When Life Ends

*No one knows the minutes or hour
When this earthly life will end
We only know life began but not
When it will end
What difference would it make
If we could only tell, God
Made man and then He said
What I have done, I did it well
While we are here let us not forget to be kind
And wear a smile, life is not through with us yet, some will be around for a while.
On earthly things we cannot depend, for they Will fade away. Have love and faith to bear you up, looking for a brighter day,
When life ends.
