OBITUARY

Mr. James Manley Brooks, son of the late Jerry Brooks and Lucy Lee Brooks, was born November 6, 1927 in Chatham County, North Carolina. He departed this life on June 30th, 1995 at UNC Hospitals, Chapel Hill, N. C.

He attended Chatham County Schools as a boy. He worked as a timberman all of his life until he retired. He confessed Christ as his Savior at a young age. He was a member of the Mitchell Chapel A. M. E. Zion Church Usher Board and a faithful member of the church until his health declined.

He leaves to cherish his memory, two sisters: Hazel Burke of the home and Marianna Short of Chapel Hill, N. C.; three brothers: Thomas Brooks and George Brooks, both of Pittsboro, NC and John Brooks of Waterbury, Conn.; one aunt, Mrs. Ella Dark, one uncle, Mr. Joe Alston and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*He found the road was getting rough
The hill was hard to climb
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace be mine"
His weary days, his nights of pain
His restless hours have passed
His ever patient worn out frame
He's found sweet rest at last.*
