farmville citizen, who died at his home Monday morning, were held from the home Tuesday at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. M. E. TYSON of Stantonsburg, Free Will Baptist minister, in charge. Interment was in Hollywood cemetery here. Mr. WAINWRIGHT was the son of the late Alfred and Alice WAINWRIGHT and had lived his entire life in this community. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Minnie SOUTHALL WAINWRIGHT; four daughters, Mrs. Alvin NEWTON, Miss Lizzie WAINWRIGHT, and Mrs. Paul ALLEN of Farmville, Mrs. Joe LETCHWORTH of Greenville; a son, Sam WAINWRIGHT of Farmville, 15 grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Daisy PIPPEN of Farmville; and a brother, H. C. WAINWRIGHT of Snow Hill.

William P. BRYAN

Farmville Enterprise, Fri., March 26, 1943

William Pugh BRYAN, 58, a former postmaster at Falkland and tax collector for Pitt County, died in a Wilson Hospital early Tuesday after a brief illness. Funeral services were held at the Falkland Presbyterian Church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. C. A. LAWRENCE and the Rev. Arthur COURTNEY officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Mr. BRYAN was a native of Bethel. He had lived in Falkland for 40 years. He was a member of the Falkland Presbyterian Church, and was the son of the late Benjamin and Sallie SMITH BRYAN of Pitt County. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eula Elizabeth SATTERFIELD BRYAN; a son, W. P. BRYAN, Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. W. A. SHELTON of Norfolk, Va.; and a brother, Robert BRYAN of Hillside, Arizona.

House Fires

The following are various reports of house fires in Pitt County, which document the burning of many family records, photographs and bibles. From old newspapers, contributed by Roger Kammerer.

Mc. G. BULLOCK Fire

Eastern Reflector, Nov. 22, 1893

Bethel Items.....The dwelling house of Mr. Mc. G. BULLOCK was consumed by fire Sunday morning. It was discovered about daylight. He saved nearly all his furniture and by hard work by the large crowd present managed to save his store house and the dwelling of Miss Hattie STOKES which were near by. We learn that the dwelling was insured for $450. Gen. John W. COTTON and Mr. J. R. GASKINS of Tarboro were down to day looking after the matter.

Dwelling Burned

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Aug. 7, 1895

Mr. Benj. BELCHER, who lives two miles below Pactolus, lost his house and adjacent outbuildings by fire Saturday evening. The fire is supposed to have originated from a deflective flue.

R. J. W. CARSON Fire

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Mar. 14, 1894

Bethel Items....Mr. R. J. W. CARSON who lives about one mile from Bethel had the misfortune to have his dwelling house and a portion of his furniture destroyed by fire last Tuesday evening. The fire is supposed to have caught by matches from rats. It was discovered about six o'clock. In a short while a large crowd had assembled and by hard work managed to save the greater part of the furniture and the smoke house which was near by. A large portion of the finest bed clothing and his daughter's and son's clothes were burned. The loss is about $800, no insurance. Mr. CARSON has the sympathy of the entire community. He was away from home at the time at Greenville serving as a juror and knew nothing of it until he received a telegram Tuesday night. He returned home Wednesday morning.

Residence Burned

Daily Reflector, April 7, 1911

This morning between 12 and 1 o'clock the home of Mr. W. H. HARRINGTON, Jr., about three miles north of Greenville, was destroyed by fire, together with the entire contents, except one or two pieces of light furniture. Origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. HARRINGTON and some men rooming there had narrow escape from being burned, the house was far gone when they awoke. There was some insurance on the house but none on the furniture. Mr. C. D. HARRINGTON lost his furniture, which was stored there, also, insured.

Dwelling Burned

King's Weekly, July 10, 1900

Standard Items.....The old farm dwelling, on the old plank road, familiarly known as "Baltimore" was burned a few nights ago.

Yankee Hall Burned

Washington Gazette, April 24, 1890

The large residence at Yankee Hall, near Pactolus, was burned last Thursday night, and is supposed to have been incendiary. Mr. Henry DIXON, who is overseer, for Mr. LAUGHINGHOUSE, occupied the house and his wife had given birth to a child just four days before. All the furniture was destroyed, and we believe there was no insurance.

Fire in the Country

Daily Reflector, Fri., Sept. 10, 1909

A few days ago Quinn COX, near Haddock's Cross Roads, lost his house and contents by fire. A quantity of tobacco packed in one room of the house was also destroyed.

Dwelling Burned

Eastern Reflector, Dec. 22, 1899

A few days ago, near Crisp, Benj. T. EAGLES, Jr., lost his residence, which he had recently erected, by fire. It caught from a defective flue. Mr. EAGLES and his bride had not been occupying it a month. He was fortunate to save all his furniture.

Dwelling Burned

Eastern Reflector, Fri., May 4, 1900

Grifton Items....We learn just before writing, that L. B. MEWBORN's house was burned and he lost most of his furniture.

Fire in Bethel Township

Daily Reflector, Tues., Dec. 27, 1910

On Sunday night the home of Mr. J. S. BROWN, in Bethel township, together with nearly everything in the way of furniture in the house, was destroyed by fire. His children were away on a visit and Mr. MOORE was home alone. He was awakened about two o'clock by being almost stifled with smoke and found the house burning so rapidly that neither the building or contents could be saved. It is not known how the fire started. He had about $500 insurance, but this will hardly cover a fourth of the loss.

Dwelling Burned

Daily Reflector, Thur., Feb. 23, 1911

Ayden Items....The residence on the old homestead of the late John NICHOLS, which belonged to his daughter, Mrs. C. A. BLOUNT, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

Fire in Beaver Dam

Daily Reflector, Fri., Sept. 16, 1910

About one o'clock on Wednesday morning Mrs. Allie JOYNER, of Beaver Dam township, lost her dwelling house and kitchen, and practically all the contents of both, by fire. Her son was first to discover the fire, and he barely had time to awaken his aged mother, and get her out in safety. By the time the neighbors could be aroused with the ringing of the farm bell and reach the scene, the fire had far advanced that practically nothing could be saved from the building. The fire started somewhere about the kitchen, but the cause is unknown. Mrs. JOYNER's loss is about $1,500 on which she only had $375 insurance. Notwithstanding her advanced age, she being over 80, she takes the loss pf her home with remarkable resignation. She was heard to remark: "If the Lord saw fit to take away her home in her old age, it was all right, as he would soon take her and there will be nothing for her to trouble over."

Dwelling Burned

Daily Reflector, Fri., Dec. 2, 1910

Ayden Items....Mr. D. Webb McGLOHON lost his dwelling house and contents by fire a few days ago. He only saved a few clothes.

Noah CHAPMAN Killed

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Aug. 7, 1895

A colored man named Noah CHAPMAN was killed Friday while beating a ride under one of the cars on the north bound frieght train. It happened near Littlefield.

Henry FLEMING Dead

Carolina Messenger, Goldsboro, NC Fri., Jan. 10, 1873

Pitt County Items....Mr. Henry FLEMING, an old resident of Greenville, died on Monday before Christmas.

State of North Carolina New Bern Superior Court of Law September Term 1796 Deposition of Abraham HARDEE

HARDEE says that John JONES dec'd. used to come by his house frequently when JONES was on his way to the mill. JONES would stay at HARDEE's while his meal was ground. JONES and a negro fellow would come in a canoe to HARDEE's landing and JONES would send the negro fellow to the mill and JONES would tarry at HARDEE's to talk. HARDEE says he heard JONES say he would never give Polly, the wife of Benjamin RODGERS, any part of his property and would rather see it go up in flames as to see her enjoy any part of it. He wished no harm to his slaves and wished that someone else would enjoy the benefit of them. HARDEE says that JONES offered the slaves to him, but he declined saying he had enough property to take care of. HARDEE told JONES to give them to his daughter and JONES replied that she was no daughter of his, saying she robbed JONES of all his money, destroyed a number of his valuable papers and tried to ruin him. JONES then asked HARDEE if he should leave his property for a free school. HARDEE told JONES that he thought that was too triffling to be of much service and should give his property to some poor person. JONES asked him who would you give it to? HARDEE replied to whomever you please. HARDEE says that he and JONES were near neighbors and he believed that JONES never intended to give Polly JONES (Mrs. Benjamin RODGERS) any part of his property. Sworn To Sept. 29th 1796 Jno F. SMITH Comr. C. C.

Abram HARDEE

Deposition of Reuben EVERETT before John BOWERS, JP, May 12, 1796

EVERETT says he never saw JONES while he was alive. Eight days after John JONES death, EVERETT saw JONES body after it was dug up. EVERETT says JONES body was putrified in part and he could not ascertain if arsenic poisoning was the cause of death as was maintained by others. EVERETT said that Dr. LEWIS in his book "Materia Medica" when treating the effects of arsenic says that it inflames the stomach lining, which occasions a swelling and mortification of the whole body and sudden putrification after deatth.

