"NOT ALONE"

*I cannot walk alone, dear Lord,
Without the touch of Your hand.
My legs are weak and I'm afraid
But I know You understand.*

*When I reach out to You, dear Lord,
I always find You there.
And You will renew my strength
When I come to You in prayer.*

*You've given me many blessings, Lord
Including a heart that sings.
And as I walk in Your shadow
I am safe beneath Your wings.*

*In my distress I cried, dear Lord,
And I know You heard my plea.
You said, "dear child, take My hand,"
And, "Fear not but come unto Me."*

*I know I need not fear, dear Lord,
For You call me by my name,
You'll walk with me all the way
And help me to not complain.*

OBITUARY

On Saturday afternoon, August 15, 1992 at Durham Regional Hospital, the Black Camel of Death came into our midst and sealed the lips of our loving father, brother, grandfather, uncle and friend.

God has relieved him from all the sorrows and pains of this world.

Alex Eli Bullock Sr. was born to the late Doctor and Lillie Bullock on March 14, 1927. At a young age, he joined the Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, where he was Director of the Male Chorus for many years. Eli was employed at the American Tobacco Company for 41 years. He changed his membership to Zion Temple United Church of Christ where he was Director of the Senior Choir and an active member of several other choirs until his failing health.

His fraternal affiliations included Zafa Temple #176 (past Pyro Commander), Doric Lodge #28 and Durham Consistory #218.

To his memory, he leaves his wife of several years, Debra Edgerton-Bullock and two step-sons, David and Steve Edgerton, all of Durham, N.C.

In addition, he leaves to mourn, his previous wife of 30 years, Lillie E. Bullock of Durham, N.C. to whom five children were born. Marva Bullock-Rogers, Linda Bullock-Evans, both of Durham, N.C., Alex Eli Bullock Jr. of Eden, N.C., Rosalind Bullock-Davidson and Christopher Bernard Bullock, both of Durham, N.C. One sister, Irene Bullock-Burt of Durham, N.C., one brother, Wallace Bullock of Philadelphia, Pa., ten grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, four aunts, one uncle and a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*When all seems lost, and the future dim,
The Lord will help, just turn to Him;
When dreams are gone, and you can't cope,
God's endless love will give you hope.
He knows your needs, He'll show the way
To meet your problems day by day;
His strength and help will be with you,
Just let Him in, His light shine through.
Trust in God, He's always there
To hold you in His loving care.*

Obituary

Mrs. Edith M. Williams-Bullock, daughter of the late Ralph and Aora Massey, was born November 4, 1919 in Chatham County, North Carolina. On Sunday morning, April 20th in the stillness of the early morning, she entered into a peaceful rest at her home. She was educated in Chatham County public schools and attended DeShazor's Beauty School and Shaw University Theological Seminary. She took correspondence courses from Miracle Valley Bible College and the Preministerial and Christian Workers Bible College.

Edith was a loving, caring, and affectionate wife, mother, grandmother and greatgrandmother. On February 4, 1939, she married Oscar Williams who preceded her in death, on December 9, 1982. To this union were born four children. On October 6, 1984, she married Mr. Johnnie Bullock with whom she shared a very happy life.

Edith was a faithful and devoted member of Mount Temple Holiness Church where she attended regularly until her health began to fail. Not only did she attend her membership church, but other churches where she loved to worship. She worked as a beautician; as a cafeteria worker at Hillside High School; and as a housekeeper at North Carolina Central University. She retired from North Carolina Central University in 1983.

Those who will forever cherish her memory are: her husband, Mr. Johnnie Bullock; two sons, Chester and Oscar Williams of Durham; two daughters, Mabel Thompson of Bayonne, New Jersey and Patricia Martin of Long Branch, New Jersey; two stepsons, James Atkins of Newport News, Virginia and Herbert Atkins of East Orange, New Jersey; three stepdaughters, Annie Jones of East Orange, New Jersey, Geraldine Scott and Elviolet Wilson of Durham; six sisters, Essie Mae Farrow, Hazel Holland, Annie Ruth McMillan, Eudora Jones and Scellarniez Austin, all of Chapel Hill, and Zery Mae Burnette of Durham; five brothers, Vincent Massey of Durham, Charles H. Massey of Gatesville, Texas, Fred Massey Jr., of Pittsboro, Isiah Massey of Newark, New Jersey, Thallius (Jack) Massey of Chapel Hill; one aunt, Luella Merrit of Chapel Hill; one uncle, Walter Massey of Chapel Hill; seven grandchildren; one great grandchild.

