Obituary

Evelyn Lynn Faulk, daughter of the late Wesley and Eva Farrington Lynn, was born in Chatham County on October 4, 1921.

She departed this life on Wednesday, March 16, 2011 at the Laurels of Chatham in Pittsboro.

She was a very strong willed, hard working and independent person. She was outspoken and freely expressed her opinions on many issues. She loved being outside and was often found working in the yard as long as her health allowed. Above all, she loved family.

She joined Mitchell A.M.E. Zion Chapel Church as a youth and remained a member until her death.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Clarence Faulk, who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her stepdaughter, Cynthia F. Hall.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her niece and caregiver, Evie LeVerne Lee and great nephew, Jonathan Eugene Lee of the home; one stepson, Robert Faulk of Cary; one step son-in-law, Jim Hall; one step grandson, Robert Faulk Jr. of New York, three step-granddaughters, Schwannia Hall, Iaisha Hall, and Julia Hall of South Carolina, seven step great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb.
He gently closed her loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine".*

*The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are past;
The ever patient, worn-out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.*