Reuben EVERETT

Order by the New Bern District Court to take the deposition of Doctor Jesse JONES concerning this case and return it to the Court, Sept. 12, 1795. Silas COOKE Clerk of Court March 19, 1795

Deposition of Zelotes COLLINS

COLLINS says that sometime before the death of John JONES, Jacob BRILEY came to his house in Williamston. BRILEY said that JONES requested COLLINS to stop by his house on his return to Greenville and write JONES will. COLLINS told BRILEY to tell JONES that he would call at his house the next Thursday. The Court at Williamston sat longer than usual and COLLINS arrived at JONES house on Saturday, about "two hours by son in the evening." JONES was not at home and COLLINS left word with the family he had called to write JONES will, but could not tarry. COLLINS said he told them if JONES was anxious to have his will written, send his directions to him in "Greensville" and he would write it there ans save him some expence. COLLINS says that the Christmas following, Jacob BRILEY called on him in "Greensville" and said JONES requested him again to ride down to his house and write his will, since he was very unwell. COLLINS said he could not go, but BRILEY was very urgent and pressed him hard until COLLINS "positively refused." BRILEY explained that why he was so urgent is that he wanted COLLINS to be a witness to the will. BRILEY said he had directions for the will if

COLLINS could not come. So COLLINS sat downright then and drew up the form of the will as it appears in court and gave it to BRILEY. COLLINS told BRILEY to carry the will to JONES, have him read it and if he liked it, sign it in the presence of two witnesses and declare it his last will and testament. COLLINS heard nothing more about the matter until 7 or eight days later after the death of John JONES. COLLINS went down with Doctor EVERETT to John JONES house where the coroner, Stephen BROOKS, Esq., had convened a number of neighbors to hold a coroners inquest on JONES body. They had JONES coffin taken up to see if he died from the effects of poison or not. The jury examined different parts of the body and found no mortification except a few purple spots around his neck and breast. COLLINS says he had frequently seen people of JONES age after death and he saw no swelling. Sworn To Sept. 29th 1796 Jno F. SMITH C. C. C. Zelotes COLLINS

Deposition of Jacob BRILEY before John BOWERS, JP. May 12, 1796

BRILEY says that the day after Christmas he saw John JONES sign his will and he signed it as a subscribing witness. BRILEY says that JONES gave all his property to Joseph BRILEY, except one acre to Olive SAVAGE and five shillings to Mary ROGERS, to prevent her from breaking into his estate. Jacob BRILEY says that JONES told him that he would sooner see his property consumed by fire than Mary ROGERS have any part of it. He also said he would rather see a live rattlesnake in his house than Mary ROGERS at any time. BRILEY said that JONES also said that if he died to give Joseph BRILEY his possessions.

Deposition of Frankey HARRIS before John BOWERS, JP, May 12, 1796

HARRIS says that on the night before John JONES died, she heard JONES say that everyone was mad with him because he wouldn't give his property to Mary ROGERS and they were afraid he would give it all to Joseph BRILEY. JONES said he hadn't given anything to anyone and that Jacob BRILEY had his will in his pocket. HARRIS said she heard JONES tell Jacob BRILEY to put JONES keys in his pocket and not let Mary ROGERS in the house. She also heard JONES say he had an old heart in his breast that had followed him for three or four years past.

Frankey (her mark) HARIS

Deposition of Tabitha CHERRY before John BOWERS, JP, May 12, 1796

CHERRY says that on the day after Christmas, she saw John JONES sign his will and he was well and sitting up. She says that JONES gave everything he had to Joseph BRILEY. CHERRY also said JONES gave 5 shillings to Mary ROGERS and heard JONES say that he would rather give his estate to a negro or burn it up than let Benjamin ROGERS have it. CHERRY heard JONES say a few days before his death that his "complaint" came from a pain in his breast that he had had for three or four years.

Tabitha (her mark) CHERY

Depositions sworn to in Open Court, Sept. 29, 1796 Silas COOKE CC:

Deposition of Richard MOYE of Pitt County

MOYE says he lived within about a mile and a half from John JONES, dec'd. for about 15 years. MOYE said he understood from JONES that Mary ROGERS was his only child and heir. That Mary being his only child he was very tender with her and never corrected her with anything heavier than broom straw. Richd. MOYE

Deposition of Solomon PATRICK of Pitt County

PATRICK says he was at John MOYEs one day after John JONES died when Jacob BRILEY showed up there. Jacob BRILEY wanted to know what was to be done about "Solo. BRALEY" who had nailed up JONES house and prevented them from getting provisions. In the conversation, PATRICK asked BRILEY if JONES Had made a will. BRILEY answered yes and PATRICK asked him who did JONES leave his property to? BRILEY answered him that he had left it to two or three. PATRICK asked him who the persons were. BRILEY said Olive SAVAGE, Tabby CHERRY and his (BRILEY'S) father. When asked why JONES left his estate to BRILEYS father, BRILEY replied because he was so involved, and Mr. JONES didn't think it proper to leave it to him (Jacob BRILEY), but had left it to his father for him.

Solomon PATRICK

Deposition of Olive SAVAGE of Pitt County

SAVAGE says Jacob BRILEY went to Williamston one Saturday, and John JONES not being at home, told SAVAGE and Tabitha CHERRY to tell JONES everything was alright. Briley told them that Mr. MOORE had summoned him to Martin County Court as a witness and would return as soon as he could. While BRILEY was gone, Mr. MOORE came to Mr. JONES and asked where Jacob BRILEY was. SAVAGE replied to Mr. MOORE, "don't you know?" Mr. MOORE answered he did not. Savage told Mr. MOORE that BRILEY TOLD us you had summoned him to Martin County Court as a witness. While she was telling this to Mr. MOORE, the negro woman tried to stop her and SAVAGE told her to hold her tongue. After Mr. MOORE left, the negro woman told SAVAGE "IF BRILEY had told such a lie I would not tell everybody of it." Mr. COLLINS came to Mr. JONES a few days after BRILEY left and told the negro wench to tell BRILEY to come to him as soon as he gets home as COLLINS might be gone from home. That COLLINS spoke to BRILEY at Martin County Court and was to do an instrument of writing for him. Olive (her mark) SAVAGE

State of North Carolina Pitt County Speirs Landing, July 2, 1796

Deposition of Jacob HARRIS

HARRIS says that sometime before the death of John JONES, JONES came to his house. HARRIS said to JONES that he understood that JONES was going to give all his property to Jacob BRILEY. JONES replied "NO, BRILEY never shall have one shilling of it as long as he lives except he steels it."

Speirs Landing, July 2, 1796 State of North Carolina Pitt County Deposition of Sarah ASBELL

ASBELL says she was at the house of John JONES about two or three months before his death. While in conversation, JONES told her he was ruined. ASBELL asked him why and he said that he had heard Jacob BRILEY had told others that JONES was leaving his estate to him and he was never getting a wife as long as he lived. ASBELL said it was a good thing. JONES replied "that it was an outright lie, that he had never put pen to paper to convey his property to anyone. And besides why should I, I have only one daughter, Polly ROGERS, and she has been an undutiful child in every since of the word and there is no need to will my property to her since she will heir it at my death." Deposition of William BALDWYN

BALDWYN says that sometime after the Revolution, John JONES came to his house and said he was afraid someone was going to take his life, the SPEIRS in particular. BALDWYN told him NO, but told him he better go to Martinsborough and inform the Committee. The next day JONES returned to BALDWYNs house and got BALDWYN to go with him to Martinsborough. They set out together for town and fell in with Col. Robert SALTER. JONES informed SALTER about his apprehensions and desired SALTER and BALDWYN to see that his daughter Polly gets his property if he should get killed, since she was his only child. W BALDWYN

Deposition of Olive SAVAGE

SAVAGE says that on the night before John JONES died, JONES desired Jacob BRILEY, who lived in the house with him, to go pay a debt he owed on board a northern vessel. BRILEY wouldn't go, saying his horse was out. JONES then offered BRILEY his mare if he would go to SPEIRS Landing for him and buy some rum and molasses. BRILEY wouldn't go and employed another man to run the errand. SAVAGE said that when BRILEY was out of the house, JONES told her he wished that BRILEY would go away so he could write his will. SAVAGE asked JONES if he was going to give his property to his daughter, and he said no, he was going to give it to her children. SAVAGE then asked him how he felt and JONES said that the ginger tea they had given him had poisoned him. JONES asked SAVAGE to look at his tongue, which was very black and swollen and Jones said his stomach was equally bad. Sworn to by William JORDAN

Deposition of Charles BARBER of Pitt County

BARBER says that soon after the first marriage of Mary JONES (daughter of John JONES dec'd.) to John GORMAN, BARBER heard JONES say that if the marriage hadn't happened in this country, it would be a hanging offense for a man to steal an "Heiress." BARBER asked JONES if Mary was an heiress and JONES said "yes, she is my Heiress." Charles BARBER

Deposition of Jesse MOORE of Pitt County

MOORE says that the day after John JONES died, he was with others at JONES house. They asked Jacob BRILEY how JONES disposed his property. BRILEY said that JONES gave it all to his (Jacob BRILEYs) father. One of the men there asked to see the will and they all went to the house and BRILEY showed them a paper which he said was JONES will. MOORE then asked BRILEY if JONES had signed the will, and he said "no, I signed it."