Going Home

*"Im just going home
Where there's no parting, no pain to bear,
No care-worn brow, no silvery hair.
No death to snatch our loved one from our side.
No angry waves, no sin, no treacherous tide.
I'm just going home.*

*In Heaven there'll be no toils without repay.
No building for a brief ephemeral day.
For all who reach that blissful, happy shore
Will never cry, nor sigh, nor wish for more.
I'm just going home."*

OBITUARY

SISTER ELIZABETH PINKNEY BULLOCK, daughter of the late Ruffers and Mary Pinkney was born April 24, 1912 in Calbowne County, S. C.

She departed this life April 27, 1979 at Duke Medical Center.

Mrs. Bullock along with her family came to Durham in 1924. She joined the Church at an early age and when moving to Durham, connected herself with the C.M.E. church on Matthew St.

She was married to Mr. Willie Bullock around the year of 1935, no children were born to this union.

Mrs. Bullock joined First Calvary Baptist Church and worked faithfully with the choirs, the Sunday School and was appointed teacher of the E.W. Walker Bible Class and remained in this position until her health prevented her.

There plainly in view is a spirit of fellowship and the joy she found in service to others, not slothful in business, but with enough time to give full recognition to her religious convictions. She was a good member of her church.

Survivors include her husband, Willie Bullock, one sister, Mrs. Hannah Williams of Durham, N. C.; one brother, Rev. Joseph Pinkney of Coatsville, Pa; two neices and two nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

To be able to smile in the storm
To be watchful and careful and constant in prayer
To be cautious to do no one harm.
To be useful and wanted to live every day
That whenever the bell tolls for you,
You'll be happy to say, though my my end is at hand
I've done all the good I could do.

Durham, North Carolina

Wednesday, December 9, 1987

Dr. H.E. Haggler, Pastor

Obituary

On Saturday, December 5, 1987, at 1:25 p.m., our Heavenly Father decided it was time to take Thelma McLean Bullock home for a peaceful eternal rest.

She was the daughter of the late Samuel D. McLean and the late Beatrice McLean McLean. She was born November 16, 1919 in Harnett County, Lillington, North Carolina. She later moved to Raleigh, N.C. as an infant and was educated in the Raleigh City School system.

At an early age she joined the Rush Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church in Raleigh, N.C. She later moved to Durham, N.C. where she was affiliated with St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Church. There, she sang in the choir under the direction of Mrs. Odessa Alexander; she was the past president of the Silver Leaf Club, member of the St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Bible class, Gleaners Club, and the S.P. Perry Builders Club. She also assisted her mother (Ma Bee) as class leader #14 until her health failed. She was affiliated with Annie Lee Tent #53 and Prospect Chapter #379 O.E.S.P.H.A.

She was united in Holy Matrimony with the late William Bullock on September 16, 1951. To that union they were blessed with one son.

She worked at Watts Hospital and Durham County General Hospital for 37 years and retired as an Operating Room Technician.

She leaves to mourn a son, Sergeant First Class Dewey Bullock, Fort Belvoir, Va.; one foster daughter, Debra Lowe Harper, Thailand; two grandsons and a granddaughter, Mark Bullock, Dewey Lamont Bullock, and Paige Harris, all of Durham, N.C.; two brothers, Mr. Melvin McClain, New York, New York; Mr. Theodore McClain, Durham, N.C.; two sisters, Mrs. Clara McLean Crump and Mrs. Alda McAllister McCullers, both of Raleigh, N.C.; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Hattie V. McClain; five nephews, two nieces, twelve great nieces, one great nephew and a great great niece; one aunt, Mrs. Lottie McMiller, Fayetteville, N.C., one uncle, Rev. Duncan McLean, Lillington, N.C.; a very close friend, Vance Lennon, Durham, N.C., and a host of relatives and friends.

