Remember Me

*Fill not your heart with pain and sorrow,
But remember me in every tomorrow,
Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles,
I've only gone to rest a little while,
Although my leaving causes pain and grief,
My going has eased my heart and given me relief.*

*So dry your eyes and remember
Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
Because I will remember you all
And look on you with a smile.
Understand in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you,
I can live my life In the hearts of all of you.*

Obituary

Clyde Lee Hadley was born in Alamance County to the late Minter and Roberta Cotton Hadley on August 1, 1925.

He departed this life on Wednesday, August 23, 2006 at UNC Healthcare, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

He was educated at Terrell's Chapel School, Chatham County. He was a man known by many names: "Ted", "Tad", "Pony" and "Will Do".

Clyde was employed and retired from Belk's Department Store.

He took a stand with the Pittsboro Church of God and was a supporter of Mitchell Chapel AME Zion Church.

Clyde was married to Macie Alston and to this union two children were born, Barbara and James. James preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memories a loving wife of 57 years, Macie Alston Hadley; a beloved daughter, Barbara Hadley Link (Clifton) of Chapel Hill; three sisters, Juanita Hadley Alston of Burlington, Joyce Hadley McKissick and Delois Hadley of Pittsboro, NC; three brothers, Isaiah "Pete" Hadley (Maude) of Pittsboro, Willie "Bill" Hadley (Ruth) of Graham and Edward "Toot" Hadley (Paulette) of Durham; one granddaughter, LaShonda Link Lawson (Drew) of Burlington; one grandson, Captain Eldrick Darrell Link (Amy), stationed in Tampa, FL; two lovely great-grandchildren, Ariel and Eboni Lawson; several nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