Jesse MOORE

Deposition of Olive SAVAGE of Pitt County

SAVAGE says she went to John JONES house on a Friday before he died and she found his negro wench crying. SAVAGE asked her what was wrong and the negro wench said "my master accuses me of poisoning him and I have lived with him twelve years and never was accused of such a thing before by him," SAVAGE went to the other room to see IONES and he complained that he had a very sore mouth and throat and that a "very bad lax followed him." SAVAGE says she returned to see JONES on Sunday and JONES said he felt poorly and that they gave him ginger tea to drink and it poisoned him. SAVAGE and a old man named BENTLEY, who was there also, both said ginger tea is good and would not hurt anyone. JONES still claimed the tea poisoned him and complained that his breast was raw clear through. SAV-AGE then looked at JONES' tongue and said it was swollen and black. SAVAGE got some "mouth water" and had JONES wash his mouth out., from which came rotten flesh. Mr. (or Mrs.?) BARBER also had the same condition afterwards on Tuesday. JONES said they gave him the ginger tea when Bett, the negro wench was gone to the landing to carry corn. SAVAGE returned on Monday and JONES was beddridden and still complaining of being very ill. SAVAGE came again on Tuesday and on that day Jones asked BRILEY to carry some corn to a vessel at the landing to pay for the cloth he had gotten for his negroes clothes. BRILEY said he would go, but left and turned out his horse. BRILEY returned and said his horse was gone. JONES then told BRILEY to take his mare, get some corn and go get him some rum and mollasses. JONES didn't have a desire to drink rum often, but wanted some then. BRILEY left and JONES began to talk about dying. SAVAGE told JONES that if your dying you should settle your business. JONES said he would when BRILEY left. JONES told them to send for BALDWIN or WHITEHEAD, they were the best "pens men" he knew. SAVAGE then asked JONES who he was going to leave his property to. JONES said he intended to give it to his daughters children. He would not give it to his daughter because she had displeased him in her first marriage. At that moment, BRILEY stepped back into the house and JONES asked him why he hadn't left with the corn. BRILEY said nothing, turned and left and went out and hired William HARRISS (who was there) to go get the rum and mollasses. JONES died that night about two in the morning and BRILEY stayed by him constantly. SAVAGE says that after JONES died, BRILEY wanted SAVAGE and the other women there to lay him out and not to send anyone out to get others to do it. SAVAGE says she heard JONES tell Solomon BRALEY on the Monday or Tuesday before his death that he had made no will. SAVAGE also said that about two weeks before JONES died, Jesse MOORE came to JONES house and called BRILEY out to the barn. They talked there and MOORE left. BRILEY came back to the house and asked Tabitha CHERRY to get his clothes packed because he was summoned as a witness to Martin County court. SAVAGE said BRILEY had a paper in his hand and when she held out her hand and asked to see it, BRILEY slipped it into his pocket.

Deposition of John Gray BLOUNT and Richard BLACKLEDGE, March 28, 1796

BLOUNT says that he heard from one of the jurors who tried the case on March 26, 1796 in Superior Court in New Bern. BLOUNT said that a little after the jury had given their verdict in favor of the defendant ROGERS, the juror said it was NO will and had left the court saying that. It was the jurors opinion that it was John JONES will because the witnesses couldn't have agreed so well on the facts unless it were not true.

J BLOUNT

BLACKLEDGE says he heard another juror say that the reason the jury said it was no will was because of the impression that BRILEY was instrumental in procuring the will, but that he and others of the jury thought from the testimoney given that JONES really did execute the will.

Deposition of Jacob BRILEY, April 1, 1796

BRILEY says that Frankey HARRIS of Pitt County is a material witness in the suit between Joseph BRILEY as executor of John JONES and Benjamin ROGERS. BRILEY says that HARRIS was summoned as a witness and attended one or two terms of court, but was so unwell this term and could not attend. BRILEY says HARRIS would have declared that JONES told her a few days before the death that he had made his will and disposed of his property the same as the will offered for probate.

Mrs. Bettie ANDREWS Dead

Daily Reflector, Wed., July 7, 1909

Oakley Items, July 6.....The remains of Mrs. Bettie ANDREWS were brought here for burial Saturday afternoon from Chadburn, N. C. Mrs. ANDREWS was about 70 years old, a member of the Primitive Baptist church, a loving mother, a most excellent neighbor. Always speaking words of comfort in those in distress, her long life has been spent for the benefit of others, ever trying to make them happy. She leaves one son, Capt. W. A. ANDREWS, of Chadburn. A large crowd was present, at the burial to pay the last tribute of respect to this noble woman.

Final Rites of Mrs. Mitt P. NEWTON Farmville Enterprise, Fri., Oct. 22, 1937

Final rites for Mrs. Mitt Parker NEWTON, 70, widow of the late J. R. NEWTON, and a beloved and highly esteemed woman of Farmville, were held from her late home on Belcher street, at three o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. H. M. WILSON, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which she was a member. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery beneath a large and handsome floral tribute. Favorite hymns were rendered by the Fountain Presbyterian choir. Mrs. NEWTON succumbed Monday morning in a Greenville hospital, after an illness of three weeks, death resulting from an attack of pneumonia. Surviving are a brother, J. W. PARKER, a half-sister, Mrs. Watt PARKER; six nieces, Miss Ellie PARKER, Washington, Mrs. Fannie WHITEHURST, Charleston, S. C., Mrs. Charles BAKER, Plymouth, Mrs. Walter HATCH, Wilmington, Mrs. John TUGWELL and Miss Alice Harper PARKER, Farmville; seven nephews, Carl, Norfolk, Va., Delk, Dunn, and Tom PARKER, California, Jim, John, Ben and Dock PARKER, all of Farmville. Among other close relatives are; Mrs. R. A. FOUNTAIN, and Watt NEWTON, of Fountain, and J. K. NEWTON, of Enfield.

THE PEADEN FAMILY BIBLE

From a typed transcript with notes. The introductory material is presented as direct quotations of the original transcriber (unknown). All annotations belong to the original transcriber, and are presented in parentheses.

Notes from conversation with Lucy Peaden Wooten March 11, 1979, re: the Peaden family, and the Dunn family.

"Madie Wooten's father and Pa (William H. Peaden) were first cousins. Pa called her grandfather 'Uncle Louis Peaden'. My grandpa and her grandpa were brothers." "Grandmu's mother died when they were young. (The oldest was about 14?). One neighbor to determine how smart Aunt Bet (the oldest) was asked, 'Which had you rather have, ten pounds of cotten or 15 lbs. of cloth. Aunt Bet said, 10# of cotten because it would make more cloth.""

Mammy (Kate Peaden) was the only child that lived. Her mama was Margaret Johnson. "Grandmu said her daddy had a bad leg."

"Grandpa only had one arm."

"Grandmu, Aunt Kiz (old maid) and Uncle Robert were brothers and sisters."

J. T. HELLEN, Confederate Veteran

New Bern Daily Journal, Sept. 9, 1893.

Mr. J. T. HELLEN an old confederate soldier and ex-sheriff of Pitt county is in the city. Mr. HELLEN served through the war from 1861 until the first days fight in the battle of the Wilderness on May 5, 1864 at which time he lost one of his legs. This was the fight in which the great commanders Grant and Lee first met with their opposing forces. The battle opened by General C. A. BATTLE, now of the JOURNAL staff. Mr. HELLEN is now engaged in selling books—religious and historical. He especially delights in introducing standard works treating on the war and rightly thinks it a duty this generation owes to itself and the gallant heroes of the confederacy to see that their deeds of valor are cherished and the memory of them passed on with undimmed lustre to succeeding generations.

First War Pension

Eastern Reflector, Fri., July 7, 1899

The first pension to be received in Pitt county as the outgrowth of the war with Spain, came to Frances REEVES, colored, on Monday. She is the widow of Kit REEVES who died in the hospital while his regiment was in camp at Knoxville, Tenn. His remains were brought to Greenville. His widow receives a pension of $12 a month.

The PCFR maintains a growing library of books and vertical files at Pitt Community College. Please consider adding your pedigree charts, lineages, or other hard-copy material to the resources available. Send any/all submissions to the secretary (see inside cover for addresses).

Please visit our website to view the Tables of Contents for all back issues of the Pitt County Genealogical Quarterly, as well as other valuable research aids.

Resource transcriptions which are too large for our Quarterly are published on the PCFR, Inc., website. Featured documents contributed by our members include census records, cemetery lisitings (thousands of gravemarkers transcribed), marriage records, a will abstract collection, and many others.

If you would like to participate in this form of free, open-access material, contact Elizabeth Ross, webmaster (see inside cover for email information).

Jesse BRILEY

Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Eastern Arkansas, Lee County; The Goodspeed Publishing Company, 1890.

Jesse BRILEY came to Arkansas in the fall of 1851, first locating in St. Francis County, and later in Lee County, being employed as a farm hand for seven or eight years. In 1859 he bought a quarter section of land, on which he lived until the breaking out of the war, when he enlisted in the Thirteenth Arkansas Infantry, but was soon transfered to the second Arkansas Cavalry, serving in Price's raid through Missouri. After the war he returned to his farm, which he found badly delapidated, and was oblidged to start from the bottom of the ladder, but has been very successful, now owning 700 acres of land, with 400 acres under cultivation. Besides this he owns a house and lot at Haynes, and is a stockholder in the Haynes Merchantile Company. Mr. BRILEY was born in North Carolina, in 1834, and was married in 1859, to Miss Emma DANIEL. They are the parents of four children: Sallie, Laniar, Katie and Ida. He is a member of the Masonic order, and also of the Knights of Honor. He is a Democrat in politics, and is well known and highly respected as a citizen.

Abraham HANCOCK

Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Eastern Arkansas, White County; The Goodspeed Publishing Company, 1890.

