Obituary

Sister Gladys Wynn was born February 13, 1914 to the late Eddie and Molly Weathers Wynn. She was peacefully called home on Saturday, March 31, 2012 after a short illness at UNC Hospital, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

She was a member of St. Andrews Christian Church where she served faithfully until her health failed. She also attended Haw River Missionary Baptist Church with her daughter and she loved the preaching and singing. Her favorite song was "When You Hear of My Homegoing, Don't Worry About Me".

She attended the Chatham County Public School systems. She was employed by private families in Chapel Hill as a domestic worker for many years; she also worked numerous years for the Lenoir Dining Hall in Chapel Hill until she retired.

Sister Gladys Wynn was preceded in death by her parents, six sisters, and one brother. She leaves to love and cherish her memories one daughter, Julie M. Robinson of the home; one sister, Ella M. Farrar of Brooklyn, New York; a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

*God saw that she was getting weak,
and a cure was not to be;
so He put His arms around her,
and whispered, "Come With Me."
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer,
and saw her fade away;*

*Although we loved her dearly,
we could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands at rest;
God broke our hearts to prove,
He only takes the best!*
