Sunset and evening star

And one clear call for me,

And may there be no mourning of the lost

When I put up my rod.

Twilight and evening bell

And after that the dark

And may there be no sadness at farewell,

When I have crossed the bar."

"Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I have crossed the bar."
