~ The Obituary ~

Mrs. GERTRUDE GADDY CANNADY, daughter of the late Mr. Toma Gaddy and the late Mrs. Adline Gaddy, was born in Bennettsville, South Carolina. She departed this life on Tuesday, February 20, 1996 at Durham Regional Hospital, Durham, North Carolina, after an extended illness.

She received her education in the Public School System of Laurinburg, North Carolina.

After moving to Durham, North Carolina, she joined Union Baptist Church under the pastoral charge of the late Reverend Dr. A. S. Croom. She was a faithful and loyal member until her health no longer permitted. She was a quiet Christian, one always ready to serve in any capacity.

She leaves to cherish her memory and mourn her loss, three daughters, Mrs. Blanche Dawkins and Mrs. Jeanne Debnam, both of Brooklyn, New York and Mrs. Patricia McLaurin of Durham, North Carolina; eighteen grandchildren; a number great-grandchildren; three godchildren; one niece, Miss Ernestine Smith of Brooklyn, New York and a host of other loving relatives and dear friends.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears;
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile.*

*And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same;
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.*

*Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*

BEHOLD, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard:
that went down to the skirts of his garments;
As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion; for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

JOHN 14:1-3

In the spring of 1915, Paul Ernest Cannady entered this life in the Wake County community of Jeffreys Grove. Sixty seven years later in a church meeting, he chose and read the above scripture - his final statement to this world.

A respected leader and a strong, determined soul, Paul joined the Baptist Grove Baptist Church at an early age and remained a faithful and loyal worker throughout his life. As a church deacon and leader of the Choral Group, he shared his internal joy and vast spiritual knowledge through song and, so very often, sermon. As Grand Deputy for District 12 of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of North Carolina, he led and counselled many of his brethren in the spiritual teachings he so cherished.

But now his work is complete. His heavenly mansion is ready for occupancy and now Paul Cannady has joined our Father in the place prepared especially for him. While we grieve for ourselves because we will surely miss him, we join him in his rejoicing - for surely he has reached that higher place!

CANNON

Lillian Perry Cannon, daughter of the late Lawrence Alfred and Nellie Cotten Perry, was born on August 16, 1928, in Pittsboro. She departed this life on June 6, 2001, in Durham.

Lillian grew up in Chapel Hill, where her father owned and operated Perry's Barber Shop and where her mother owned and operated a dress-making business. Lillian was called "Ladybird" by family and friends, a nickname that lasted all her life. Her parents instilled in Lillian and her brother, Alfred, strong beliefs in education, leadership and religion. At an early age, Lillian became a member of St. Joseph C.M.E. Church, and one of its dedicated organists.

Lillian earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Bennett College in 1948. She later attained a Master of Arts degree from North Carolina Central University. In addition, she earned a Supervisor and Principal Certification from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Over the course of her 34 year career in education, Lillian served as a classroom teacher, a supervisor and assistant principal. She taught third grade in Newport News, Va., for a year after graduating from college. She then returned to Chapel Hill to teach. Lillian was a dynamic teacher with much creativity, enthusiasm, and commitment. She was asked to spearhead many new programs in the newly integrated school system, such as Head Start, reading programs, and after school programs. In addition, she served as Assistant Principal of an innovative Open Classroom School, and Director of student teaching, in-service education, and summer school programs. Throughout her career, Lillian was dedicated to developing the talents of each individual student.

Lillian was a member of many organizations, including the National Education Association, N.C. Association of Classroom Teachers, Chapel Hill Association of Educators, the N.C. Association for the Education of Young Children, and the Eastern Stars. She also was politically active in the Durham Committee on the Affairs of Black People.

Lillian was united in holy matrimony to Reginald Glennis Cannon, in 1966. Her two daughters, Valerie Robinson Dinkins and Audrey Robinson Sanders, were born from her earlier marriage, to the late Ernest Pinckney Robinson. Lillian truly loved and proudly cherished the five sons of her daughters, Justin, David and Michael Dinkins, and Freager and Lance Sanders. She was a dedicated wife, mother and grandmother, who tried to instill in her family the same character, integrity and self-esteem, that her parents instilled in her.

Upon her retirement in 1983, Lillian became very active in the Durham Chapter of the Bennett College Alumnae Association, her neighborhood community association, and in political affairs. Lillian continued her dedication to Bennett College by serving as President of the Durham Chapter of the Bennett College Alumnae Association, from 1995 until 2001. She also was a Life Member of the Bennett College National Alumnae Association. In the Emorywood Community Association, Lillian served as editor of the Community Newsletter, organized the "Coffee Hour", a social group for retirees and homemakers, and organized a community youth club.

Lillian leaves to cherish her loving memories her devoted husband, Reginald Glennis Cannon; her attentive daughters, Valerie Robinson Dinkins (Benjamin A. Dinkins), of Herndon, Va., and Audrey Robinson Sanders, of Durham; five grandchildren, Justin, David, and Michael Dinkins, of Herndon, Va., and Freager and Lance Sanders, of Durham; a brother, Alfred C. Perry (Bernice L. Perry), of Raleigh; nieces; nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m. Sunday, June 10, 2001, at St. Joseph C.M.E. Church with the Rev. Dale P. Sneed officiating. Burial will follow in the Chapel Hill Cemetery. The family will receive friends tonight from 4:00 till 6:00 at Burthey Funeral Chapel.

CANNON

DURHAM - Ms. Sylvia Louise Cannon was born in Durham, North Carolina to the late Mr. John W. Cannon and Mrs. Lillie M. Cannon on December 19, 1948, and entered into her eternal rest on Sunday, February 15, 2004, at Hospice at the Meadowlands in Hillsborough, N.C.

She was a founding member of the Crown of Righteousness Community Church, Durham, N.C., having served as its first treasurer under the leadership of the Reverend Gregory F. David.

Sylvia was employed at the Duke University Health System, Nursing Education Services for 37 years. A stickler for detail, she wanted things to be as near perfect as possible and encouraged everyone around her to pursue excellence. Her co-workers in Education Services and the entire Medical Center held her in high esteem and rewarded her by attending her dutifully and unfailingly during her illness offering support for her and her family. Her love of family allowed her the ability to unselfishly care for her mother, sisters, brothers and her nieces, great-nieces and nephews. Sylvia was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, aunt and friend and was ever mindful of the welfare of others before herself. We the family and friends shall surely miss her. There will be a vacancy in our hearts that can never be filled.

She enjoyed her association with North Carolina Central University having traveled extensively as a band manager and chaperone under the leadership of Mrs. Robyn Spruill.

Her long time friend and companion, Grady McLean and her father, John W. Cannon, preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her mother, Mrs. Lillie M. Cannon; three sisters; Carol J. Waldon of Hampton, Va.; Philadelphia A. McDuffie and Johnetta L. Pemberton of Durham; two brothers, William A. McDuffie (affectionately called "Nurse Betty") and Vernon C. Cannon of Durham; seven nieces; D. She also leaves to cherish her memory three wonderful friends, Frankie J. Perfy and Elaine T. Laws of Durham, N.C. and Pam Edwards of Apex.
