Never failing to share the Christian Fellowship and helped in everyway to help the church.

It was her pride and joy to make home a happy place for the children and others who entered there. She tried to train her children to fear God and walk in the straight and narrow way. She was a loving wife and mother. She leaves to mourn their loss - three girls; Mrs. Virginia Thompson, Mrs. Catherine Alston, Pittsboro, N. C. and Mrs. Katie Flemings, Washington, D.