John HANCOCK was a native of North Carolina, and was born July 26, 1804, and was married in 1828 to Miss Martha HARRINGTON, who was born in North Carolina June 10, 1809. In 1836 he moved to Madison County, Tenn., and there engaged in his trade of blacksmithing until 1858, and after a residence of several years in Van Buren County came to White County, where he now resides with his aged wife. Mr. HANCOCK is of Irish descent, and an own cousin of Gen. W. S. HANCOCK. He has held the office of sheriff in Van Buren County, but has never aspired to office. His wife is of English descent, and both are adherents of the Baptist faith. To them have been born a family of nine children, all living, in which Abraham, the subject of this sketch, is the eldest. He is a native of North Carolina, and was born November 22, 1830. He was reared on a farm and learned the saddle and harness-maker's trade, which has been his principal work, but is also a good carpenter. He was given a good education in the common schools of his native State, and at the age of twenty-one began life for himself, first as office boy in a bank and later as clerk for a cotton ginner. He was married on March 20, 1851, to Miss Leana C. JONES, and to their union one child was born, Martha R. (now the wife of J. J. MARTIN, a farmer of Faulkner County, Ark.) Mrs. HANCOCK died in September, 1857, and in March, 1858, Mr. HANCOCK was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca A. BERTRAM, a native of Tennessee. To this union five children have been born, two of whom are now living: John S. (a farmer of White County, and who married Elizabeth LANDERS, a daughter of Thomas LANDERS, of White County) and Vera A. (born March 14, 1883. Those deceased are William H., Paralea A. and Lena. In May, 1861, Mr. Hancock enlisted in Company B, Twelfth Tennessee Infantry, and served until the surrender in 1865. He participated in the battles of Belmont (Mo.), Shiloh (Tenn.), Richmond (Ky.), Missinary Ridge, and at the later place was wounded by a gunshot, and was helpless for one year. At the battle of Shiloh, he was shot through the hip, and from that wound he still suffers. The last engagement that he took part in was the encounter at Franklin, where he was injured, and which disabled him for some time. During the entire war Mr. HANCOCK served as orderly-sergeant, his military record being one without blemish. He received his parole in 1865, and at once returned home; here resumed his trade of harness making until 1871. He then came to White County and purchased a farm of sixty acres. One year later he moved to El Paso and worked at his trade there, and has since been engaged at farming and carpentering up to the present time. Mr. HANCOCK has erected some twelve or fourteen gin powers in White County alone, and there are many marks of his handiwork in different parts of the country. He is a Democrat in his political views, but an independent voter. He has held the office of constable and deputy sheriff in Tennessee, and in 1885 was elected to the position of justice of the peace of Royal Township, which office he is at present filling. Mr. HANCOCK is an honorary member of El Paso Lodge No. 65, A. F. & A. M., and was secretary of said lodge for eight years; he is also a member of Lodge No. 6, and is E. S. W. P. of that lodge. Mr. and Mrs. HANCOCK are members of the El Paso Baptist Church, and the former always gives his support to all laudable enterprises for the public good. Mr. HANCOCK is a member of New Hope Wheel No. 32, in which he was the efficient secretary for years, and is an ardent worker for his order.

Edward HARPER

Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Eastern Arkansas, White County, The Goodspeed Publication Com-

Edward HARPER, AN influential citizen of Romance, is the son of the late Edward HARPER, Sr., who was born in North Carolina in 1774, and was an only son of SAMUEL Harper. His parents died when he was a small boy and he was left with an uncle. He married, in about 1801, Elender SCALLORN, a native of Maryland, after which he moved to Alabama, where he engaged in farming, thence moving to Tennessee and in 1855 came to Arkansas, settling in Prairie County, where he died three years later. His wife died in 1862, leaving a family of eleven children: Overton W., Jefferson B., Edia, Andrew J., Durinda, Malinda, Pomelia, Edward (our subject), Joseph A., William A. and Sarah A. Edward, Jr., was born in Alabama, in 1821, and spent his early life in Western Tennessee, where he received a good common school education. He taught school in Tennessee for a number of years, and was married in 1851 to Mary KYLE, who was the daughter of Marvin and Sarah (DEMENT) KYLE, originally of Alabama and Virginia, respectively. To this marriage the following children were given: Martha S. (now Mrs. J. B. MATTHEWS), William K., Edward L., Julia T., James H., Ellen O. (deceased), Jefferson D., Sidney K., Marvin A., John F. and Adolphus. In 1856 Mr. HARPER came to White County, Ark., where he purchased 240 acres of land, and now has nearly 100 acres cleared and under cultivation. Himself and wife are members of the Methodist Church. Mr. HARPER belongs to the Masonic order, affiliating with Mount Vernon Lodge No. 54, and has taken the degree of Royal Arch Mason. Mr. HARPER is a highly respected citizen, and has held the office of justice of the peace for twelve years.

Stop the Villains

(NC Star, Raleigh, NC, Oct. 8, 1819)

ESCAPED from the jail in Tarborough on the night of the 22nd inst. William B. CRAWFORD, a notorious counterfeiter, between sixty and seventy years of age, about six feet high, his head white: — Also John M. WINDHAM, about thirty years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, with an uncommon long face and chin, his fore teeth very long and preminent. This villian was imprisoned at the last spring term of the Superior Court of Edgecombe to eighteen months imprisonment, for stealing free negroes of colour. Those same culprits broke and made their escape from the jail on the night of the 7th of July last and was apprehended and committed to Newbern jail where I found them. I will give fifty dollars reward for their apprehension and delivery in this.

William SUTTON Missing

(Eastern Reflector, Tues., Sept. 25, 1900)

My father, Moses SUTTON, colored, who is not of good mind, wandered away from my home at Ayden, where he stayed on Tuesday afternoon, September 18th, and I have been unable to learn his whereabouts. He is about 60 years old, has grey chin whiskers, dark complexion, and had on a Prince Albert coat when he left. I will appreciate anyone detaining him and sending me word, or giving me any information that will lead to finding him.

Mrs. V. H. WHICHARD Dead

(Daily Reflector, Sat., Sept. 16, 1911)

Mrs. Violeta H. WHICHARD died at 11: 15 o'clock this morning at her home on Third street. For nearly a year she has been in feeble health, and last Sunday suffered a stroke of apoplexy. From this she never revived, but continued gradually to grow weaker until the end came peacefully almost without a struggle. Truly a good woman has passed from earth to enjoy that reward inherited by the righteous in the world beyond. Mrs. WHICHARD was in her 77th year, being born February 20th, 1835. She was a daughter of A. G. and Mary JORDAN. She was highly educated, taking her collegiate course at Murfreesboro Female College. On her twentieth birthday she was married to Mr. D. F.

WHICHARD, who died in 1877. During the Civil war and for many years following she taught school in the old Masonic building, then on Second street. She was recognized as one of the best teachers in this section, and had a large school as long as she taught. Early in life she united with the Missionary Baptist church, and was ever true to her belief. Few women led a more active and industrious life than she, nothing giving her more pleasure in life than in doing something for others. She is survived by four children, Messers. J. R. WHICHARD, of Atlanta; D. J. and C. B. WHICHARD, of Greenville, and Mrs. A. F. KENNEDY, of Littleton. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Buried Alive

(Eastern Reflector, Wed., Dec. 8, 1886)

The Northern part of our county was the scene of a distressing accident on last Friday. Mr. I. N. KEEL, a good citizen of Carolina township, was getting marl from a pit on his plantation. While at work with two colored men in the marl hole, the side caved in upon them, completely burying Mr. KEEL. Both negroes were badly hurt, being caught so they could not extricate themselves. Mr. KEEL suffocated before he could be rescued. His death was sad.

AFRICAN-AMERICANS IN CHURCH RECORDS

The following African-Americans items were gleaned by William B. Kittrell from various abstracted church records of the late J. L. Jackson, former Pitt County historian. These do not represent a complete listing of all African-Americans in these records. (All in Pitt County, NC)

Violent Attack (Eastern Reflector, Wed. Nov. 9, 1892)

The other night there was a very ugly affair out in Beaver Dam township. It seems that previously there had been some hot words between Dr. PITT and Mr. Nelson NICHOLS. About midnight Saturday night some parties went to the house in which PITT lived to make an assault on him. They called to him and when he refused to open the door they broke in. Several shots were fired. PITT emptied a pistol and snapped a gun at the intruders, and this failing to stop them he began using an axe. He struck one man on the head and another on the arm. The man struck on the head is a son of NICHOLS and the blow crushed his skull. On Monday morning warrants were sworn out against NICHOLS and his son and some other parties and in the afternoon a preliminary hearing began before Esquire B. S. SHEPPARD.

