28 Mrs. Annie Thurmond Dixon
29 & Green, daughter of the late
30 Haywood and Maggie Hollo-
31 way Dixon, was born on Febru-32 ary 12, 1912, in Durham. She 33 departed this life October 23,
34 2001, at Duke University Medi-
35 cal Center.

36 She was educated in the Dur-
37 am Public Schools and was a 38 1932 graduate of Hillside Park
39 High School. She graduated
40 from Fayetteville State Teach-41 ers College in 1937 and 42 taught in Tarboro before decid-43 ing to embark on a career in 44 nursing. Annie prepared for 45 that career at the practical
46 nursing department of the Dur-
47 ham Industrial Education Cen-
48 ter, an affiliate of Duke Univer-
49 sity Medical Center. She re-
50 tired from Malcolm Grow
51 USAF Hospital at Andrews Air
52 Force Base, Md., after a re-
53 warding career as a pediatric
54 nurse.

55 Annie gave her life to Christ
56 at an early age and joined Mt.
57 Zion Baptist Church. Upon her 58 return to Durham in 1977, she 59 resumed her membership
60 there, now Mt. Zion Christian
61 Church. She attended church
62 and Sunday school regularly
63 until her health declined.

64 She was a member of the 65 Tuesday Bible Study Class and 66 treasurer of the Better Homes
67 and Garden Club. Although 68 she never had children of her 69 own, she was "mother" to 70 many, especially her special
71 great-great-niece Leslie
72 Camille Peacemaker and her
73 special great-great-nephew
74 Damien Lassiter.

75 Her beloved husband, Bill, 76 preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory

three nieces, Portia Harris,
Mary "Kidd" Simmons (Leslie),
and Jeanette Dixon, all of Durham; two nephews, Alpha
"Sam" Whitted (Joan) of Harrisburg, Pa., and James "Jimmy" Dixon (Helen) of Durham; five great-nephews, Charles Lassit-er Jr. of Durham, Earl Whitted (Martha) of Brooklyn, N.Y.,
and Steve Whitted, Eric Whitted, and Brent Whitted, all of Baltimore; four great-nieces,
Linda Lassiter and Evelyn Wilkerson (Russell) of Durham and Rhonda Welch and Monica Baisey, both of Baltimore; one special cousin,
Irma Jean Davis of Ft. Washington, Md.; two special friends, Alberta Harris of Durham and Ruby Holloway of Morningside, Md.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services are at 2:30 p.m. at Mt. Zion Christian Church on Sunday, and visitation will begin at 2:00 p.m.
Sunday at Mt. Zion Christian Church.

Arrangements are by Holloway Funeral Home.

Obituary

MRS. HALLIE PURYEAR CREWS, daughter of the late Press and Susie Puryear, was born August 4, 1884 in Virgilina, Virginia and departed this life, after being totally confined for four months because of illness, on Saturday, February 8th at Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Being reared in a Christian home, she sought to embrace the Christian faith and joined the St. Matthew Baptist Church in Virgilina at an early age.

She was married to Milton Crews, March 1912. With no children of their own, six children of her husband's sister were adopted and reared by them. Three survive.

Mrs. Crews moved to Wendell, N.C. and later to Fuquay Springs and to Durham, N.C. where she became a dedicated and dutiful member of the First Calvary Baptist Church for 35 years.

She served with the Senior Choir, Sunday School teacher and class member, Missionary Group as Group President, Deaconess and B.T.U. Teacher. She was dedicated to the community and worked with The Wonderful Senior Citizens Club as President; The Lyon Park Rose Garden Club, The Community Club and in all ways that were for the betterment of the community.

There plainly in view was a spirit of fellowship, and the joy she found in service to others. She was a delight to her friends, a joy to her family and a source of good will to the stranger.

Survivors: Daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Cureton and Mrs. Bessie Jones, Washington, D.C., Mrs. Irene Montague, Oxford, N.C.; nieces and nephews, Mrs. Celestine Cunningham, Mr. Walter Cozart, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Cozart, Mr. George Cozart, Durham, N.C. and other relatives and friends.

*To be able to smile in the storm
To be watchful and careful and constant in prayer,
To be cautious to do no one harm.
To be useful and wanted, to live every day.
That whenever the bell tolls for you,
You'll be happy to say, though my end is at hand
I've done all the good I could do.*

The Obituary

Cynthia Delores Criss was born September 27, 1950, in Durham NC. She was lead by angels to her eternal home on June 26, 2006; She was one of five Children born to Cora Bell Marsh Criss and the late Hubbard Criss. She received her formal education in the Durham Public Schools, graduating from Hillside High School and also attending Business College. Desiring a change in her life she migrated to New York and lived in Far Rockaway for a short period. During this time she attended Greater Refuge Temple where she was baptized in Jesus name and received the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Longing for family and friends she returned to Durham and continued working until her health failed. Tootsie adored her son and grandson, loved life, loved family and friends and "truly" loved the Lord. She continued her to worship of the Lord and fellowship at Emmanuel AME Church in Durham.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her mother Ms Cora Bell Marsh Criss, a son Alteric Criss (Dwahza), two grandsons Dezmon and Derrick of Durham NC, two sister, Sandra Criss Wiggins (Withro) Fayetteville, New York, Debra Criss McFadden (Kenneth) of Durham, Two brothers Herbert Wayne Criss (Carolyn) of Durham, (the late Mary Davis Criss) and Elder Samuel L. Criss (Sheila) of Poughquag, New York, an aunt Betty Marsh McGowan of Tulsa, Oklahoma an uncle Ostella Criss (Dorothy) of Durham, loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

As a Daughter – Tootsie took precious care of her mother for years, cooking great meals, running errands, making sure her mother had what she needed and what she wanted. The one with the green thumb, she loved to garden.

As a Sister – The endless hours of laughter-secret talk with sisters, guidance and protection that only brothers can provide. A spiritual person who loved the Lord and read her scripture daily she was deep in thought and if she couldn't express it she could find the perfect greeting card that would. Our beautiful sister with the "dimples" she was our strength.

As a Mother – she spoke with Al daily, "You take care of yourself, Dwahza and the boys and be safe out there", speaking as only a loving and proud mother could.

As a Grandmother – There was great joy when her first grandchild was born. Dezmon loved his grandmother. She always had encouraging words of wisdom for Dezmon and Derrick.

As an Aunt she would provide moral support for her nieces and nephews. She could be heard to say "Don't take no wooden nickels" and do something with your life because..."there is nothing out there in the streets."

We will miss her dimpled smile, her love her laughter, her kindness and her words of wisdom.
