The Obituary

I have fought a good fight, I have finish my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give me at that day. (2 Timothy 4: 7-8)

Wednesday, June 14, 2006, Jay Wade Alston exchanged life on earth for one of eternal rest. He was born September 8, 1913 to the late Lonnie and Addie Alston of Siler City, NC, where he spent his entire life and attended the public school. At an early age he accepted and gave his life to Christ, he joined Evans Chapel AME Zion Church where he maintained an active and faithful membership. He served as the Preacher Steward, Ground Keeper, Custodian and an honorary member of the Steward Board. As a young man Jay Wade sung with a Quartet Group.

He shared a life of commitment with his devoted wife Catherine Elizabeth Harris who preceded him in death. Together they lived a simple, yet meaningful life.

Left to cherish his memory and mourn his loss ;one brother, Dr. E. J. Alston of Siler City, NC, one sister, Mrs. Ethel Johnson of Siler City, NC, one brother-in-law, Mr. David Harris of Moncure, NC, two sister-in-laws, Mrs. Mary Harris of Moncure, NC, Mrs. Betty Edwards of Portsmouth, VA, and a number of nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.

*Sleep on, dear brother
Tis God who thought best
To take you from this world of sorrow
To a lovely place of rest.*