Henry HUNTER

vs. In Equity

Simon WHITHURST & others

To the Honorable the Judge of the Superior Court of Law & Equity for the District aforesaid Humbly complaining shewith unto your Honor Your Orator Henry HUNTER of the County of Edgecomb and District aforesaid in the year of our Lord 1794 purchased a tract of Land in fee simple of a certain Auterson KELLY and Nancy his wife situate lying and being in the County of Martin District aforesaid to whom and for which he paid a valuable and bonafide consideration and in consequence of which the said Auterson and Wife Nancy by Deed bearing date in the year aforesaid duly conveyed the aforesaid tract of Land in fee simple to your Orator, which said Deed was signed Sealed & declared by the said Auterson & Nancy as their Act & Deed and was duly witnessed by a certain William P. HAUGHTON & Matthew BRANTLEY and the said William P. HAUGHTON as your Orator understands & believes is since dead or removed to distant parts or foreign places and the said Matthew BRANTLY is now as your Orator believes residing in the State of Georgia, your Orator futher sheweth unto your Honor that Nancy Kelly at the time and said conveyance being a feme covert came into the Court of the County were the said lyeth and at the instance of Orator the Court Ordered that the feme covert be duly examined seperate and aprt from her said husband touching her consent and willingness in regard to the said conveyance of the said Land to your Orator for the consideration in the said Deed expressed and accordingly the Court appointed of their body Samuel WILLIAMS & John TAYLOR Esquires Justices of the peace to examine the said feme covert who in pursuance thereof and by the directions of the said Court did proceed to examine the said feme seperate and apart from her said husband touching her willingness to convey the said Land &c and who reported their proceedings to the Court that they had examined the said feme covert seperate and apart from her husband touching hir willingness and freedom to convey the said Land to your Orator and who said she did convey the same for the purposes in the said Deed mentioned and that such conveyance was made by her freely & willingly without fear or coertion of her husband whereupon by order of the said Court the said examination of the said feme was by the Clerk of the Court endorsed of said Deed in manner and from following "Martin County Nancy KELLY acknowledged the within Deed before the Court was privately examined and said it was done by her own free Will and consent without any compulsion which said examination remains on the back of said Deed and the following acknowledgement of Auterson KELLY and said wife was entered on the minute Docket by the Clerk of the Court in the words following. A Deed from Auterson KELLY & Nancy KELLY to Henry HUNTER was acknowledged and your Orator States was recorded and to which to greater certainty as to the exact words Date and contents of said Deed and proof your Orator begs leave to refer himself as relation being thereto had may more fully appear and which he prays may be taken & received as part of this his Bill of Complaint—Your Orator further begs leave to state to your Honor that to his positive knowledge the said Auterson KELLY did acknowledge in Open Court the execution of the said Deed to your Orator and that the said Nancy his wife was privately examined by the aforesaid Justices seperate and apart from her husband and your Orator Henry HUNTER further sheweth that he had a conversation with the said Samuel WILLIAMS the Justice before whom the said Nancy was examined of and concerning his recollection about the said examination and he very well recollected it and informed your Orator that the examination of the said feme was seperate and apart from her husband and that she expressed her willingness to convey and without fear or threats from her husband and that the other

Justice John TAYLOR recollects nearly the same your Orator further States to manifest the faimess [?] of the transaction that in treating with the said Auterson & wife for the purchase of said Land it was agreed for the benefit of the said Nancy that as the Land came by her she should receive from your Orator for her exclusive use two hundred dollars a great part of the purchase money for the purpose of buying her a negro to which your Orator complied and paid to her the said Sum and the balance of the purchase money to the said KELLY who ratified to payment to his wife. And you Orator further sheweth that by virtue of the said Deed of conveyance be entered into and took possession of the said Land quietly seized and possessed thereof during the lives of the said Auterson & wife without lit [?] or molestation of them or either of them or any claiming title under them and cultivated & greatly imporved the same (and at this time has a crop growing on part of it) until about the year _____ at ____ time a certain Simon WHITEHURST, Batson WHITAKER and John WHITEHURST by their agent Frederick BRYANT sued out a Writ of Ejectment against your Orator and to which your Orator entered into the common rule and pleaded no Guilty and at April Term 1806 as your Orator begs leave to state to your Honor the cause came on to be tried when it appeared to the Court by the Plaintiffs own shewing that they were the Uncles on the paternal side of the aforesaid Nancy KELLY which your Orator admits and rested their case and title and hope of recovery on the imperfections in the proof of the said Deed and the defective manner as they alledged in which the feme was examined by the said Court not having the least shawdow of right or colour of title to the Lands in question nor the least Equitable claim or lawful right only so far as they could unrighteously and wrongfully impeach & destroy your Orators title which your Orator begs leave to represent that if his title is in any way defective through the ignorance of the Justices as to the proper mode and manner by law directed in the examination of covert or on account of the ignorance or misperson [?] of the Clerk of the Court who received the proof of said Deed and reduced to writing the said examination of said Nancy KELLY that it should not operate to his loss or injury or impeach or destroy your Orators title for which your Orator paid a full and fair consideration to the said Auterson & Nancy KELLY his wife and that your Orator was no way privy to the proof and examination of the said feme overt and if there is any defect in want of form or substnace it was not owing to your Orators agency conrivance or default, but leaving the mode and manner of proof entirely to the Court, and that Equity ought and should quit [?] and protect your Orator in the peaceful and quiet possession of said Land your Orator further sheweth unto your Honor that after the lessor of the Plaintiff had made out their case on the trial of said suit your Orator offered in evidence of his title the aforesaid Deed which was objected to on the part of the Plaintiffs on account of its defects and imperfections heretofore set forth by your Orator which after argument on both sides by council for and against receiving the Deed in evidence it was decided by the Court that as the evidence of the said feme covert as set out by endorsement on said Deed it was full and sufficient to answer every purpose under the Act of Assembly made and provided for the examination of feme coverts—but as the manner in which the Deed purported to be proved the Honorable Judge who presided on the trial thought the words "A Deed from" Auterson KELLY & Nancy to Henry HUNTER was acknowledged was inexplicable as they did not sufficiently disclose who or by whom the Deed was acknowledged which to your Orators submission appeared rather a strained construction and a ticklish administration of Justice as by law & common intendment the Court will presume everything in favour of right and presume that which should be done as already done.

And your Orator further begs leave to shew unto your Honor that on the trial of said cause to shew what was the mode and manner that Deeds were proved time immemorial in the said County Court be produced the Books & records of the said Court wherein there appeared several Deeds executed from husband & wives in exact the same way as the Deed from the said Auterson KELLY & wife to your Orator from which your Orator has no doubt but what that has been done the usage and custom of said Court in committing the record and proof of such Deeds ever since the establishment of the said County Court of Martin your Orator futher takes the liberty to shew to your Honor that although the only Deed of conveyance was rejected as aforesaid he put his case to the Jury on the naked possession alone who having heard the particular hardship of your Orators case refused after thay had returned from the Bar to give a Verdict for the Plaintiffs but returned much divided in Opinion and craved the advice of the Court whether if they decided against your Orator he would therby finally and ultimately loose his land plainly intimating to the Court that if your Orator had no way left open to him to prove his Deed & substantiate his title that they would not give a verdict against your Orator. To which his Honor replied that your Orator could hereafter get his Deed proved which would then make his title good and unexceptionable in law upon the Jury then being somewhat better satisfied committed tho reluctantly to give a Verdict against your Orator.—And your Orator further sheweth that regarding the advice of the Court in regard to having his Deed further proved, you Orator without loss of time at the next County Court after the trial of said Cause he had the said Deed proved a second time by the best possible evidence the nature of the case would admit of and which is as follows and which appears of record in the said County Court of Martin

