Obituary

On Wednesday, August 21, 2013, Ms. Kathy L. Marsh entered into eternal rest in Bronx, NY.

Kathy was born on March 22, 1958 in New York City to Ms. Irma Marsh and Mr. Freddie Johnson. At an early age, Kathy was baptized at Springfield Baptist Church in Edgefield, SC. She attended schools in New York, graduating from Wilfred Beauty Academy in Manhattan, New York, where she obtained her cosmetology license. She worked in the cosmetology field most of her young adult years. As an adult, Kathy entered into the faith of Jehovah's Witnesses and became steadfast, endeavoring to live her life as a faithful Christian and believer in Jehovah God and HIS promise for everlasting life.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Irma Marsh; two daughters, Erica Brinson of Aiken, SC and Champagne D. Marsh of Bronx, NY.; two grandchildren, Maxwell Upson and Tiffany Upson of Aiken, SC.; three aunts, Helen Marsh of Pittsboro, NC., Francis Vittoro of Brooklyn, NY, and Mary Marsh of Bronx, NY; two uncles, Joseph Marsh of New York, NY and Jerry Marsh of Bronx, NY, and a host of cousins, friends, and people who loved and adored her.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
