COTTON

Edna Bullock Cotton was born to the late Mable Johnson Bullock and Joe Bullock on January 5, 1929, in Granville County. She departed this world and went home on August 17, 2000. She received her education in the Durham city school system. She later was employed at the American Tobacco Company doing seasonal work, when she met her late husband, Paul E. Cotton Jr. After this union, she worked at the bakery in old Hayti for many years, where she had blessed us all at least once with one of her wonderful creations. Upon leaving the bakery, she was employed by Duke University in many positions at the Student/Employee Dope Shop. While still employed at Duke University, she later acquired a job in the department of pathology until retirement. Upon retirement, she shared her love and helping hand by being an active participant in the Share Program, until her illness.

She was secretary of the Missionary Committee, Ladies Auxiliary member, and member of Pastor's Aide Community at her church, Greater Walltown Holy Tabernacle.

She leaves to cherish five children, LaVonda (Poochie) Bullock, Duane V. Cotton, Keith R. Cotton, Shelia Cotton Young, and Samantha Cotton Boyd, all of Durham; five grandchildren, Rolanda Cotton, Chris Boyd, Verico Boyd, Paula Cotton, and Delicia G. Moore; one adopted grandchild, Sharonda McNeil; great-grandchildren, Raquan Cotton and Lyndsey Hannah; three sisters, Lacey Fillmore (Tacoma, Wash.), Jannie (Frank) McMillon (Merced, Calif.), and Annie Ruth (Verbe) Thomas (Washington, D.C.); two brothers-in-law, James Cotton (California) and Alexander Cotton (Washington, D.C.); goddaughters, Diane Lawrence (Durham) and Carolyn Mitchell; one aunt, Mertha Forester; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Arrangements are by Hol-loway Funeral Home.