—State of North Carolina Martin County June Term 1806 a Deed from Auterson KELLY & Nancy KELLY to Henry HUNTER in open Court by James VIRGIN who made oath that he was acquainted with the mark to the foregoing Deed was his mark, he also proved the handwriting of Nancy Kelly he further swore to the handwriting of William P. HAUGHTON one of the subscribing witnesses and also to the mark of Matthew BRINKLEY he further declared on Oath that from the best information he could obtain that William P. HAUGHTON was dead he having left the State some years past and that Matthew BRINKLEY is now a resident of the State of Georgia. John B. HUNTER also swore to the handwriting of William P. Haughton one of the subscribing witnesses to the before named Deed and your Orator further sheweth that after the trial of said writ he was informed that the lessor of the Plaintiffs were not the next of kin or the true heirs of Nancy KELLY for that she had then and has now a maternal Sister of the half blood—being in the County of Martin who admiting the supposition that your Orators title is defective and bad. Yet the lessors of the Plaintiffs cannot have the least title in Law or Equity to the premises as long as the said Sister or her heirs are living and your Orator made that matter appear to his Honor who then presided on the trial on affidavit as a Cause for a new trial which afficavit stated that your Orator had no knowledge of that fact until after the trial but to your Orators great Surprise a new trial was refused him as your Orator had thought it a position conceded on all hands and a principle well established in Ejectment that the lessor of the Plaintiff must recover by the strength of his own title and not by any weakness or defect in tha of the Defendant for whom possession was sufficient which your Orator sheweth he has long been in the quiet and uninterrupted possission of the said Land and has much improved and cultivated it. Your Orator further begs leave to show to your Honor that the said Frederick BRYANT who has acknowledged himself the agent in transacting & conducting the said Suit for the lessors of the Plaintiff, and who as your Orator is informed and verily beleives is to have part of the said Land if he succeeds for them, as he the said Frederick has confessed to a person whom your Orator can name is necessary and required, that he was to have half of the Land and provided he did not recover that the Plaintiffs was to pay no costs. Your Orator therefore prays your Honor that the said Frederick may be served with a copy of this Bill and that he may be made a party hereto and as the particular evidence of the Plaintiffs is unknown to your Orator as he believes they reside out of the District he prays that the said Frederick may be served with Copies of this Bill for them. But now so it is may it please your Honor that the said Simon WHITEHURST Batson WHITEHURST & John WHITEHURST and the said Frederick their agent combining and confederating themselves with devers persons as yet unknown to your Orator whose names when discovered your Orator pays my be inserted with apt words to charge them ans parties contriving wrongfully to injure and oppress your Orator in the premises threaten you Orator to take out a Writ of Possession and to dispossess your Orator of the Land which he has fairly and honestly required by purchase from the said Auterson KELLY and wife and who as your Orator can truly State died insolvent, so as your Orator can expect no redress in case he is defeated in his present claim. All which actings & doings pretences & designs of the said confederates are contrary to right to Equity & good conscience and tend to your Orator's great wrong and injury to the end therefore and in order thereto that the said Confederates may upon these several Corporal true perfect and direct answer make to all and singular the premises aforesaid as fully and particularly as if the same were herein again repeated and they interrogated thereto and more especially whether your Orator has not been in the Quit possession of the said Land heretofore mentioned ever since the purchase thereof from the said Auterson and Nancy his wife and whether he did not remain in the quiet possession thereof during the lives of the said Auterson KELLY and Nancy his wife without the let or molestations of them or either of them or any claiming under them and whether they have not understood or believe that your Orator paid a full and valuable consideration to the said Auterson & wife for the same. and whether the same Simon WHITEHURST Batson WHITEHURST & John WHITEHURST are not Uncles to the said Nancy Kelly and whether or not they know of the said Nancy KELLY having in the County of Martin or else where a Sister of half blood no living. And that the Plaintiffs may set forth and answer whether or not the said Frederick BRYANT acts as their agent in conducting the said Suit. And that the said Simon, Batson, & John WHITEHURST and Frederick BRYANT their agent may be restrained from carrying into execution the Writ of Possession and that your Orator may be quieted in the possession of the said Land until a full hearing of the several matters and things contained in this your Orators Bills of Complaint before your Honor and that the Costs of the said Suit of Ejectment may be enjoined &c And that your Orator may receive such other and further relief in the premises as the particular nature of his requires and as shall be agreeable to Equity and good conscience. May it therefore pease your Honor to grant to your Orator a Writ or Writs of Injunction to be directed to the said Simon, Batson, & John WHITEHURST and Frederick BRYANT commanding them &c &c. also a Writ or Writs of Subpoena to be directed as aforesaid commanding them &c

In Equity April Term 1807

The answer of Frederick BRYANT one of the Defendants to the Bill of Henry HUNTER Complainant.

This Defendant saving and reserving to himself all manner of benefit of exception to the Complainants Bill for answer to as much thereof as he is advised that it is material for him to make answer unto saith that it may be true that the Complainant purchased of Auterson KELLY & Nancy his wife the tract of Land in the Bill mentioned, but whether he gave them a valuable and bonafide consideration therefore this Defendant has no personal knowledge he has understood and believes that the said consideration consisted in a great Degree in a tipling account [amount?] of the said Auterson KELLY with the Complainant which was far from affording to his wife any peculiar releif and this defendant does not know of his own knowledge that she ever received from the Complainant anything to her own use on Account of the Land. He has been informed and verily believes that she was induced to execute the Deed for the Land to the Complainant by the persuations & threats of her husband and that she never would as this defendant also beleives) acknowledge the free execution thereof before any discreet person who would give her a fair opportunity of manifesting her dissatisfaction.

This defendant knows nothing of any private examination of the said Nancy KELLY by Order of Court, and cannot beleive that it ever fairly took place or the Complainant would have taken care to prove it by the magistrates to took it such who alone could sufficiently do it, but this has never been done to the knowledge of this defendant although the complainant was long ago infored of the necessity of such proof. Samuel WILLIAMS esquire one of the Magistrates who it is pretended took the said examination is now dead, and John TAYLOR the other has declared to this defendant that he do not particularly remember it, so that if so examination was ever had which this Defendant does not admit, he cannot suppose that it can be properly proved at this time, which is no fault of this Defendant—As to the Certificate which is endorsed on said Deed tending to prove the said examination this Defendant contends that it is quite insufficient for that purpose for the following reasons among others—It is not to be found upon record although the records of Martin County Court have been fully searched for that purpose—It does not appear at what term of said Court the said examination was taken: And this Defendant has strong reasons to believe that the said Certificate was not put upon the said Deed for many years after the same had been registered in virtue of the acknowledgement thereof mentioned in the Bill and can prove that it was not offered to be registered until after the death of the said Nancy KELLY and after the other Defendants had claimed the Land of the defendants Complainant besides all this it appears that the name of the said Samuel WILLIAMS was inserted in the said Certificate as the person before whom the said examination was taken and then stricken out upon a conviction as this defendant supposes that it would be more difficult to detect the felony of the said Certificate by writing the name of the said Samuel WILLIAMS therein. From all these circumstances this Defendant has no doubt but that the said Certificate was made merely to suit the Complainants purpose of Bolstering up his title to the said Land after the death of the said Nancy KELLY—As to the witnesses to said Deed he does not know of his own knowledge what has become of them, one of them Matthew Brantly it is well known was Just such a man as would be a fit instrument to be employed by the Complainant in such a transaction as this Defendant has represented the one in question to be. The date probate of the said Deed in the manner set forth in the Bill may be true. But the Defendant is advised that the same cannot in the least better the Complainants case, even if it had been made before the trial at Law and given in evidence thereon, for this Defendant, denies that the Opinion of the Judge who resided at the suit trial turned entirely on the informality or irregularity of the probate of the said Deed in regard to tis admission as testimony, and if it had, and if also the said probate had been ever so regular, this Defendant cannot beleive that the said Deed ought to be received in evidence either in Law or Equity for want of legal and proper proof of the private examination of the feme.

This Defendant further saith that it is true that the suit at Law was brought by him as agent for Simon, John, or Batson WHITEHURST the Uncles and heirs at Law as was then supposed of the said Nancy KELLY and a recovery was had on their names it not appearing at this time but that they were the heirs, but this Defendant has since understood that the said Nancy KELLY left a Sister of the half blood on the mothers side, but this Defendant is entirely ignorant whether she is now alive or not.

This Defendant was engaged to act as agent for the lessors of the Plaintiff at Law by his neighbour Charles WHITEHURST son of the said Batson WHITEHURST who this Defendant understands was to have paid the Costs had the Judgment at Law been against the Plaintiffs although this was not their original agreement and who is to satisfy this Defendant for his trouble and expence in attending to the business, the said Simon WHITEHURST is since dead and the said John WHITEHURST has moved to the State of Georgia. and this Defendant having as agent aforesaid had the entire managment of the Suit is well satisfied that neither of the surviving lessors of the Plaintiff had any particular knowledge of the case and could not throw any new light upon it by their answers—This Defendant admits that the Complainant has been in possession of the Land in question ever since he obtained the Deed aforesaid but does not know or beleive that he any way improved it on the contrary from what he has heard & believes has much injured it.

Frederick BRYAN maketh Oath that the several matters of facts stated to be such as of his own knowledge in the within answer are ture and the rest he beleves to be true.

Henry HUNTER

VS.

Simon WHITEHURST & others

This Defendant saving and reserving to himself all manner of benefit of everything to the said Bill for answer to so much thereof as he is advised that is is material for him to answer saith that he knows nothing of the Complainants purchasing the Land in question of Auterson KELLY & wife or of their acknowledgement of a Deed to him for it and of her private examination further then he has heard from persons not interested, and from that he verily beleives that the wife of said KELLY was never privately examined in the manner set forth in the Bill.

This Defendant has understood that the said Nancy KELLY left a Sister of the half blood on the mothers side. But this Defendant contends that as the said Land descended to the said Nancy from her father, the said half Sister cannot inherit to the exclusion of her Uncles of the whole blood.—This Defendant further says that upon the death of the said Nancy KELLY he with the other Defendants his brothers John & Simon gave up the right for the said Land to their Defendants Son Charles WHITEHURST of the County of Pitt who as this Defendant is informed and beleives employed the other Defendant Frederick BRYAN to commence and prosecute a suit aginst the Complainant for the said Land for which he is to be paid by the said Charles who is also to pay all the Costs should the said suit eventually fail and the said BRYAN is not to have any part of the said Land should it be recovered by any agreement of this Defendant, or of the other Defendants or the said Charles WHITEHURST as far as this Defendant has understood or beleives— As to any other charge contained in the said Bill this Defendant has no personal knowledge and therefore cannot admit them and denies all fraud combination &c Batson WHITEHURST Edgecomb County-Batson WHITEHURST maketh Oath that the several facts stated in this his answer as facts within his own knowledge are true and the rest he beleives to be true.

[Following this, the case was sent to the Supreme Court whose judge ordered that the Injuction be dissolved and not brough to jury, thereby ruling in favor of the WHITEHURSTS as legal heirs who had not benefitted in any way from the questionable sale. The judge also stated that the deed should have been allowed as evidence, as the Martin County Clerk of Court had written that it had been acknowledged in court, and the clerk's word should not be questioned.]

Summary:

In 1794 Henry HUNTER bought some land in Mart. Co., NC, from Auterson KELLY and his wife Nancy Kelly.

Nancy was examined separately to insure her willingness to sell her land by justices of the peace. Her endorsement was written on the deed itself.

