“WE CAN ONLY IMAGINE

EZEKIEL 1:26-27 (LIVING BIBLE TRANSLATION )

For high in the sky above them was what looked like a throne made of beautiful blue sapphire stones, and upon it sat someone who appeared to be a man.

From his waist up, he seemed to be all glowing bronze, dazzling like fire; and from his waist down he seemed to be entirely flame, and there was a glowing halo like a rainbow all around him. That was the way the glory of the Lord appeared to me.

And when I saw it,
I fell face downward on the ground. ...

Mom, we can only imagine when you were surrounded by His glory, what did your heart feel?

Did you dance for Jesus, or in awe of Him be still?

*Did you stand in His presence,
or to your knees did you fall?*

Did you sing hallelujah?

Were you able to speak at all?

Mom, we can only imagine what you did.

We can only imagine.

*P.S. And Mom,
We Also Imagine When We See You Again.*

The Children