*Your smile has gone forever
Your hands we cannot touch,
Thank God for tender memories,
Of the one we loved so much.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone:
For part of us went with you,
That day God called you home.*

*Time alone can't heal the wound,
Your passing left with us,
But thanks to God who giveth strength
To live on as we must.*

*In memory we go back
Along each road that we have trod.
And bless the years we had with you,
And leave the rest with God.*

Obituary

WILLIAM HARRISON BULLOCK, SR., died Saturday, July 29, 1989 at Duke Hospital. He was born in Helena, North Carolina, but came to Durham as a young child and lived here for the remainder of his 91 years.

He married the late Susie Thomas Bullock in 1918 and was her devoted companion until her death in 1981. He has been the loving and much loved patriarch of all of his survivors who include his daughter, Lizzie B. Harrison; his daughter-in-law, Sylvia M. Cates; his granddaughter, Patricia B. McVey; his great granddaughters, Sylvia G. Mattox and Mariel G. Christian; his great-great grandson, Kevin Christian, II, and many other relatives and friends.

"Bill" Bullock was a gentle, unassuming man with a gigantic spirit who constantly gave of himself, not only to his family and friends, but to his church and community. He was a faithful member of St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church and he served more than 40 years as the Vice Chairman of the Senior Board of Stewards (the "Preacher's Steward"). He was the leader of Class #5, a member of the Layman's Organization and a member of the Berean Sunday School Class.

He retired from Liggett and Myers Tobacco Factory where he was the Secretary-Treasurer of AFL-CIO Local #208 for over 30 years. He immediately "went to work" with the American Association of Retired Persons Chapter 189 and remained active in the organization. His entire life was one of service and responsibility, and in the hearts of those who loved him, his impact will forever be felt in their lives.

In Memoriam

God saw he was getting tired and a cure was not to be, so He put His arms around him and whispered, "Come with me." With tearful eyes we watched him suffer and saw him fade away. Although we loved him dearly, we could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, working hands were laid to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

THE REVEREND PERCY L. HIGH, Officiating

WILLIAM HENRY BULLOCK was born in Durham County July 12, 1918, and departed this life Saturday, July 16, 1977 at the VA Hospital.

He attended school in Durham County, was a member of Northeast Baptist Church during his early childhood and later joined Mount Vernon Baptist Church. His church activities included serving as a Deacon, Usher, a member of the T. L. Rowland Bible Class and other church auxiliaries. In addition, he was troop committeeman of Boy Scout Troop No. 187, Burton School and a member of the NAACP.

He was employed as a foreman for the Southern Railway Company before his retirement on disability in 1971.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Thelma M. Bullock; one son, Dewey Bullock of Fort Gordon, Georgia; one daughter-in-law, Je'neise Bullock of Fort Gordon, Georgia; five sisters, Mrs. Lorena Mason, Miss Elizabeth Bullock, Mrs. Odessa Edwards and Mrs. Louise Haines of Durham, and Mrs. Lucy Cleaven of Detroit, Michigan; two brothers, James Bullock of Durham, and Dewey Bullock of Hempstead, Long Island, New York; one aunt, Mrs. Sudie Thompson of Durham; two grandsons, Dewey Bullock, Jr., and Mark Bullock of Fort Gordon, Georgia; and a number of nieces and nephews.

"We watched you slowly fade away,
We tried so hard to make you stay
But God was watching from above,
And took you to Heaven to share His love."

Sorrowfully submitted,

The FAMILY gratefully acknowledges and deeply appreciates the many acts of kindness shown during their hour of sorrow and the beautiful flowers, the cards, telegrams and many other expressions of sympathy and concern.

A Memoriam

In memory of my loving husband, Mr. William H. Bullock who died July 16, 1977.

A love is taken. A voice we loved is still.

There is a vacancy in my home, that never can be filled.

Beyond the gate. Our loved one finds happiness and rest.

And there is comfort in the thought, that a loving God knows best.

In Appreciation

*Perhaps you sang a lovely song or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent some lovely flowers, if so we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever deed done - great or small, the family thanks you for it all.*

HOME GOING SERVICE of

Mr. Willie Fagett Bullock

1903 - 1982

First Calvary Baptist Church

Durham, North Carolina

Tuesday, May 4, 1982

2:00 P.M.