Her uncles Simon WHITEHURST, Batson WHITEHURST, and John WHITEHURST, by their agent Frederick BRYANT, sued to eject Henry HUNTER from the land, claiming that Nancy was not properly examined. The judge questioned other wording in the deed.

HUNTER pled precedent for the manner of proving such transactions involving wives, and left it in the hands of the jury. The jury was undecided, but the judge said HUNTER could still get the deed proved, so the jury reluctantly ruled against Hunter.

HUNTER proceeded, at the very next court, to prove the deed a second time. He had learned, in the meantime, that Nancy's uncles were not the next of kin because Nancy had a half-sister (her mother's child) who lived in Martin County. HUNTER asked for a new trial based on this new evidence, but was refused.

The WHITEHURSTS/agent acted to eject, and HUNTER hired a lawyer, William DREW, who testifies that possession alone should legalize HUNTER's claim, and that the plaintiffs must show a title of their own. HUNTER has also learned that Frederick BRYANT, agent for the WHITEHURSTS, was in cahoots with them. HUNTER shouted conspiracy, and filed countersuit in the form of this Bill of Complaint, and was granted a Writ of Injuction and Subpoena against the conspirators.

In 1807, defendants to the Complaint make their statements:

Frederick BRYANT denied conspiracy, reversing the charge, and accused all persons involved in the deed and examination of Nancy to be suspect of character (including the first judge), rigging the deed after Nancy's death.

Simon is dead.

John has moved to Georgia.

Batson's son Charles was the one who hired BRYAN to be agent for the uncles.

Batson WHITEHURST denied knowing anything about anything, saying he and his brothers, Simon and John, had relinquished their claims to Charles before any of this began. He also said the land came to Nancy from her father who was no kin to any half-sister on the mother's side, and therefore, the uncles were the next of kin.

Description of the land and its boundaries was copied into the record, showing that Simon WHITEHURST, Senr, dec'd., had conveyed the land to his son Daniel WHITEHURST on Nov. 4, 1774. The land adj. the William Davis plantation, formerly the John WHITEHURST plantation.

[Transcriber's note: The obvious conclusion is that Nancy WHITEHURST KELLY was the daughter of Daniel WHITEHURST, son of Simon WHITEHURST, Sr., and that Daniel WHITEHURST left Nancy as his heir. Nancy's half-sister was the dau. of her mother by a previous or subsequent marriage. Nancy apparently had no children, as her uncles were her heirs as next-of-kin.—er]

"Pleasant Plains Sept. 7th 1837 My dear and devoted companion,

When I reflect upon the vast and astonishing distance which divides us, and to think that I have to communicate my thoughts by letter It appears to me a task beyond the power of words or language to explain, dear angel, to think of the rapidity with which time to possess and also of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of (Death) and to know that I'm unprepared to die. I shudder and am at times almost ready to say as one of old would to, God, I had not been born, but for fear such an strain may be a pleasant. I desist, and hope that my last days may be my best &c. Robert is with me to day at Mothers, will start to school on monday next, tell your, Pa, that for the want of money Mr EBORN & myself have concluded not to send R. to Hillsboro but to Greenville to {MR. LOVEJOY} a man who stands prominently high, he has prepared Joseph NORCOTT and Entered colledge with all ease, he says Jermain BERNARD will enter next June, if so Robert will enter with ease because he is farther advanced and beside a smarter youth, and with all the expense is not one half, and there would be a loss of three months that he would have to pay for, taking all into consideration I fancy I have done the best, for without money we can't do much. I have not collected the first cent, & the , Lord, knows when I shall, there is no money in the country, if I do not collect in a few days I shall bring suit and start, for it is perfectly useless to be fed by false promises, the men have acted ridiculous, mean, &c here I will acknowledge the receipt of yours which gave pleasure & Satisfaction etc & yours & Genl letters My dear my anxiety is so great to see you all that I hardly know what to write, but that you can imagine better than I can express. Louisa TYSON is now hard down at work making my clothes to start. I shall endeavour to look the best I can in my fine clothes and I want you to keep yourself primmed that you may look as well as myself, for I have fattened up so and look so pretty I tell you I'm hard to beat on Sandy roads, but suffice with foolishness, as regards Elizabeth she has no claim upon me she had the advantage or her husband of the new countries and if he will not support his wife & children they cannot expect any aid from me. I have lost enough myself for the Last two years and if I can support you & educate our cjhildren I cannot do much more unless times alter from what they are at present. I will tell you what James told me that when Warren KENNEDY went to, Mobile, he could not get such money as he wanted Elizabeth went to her bureau drawer thinking she was unnoticed and got a roll of money as large as his arm and took a fifty dollar bill and handed it to Warren, he says she did hand him money, if we believe this Robert left her with money sufficient to support upon. She has since I've come in wrote to James CLARK & W. K. to save her house & lot and carriage & horses {piano fote} &c.why does she request such extravagance unless she had a means of support, Besides It appears strange to me from beginning to end. I can tell you Louisa there is in my opinion enough deciet & hypocrisy in this world to raise the suspicions of any person. I myself have almost come to the conclusion to Question any persons cander, except I will also leave this unpleasant subject My poor old mother has lost the use of her left arm and I cannot prevail upon her to undergo a course of {Tomsoni} I have relieved several since I've returned. Mr HOYT gets as much practice as he can attend to, the practice is thought highly of by all who have tried it and thats no few. mamma requests that I should remember a great deal of love to you & all the children & the Genl. Family, Arthur says you are very forgetful of your promises, dear do not promise unless you...perform. Lucy requests to be remembered to you also [unreadable word] family & Puss. Arthur Says that {Mary Jane} is the best child in the world, are all in perfect health at present. Louisa I fancy my last letter has caused some hard thoughts I was sory after I wrote it that I placed such a construction [unreadable word] a part of it as i did, but Lou will you not forgive. I fancy you will and i hope you did not let any person see it for it was my request, if so I beg pardon and say nothing about it to me, give my love to all the family & to Ormond Hums [Harris?] tell Jane and Polly I am sorry to disappoint them, but cannot help it. Louisa I sha[_?] possible bring you & children all I think will please you if I get Money. Martha & Harriet will both tumble soon, and your Pa had the imprudence to write Mr E that he and your, Ma, had raised wind again. I do not know when Ive felt so bad people as old as they are boo fy for shame the thought has broke me up adieu my dear wife & 2 childs till see you

If you let any person see this I wont write any more

Dear Child,

your letter of the 6th Instant was last night Receved the Extreme Cold weather has prevented me from Sending my wagon to Greenvill for ten Days past. the Ice has ben so much in the way that Very little Communication in any way has taken place from my house to Greenville. is the Reason that I did not get your letter Sooner I was much pleased to her wore well & to here that you ware well pleased at Going to School. the Branches you are Studying are such as will improve your if you employ the improvement Right. my wish is that you may enploy your time in your Studys. and that as you advance in Knowledge & age that you may advance in Good Name. the well Solomon Says agood name is preferable to Riches. Riches makes to themselves wings & flys away but agood name will live after you and I am Dead it is my wish that my Children may So conduct them Selves that they may Be Beloved by all that no them be Sure that your Conduct may be Such with your Ant Clara and with all that are acquainted with you may Say that they are Sorry to part with your mass of your good morels which will be much more Gratification to me than any one thing it Some times puff up Some young Girls with pride to Send them to School and give them alittle Better Edecation then the Comonalty of the people and causes them to think that they are Better then they are Because they have been Taught things that others have not. I Should be Sorry to think so of you your Hapiness in this world and that which is to comes is in the Hand of God who has promised to Bless those that do good & punish those that do evil. I therefore Request you allways to have before your Eys that you are Bornd to die. Honour your Father & mother that your days may be long Speake mildely to Every Body it is much More Noble to forgive an injury than to Resent it. your Mother was glad to here from you & your Brother & Sisters. you must Except their Best love for you The Health of my Family is as it was when you went away I wish you to write at Least Once a fortnight I expect to come up to Tarborough or Send in the Course of Next week. Tell Alley & Susan that there is nothing a miss at ther Father as I have herd Alley SAUNDERS Sister CARR has a Son & I have understood its name is Absolum. I have hired an other Clerk to attend to my Store your Father & friend Sherrod TISON

Ps. when you write always write how your Cousen Adline MAY Allie & Susan are & the family you Board at S. T.

I have not looked over my letter to See if any mistake or omission is made if any charge it carlessness or for the want of time as I have much writing to do & other Business prevents me from taking much pains though as you have not your mind crowded with I wish you to take pains in writing & Speaking always think before you Speak beware not to Speak two often."

