Obituary

Nettie Lillian Kirby Williams was called home to be with the Lord on Saturday, March 20, 2010 at UNC Healthcare. She was born to the late Thomas Kirby and Martha Freeman Bynum Kirby on July 25, 1924 in Chatham County, North Carolina. All her siblings preceded her in death.

She was educated in Chatham County Schools. Nettie was married to the late Eddie L. Williams, Sr. She was employed at the University of North Carolina for thirty-two plus years.

Nettie loved her church and was a devoted member for more than sixty years. She enjoyed Sunday School and the fellowship with her church family. Her most recent service to her church was Missionary Emeritus and Stewardess Emeritus.

Some of the many things she enjoyed were traveling, playing bingo at Hardees in Pittsboro with the other senior citizens, visiting the sick in Hospitals, nursing homes and the community. When she couldn't go she would always call.

Nettie's passion was mowing her yard on the riding lawn mow and nurturing her azaleas and roses.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories three daughters: Florine Kirby Sanders and Evelyn Williams Riggsbee (Roland) of Durham, N.C., Martha Price Caldwell (Henry) of Raleigh, N.C.; one son, Eddie L. Williams, Jr. of the home; seven grandchildren, three great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and dear friends.

Miss Me...But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of my road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room; why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me for a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared...Miss me but let me go.*

*For life is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's Plan...a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to friends we know,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds; Miss me but let me go.*

Net's Life Instructions To Her Children

1. Don't throw away too much, someone might get burned out and need it.
2. Keep an oil lamp with oil in it just in case your lights go out...she gave all of us one.
3. Keep something up around your neck in the Winter and wear a hat.
4. Don't follow too close behind a car.
5. Keep a bottle of water in your car just in case you get strangled.
6. Never let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.
7. Don't put your pocket book on the table, you won't have any money.
8. Never let a Man or Woman know too much about you.
9. Don't put your hat on the table... its bad luck.
10. And as always, every time we would depart from her she would always say...Drive careful.

Mama We Will Never Forget You!