The Reverend V.S. Thompson, Pastor

Obituary

MR. WILLIE FAGETT BULLOCK of 1012 Carroll Street took his eternal flight from his home on Saturday, May 1, 1982. He was the son of the late Mathe and Fannie C. Bullock.

Willie was a native of Granville County, North Carolina. He was married to the late Elizabeth Bullock. He was a member of the First Calvary Baptist Church, a member of the Metoke Bible Class and was very active in the church until his health declined.

He is survived by three nieces, Mrs. Florence Sherald, Mrs. Hattie Hayes and The Reverend Marie Johnson of Durham, North Carolina; three nephews, The Reverend Luther Brown of Durham, NC, The Reverend James Brown of Jamaica, New York and Mr. George Brown of Henderson, NC; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Perlle Brown and Mrs. Sarah Butler of Durham, NC; four cousins, Ruth and Nelson Oliver of Nyack, NY, Mrs. Lucille Smith and Miss Ruth Allen of Durham, NC; a host of other relatives and friends.

*You cannot say, you must not say
That he is dead, he is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wondered into an unknown land.
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here
Think of him still as the same, and say
He is not dead, he is just away.*

TRIBUTE FROM WIFE AND CHILDREN

Never alone
On the loneliest day.
You're always there
To show me the way.

Whenever the darkness
Covers the light;
I go to you,
Your love shines bright,
Although they may try
To lead me astray;
Always with you
My heart will stay.

Never alone
On the loneliest night
You're always there
To show me the right.

of

MR. JOSEPH H. BULLUCK
February 21, 1971 - October 26, 1984

Tuesday, October 30, 1984 -- 1:00 P.M.

Mt. Pisgah Presbyterian Church
Park Avenue and Golfleaf Street
Rocky Mount, North Carolina

Rev. Eddie Deas, III, Pastor

OBITUARY

"For we know that if the earthy tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

II Corinthians 5:1

Mr. Joseph H. Bulluck, son of the late Stephen and Hazel Bulluck, was born on February 21, 1917, on Albemarle Avenue, Rocky Mount, N. C. After a lengthy illness, on October 26, 1984, at 5:00 P.M., he departed this life in the Nash General Hospital, Rocky Mount, NC.

Joseph was a lifelong member at the Mt. Pisgah Presbyterian United Church for 67 years, where he remained until he departed this life.

He was a member and also served as President of the Senior Choir for 20 years. In 1972 for service rendered to the Senior Choir, he was given an award for his years of faithful service. He also participated in any and all that was asked of him, which he dearly loved his church.

He was educated in the public schools in Rocky Mount, NC. Later he attended Mary Potter Academy, Oxford, NC. Along with other things studied, music was his major and first love.

Joseph was united in Holy Matrimony to Linda Brown on May 31, 1971. To this union, two children were born.

He leaves to cherish the memory of his love; his wife, Mrs. Linda B. Bulluck of the home; two daughters, Ms. Davette LaShawn Bulluck of the home; and Mrs. Olivia B. Davis of Richmond, Va.; two sons, Michael Jovan Bulluck of the home; Johnny Stephen Bulluck of Kinston, NC; a foster sister, Mrs. Willie Mae Battle of Rocky Mount, N.C., mother-in-law, Mrs. Lucinda Brown of Rocky Mount, NC; two brother-in-laws, Francis Battle, and Vernon Brown of Rocky Mount, NC; two sister-in-laws, Ms. Martha Brown and Ms. Cathy Brown of Rocky Mount, NC; three grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Come unto me and rest;
Lay down thy weary one;
Lay down thy head upon my breast;
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary and worn and sad,
I found in Him a resting place,
And he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
I am this dark world's light;
Look unto me thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright,
I look to Jesus and I found in him my star,
my sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk,
Till traveling days are done.

Processional

*Call to Worship

*Hymn No. 157 ----- "There Is A Green Hill Far Away"

CONFESSION OF SINS (in unison)

Eternal Father, guardian of our lives: we confess that we are children of dust, unworthy of your gracious care. We have not loved as we ought to love, nor have we lived as you command, and our years are soon gone. Lord God, have mercy on us. Forgive our sin and raise us to new life, so that as we live we may serve you, until, dying, we enter the joy of your presence; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.