Margaret BOND: Is the daughter of Jas BROOKS acquainted with W WILSON he married her sister Polly—first of her recollection news came to her father that WILSON was about to sell Peg, her father sd. WILSON Knew better—that Peg belonged to him—her father & WILSON had several quarrels because he would not pass title for Peg.— BROOKS always refused said he would give them to his grand daughters heard WILSON say he would not raise negroes for BROOKS—Brooks replied. send the negroes home. I can raise the negroes for my granddaughters— the last quarrel, she heard a quarrell at the gate discovered it was J BROOKS W WILSON and some of the neighbours BROOKS came to the house his wife spoke to him about quarreling, he replied WILSON wanted to whip him because he would not make title. Jas BROOKS was in the habit when one of his daughters was married of sending negroes home with them, his words were "You go home with——until I call for you, negroes were sent to John ADAMS who married one, and taken back. Sally TUCKER a daughter applied for a title daid her husband was dissatisfied: BROOKS said why can't you take my word as the rest have done after awhile said Joshua TUCKER being a careful and sober man, he would give him a title, the reason why negro Peg was called "Wilsons Peg was that she herself was called Peggy, and it was for distinguishing negro Sal was called TUCKERS Sal before any title was passed.— Cross questiond. by deft. J. BROOKS was not childless in his latter days—

Francis BROOKS, is grandson of J BROOKS heard a quarrel between J BROOKS and WILSON because BROOKS would not give title WILSON said he be d——d if he would be raising negroes for him, BROOKS said by blood — WILSON I will not give you a title, I will give my grand children a title Cross question by deft.— both were intoxicated at the time, but knew what they were talking about

Test for discrediting WILSONS witnesses

F HADDOCK,—— Harmon HANCOCK general character for veracity bad, would not believe him on his found two barrels stolen turpt in his yard, he professes to be a fortune teller & conjurer— haveheard Benj SUTTON say "that he heard WILSON say to BROOKS—you must whip your Peg, she has stold Willis WILSONS money &c.

Francis BROOKS= would believe Harman HANCOCK tho has not been intimately acquainted with him for 20 years— Heard Ephriam BROOKS say that he saw James BROOKS make a hand delivery of Winney to Elizabeth WILSON, now Elizabeth MILLS.—

Jo. COX. Would believe Harman HANCOCK in his oath, heard of Turpt being found in his yard—He is a fortune teller & conjurer

Wm CLARK, was one of the comrs that took WILSON depositions 28 May 1836, James WILSON refused to answer the question propounded by plantiff if he was interested

John HARDEE.. heard Ephriam BROOKS swear on a trial in Court that he saw James BROOKS make a hand delivery of Winney to Elizth WILSON now Elizth MILLS,—

Alfred FORBES— H HANCOCKS character bad Has no confidence in him, his general character very Bad."

A genealogical letter dated Aug. 9, 1938 from (Mrs. W. A.) Nannie Francisco Porter, of Richmond, Va. to William H. Bason, genealogist. Transcribed from a photocopy of the original found in the William H. Bason Collection, #528, East Carolina Manuscript Collection, J. Y. Joyner Library, East Carolina University, Greenville, NC. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

"Dear Mr. Bason,

I want somehelp on the line of the JAMES family of N. C. Dr. James G James married in Pitts Co. 1-2-1855 Mary R. LANGLEY. He was the son of Wm. JAMES and wife Elizabeth PATRICK. Dr. JAMES lived in Gatesville N. C. His father was supposed to be from the Eastern shore of Va.

Mary LANGLEY'S father was Godfrey and his wife was Margaret LATHAM.

Dr. James was born 8-13-1823 and his wife Mary LANGLEY was born 2-11-1834 and died in Pitts Co. 2-6-1860 Her father died in that same county 60 years of age and Margaret his wife died there 9-18-1865.

This is all the family know of themselves. But what I want to ascertain is something of this change from Va. to N.C. where they first landed in N.C and when for we have to go further back than that. I find a number of the JAMES family in Accomac (and that is the Eastern Shore all right) but these all seem to stay and die in Va. They don't know athing about this Wm. JAMES who married Elizabeth PATRICK and I have'nt found him in these E Shore counties. Can you help this out at all? Could spend a day on it- or possibly two if needed and charge to my account until I get my check for this work. But please sir don't charge me $10 per day. I wrote a customer in Ga to send you some work- and he writes back you charge him $10 retainers fee and $10 per day—but I know—he got that wrong so I wrote him you would put the retainers fee to his credit as it was just a matter of good faith. I believe I am right about this.

Let me hear from you as soon as possible please sir.

Hope you are feeling well but this hot weather makes it hard to work,

Yours sincerely,

B. R. GAY, Prominent Greene County Farmer Passes

(Farmville Enterprise, Fri., Oct. 31, 1930)

Funeral services for Mr. B. R. GAY, a prominent Greene County planter, was held last Saturday, conducted by Rev. M. A. WOODARD, assisted by J. C. MOYE, and interment took place in the family burying ground on his farm. Being a Mason in good standing he was laid to rest with Masonic honors by his brothers. Mr. GAY had lived to the ripe old age of 72 and was one of Greene county's most beloved and successful citizens. He was married young to Miss Betty WALSTON who preceded him to the grave by about 21 years; however, during their companionship, sixteen children were born to them, all of whom now living; they are: W. L. GAY, Mrs. A. J. MCKEEL, Miss Stella GAY, Mrs. W. M. HARDISON. W. B. GAY, J. R. GAY, Miss Susie GAY, Mrs. Jarvis HOLLOMAN, Albert GAY, Earl GAY, Richard C. GAY and Mrs. Virginia GAY, of Walstonburg; John F. GAY, of Moultree, Ga., Mrs. Wyatt PARKER, Mrs. Richard PIPPEN, Mrs. Rupard PIPPEN, of Farmville. All of whom survive him. Mr. GAY was a life long member of the Howell Swamp Free Will Baptist church, and was ever interested and active for the cause of Christ. In his death his community and the county has lost one of its most valuable and beloved citizens.

Mr. M. M. PAGE Dead

(Farmville Enterprise, Fri., April, 12, 1935)

The knowledge of the death of Mr. M. M. PAGE was very sad news to the people living in and around this community. He has been doing a business of general merchandise about three miles from here on No. 42 highway for several years and was a prominent citizen in his neighborhood. An attack of influenza seized him few days back but in a few days, thinking he was able to do so, he left his bed, only to take a relapse and go into pneumonia which took him away shortly. Mr. PAGE was around 70 years of age. He is survived by his widow and two children, Mrs. Reddin CORBETT and Mr. Buck PAGE. Interment was made in the Otters Creek Church cemetery.

Services for C. L. LITTLE

(Daily Reflector, Sat., Jan. 29, 1927)

C. L. LITTLE, 79, native Pitt Countian, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. S. STOKES near Winterville on Thursday morning and his funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Reedy Branch Free Will Baptist Church of which the deceased was a member. The services were conducted by Rev. W. B. NOBLES, Rev. M. A. WOODWARD and Rev. R. F. PITTMAN of Ayden and the music was rendered by the male quartette of the Eureka College at Ayden. Interment followed in the Reedy Branch churchyard. Mr. LITTLE was ill about one week. He was one of the county's oldest and esteemed citizens. He was a faithful layman of the Free Will Baptist Church and known for his strong Christian character. The largely attended funeral and beautiful floral offerings attested the esteem in which he was held. He is survived by two sons, R. L. LITTLE, of Grimesland and Ed LITTLE of Goldsboro, and two daughters, Mrs. L. M. STOCKS and Mrs. R. S. STOCKS, of near Winterville and two sisters, Mrs. Alice VINCENT of Greenville and Mrs. Bettie BARBER of Winterville.

Mrs. Sallie D. KNOX Dead

(Eastern Reflector, Wed., Aug. 24, 1887)

Died in Bethel Aug. 24th, 1887, Mrs. Sallie D. KNOX, wife of W. A. KNOX in the 23rd year of her age. She was the beloved daughter of Staton and Lizzie WHICHARD, and had been married only 1 year and 27 days. Previous to her last illness she had been a sufferer for several years. She bore the malady that took her to her home with patience and meekness akin to godliness. All was done that could be done by her physician and friends to save her from the grim monster; but alas to no avail. She leaves an aged mother, a husband, one brother, four sisters and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

TRAVIS FAMILY BIBLE

The following is taken from a typewritten copy of T. C. Carter's Family Bible owned in 1936 by Mrs. Andre Clemandot of Shannon, Mississippi. The record is found in Mississippi GRC, 1936, SI-V12, DAR Library, Washington, DC. It appears the dates were taken from two different bibles. William Travis was once the pastor of Red Banks Primitive Baptist Church near Greenville, NC. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

Lidia Travis, daughter of William Travis and Abigail Denmark his wife, was born March 29th day, 1754. Gideon Travis was born January 18th day, 1761.

Amos Travis was born June 11th day, 1763.

Dolly Travis was born July 25th, 1765, on Tuesday morning at sunrise.

Simeon Travis was born January 17th, day, 1770, on Tuesday morning two hours before day in a great snow storm.

The following was copied from the old family Bible of Simeon Travis, handed down through the family of Ezekiel Travis, son of Simeon Travis:

On fly leaf: "Simeon Travis' book, bought in Savannah, September 26, 1797."

From the family record in said Bible, the following is copied:

Simeon Travis was born January 17th day, 1770.

Nancy Travis and Jonathan Granberry were married the 16th day of November, 1815.

Mary Stafford was born was born 22nd day of May, 1774. (perhaps afterwards the wife of Simeon Travis)

Ezekiel Travis was born August the 25, 1794, on Monday night about midnight.

Rhoda Travis was born August the 20th day, 1796, on Saturday about 8 o'clock in the morning.

Ann Travis was born November the 10th day on Monday evening about dark 1800.

Elizabeth Travis was born May 22, on Monday 6 o'clock in the evening 1815 and died November 20, 1820. James Travis was born November 16, 1831. Son of Ezekiel and buried in Shady Grove Cemetery, Heidelberg, Miss.
