

*The Celebration of Life
In Loving Memory
of
Mr. Charles Norman Nettles*

Sunrise

November 8, 1972

Sunset

December 19, 2011

*Friday, December 23, 2011
1:30 P.M.*

*Evans Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church
241 Evans Chapel Road
Siler City, North Carolina 27344*

The Reverend Kenneth Swann, Pastor

Order of Service

The Processional.....Clergy & Family

The Hymn."Hold to God's Unchanging Hands"..Choir & Congregation

The Scriptures Readings.....Brother Eric Brooks, Sr.

The Old Testament ~ Psalm 23

The New Testament ~ St. Matthew 11:28-30

The Prayer of Comfort.....Brother Darryl Johnson

The Musical Tribute.....Manda & Timothy Nettles

The Memorial Reflections.....Jeffrey Miller (nephew)

The Musical Tribute.....Edwina Nettles

The Acknowledgements.....Tracy McLaughlin

The Reading of the Obituary.....(Read Silently)

The Musical Tribute.....Ms. Donald Knight

The Eulogy.....Reverend Kenneth Swann

The Parting View & Recessional.....Mortician in charge

Interment & Committal Rites

Evans Chapel Church Cemetery

Obituary

Charles Norman Nettles was born November 8, 1972 in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, son of Edward Lee Nettles and Mary Eve Tabor-Nettles . He was a resident of Maple Grove Healthcare & Rehabilitation Center, Greensboro, N.C. He left this earthly life on December 19, 2011.

Charles grew up in Pittsboro, NC where he went to Pittsboro Schools. He later moved to Raleigh, NC with our mom where he also attended school. Charles went to church where ever his heart led him to go.

Charles was a sweet and loving kind hearted man. He reached out to anyone that needed his help. Charles didn't have any children of his own, but he helped raise a lot of family and friends children. He spent a lot of time with them and would make them laugh, help them with their homework, clean them and feed them. He was a perfect example of a father and a uncle.

One of Charles's best qualities was cooking. He had his own recipes and he always called himself the Chef of the family. Charles also loved to do hair and sing. He would fix a woman's hair better than she could herself. He was a wonderful person. Charles loved to sing the song, "I'm not that way anymore." He had a lot of wonderful talent and he shared them with everyone that he knew and didn't know. He was a angel in disguise, so if you didn't know him, you would think other wise. Charles will be missed and always be loved. Now he's gone to a better place, he's with his God up above.

Charles was preceded in death by brother, Eddie Nettles.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, brothers, Yunce Nettles (Nia) of Raleigh, NC, Timothy Nettles (Venita) of Raleigh, NC, De Nettles of Raleigh, NC, Alexander Nettles (Ariel) of Raleigh, NC, Theodore Nettles of Angier, NC; sisters, Jacqueline Holder (Andre) of Sanford, NC and Manda Nettles (Eric) of Sanford, NC; aunts, Arzalia Taylor of Pittsboro, NC, Ruth Jones of Sanford, NC, Betty Tabon of Siler City, NC and Helen Burnette of Siler City, NC; uncle, Lacy Nettles of Pittsboro, NC; sixteen nieces & nephews, nineteen great nieces and nephews and a host of cousins and friends.

Pall Bearers

Nephews & Cousins

Floral Attendants

Nieces & Cousins

Ushers

The Evans Chapel Church Hospitality Ministry

Acknowledgments

The family of Charles Norman Nettles wishes to thank each and everyone with heartfelt gratitude for all the love shown to them during their time of bereavement. A special thank you for all acts of kindness through calls, visits, thoughts and concerns and especially all of your prayers. A special thank you to our sister-in-law, Della Nettles for all she did for the family.

~The Nettles Family~

Professional Service Entrusted To:

Knotts & Son Funeral Home

W.H. Knotts, Jr. Mgr.

Siler City, North Carolina 27344

(919) 742-4602